good to utter slanders against the prominent men of the other party. Truth is safest as it is most manly. But the enemy have persistently sought since the beginning of the campaign to injure Gov. Tilden's private character by circulating false but injurious reports. One of these vile slanders has been exploded by the Albany Argus. It now seems as if Gov. Hayes were guilty of the very thing the Radicals charge upon Gov. Tilden. Read the following from the Toledo telegraphic correspondence of the Cincinnati Enquirer:

"The Northern Ohio Democrat of to-morrow morning will contain a full exhibit of the false and fraudulent tax returns of personal property for the past three years, made by Rutherford B. Hayes to the tax assessors of the first ward of the town of Fremont. The personal property, other than non-taxable, under the will of Sardis Birchard at $32,000, of which R. B. Hayes is devisee, is returned for taxation, under the oath of R. B. Hayes, at $3,500. Three watches, the aggregate of which is $800, are sworn to be worth $150 in 1875, while in 1874 one of the watches is sworn to be worth $280. Four carriages are returned as being worth $300 in 1874, while the maker of one of the carriages states that Mr. Hayes paid him in that year $500 for a single carriage. One horse, valued at $500, is returned as worth but $100. In possession of a piano, he has failed to make a return thereof, as the law of Ohio requires. With over $100,000 worth of personal property, Governor Hayes has returned, under oath, for the past three years, less than $6,000 worth for taxation.

"INSTRUCTIONS.

The ukase of the mellifluous Taft sent out by General Sherman to the United States Marshals has been limited, restricted, modified by subsequent "instructions." Gen. Sherman says that "officers commanding "troops summoned to aid Marshals "and Sheriffs must judge for them-"selves whether the service is lawful "or necessary or compatible with their "ordinary military duties. They "must limit action absolutely to "proper aid in the execution of the "lawful precept exhibited by the "Marshal or Sheriff. If time per-"mits, every demand should be for-"warded to the President for his or-"ders, and in all cases the highest "officer whose orders can be given in "time to meet the emergency will "alone assume the responsibility of "action."

So, some discretion is left with the military officer. He need not be the janizary chief of the Tartar Sultans of the Republican party. He may have the option of obeying or declining to obey the firmans of these noble sovereigns. As the traditions of the army are honorable, and the epaulettes of the officers bright and untarnished, we presume nothing like injustice will be permitted knowingly by the commanders in the Southern States and their subordi-

BILLY SMITH ON MOUNTAINEER-

William, who wants to be Licutenant Governor, has just returned from a canvass of the transmontane counties with his competitor, Capt. Jarvis. The Observer says he remarked when he got back as far as Charlotte: "Well, d-d if it ain't the roughest country I ever saw. I was never there before, and God knows I wouldn't cross the Blue Ridge again if a man would give me two thousand dollars in cash. I was mistaken in the character of the people, for I thought before my visit that there were a great many ignorant, floating voters in that section, but I left them just as I found them, and there is no political change either way. They not only regard with suspicion everything you tell them, but they are fixed in their views, and are as stub-The Charlotte bar have paid the born as the very devil." On being ment you ever saw. It loooked like those mountaineers were about to run wild over Jarvis. They met him nearly everywhere with bands and carriages, and would escort him like The riot reported in our telegraph- he was king, and cussed if they didn't "The affair was the result of the and offer to take him to their homes, me. William is evidently disgusted, injured in the head.

Thomas appears to be ditto. The We think it does neither side any people haven't responded to their piping. The profanity of the Radical candidates is getting to be perfectly frightful as the campaign deepens. May we not have a suicide or two before the 7th of November, the time originally set for the Eastern disembowelment which Settle and Smith will persist in incurring, and which the people will perform with their little ballots? It hath that seeming just at this time, the Radical "Ithuriels" to the contrary notwithstanding.

- If a small pearl is cut in two it presents a series of layers like an onion, and in the centre is often a foreign substance. - M. Gambetta is going to London to study the manner in which the income-tax system is carried out. - Tycho Brahe, the famous Danish astronomer, has just been honored with a statute-monument at Copenhagen.

- Miss Stag was married at Hornellsville, recently. The bridegroom had engraved on the wedding ring: "Name ever deer to me." The wedding was by no means a "stag party."

- A Laurens Democrat was married to a woman last week that had buried five husbands. He had courted her before her first marriage and had waited patiently for her five husbands to die before he again contessed his love. Rutherfordton Vindicator: Judge Fowle was to-day (Monday) greeted by an audience of about 600 people at this place, and in an address of 21 hours commanded their undivided attention in one of the most effective campaign speeches ever delivered in this place. His arguments were unanswerable, and the position he assumed that the Republican party is the Disunion party, backed by his own well known Union record, his appeals for Constitutional Government, Reconciliation and true Reform, struck a chord in the hearts of his hearers which will result in drawing over to the Democratic ranks many who have heretofore doubted and many who have been deceived into an active opposition to the efforts of the true Union people of the land. The Yellow Fever-Number of Deaths and New Cases-Proffers of Assistance-Mortality Among the Ne-

[Savannah News, Thursday.] Our mortuary report to-day shows the interments in the city yesterday to have been fifteen, of which twelve were yellow fever cases. This is the largest number of interments of fever cases reported since the epidemic commenced, and the death rate, unless the weather changes, will probably be the same for some days to

It will be seen that the colored people who have heretofore been thought to be exempt from yellow fever, are becoming victims to the scourge, three interments being reported among them. We would suggest to the gentlemen composing the committees of the Benevolent Association, and of the authorities, that particular attention should be given to those quarters of the city occupied by negroes.

People Will Talk. [Sentinel.]

The good a Governor does lives after him. The charges the Radical press have made against Vance are driven indoors as fast as the people can open their mouths. In Raleigh the old people are sitting around their doors, talking of Vance, what he did when Governor, and the many good deeds they remember of him. "I know when he gave old aunt old Baptist was heard to say: "Well, Abby House every cent he had," says

"Vance was a poor man when he was Governor-he was as poor as any of us," said Mr. Enniss vesterday. "I know that during the war a party of us took up a subscription for him and his family, and put it in the bank at Salisbury. We knew he was suffering on his salary. But the Yankee cavalry got that money."

"The morning he left here," says another, he shook hands with Alick, the old negro he liked so, and as he mounted his horse he put a five dollar bill in his hand."

"Vance," said Sheriff Wiseman, of Mitchell county, as he met him atter the war, and he seized his hand with the grip of a brother, "Vance, you fed our wives and children while we were in the army; you kept the poor people in provisions, and now you are poor yourself, and I hear you have no money. I have some, and I want you to take it, and pay it back | and Bashi Bazouks. When the Turks when you are able."

Vance thanked him and refused. But the sheriff pressed it on him with nearly tears in his eyes, for his generous heart was really sincere in its offer-he knew what Vance had done. And Vance accepted the loan and paid it back to Sheriff Watson.

"I remember three old ladies," said Major Peck, the other day, "they came here during the war after cotton-cards, and couldn't get any from the quartermaster, and they were going up the street regretting it, when I said to them, 'Let's go and see Gov. Vance.' And Vance sat right down and wrote them an order for the cards. It tickled 'em powerful."

And such is the verdict of the public in favor of Zeb Vance when Governor. The Radical press had as well try to drown the roar of the ocean as to smother the feeling for

AFTERNOON REPORTS.

CHARLESTON.

The Bloters Dispersed-The City Still Excited-Stock of Revolvers Exhausted-Death of one of the Wounded-Combahee Strikers Dispersed. CHARLESTON, Sept. 7-Midnight.

The city has been in a ferment all day. Last night Capt. Hendrick, with a squad of thirty police, succeeded, by persistent efforts, in dispersing the rioters. At noon to-day it was impossible to purchase a revolver, the stock being exhausted. The colored Democrats, assured of white protection, held another meeting to-night. No attempt was made to disturb the meeting, the rioters confining their operations to roaming the streets in turbulent crowds, and firing pistols and muskets. There were no serious collisions to-night, though armed crowds of whites and blacks are gathered at various points. The city continues excited.

THE INDIAN CAMPAIGN.

The March of Gen. Terry's Command-The Campaign a Failure-No Indians to be Found, &c.

NEW YORK, September 8. A dispatch dated Terry's camp, on Deer reek, dated August 30, via Bismarck, D. :, September 6th, 1976, says:

Gen. Terry's command, after crossing the Yellowstone on the afternoon of the 27th, made a short halt on the north bank, and then marched in a northerly direction about six miles by the light of the moon, making Dry Camp. About six o'clock the next morning the march was resumed. The general direction of the day's march was northwesterly. On the morning of the 28th the column marched toward the north, then turned east and finally southeast, making some seventeen and a half miles. Fo far very little indication of the presence of Indians has been found, but it was hoped that on account of the presence of buffalo we were about to fall in with the Indians. The expedition to the north bank of the Yellowstone, in so far as the finding of the hostile Indians is concerned, has proved a Trails have been found of small hunting parties, but apparently no large bands of Idians have crossed the river, unless they have crossed at a point further east. There s a strong probability that no Indians will be met with during the present campaign.

It will be imperatively necessary for the troops, who have been designated to remain in cantonment during the winter, to set to work preparing winter quarters, as the severity of the winter months renders living under canvas absolutely impossible.

POREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

The Situation Around Alexinatz-Horrible Atrocities by the Turks-Precarious Position of the Servians, LONDON, Sept. 8.

The Standard's Belgrade special states that the Turks occupied the left bank of the Morava on Monday. Alexinatz is en-tirely deserted. The Turks committed great atrocities during and after Friday's battle. There are stories of rapes, and that the Russians were tied to trees and roasted. The Servians at Delegrad are in no condition to take the field. There is no force between the Turks and Belgrade. The Turks fire on ambulances as soon as the red cross is seen. A dispatch from Delegrad, on the 14th, says Alexinatz is held by 15,000 Servians. The Servian position is precarious, but the exact position of affairs is unknown. The Times' gorrespondent confirms the stories of outrages committed on women and wounded Servians by the Circussians reach Krusevatz the situation will be frightful. They will command four roads leading to every part of Servia, and the country could be overrun in a few days.

J. & W. ENGLISH

Breech - Loading Guns.

We have for many years, with great success, made a specialty of building Fine Breech Loading Guns to the special instructions of individual sportemen Making for a large and select trade enables us to give greater care and attention to the fitting, shouting and general finish of our Guns than can be given to those Guns bought by the retail trade from manufacturers who produce for a general market. We solic t the patronage of those sportsmen who are judges of Fine Guns and who know the importance of having their Guns made to fit them.

We are prepared to accept orders to build Guns of sny weight, gauge, proportion or style.
