

NO RAILROADS WILL TEMPT THE SOUTH.

We heard the other day from a gentleman just from Washington that the Republicans were talking of Hayes' policy to offer some leading Southern men...

AN HONEST STATEMENT.

The Philadelphia Record, a Republican paper, in review of the decision of the Commission in the Louisiana case, has the grace and candor to say:

THE ENGLISH QUARTERLIES.

That man is fortunate who has the ability to subscribe to the Leonard Scott reprints of the four great English Quarterly Reviews...

PERSONAL.

Fechter's daughter has made her debut on the lyric stage of Paris. The New York World says that the gentleman from Maine is small fry.

THE NATIONAL BULL-DOZER.

The country—the best part of the American people, is extremely indignant and angry over the great Radical swindle, and Joe Bradley and the other knaves...

POLITICAL POINTS.

Already the corruptionists at Washington raised the cry, "Break the solid South!"

Her voice has been hushed, villains have presumed to speak for her, and the Electoral Commission accepts the spurious as the genuine article.

The conspirators think the wrath of the American people will not last four years. They think that their lawlessness will be forgotten in twelve months.

TWINKLINGS.

"Adam was the first ticket-of-leave man," says the New York Herald.

It is not proper to pick your teeth with a jackknife unless you are the agricultural editor of a city paper and want to assert your rights.

Atlanta Constitution: "A Savannah man has invented a glass eye which will not when the voice of the mother-in-law is heard in the entry way."

Good authority says that who ever eats oranges is healthy. Louisiana alone raised 30,000,000 last year, and yet her returns are not wholesome.

Incident of the great Moody and Sankey revival in Boston: "Dear Charles: Will meet you at the appointed place and time. HATTIE."

Then Charley sends the following message to his wife: "Don't wait dinner for me. I attended the prayer-meeting again to-day. Little do you realize, Sarah, what a work the Lord is doing for me." Brooklyn Argus.

Charleson News and Courier: A young lady bet a young man a kiss that Tilden would be elected—he to pay it "Tilden way," and she to pay it "the other way." On the morning of the 8th of November he called and paid the debt; on the 9th he called and took it back. That evening she paid the debt. Next morning he took it back and he paid; then she paid and so they have been kept busy by the contradictory dispatches ever since, and both declare their willingness and ability to hold out until Congress decides the question. They don't like the new compromise bill.

Room for the Leper.

The miserable travesty upon honesty has been played out, and the figures eight and seven stand as an emblem by word and reproach to the American name.

And these eight are representatives of the party that would "make treason odious." These are among the mightiest of the exponents of the great principles of Republicanism.

THE EXTRAORDINARY RESTORATIVE VIRTUES OF THESE WATERS, with the wonderful cures they have wrought in various forms of Chronic Diseases are attested by physicians of the highest eminence.

Sale of Real Estate under Mortgages.

BY VIRTUE OF THE SEVERAL AND RESPECTIVE PROVISIONS OF MORTGAGES REFERRED TO, made by Thomas B. Carr as his wife, Caroline B. Carr, the Lot of Land and Premises conveyed by said instrument, situate in the City of Wilmington, Delaware...

The Democratic members of the Commission.

The Democratic members of the Commission are all upright gentlemen, who mean to do only what is right, but by remaining on the Commission, or seeming to lend their countenance and credit to eight dishonest and partial judges...

Dignity of the Supreme Court.

A mortgagee with a power of sale is a trustee; in the first place, to secure the payment of the debt secured by the mortgage; and in the second place for the mortgagor, as to the excess.

From the Raleigh News.]

A mortgagee with a power of sale is a trustee; in the first place, to secure the payment of the debt secured by the mortgage; and in the second place for the mortgagor, as to the excess.
