Eulogies and Resolutions in Senate o in Respect to Memory of late Speakor Korr-Calm State of Feeling-Hayes'- southern Policy Foreshadowed-He Will Leave for Washington on Thursday-The Commis-

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. The Senate reassembled at 10 o'clock, and in accordance with the notice given yesterday, Mr. McDonald called up House resolutions in respect to the memory of late Speaker Kerr, and appropriate culogies were delivered by Messra. McDonald, Wallace, Wright, Bayard, Booth and Morton, after which the resolutions were unanimous.

ly agreed to.

The House is in committee on the Sundry Civil Apprepriation bill.

There is no manifestation of feeling this morning. The ultra-Republicans claim that the lull is produced by the protests from commercial centres against a defeat of the count, on account of the trade disturbances which would follow, while the ultra-Conservatives attribute it to high assurances that the South will be treated fairly. The letter telegraphed yesterday cannot be located, but it exists, and partly accounts for the progress which has been allowed to be made in the count. The Herald's Washington special says regard-

"There is a letter in town from Governor Hayes himself, which approves in the most explicit and direct manner of the speech of Mr. Foster, last week, in which he expressed his confident belief that Hayes' Southern policy would be such as the people of Louisiana and South Carolina desired."

The same special says: "General P. A.

The same special says: "General P. A. Sherldan has gone to Columbus to inform Gov. Hayes of the exact condition of things in Louisiana. He is an old acquaintance of Gov. Hayes, and is an opponent of Packard."

A dispatch from Columbus says Gover-nor Hayes will probably leave for Wash-ington on Thursday, via Pittsburg and Harrisburg.

In the Commission four hours a side is allowed, but it is thought hardly half of that time will be used. It is expected that the Commission will take the case by three

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

The Ecclesiastical Policy of the Hely see-Russia Will Demobilize her Army when Peace is Signed between the Porte and Servia-Patti Denies the Alleged Elopement, &c. LONDON, Feb. 27.

The Times' dispatch from Rome says it stated that the Cardinals submitted to the Pope, on Friday, favorable replies to some questions which he proposed to them, with the object of giving the ecclesiastical poli-cy of the Holy See a more efficacious and energetic direction towards a natural solution of the various questions of the day.

The exact nature of the new policy will be proclaimed on the occasion of the Pope's especial jubillee. Some German Bishops recently asked whether they were at liberty to perform acts in execution of laws other than those against the church, if invited to do so by the civil authorities. The reply from the Vatican was that they might, a subjects of the Emperor, do so in all matters not contrary to religion and the rights of the church." of the church.'

The Times' second edition publishes a dispatch from its St. Petersburg correspondent saying, "An extraordinary Council of Ministers was held here yesterday, at which the Czar presided. Gen. Ignatieff was pre-sent. I learn, on the best authority, that it was decided to demobilize the Russian army when peace is signed between the Porte and Servia and Montenegro.

PESTH, Feb. 27. The reappointment of the Tisza minis istry, which resigned on account of the dif-ferences between Austria and Prussia on the bank question, is gazetted.

BUCHAREST, Feb. 27. In the Senate to day the President of the Council, in reply to an interpellation, refused to produce documents relative to Roumania's neutrality in the event of war between Turkey and Russia.

Paris, Feb. 27. A letter from Adelina Patti is published, declaring that the statements in the Figure, about her eloping with the tenor Nicolini, are wholly inaccurate.

Sundry civil Appropriation Bill-Passage in the House of a Bill to Provide for Vacancies in the Offices of President and Vice President-Referred by the Senate to Committee on Privileges-Previsions of the Bill -Failure of a Resolution Recognizing the Democratic Governments of Louisiana and South Carolina-Preparing for the Inauguration Ball, &c., &c.

The Hope or Fear of a Count Being Prevented Abandoned-Facts and Speculations as to the Incoming Administration-Arrival of New Senstors in Anticipation of an Extra Session-Appropriation for Ante-Bellum Mail Contractors-The Commission Adjourned to Friday, &c. WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.

The impression still prevails among the employes of the House that a count will be finally prevented, but in more thoughtful circles the hope or fear of it is abandoned Senator Sherman, Stanley Matthews, and Congressman Charles Foster seem most near Gov. Hayes. Bob Ingersoll is here, and is much sought and courted by Southern place seekers. Ingersoll assumes a quiet, chivalrous ground, and does not see how in honor Hayes can abandon Packard and Chamberlain. Foster is known to be in favor of allow-ing the Southern people to manage their own affairs. Stanley Matthews spoke quite freely in the same direction, and Senator Sherman has taken pains to let it be known that he is not trying to shape the Southern policy of Mr. Hayes.

The Cabinet had a very long session.

Some effort was made to change the Southern situation, in what direction is not known, but the President was immovable. All the Secretaries have placed their resignations in the hands of the President. In the Commission secret session on the South Corolina case commenced at two o'clock. They adjourned at 7 o'clock, after having voted eight to seven to count the State for Hayes and Wheeler.

Gen. John T. Morgan, of Ala.; Ex-Gov.
A. H. Garland, of Ark.; Ex-Gov. Isham G.
Harris, of Tenn., and Ex-Gov. Richard F.
Coke, of Texas, U. S. Senators elect from their respective States, are in the city, in anticipation of an extraoresession of the Senate for executive business.

ate for executive business.

Hon. B. H. Hill and Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar, of Mississippi, United States Senators elect from their respective States, being members of the House, are also here. The Southern Conservatives regard that the accession of these gentlemen to the Senate will add largely to the ability from the Southern States in that body.

By Blount and Atkins' efforts to-day in getting $275,000 to pay Southern ante bellum mail contractors, appropriated by the Sunmail contractors, appropriated by the Sundry Civil bill, Georgia will be benefited about $80,000. Blount made the point that the law forbidding the payment was in the nature of a bill of attainder and clearly unconstitutional.

The Commission has adjourned to Friday, unless called together by the presiding er. It has been ascertained that there are no further double returns. The following nominations were sent to the Senate to-day: John Tyler, Jr., post-master at Jacksonville, Florida; John H. Askew, postmaster at Baltimore; R. J. Caldwell, receiver of public money at Monroe, Louisiana, and John Farnam at Gainesville, Florida. Mr. Kennon has been confirmed as postmaster at Columbus, Mississippi.

The Tilda Norris Habeas Corpus Case -Supreme Court Room Crowded-Deep and Subdued Excitement. COLUMBIA, Feb. 27.

The Supreme Court room is densely packed this morning in anticipation of a decision in the Tilda Norris habeas corpus case. At 11 o'clock Justices Willard and Wright, the latter colored, came in, and the former announced that the Court would take a recess until 1 P. M. for consultation. The crowd then dispersed. A strong guard of negro special constables is sta-tioned across the hall in front of the Justices' consulting room. A deep and subdued excitement prevails. LATER.

COLUMBIA, Feb. 27. The Supreme Court was thronged again at 1 o'clock, awaiting a decision. The justices met in the consulting room and remained there one hour, when they appeared on the bench and announced that they had been unable to agree on a decision, but might probably in a few days. The docket was then called and the crowd

The only deviations from a party vote were in the fact that Mr. Purman, of Florida, voted with the Democrats, and that thirteen Democrats, including Hancock of Texas, and Knott of Kentucky, voted with the Republicans. The bill provides that in case of such vacancy in the Presidential office it shall be filled by the President of the Senate, if there be one, or by the Speaker of the House, if there be one, or by the Speaker of the House, if there be one, or by the Speaker of the House, if there be one, or by the Speaker of the House, if there be one, or by the Speaker of the House, if there be one, or by the Speaker of the House, if there be one, or by the Speaker of the House, if there be one, or by the Speaker of the House, if there be one, or by the Speaker of the House, if there be one, or by the Speaker of the House, if there be one, or by the Speaker of the House, if there be one, or by the Secretary of State in office at the time the vacancy happens.
