

WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 17, 1877

GOVERNOR VANCE'S MESSAGE.

It is needless to invite the attention of our readers to the first Message of the Governor. It will be read by every one who takes an interest in the affairs of the State...

WE PRAISED IN VAIN.

On January 10th, the Star in commending the President for his refusal to sustain Kellogg with his army, said, "we have all learnt that in regard to the President's action there is no telling 'what a day may bring forth.'"

POLITICAL POINTS.

Grant, the Mexican usurper, has taken Diaz for his model. He is destroying all the civil tribunals and setting up the rule of the sword.

PERSONAL.

Col. Herbert B. Sanford, the British commissioner to the Centennial Exhibition, arrived in London on Christmas day.

GOV. VANCE'S MESSAGE.

I desire to call your attention to another matter of importance to the welfare of a large portion of our people somewhat similar to the foregoing. It is known that great success has, within the last four years, been achieved in various parts of the world in the artificial propagation of fish.

Should you establish a Department of Agriculture, I recommend that the establishment of an institution for this purpose be made a part of the duty of whoever shall have the department in charge...

The Geological Survey, which has done so much towards making known to strangers and to our own people the nature and resources of our own State, I recommend shall be connected with the University.

In regard to the great subject of education I earnestly desire to engage your attention in behalf of the seceding "Memorial of the Central N. C. Teachers' Association," which is herewith transmitted.

Accompanying this message I also send a report from the Board of Public Charities. The indefatigable Chairman, Dr. C. T. Murphy, has gathered up a considerable amount of information, as set forth in this and preceding reports...

Col. Herbert B. Sanford, the British commissioner to the Centennial Exhibition, arrived in London on Christmas day. The British government immediately afterwards, congratulating him upon his success at Philadelphia, offered him the position of second officer of the South Kensington Museum...

Pauline Lucille Western, the actress, who died in the Pierpont House, Brooklyn, of pneumonia, was born in New Orleans in 1840. Her mother married a theatrical manager named England, who, observing the talent of Lucille and her sister Helen, put them on the stage in 1858.

Luck seems to have settled on some of the clerks in the Quartermaster General's office at Washington, lately, one of whom, Mr. John B. Tanner, having recently received a legacy by the will of an aunt proposes to resign; another, Mrs. Granger, (widow of the late General George Granger, United States Army), getting $10,000 by Vanderbilts will, and another, $1,200 clerkship to accept a $3,000 position in the secret service bureau of the Treasury Department.

ent to be most effective agents in raising up a body of teachers, who infuse new life and vigor into the public schools. There is urgent need for one at least in North Carolina.

The Constitution of the State, in section 14, article IX, requires the General Assembly, as soon as practicable, to establish and maintain, in connection with the University, a department of Normal Instruction. I respectfully submit that it is now practicable to make a beginning in carrying out this provision of the Constitution. There cannot possibly be found in this State competent teachers for our public schools. The records of the county examiners show that most of the applicants for the post of imparting knowledge to others are themselves deficient in the simplest elements of spelling, reading, arithmetic and writing. The University is now in successful operation. If the General Assembly should appropriate an amount sufficient to establish one professorship for the purpose of instructing in the theory and art of teaching, I am persuaded the best results would follow. A school of a similar character should also be established for the education of colored teachers, the want of which is more deeply felt by the black race than the white.

I transmit herewith the first biennial report of the Commissioners of the Western Insane Asylum. It contains an interesting account of the location and partial erection of the institution, which is destined to be another monument to the humanity and liberality of our people.

In conclusion, gentlemen, I commend the wants and wishes of our entire people to your wisdom and patriotism. I think the sunlight is breaking through the darkness. Should our federal troubles be happily and peaceably adjusted, we might reasonably anticipate a steady improvement in our condition.

Your fellow-citizen, Z. B. VANCE. January 13, 1877.

THE OBSERVER NEEDS NO FORMAL STATEMENT OF PRINTING, or elaborate recital of what it will do, or attempts to do, in the future than is afforded by its past conduct. It can offer faithfully for the advancement of the Democratic party, and for the good of the State, which it believes to be one and inseparable. To this end it is desired at once a largely increased circulation for THE OBSERVER, and the whole-some literature it is giving to the people of North Carolina. Once in a household, THE OBSERVER becomes a fixture, and it needs no more to make its way into every nook and corner of the State. That it may be so seen, and speedily, its Editors offer the following PREMIUMS FOR 1877: FOR THE OBSERVER, DAILY: To each and every person who sends us $3 for one year's subscription to THE OBSERVER, Daily, by mail, postpaid, a copy of one of the following novels of Sir Walter Scott, beautifully printed, elegantly bound, and profusely illustrated: 1.
