He Addresses the People of Wilming-108.

Last night there was a grand rally of the Democratic voters of this city. It had already been announced that the distinguished gentleman who represents this district so ably in the United States House of Representatives, would be at his home and would address his fellow-citizens. By 8 o'clock a large crowd had assembled in which he delivered one of the most glorifront of the Dawson Bank on Front street. Col. Waddell soon appeared, escorted by the Tilden and Vance Club, the Cornet best political speech ever made here. Concert Club Band discoursing animating music. The great flag was run up on the lofty pole that had been erected, and soon its huge folds were floating in the breeze. Mr. Waddell spoke from the portico in front of the Bank. pressions of an unfaithful administration, and who were resolutely bent upon a change in the administrators of affairs. Col. Waddell's speech was calm, thoughtful, argumentative, bristling with facts and figures, occasionally eloquent, and now and then humorous. It was a statesmallke presentation of the great questions in which the American people are now interested, and a vigorous, truth. ful and thorough arraignment of Grant and his associates. He did not attempt an appeal to the passions, but he arraigned the administration before the forum of reason and logic, and convicted it of the grossest

6ov. Holden vs. Rev. Mr. Balley. The Raleigh News of yesterday contains a three column "card" from Governor Holden in reply to Rev. C.T. Bailey. We have not room for it, owing to the lateness of the hour at which it is received. We copy from the Sentinel the main points of an interview held with Gov. Holden by one of its reporters. In reply to the question, "What are the main points," in his forthcoming card, he said :

"Well, sir, the first point is in regard to my having acted under the advice of the National Republican Executive Committee, in my military Rovement in '70 in this State. I deny that, and state so far from it, that I had no correspondence or intercourse with any committee of any kind, and that when I went to Washington 1st of July, 1870, my mind was then made up, and my purpose on that trip was to consult the President, our two Senators and members of Congress. I then admit and claim I had appealed for the help to the President, members of Congress and ther officials, military and civil, to ail me i i dispersing the ku-klux in North Carolina, and that I had their concurrence and advice and help; but no help or advice from any political committee.

"The next point," said Mr. Holden, is that Bailey says I admitted to him that the Republicans had much to do with the crime of killing Stebhens," "llow do you answer that?"

I state that this statement on the part of Mr. Bailey, whether as a fact rom me, or as interence from what I said, is unfounded; that I could not have done so, because I have always,
