Crawford, Henderson and McCubbins is the powerful ticket of the Conservative party in Rowan county.

Col. W. Ferney Green and Charles M. Cooke, Esq., are making a lively canvass in Franklin county. The Lousburg Courier is likewise doing good and effective work. Congressman Davis' canvass commences on the 6th at Rocky Ford, Franklin county.

The Old North State is going to be sweet as well as honest. Hear what the Salisbury Examiner says: "Mrs Mary Thomason and son of Franklin Township have gotten their new molasses evaporator in operation, and are now turning out a hundred gallons per day of molasses, fully equal in quality, if not superior, to the best article of New Orleans."

A Philadelphia paper says: "A party still rests upon the political field in this region, and in most others. There is a good deal of liveliness in such places as Vermont, Kentucky and Texas, where there is no earthly need of it, and there is some stir in Ohio and Indiana, where a great deal more would be excusable. But, taking the whole field from end to end, we recall no canvass for thirty years so dull as the opening of September as the present. After all, it is a thing of which we need not complain."

The Raleigh News says: "The Never Meets is the name of a secret political society formed by the Republicans, as we learn from the Wilmington Star. They are organized in violation of the statute law; and it is the duty of the grand juries to ferret them out, and have their leaders punished."

Grand jury to the front!

An intelligent gentleman of this city who takes no public part in politics has recently traversed several of the mountain counties. He stopped almost every one he thought he could gain information from and conversed with such on the State election. Many ex-deserters were going to vote for Vance. The general feeling among Republicans he met was a desire for change in the State administration. He has no doubt that thousands of Republicans will vote for Vance, Jarvis and the State ticket.

MEDICAL CONGRESS. An International Medical Congress met in Philadelphia this morning, in the University of Pennsylvania building. It will continue in session several days. Addresses will be delivered and papers read upon various medical subjects by a number of distinguished physicians, among whom are Prof. H. Lebert, of Breslau; Dr. J. M. Toner, of Washington, D. C.; Dr. L. P. Yandell, of Louisville, Ky.; Dr. J. J. Woodward, of the United States army; Dr. Christopher Johnson, of Baltimore, and others. A long list of distinguished foreigners are expected to be present. A public dinner will be given to the Congress on Thursday evening.

Spirits Turpentine.

Senator Ransom's family are stopping at the Catawba White Sulphur Springs.

A case of colored infanticide is reported from Brinkleyville, Halifax county.

The meeting of the State Dental Association of North Carolina will be at Greensboro' the 12th September, 1876. Members and delegates will pass over the Wilmington & Weldon, and W. C. & Augusta, and Carolina Central railroads, for one fare.

The State Canvass.

For the Star.

Pursuant to a call of the Executive Committee of Brown Marsh township, the citizens of said township assembled in convention at Clarkton on the 2d inst. The meeting was called to order by John H. Clark, Esq., who briefly stated its object, which was to nominate delegates to the Senatorial District Convention.

Thos. H. Graves, Esq., was elected permanent Chairman, and James P. McNeill Secretary.

The nominations were then called for, when they resulted in the following: For Senatorial Convention, Messrs. John H. Clark and M. W. Buie; for County Convention, Messrs. John N. Kelly, S. B. Clark, Jas. A. Elkins, D. T. Burney, William N. Campbell and Thos. H. Graves, in connection with which a resolution was passed authorizing each delegate should be allowed to attend the Convention.

Resolved, That this Convention recommend Mr. John H. Clark to the County Convention as a suitable person for nomination for the House of Commons; and that our delegates to the County Nominating Convention are hereby instructed to support him in said Convention.

In the meantime, amid the utmost enthusiasm, we unfurled to the breeze a banner of Reform, on which was inscribed "Tilden, Vance, Reform." This transaction was a prelude to the organization of a Tilden and Vance Club of fifty-five members, seven of whom are colored, with the following officers: President, John D. Currie, Esq.; Vice Presidents, John H. Clark, James A. Elkins and M. W. Buie; Corresponding Secretary, Thos. H. Graves; Recording Secretary, Jas. P. McNeill; Treasurer, Jas. A. Kelly. A working committee consisting of nine was appointed by the chair.

On motion, the time of meeting of the Club be held on the 1st and 3d Saturdays of each month, at 2 o'clock P. M.

On motion, the Corresponding Secretary be instructed to invite Col. A. M. Waddell and Jno. H. Currie, Esq., of Wilmington, and other speakers to address the Club on the 3d Saturday in September.

Resolved, That this Convention tender our sincere thanks to Mr. Macks for his able and interesting address.

Thos. H. Graves, Chm'n. Jas. P. McNeill, Sec'y.

Rutherford Politician.

We had the pleasure of meeting in this city, Thursday, Col. Frank Cox, of Rutherford, who conversed to us frankly and freely on the politics of Rutherford county. He is a gentleman in whose judgment of the political affairs in that section we have much confidence, for he is a close observer, and is well acquainted with the people. "The Vindicator," he said, "publishes a statement to the effect that twenty-five white Republicans of the county have declared their intention to vote for Vance." "That is the truth," he added, "for I not only know of twenty-five who will vote for Vance, but nearly as many more besides. The county was nearly equally divided at the last election, and a change of thirty or forty votes will give the county to us. We will turn that many, if not more, and I am satisfied that the county will go Conservative for the first time since the war." He added in conclusion that Vance was by far the strongest man with the mountain people that we could possibly have nominated, for he will not only poll every Democrat and some Republican, but will bring out a number of men who have never voted with any regularity since the war.

Radicals Thinning Out in the West. [Hickory Press.] A responsible gentleman, now at this place, informs us that he left Asheville about two weeks ago and traveled through Rutherford county, Cleveland, Lincoln, Mecklenburg, Iredell, and now in Catawba, and in this whole trip he had not heard a single man say a word in any way from which he could judge that he was a Republican. He stopped at hotels, traveled on railroads and was in public crowds every day, but up to this time had heard no word or saw any demonstration whatever to designate the follower of Hayes or Seale, but at every place great enthusiasm among Democrats was manifested. Our Eastern friends can begin rejoicing at once, for the Rads of the West are hiding out.

Democrats Have a Hope of Carrying Granville. [Raleigh News.] We learn with surprise and true gratification that our friends in Granville are at work with full purpose and confident expectation of carrying the county in the next election. In announcing this as their purpose they evidently mean what they say, and manifest their purpose by the work which they are doing. The county has never been so thoroughly organized by the Democrats before, and they will soon put out a county ticket which they expect to elect. The negroes and the better class of white Republicans are disgusted with the thieving and mismanagement of their party in their own county, and are generally indifferent, while some will vote with the Democrats in putting honest and capable men in office. On the other hand, the prominent Radicals are quarreling among themselves, and, all in all, the situation is such that our friends assert confidently that they will carry the county.

General Notes. Shelby Banner: A preacher asked Vance why he did not speak at Lenoir. The reply was: My dear sir, I came not to call the righteous but sinners to repentance.

Shelby Banner: A prominent citizen from Mitchell, and a former door keeper in the Legislature, says the people are enthusiastic for Vance. Vance's majority in Mitchell county will approximate 400 votes.

Hon. A. S. Merrimon and Gen. W. R. Cox will address the people of Chatham at Pitsboro next Thursday, the 7th inst.

Raleigh News: The prospects of a Democratic increase over the Merrimon vote in the northeast are bright, and brightening every day.

A grand barbecue and meeting will be held at Haywood, Chatham county, on the third Saturday of the present month, when Gen. Cox is expected to be present and address the assembly.

Judge Fowle continues his canvass in the West.

Hyman denies the charge that he overdraw his pay while in Congress. He says he can prove his innocence by Hon. J. J. Davis, who went with him to the Sergeant at Arms and heard that officer's contradiction of the rumor.

SAVANNAH.

The Yellow Fever—Number of Interments Yesterday—Sanitary condition of the City—A Statement from Father Prendergast.

[Savannah News, Saturday.] Compared with the four previous days, the city yesterday was quiet and free from excitement, our citizens who remain having bravely and energetically set to work to meet the trouble. The physicians appeared to be more hopeful, and several with whom we conversed stated that in their practice thus far the disease readily yielded to prompt treatment. They were of the opinion, also, that the fever was

ASSUMING A MILD TYPE.

Inquiries still continue to pour in from our sister cities, and from Savannahians away from home, expressing great anxiety and keen sympathy. The trains yesterday carried off quite a number of citizens, but not nearly so many as on Wednesday and Thursday. In short, the excitement seems almost wholly to have subsided, and there is a general disposition among all classes who remain to face the calamity hopefully, and aid each other and the authorities in taking such measures as will prevent the spread of the disease. The members of under the able and energetic direction of Capt. John F. Wheaton, were industriously at work during the day, relieving sickness and distress wherever found. The committees visited all parts of the city, and wherever assistance was needed in the way of food, medical aid or nurses, the members were authorized to give them.

RECAPITULATION.

The foregoing reports show a falling off in the number of deaths as compared with Thursday, there being only ten interments yesterday, of which seven were cases of yellow fever. On Thursday there were nine interments from yellow fever. The general sanitary condition of the city and suburbs is good. Yesterday Mayor Anderson, General Anderson, Chief of Police, and Dr. McFarland, the Health Officer, devoted the greater part of the day to looking after this matter in person, thoroughly examining the western part of the city.

STATEMENT FROM FATHER PRENDERGAST.

Rev. C. C. Prendergast, the well-known Catholic priest, says: "I am happy to state that we have had only three calls since 12 o'clock M. (September 1st) among 5,000 Catholics in Cathedral and St. Patrick's parishes, and there have been only twenty-three deaths (five adults in all) in eleven weeks in both these parishes among 8,000 Catholics, composing, confessedly, the great bulk of our population therein."

This shows a decidedly better state of affairs than has been currently reported, and that it is accurate those who know Father Prendergast will not doubt.

THE CONSOLIDATED REPORT.

We publish below, by authority of His Honor, the Mayor, the consolidated report of cases and deaths by yellow fever since it originated. The most of these cases, it will be remembered, occurred in the eastern suburbs, a large majority being children, and it will be seen by to-day's mortality record that there was not an adult yellow fever interment yesterday in either cemetery. The following is Dr. McFarland's report:

SAVANNAH, Sept. 1, 8 p. m.

Hon. E. C. Anderson, Mayor City of Savannah.

DEAR SIR—I submit the following consolidated report of cases and deaths occurring from the commencement of the disease (21st August) to date:

FROM AUGUST 21ST TO AUGUST 30TH.

Cases.....188

Deaths.....29

FROM AUGUST 30TH TO DATE.

New cases.....68

Deaths.....11

I suggest that the above be published over my signature, and that after this the new cases and deaths be published daily. I will furnish the report.

Very respectfully, etc., J. T. McFARLAND, Health Officer.

OUR COMMERCE.

There will probably be no quarantine put upon our steamers, as both railroads, the Central and the Gulf, have their wharves far removed from the city, and goods can be shipped to the interior and cotton returned without ever passing through the city, thus avoiding any possible danger of infection. We trust with the cool change last night that our trouble will soon be over, and our business and social relations with other places restored.

STREET CARS.

The street cars stopped running six o'clock last evening, much to the annoyance of citizens living in the southern part of the city.

BY TELEGRAPH.

SUNDAY'S TELEGRAM.

GOV. SEYMOUR.

He positively declines the gubernatorial nomination. New York, Sept. 3.

The following dispatch was received yesterday: To the Editor of the World—Sir: I shall not accept the nomination. My letter of declination is now in the hands of Mr. Magover, chairman of the Democratic Committee. (Signed) HORATIO SEYMOUR. Utica, N. Y., Sept. 2.

PHILADELPHIA.

Funeral of the Dead Prize-Fighter—Arrest of Weeden and his Trainer.

PHILADELPHIA, September 3. The funeral of Koofter, alias Walker, the prize-fighter, took place this afternoon from his late residence, and the neighborhood was thronged with people of every grade. The body was viewed by several thousand persons.

Before removing the remains from the house, the services were conducted by Rev. W. B. Egan, of the P. E. Church, who took occasion to say, in a short address after the regular service, that the prize ring does not owe its permanency and its brutalizing tendencies to such men as the deceased, but rather to those who, from secure positions, use these victims as instruments whereby to further their own ends. The entire route of the funeral procession from the house to the cemetery, and the streets in the vicinity of the latter, were crowded with men, women and children.

Weeden and his trainer, Goodwin, were brought here from New York to-day.

SELECTED SPARKS.

The two story brick structure in Hoboken, known as Butch's Hotel, was burned this morning. It was unoccupied. Loss $30,000.

Frank Taylor, while resisting arrest at Port Jervis, N. Y., on Saturday, was shot by the officer and probably fatally wounded.

The steam saw mill of Hoover, Harris & Co., near Bigler, Pa., with a quantity of sawed lumber, and two dwelling houses, were destroyed by fire last night. Loss $25,000.

MONDAY'S TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK.

The Democratic State Committee in consultation with a New State Convention to be called.

The World says Mr. Magone left Utica for Albany Saturday afternoon, and spent yesterday in consultation with Governor Tilden and the members of the State Committee there, including all of its officers and several of its members. The meeting of the Executive Committee of the State Committee will meet at its new headquarters in the Metropolitan hotel in this city next Thursday. It is not probable that a conference of the whole committee may be summoned at an earlier date than the day mentioned.

Dispatches from various parts of the State leave little or no doubt that the committee will call the State Convention, to meet at once, probably at Utica or Syracuse.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

Reports from the Seat of War—Turkish Attack on Alexinzat—Desperate Battle on Friday—Servians Driven to their Fortified Positions, &c.

LONDON, Sept. 4. A Belgrade dispatch to the Standard says simultaneously with fighting on the left bank of the Morava, the Turkish forces attacked Alexinzat from the right bank of the river. The bombardment was so effective that extensive fires broke out in the town. It is announced that Alexinzat has been evacuated, but the fortress is still held by ten battalions, and is defended by powerful artillery.

The Government publishes no news, but confirms the statement that the Turks are marching on Kurzevat.

Another dispatch to the Standard, from Alexinzat, states that the Circassians entered three Servian redoubts northwest of Alexinzat. Mines filled with dynamite were discovered. The Turks have formed a base for operations against two villages which protect Alexinzat on the west.

A Belgrade telegram says the Russians are determined to form a special corps. The valor of the Russian officers in the battle of Friday is commented on. It is reported that some were wounded by men under the command of Kruszatz.

A Reuter's telegram from Semla reports that the battle on Friday, on the left bank of the Morava, resulted disastrously to the Servians. The Turks, after beating the right wing of the Servians, made a flank movement in the direction of Kruszatz, their object being to reach Diligard. They have thus turned the Servian position at Alexinzat, and the entire military position is changed.

The Turks have already reached the heights of Juszevat, half way between Diligard and Kruszatz. They are advancing along the road which skirts the left bank of the Morava, crosses the river at Praskovatz, and joins the road between Alexinzat and Belgrade at Jakakovatz, a short distance from Diligard.

Gen. Tchernayeff is now marching with the bulk of his army toward Kruszatz. He has telegraphed to Belgrade for reinforcements, and the Servian Minister of War has ordered Gen. Antich to march to Kruszatz with twelve hundred men.

DELEGATE, Sunday evening, Sept. 3.

It is officially announced that the rumor that the Turks have taken Alexinzat is false. They hold no positions on the right bank of the Morava.

Official dispatches say the entire Turkish army attacked the Servian right wing Friday. The battle lasted until 9 o'clock at night. The Servians maintained their positions but the Turks finally retook more numerous the Servian forces retreated within their fortified positions at Alexinzat.
