

WILMINGTON, N. C .: WEDNESDAT MORNING, Feb. 28, 1877 LET NO FLATTERY OR PROMISE

SEDUCE THE SOUTH.

As far as we have observed it the sentiment of the Southern Democratic press is in full accord with the utterances of the STAR of February 20th. No representative Southern man can take office under His Fraudulency without detriment to his own charaoter. The man who sits in the Cabinet of a President who went into office by uncompounded villainy, trickery and fraud-who owes his place to the unvarnished rascality of Wells and three other fellows of corresponding genius for plots and meanness, and to the subsequent indorsement and confirmation of Joe Bradley, Edmands, Hoar and the remainder of the infamous eight, can not but feel self-abased, self-degraded, and he must expect others to estimate him at the same rate. In law the conscious participant in stolen goods is regarded as a confederate in crime and held as equally guilty.

If Southern Democrats could so far forget themselves as to take office under Haves it would be good grounds for suspicion. Pretending to fight under Democratic banners, they desert to the enemy as soon as those banners have been betrayed, and become officers in the very army they have ostensibly opposed. If it is right to suspect men of any country who desert their colors in war and go over to the enemy, and to brand them as traitors, why is it not right to denounce those who for the rewards offered desert principle and associates and faiths and kindred and country, and identify themselves with enemies, usurpers and plunderers? The man who serves the President of Wells, Chamberlain, Stearns, Cameron, Bradley and Company will not be respected by men of Southern feeling or nativity who are animated and controlled by high principles of honor and integrity.

ous and distracting councils must come sooner or later, of which the poet Lucan has given a strong and faithful picture, when he represents ; 1875 line just been made to the Parthat there is no common faith among lament. The whole number reported those who are clamorous for or at the close of 1875 was 396, and of sharers in the plunder and the power, when each man becomes jealous and envious of his co-laborers and associates-Nulla fides regni sociis, omnisque potestas impatiens consortis

Just as soon as all the offices are filled, the country will have hundreds of thousands of "disinterested patriots" who will be swift to speak loans and other investments, £786,slightingly of His Fraudulency, and 587; balance (deficient) in thirty soto even refer to the "very questionable manner of his election." Prudent men, especially in the South and among Democrats, however hungry for office and thoroughly impecunious, will stand from under.

About twenty Radicals from the South recently met in Washington with a view of strengthening Hayes in the South. It was agreed "that in the distribution of offices in the South it should be recommended to Gov. Hayes to select men in whom the people could confide as identified with them, and as men of character and honesty.

"It was further determined that, as one essential requirement to the building up of an administration party in the South composed in part of the property and intelligence of that section, that the carpet-baggers must be ignored."

We simply reproduce this as one of the "straws" now floating on political waters.

The principles of Washington are not the principles of these times. Villainy now flaunts its robes where virtue stands abashed. Times have changed, and with the change have come fraud, peculation, villainy. The only coin now current is so enstamped.

"Pull down the monument, then, and let

"Pull down the monument, then, and let us hear no more talk of rebuilding it—that is, of rebuilding it in honor of George Wash-ington. Pile up the stones again, if the city must have a shaft, and pile them high. Pile them up till the apex can be seen for miles in any direction. At the top of all put a colossal statue of Joe Bradley, the Presi-dent-maker, with a bandage over one eye and his hand stretched out toward the White House"

Without in the least degree indorsing or countenancing the reprehensible sentiments of Piatt in the editorial that caused his prosecution

-sentiments that are alike uncalled for and immoral, we do not approve of the course of his enemies. It is an effort to interfere with and, indeed, to suppress, the free utterances of a free press. It is an imitation of the bad example of monarchical governments in their censorship of the press. From the days of John Milton, when he wrote his magnificent Areopagitica, until now, there has been a contest going on between the rights of a free press and the tyrants who would throttle it. The ples of sedition cannot hold before a free and intelligent American jury. The well known case of John Wilkes vindicated free speech and free press

No one can hope now for as speedy and assured a return of business prosperity under the present condition of affairs as was expected some time ago, or as would have taken place if right and justice had prevailed in Washington. There must be a certain revival of business activity, or financial ruin will inevi tably ensue. The New York Journal of Commerce takes this view.

which may be the correct one. It

"The bitterness of disappointment will in England.

says:

at months milourn

the following :

White House,"

The English building societies have proved not only useful but profitable. a statement of the operations during these only 261 gave a full return of their transactions. The aggregates were as follows: Liabilities on uncompleted shares, £6,257,410; completed shares, £1,279,650; to depositors and other creditors, £4,025,275; balance of unappropriated profit in 215 societies, £337,445. Total, £12,- 625,306. Assets, £11,793,926; cieties, £45,298.

One Douglass Walker, of Brookyn, emulous of the fame of Fred May, undertook to horse whip a man in the presence of some females. The result was Walker is now wearing cropped hair and a dress highly decorated with stripes, and this he must continue to do for sixty days. He was taken charge of by the law and sent to the public boarding house kept at Sing-Sing. He will emerge from that delectable retreat a sodder but a wiser man. Sing-Sing is a good training school for men with too much muscle, and who have an unconquerable pugnacity.

Whenever you see a telegraphic dispatch from Washington headed-"Democrats defiant, and Morton wearing a long face," you may look out in the course of the next twelve hours to hear that there is no hope for Tilden, and another State or two has been counted for Hayes. Just before the Florida count was known, dispatches were sent stating that Garfield and Morton seemed depressed, and the Democrats were confident, &c. Budy Shi in Invitt

Rumors of all morts fill the air. In Washington speculation and fears are rife. No prophet appears able to POLITICAL POINTS.

"Hayes is declared elected, because why? Because the Commission re-fused to inquire whether he was elected or not."-Ph.ladelphia Times.

Dan W. Voorhees put the case well when he said: "The Republican party, having stolen everything else, now steal the Presidency.'

About a month ago the Republicans wanted to turn Mr. Lamar out of the Senate for "bull-dozing" in Mississippi, which causes the Springfield Republican to wonder that some of them should now be begging him to take a place in Hayes' Cab-

- Look out in the next few days for a pistol-shot at Columbus. The Repub licans will probably hire a "sound Republi can" to fire a blank cartridge at Hayes, and raise a hue and cry of "Democratic assassination." It's an old game of the Jacobins -Courier-Journal.

George Bancroft went in to hear the arguments before the Commission on Tuesday, and fell asleep while Senator Howe was defending the Louisiana Returning Board, whereupon Randolph neatly re-marked to a companion: "See that; history sleeps while fiction speaks."—Philadelphia

* * "Uneasy lies the head That sleeps on fraud. Better, Ruth. Had you been born Jo Bradley, And with your stain-ed ermine dragged Your spots and blotches through the world. God help you, Ruth., for yours will be A seat, and not a crown, of thorns. [Courier-Journal.

PERSONAL.

"Sir James Gordon Bennett" what the Paris papers call him now.

- Dr. Demas Barnes is said to have sunk $400,000 in the Brooklyn Argus. Worse to take than his own bitters.

Christine Nilsson has sent to Wegio, the town in Sweden wherein she born, three magnificent chandeliers for the front of the church.

- It was a lucky thing for Washington that he was born in the Old Style time, for he never would have stood the Old Style we are living under now.

Notice.

AVING QUALIFIED AS ADMINISTRATRID

This 7th day of February, 1877. RLIZABETH J. MARTIN,

Administratrix with the will annexed

- Captain Cameron, the African explorer, is described as a handsome and energetic gentleman, who looks much like the Emperor of Brazil, although he is

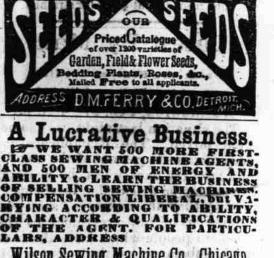

- It pays to be President of a life insurance company in New York. One company pays the officer $15,000 salary, two others $12,000 apiece, and hardly any less than $10,000.

- The wealthy young Bostonian, Mr. Sears, was charged, it is said, $50,000 by his lawyers for their services in obtaining an interpretation of his father's will. The bill was compromised by the payment of $25,000.

Sale of Real Estate under Mortgages, BY VIRTUE OF AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH with the will annexed on the estate of Silas N. Martin, before the Probate Court of New Hanover County, on the 5th day of February, 1877, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of the said Silas N. Martin to make immediate pay-ment and settlement, or the claim will be put in suit for collection; and all persons having claims against said estate will present them for payment on or be-fore the 7th day of February, 1878, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. This 7th day of February, 1877. BY VIRTUE OF AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH the provisions of the several and respective in dentures of mortgage hereinafter referred to, made by Thomas B. Carr and his wife Caroline N. Carr, the Lot of Land and Premises conveyed by said in dentures of merugage, and hereinafter described will be sold by public auction, for cash, on SATUE DAY, 17TH DAY OF MARCH, 1877, at 12 o'clock M. at the Court Honse, in the City of Wilmington DAY, 17TH DAY OF MARCH, 1877, at 12 o'clock, M., at the Court House, in the City of Wilmington in the County of New Hanover, and State of North Carolina. The two first of said indentares of mort-gage being made to DuBrutz Catlar, Michael Cronly and Robert E. Calder, as Trustees of "The Wil-mington Building Association," and the real estate thereby conveyed transferred and conveyed by said Trustees to said Association, by deed dated the 8th day of April, 1871, and duly registered in the office of the Register of the County of New Hasover, in Book B.B.B., at page 490; and the remaining ten of said indentures of mortgage being made directly to said Association, viz : The first of said Indentures of mortgage bearing date the 24th of August, 1869, and registered in the office aforesaid in Book W.W. at page 697; the second dated the 28th of August, 1869, and registered as aforesaid in Book W.W.

C. F. DAVIS. Land Com. U. P. R. R. OMAHA, NEB.

AND

Wilson Sewing Machine Co., Chicago. & 829 Broadway, New York, or New Orle

Hayes has been described by his admirers as a negative character. He has none of Grant's characteristicsunvielding will, bull-headedness. stubbornness. He will be as clay in the hands of the Radical potters. He will be fashioned into just such shapes as his manipulators may prefer or elect. Already, messages have been sent to him to come to Washington "to talk over his Cabinet;" and John Sherman, one of the most contemptible of men, has been to Ohio to impress upon him what the conspirators require of him.

We have no doubt now that Hayes will be compelled by Morton, Chandler, and the remainder of Grant's band to drive from office Hampton and Nicholls. He will be compelled to do this, and we put no confidence in any statements that are given out for the purpose of creating a different impression, and of lulling the South to sleep. We will be only too glad to find ourselves disappointed in these fears, but we cannot expect anything good .or just from a pliant and ambitious fellow of medi ocre parts and small principles.

We hope no Southern man who has proper self-respect, and who is respected by his fellow-men, will bow the knee to the great Radical Baal, or to the golden image of the Returning Board that has been recently set up. The South must get in the main what it is entitled to, for even the conspirators cannot prevent that and as to the offices that it would be well for the country if honest and faithful men filled, we must try to get along until 1880, when the spontaneous uprising of the whele people will be such as was never dreamt of in Radical philosophy, and when the betrayers of their trasts will be driven pell-mell from the places they have befouled and disgraced.

Hayes has cunning at least, and cunning men will be around him. He knows that he could give some

The men who are in place have n tell what an hour will bring forth. knowledge of the principles that con-We find the following telegraphed trolled the illustrious father of his from Atlanta to the Savannah News. country, who would have rather died A Georgia Radical in Washington than lied, and whose honor was more has telegraphed that "every thing is precious to him than life. But he is lovely" and Hayes is elected. He conforgotten, superceded, despised, and cludes: the Constitution is dishonored, igthe address line of the second second

"This settles the question of the new nored, disregarded. It is in view of Hayes' party in the South, and that Hill, having out-generaled Gordon and Lamar, will control the Georgia patronage." such a condition of things that the able and biting New York Sun utters

> The general tax on $100 of property is 14% cents. Amount raised, $258,717.36. Special tax for the asylums on $100 of property is 9 cents, raising $126,845.64. Special tax for the penitentiary on $100 of property is 6 cents, raising $85,563.71 -total $470,126.71. It is proposed to make some changes.

Goldsmith Maid is still the fastest trotting animal ever known. We notice that she is not allowed to enter the race to come off in New York this spring for a $4,000 purse. The terms as announced are-"free to all, barring Goldsmith Maid."

Digests of Supreme Court Decisions, Rendered at January Term, 1877. [Raleigh News.]

Although a statute may be unconstitutional in part and constitutional in part, yet where only one object is aimed at and the same is unconstitutional and all the provisions are conributary to it, and would not have been enacted but for the main object, the whole is void. Therefore, where the plaintiff acted as registrar of votes preliminary to an election held under chapter 43, Private Laws 1874-75, "An act to amend the chapter of the city of Wilmington," which act is unconstitutional, he cannot recover the value of his services in an action against the city. Darby vs. City of Wilmington.

Where A furnished supplies to a cropper of B, upon a promise by B to pay for the same, and afterwards B took into possession cotton belong-ing to the cropper, and sufficient to pay A's account and thereafter pro-mised to pay the same: Held, that B is hable to A upon the latter promise. Threadgill vs. McLendon. In such case the latter promise was not made by B as surety for the cropper, but for himself, because the fund out of which the debt should be paid is in his hands. Ibid.

Where by agreement between them, A bought the land of B at a sale, and the title in trust to secure the amount of his bid, also the amount due to his (A's) wards: Held, that

- Two men shot and killed each other near Okalona, Miss., the other day, one of them leaving a wife and fifteen children, the other a wife and four children. Two funerals, two widows and ninetcen orphans by the mere touch of a couple of triggers. TWINKLINGS. - Owing to hard times the En glish army is being rapidly recruited. - It may be well to say that "the signs" of business improve, but that the business itself does not improve.-N. Y. Herald. - Be true as the star of the North; Be sweet as the dove, and so forth; Be tireless as No. 2 Fabers,

Be jabers. - A New York lawyer says that no man can make a will which can stand an attack from another lawyer and two or three dissatisfied heirs. Let's all die bankrupt.

- The famous Gainsborough portrait, stolen on the 26th of May last, has not been recovered. The reward of £1,000 is still standing in the Times' advertising columns

- The poem of "John Gilpin's Ride," by Cowper, has eighty-three per cent. of its words in one syllable, while Shakespeare has eighty-one and Dickens seventy-five.

- A Hoboken clergyman recently preached on "Gospel Gunnery." He took his text from the "e-pistols."-Boston Post. A singular Minister, that. But we suppose his aim is good.

- Petitions from twenty-three States asking for a constitutional amendment granting the right of suffrage to women have been presented in Congress, and only 4,622 women and 3,416 men have signed these petitions.

- An English factory inspector says that "cleaning machinery in motion continues to lead to very numerous and painful mutilations." In the half year end-ing April, 1876, 126 persons were killed in England by factory accidents, 481 amputa-tions were necessary, there were 260 frac-inges of limbs or house and 2109 others in tures of limbs or bones, and 2,193 other in-juries—in all 2,497 males and 769 females.

PALMETTO LEAVES.

- On Tuesday night, Philip L. Smith, of Marlboro' county, in an alterca-tion with his nephew, received several stabs, from which it is feared he will die.

- More than one thousand taxpayers in Fairfield have paid their quota to Governor Hampton's special agent. The amount collected up to 4 o'clock P. M. on Friday is $3,551 71.

- Barney Fauntleroy, of Greenwood, was sent to the Abbeville jail on Wednesday last for burglary—breaking in-to a store and stealing bacon. He was a manager of election last fall under the appointment of ex-Governor Chamberlain.

- The Winyah Society, now 120 years old, educates twelve children at an annual expense of $600, and as its resources are limited to the money derived from a few pay scholars attending its school, and the annual fees of forty members, the ladies of Georgetown are about to hold a fair to aid it in its good work.

- Joshua Bellamy, colored, who waylaid and killed Amos M. Williams in

GEO. MYERS.

11 and 18 South Front St.

feb 25-tf

Terms and prices made known on application and memorandum books and certificates furnished Great inducements offered to parties wantin large lots. VICK & MEBANE.

Pure Bred Setter Pups For Sale, SIRED BY THE RECENTLY IMPORTED LA-VERACE Dog "DON," who is own brother to the world-renowned Field-Trial winners, "Countess" "Nelly," and "Prince." So far as figures have been made public, this is the highest priced dog, with the single exception of Mr. Burges's "Rob Roy," ever imported. These cidebrated door were bred from

dec 22-D&Wit

FINE

