From Washington. WASHINGTON, March 4. An exciting scene occurred in the hall of the House, just after the Democratic caucus had adjourned, which, under other circumstances, might have led to tragic results. Aggravated by some conservative remarks which Mr. Lamar had made, Mr. Douglas, of Virginia, went to where Mr. Lamar was sitting in his seat, and, shaking his fist at him, denounced him as a traitor to his party, who had sold out to secure a title to his seat in the Senate. Mr. Lamar, observing the condition in which Mr. Douglas was, paid no attention to him, merely remarking that he was not in a condition to be responsible for his words. Friends interfered, and Mr. Douglas was led away. But he soon found his way back and again commenced abusing Mr. Lamar. The latter gentleman became exasperated and was about to attack him, when Mr. Caulfield and others persuaded him to retire from the hall, and the matter ended there at least for the present. No further trouble is likely to grow out of the occurrence. A New-Paper Correspondent Struck by a Member of the House. [Special to N. Y. Herald.] WASHINGTON, March 3. Quite an excitement was produced this afternoon through short duration, owing to a difficulty between Representative Glover and a newspaper correspondent, named Myers, growing out of an imputed publication in a Baltimore paper. Mr. Glover struck the correspondent in the face in the room of the Sergeant-at-Arms. Mr. Myers then entered the hall of the House in search of Brooke Mackall, who is serving the Real Estate Pool Committee in the capacity of Deputy Sergeant-at-Arms, and who had given Mr. Glover information concerning Mr. Myers. A collision took place, and blows were exchanged, when the parties were separated. A large crowd soon gathered at the door near where the disturbance took place, but the excitement soon subsided. From Columbia. [Special to the Charleston Journal of Commerce.] COLUMBIA, March 4. There is no perceptible change in the precarious condition of Chief Justice Moses. He is still grievously ill and his life hangs in the balance. [Special to the Charleston News and Courier.] COLUMBIA, March 4. The report of Grant's removal of the status quo in New Orleans was accompanied with a rumor of similar action here in favor of Hampton. Personal investigation showed the troops still in the State House, and on inquiry, Col. Black said he knew nothing of such an order. Chamberlain's constabulary seem to be exercising redoubled vigilance, and debar all entrance to the State House except on business, by Chamberlain's order, as they say. Whipper, with Wright in charge, took the train at Hopkins this morning, having left Columbia in a carriage last night. His presence is that he is fleeing from Democratic vengeance. His flight has set the whole town in a broad grin. From New Orleans. [Special to Charleston Journal of Commerce.] NEW ORLEANS, March 4. Although constraining his orders to virtually carry out the status quo, Gen. Angur deems it incumbent upon him to interfere for the prevention of any conflict, even if it should be incident to the legal enforcement of the mandates of a Court. Packard feels as confident of recognition as ever. Additional barricading of the State-house went on all last night, and a large number of pine knots, together with several barrels of coal oil, were also taken into the building to guard against the cutting off of the gas in case of Nicholls' forces investing the building. Two companies of United States troops arrived yesterday and are now quartered in the rear of the State House. The State House garrison now numbers five hundred men, white and black, one-half of whom are constantly on guard. It is firmly believed among them that the United States troops will act in concert with them for defence, in case any hostile demonstration should be made upon them. General Augur last evening said he had received no additional orders, and that his construction of the situation remained unaltered. Governor Nicholls is still confined to his room. His physicians consider him out of danger. The following are the very tame head-lines in the Herald announcing the Returning Board's rascally decision: "After the Decision—How It Was Received in Different Parts of the Country—Few Demonstrations of Joy—New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and Baltimore Silent." The Legislature. [Raleigh Observer's Report Condensed.] SENATE. SATURDAY, March 3. SPECIAL ORDER. Bill to amend the charter of the town of Fayetteville was taken up, and passed its several readings. Democratic Meeting at the Court House Last Night.

Pursuant to the notice published in our last, a meeting of Democratic voters of this city was held at the Court House last night. On motion Col. W. L. Smith was called to the chair and Mr. S. H. Fishback requested to act as Secretary. Mr. C. H. Robinson, Chairman of the City Executive Committee, stated the object of the meeting, after which the following resolution was offered by S. W. Vick, Esq., and, after considerable discussion, adopted: Resolved, That the Democratic party of the city of Wilmington desire the establishment of a Criminal Court for the county of New Hanover, and in order to secure the services of a competent and suitable judge for the same, that we believe that his salary should be fixed at a sum not less than $2,500 per annum. That we earnestly request and ask the members of the House of Representatives to pass the bill, which has already received the sanction of the honorable Senate, establishing the Criminal Court of New Hanover county. On motion it was resolved that the bill now pending before the Legislature in regard to the appointment of a Health Officer for the city of Wilmington be amended as follows: That the Mayor and Board of Aldermen be empowered to appoint such an officer, if deemed necessary, and that his salary be fixed by law, as provided for other county officers, not to exceed six hundred dollars. Meeting of the Historical Society.

The regular monthly meeting of the Historical and Scientific Society was held at the Lecture Room of the First Presbyterian Church, last evening, when an extremely interesting and instructive paper on the "Early History of Roanoke Island" was read by Mr. Frederick Kidder, of Boston. Mr. Kidder, at the close of his address, presented to the Society, on behalf of E. Kidder, Esq., of this city, its first donation, being an exact copy of "Hariot's Virginia," illustrated, published at Frankfurt-on-the-Main in 1590. The work is extremely valuable and the gift was gratefully accepted, and will no doubt be highly prized by the Society.

The Yellow Jasmine.

Parents should carefully guard against allowing the yellow jasmine to get into the hands of their children. The plant, root and flower are all deadly poisonous and numbers of deaths among children, some quite recently, have occurred from eating the poisonous article. A gentleman informs us that he saw a child in a carriage on the street yesterday with a sprig of this dangerous plant in his hand, which it was in the act of placing in his mouth, when he called the attention of the servant to the fact and warned her of its poisonous properties.

Committed for Larceny.

David Walker, colored, was arraigned before Justice Gardner yesterday on the charge of stealing a watch from one Troy Nash, colored, some months since, taking it with him to Lumberton and selling it. The evidence was considered very conclusive as to the guilt of the accused, who was ordered to give a justified bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court, in default of which he was lodged in jail.

The accident was caused by the machinery breaking down. The Dixie was formerly owned by Mr. O. G. Parsley, Jr., and was run on the line between this city and Smithville, but was recently exchanged with Mr. J. K. Fairbanks, of New York, for a small Steamer, registering only 13 1/2-100 tons, and at the time she was beached was valued at about $3,500. It is not known positively as to whether she will prove a total loss or not. Nobody should go to church, or public meeting, hacking away and disturbing the preacher, or orator with their cough.
