

BISHOP HOOD ON COLONIZATION.

Bishop Hood, the anti-colonialist, addressed a large audience in the court house on Monday night of last week. After a few introductory remarks, he pitched into the theme of his lecture, which was Liberia—its climate and its people.

We are really glad to read the above. We are pleased to see so influential a colored man taking such a judicious view of the follies of colonization. Bishop Hood gives his colored friends a good example as well as good advice.

Garfield sues the Cleveland Plaindealer because that paper stated that the Congressional bull-dozer attended a negro ball whilst he was dancing attendance to the two whites and two negroes of the Louisiana Returning Board.

Our legislators are timid. They fear to tax dogs and protect sheep. We notice that a bill has been introduced into the Missouri Legislature to tax them as follows:

The hard times tell most in the use of luxuries. In 1876 the importation of sugar in the United States was about 100,000 tons less than in 1875.

It is not a matter of surprise that the colored people should desire colonization, or indeed any change, if they are thus deceived as to the views and policy of the whites.

Nearly all of the coffee imported formerly came to New York. Last year from Brazil 1,490,662 bags were imported.

We assert it as a fact that can be clearly established, that wherever the States in the South have been under the control of Radicalism there has been neither prosperity nor contentment among the great mass of the colored people.

The name of the author of the note was omitted yesterday. It was Hon. Randolph Tucker, of Virginia, doubtless the most highly educated man in the House from the South.

THE NEW YORK WORLD.

We have never taken any stock in this paper. It has a bad record, and is edited by men who lack principle and ballast.

It is not the first time that the World has scolded the South, talking to Southern Democrats as if they were timid children, horn-book in hand.

The South has been true as steel to the National Democracy! Wade Hampton, free from the encumbrance of the Tilden electoral ticket, would have been elected Governor of South Carolina by ten thousand majority.

Grant, in his last Sunday talk, confesses that his policy has been wrong. He has come to the conclusion that it is not the right policy to uphold State Governments by bayonets when the people of those States are utterly opposed to their rulers.

When we reflect that only one-half of the net receipts can be applied to the construction, it is of the greatest importance that they should be made as large as possible.

With these views before him, it behooves the Governor to see that a most economical management of the road is instituted and maintained.

The Movement on the South. [Washington Correspondence Baltimore Sun, 23d.] MAKING POLITICS.

The movement to build up a white Republican party in the South, to which allusion has been made several times in this correspondence, is ascertained to-day as being vigorously prosecuted by some of the leading men of the Republican party.

The U. S. Senate is endeavoring to give Hayes $50,000 a year. The House had previously fixed Tilden's salary at $25,000.

After the formation of the Electoral Commission, and its partisan decision in the Florida case, it of course was generally assumed and conceded that Hayes would get it.

The Louisianians are in earnest. They have borne long and suffered much. The camel's back is about broken and will not bear another feather.

Much has been said and considerable has been written about this railroad—a railway in which the State is so largely interested.

Another very prominent Democratic Senator was approached by several Republican Senators, who said to him that Hayes desired to extend the olive branch to the South.

The commissioners report the gross receipts from earnings at $81,589.30; the total expenditures for operating at $61,419.16; leaving the net receipts at $20,170.14.

From freights, $40,156.70; passengers, $32,059.98; mails, $8,515.63; passengers and mails, $38,575.66.

received from those who, it is believed, are fully authorized to speak. But it is not likely such a one can be found.

SENATOR NORWOOD'S VIEWS. The name of Senator Norwood, of Georgia, has been mentioned in this connection by some of the Southern Republicans.

Moral insanity and an affix have had their day. There arises above the legal horizon a new star that is to shine through the prison bars and brighten the path of the criminal.

There is something really touching in the deep solitude manifested by some of the Radical organs.

Grace Greenwood says she feels somehow like a mother to the Republican party. Such may be her feelings, but unless she has been at one time wedded to the devil, it is hardly probable she is the mother she feels herself to be.

Let us, therefore, spurn their offers as we would the worst of Cain; shun their embraces as we would a pestilence. The considerations they hold out to us are the thirty pieces of silver that tempted Judas—a bribe for the betrayal of the persecuted unto worse persecution.

Pierce, one of the Florida electors, was a convicted felon, and the laws of the State forbade his appointment. Yet the members of the Supreme Court of the United States, in the Electoral Commission, decided not to go behind that fellow's record.

The Courier-Journal says: Suppose Hayes is borne on the black wings of frauds into the White House. Twenty-one States have Democratic Governors, not including South Carolina and Louisiana.

He had lived ill that knows not how to die well. A new Methodist church in Boston is to be the largest belonging to that denomination in America, seating 5,000 persons.

Tom Meazles, a colored man, was recently sent to jail in Chicago. He'll be glad if he attempts to break out. The Chinese in San Francisco have bought land for a permanent burial ground, which indicates that they intend to give up returning their dead to China.

She said it was a very bright idea. He said he knew a brighter one, and when she asked him what it was he answered, "Your eye, dear!"

Madam, did you ever lift a dog by the tail? "Why no, you cruel thing!" "I didn't know, because I just saw you carry your little child across a gutter by one arm."

The cold in Russia has been more severe this winter than for 135 years. In St. Petersburg, on December 30, the thermometer fell to 33 degrees (Reaumur) below zero.

OFFICE OF THE REGISTER AND CLERK OF THE COURTS. A clerk of the Superior Court, appointed to sell real estate in a proceeding for partition, acts in his official capacity, even though he is not designated as clerk in the order of appointment.

Willing Accomplish Wheeler is suggested as the real name of the Fraudulent Vice President.
