THE STIUATION.

In South Carolina the Democrats have left the House because 100 of hamberlain's constables had gather ed for their ejectment. To save bloodshed and gain a peaceful triumph the Democratic House retired from the Capitol and met again in Carolina Hall. This movement was expected in Columbia. White and black bullies had gathered in that city to aid, if necessary, in ejecting the people's representatives. It is said notorious cut-throats from Charleston had been imported to take a hand in the despotic, and, if necessary, bloody work. It was understood in Columbia on Sunday night that serious work was to follow. But fortunately, thus far, the fears have not been realized, and the pacific course of the Democrats has prevented a collision. The situation is critical, and much anxiety prevails. Nothing additional from either misiana or Florida.
