Fred Douglass' Nomination Reported on Favorably Notwithstanding the Opposition-Hayes will not Appoint Relatives to Office-Parties in the Next Congress-Charges Against Assistant Secretary Count-Peaceful Assurances from New Orleans, de, de.

WASHINGTON, March 17. The opposition to Fred Douglass is strong, mainly because he lacks legal knowledge and personal acquaintance with the condi tion of property in the District. The col ored people themselves are opposing the confirmation. The Senate committee on the District, however, reported favorably on the nomination.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch says among the unsuccessful candidates for the United States marshalship for the Northern District of Illinois was a Mr. Stillwell, of Livingston county. The President told him his papers were unexceptionable, but there was one insuperable objection to his appointment to any federal office, that was his wife was a favorite cousin of Mrs. Hayes. Allowing the Republicans all they claim in Louisiana, Florida, South Carolina, and elsewhere, the Forty-fifth Congress will stand—Democrats 149, Republicans 144.

The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury,

Conant, is under question, but the charges are indefinite. Secretary Sherman thought yesterday there was nothing in them. The officers of the banks, insurance companies and trade boards of New Orleans telegraph Hayes assurances that disorders will not follow the withdrawal of troops. The Senate, after discussion, agreed by a vote of 39 to 8, to send a special commission to Oregon to investigate Senator Gro-The President sent two minor nominations to the Senate to day, which were omitted yesterday by a clerical blunder. This closes out the extra session of the Senate. Secretary Sherman is authority that there is no foundation whatever for insinuation of questionable practices affecting the honesty of Assistant Secretary Conant. The nomination of Charles M. Wilder, as postmaster at Columbia, S. C., was con-Two o'clock.-The Senate is still in session.

The Senate Adjourns-The Troops to be Withdrawn from South Carolina on Wednesday-Quick Time-Fred Douglass Confirmed as Marshal of the District, &c. WASHINGTON, March 17.

The following remain unconfirmed: Hughes, Attorney for Middle Tennessee: Waldren, Marshal for West Tennesse; Boseman, Postmaster at Charleston, S. C.; Potts for Postmaster at Petersburg, Va. The Senate, after the usual formalities, adjourned sine die. The Star says: "Nearly all the Louisiana politicians who have been in the city for weeks in the interests of the Nicholls government leave for New Orleans to-night. They say they have assurances that the order for the withdrawal of the troops from South Carolina and Louisiana will be pro posed at the cabinet meeting on Tuesday next, and the army will withdraw to the military reservations on Wednesday.'

Time between New York and New Orleans via Atlanta, Knoxville and Lynch-burg, will be made, commencing to-morrow, in sixty-four hours and thirty-five

Capt. William Prince has been ordered to the Department of the Gulf as chief of ordnance. Debate for an hour and a half preceded the confirmation of Fred Douglass as Mar-shal of the District, Senators Conkling and Morgan in favor and Senator Whyte against it. Hill, Beck, Garland and Morgan voted for confirmation; Lamar absent. The nomination of Stone, as District Attorney for South Carolina, was recommitted and went over, on motion of Gen. Gordon. The chief point against him seems incompetency.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

The Eastern Question-Conciliation and Promptitude the Characteristics of all Parties in the Present Negotiations-The Probable Result, &c. LONDON, March 17.

The Times, in a leading article, contrasts the long preparation which preceded the Andrassy notes and the Berlin memorandum with the celerity of the present negotiation. It says conciliation and prompti-tude have been the characteristics of all parties, and, having resolved to agree, their complaisance is wonderful. The protocol was only communicated to Lord Derby on Sunday, and on Friday we are congratulated as an accomplished work. This shows that whatever the Russian goverament may propose to accomplish, association with the European powers is looked upon as important, either for external po-litical action or to allay irritation and dis-appointment at home. The assurances of the Russians make us believe the latter is the object, and that the Czar, having determined to relinquish his enterprises, desires merely such conditions as will not too much humiliate his people. If this be the motive, the signature of the protocol will be a decisive event, unless, indeed, new disorders in Turkey throw all again into confusion. Charles Cowden Clarke, lecturer and au-

A boiler exploded in the saw mill of Hunter Bros., five miles east of Worthingham, Indiana, yesterday afternoon, killing twelve persons and wounding seven—all who were in the building. The mill ground corn on Fridays, and was trying a new set of corn burrs, and, the day being wet, the neighbors had gathered to witness the ex-

State Gleanings,

- Treasurer Worth has paid to the treasurer of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind $10,625, the first instalment of the appropriation made by the late Legislature for that Institution, being one-fourth of the entire appropriation of $42,500.

- Winston Sentinel: Within a few years the fruit and grape crop in this section will be immense, judging from the number of orchards of improved trees we see all through this part of the State, and the number of young vineyards is about endless. The peach, that king of fruits, seems cultivated most.

- In 1800 the population of Charlotte, N. C., was 124, that of Salisbury was 600; Wilmington had 2,000, Raleigh 1,000, Fayetteville 1,616, while Hillsboro had 80 houses and Statesville 50 houses.—Exchange. In 1877, Charlotte has probably 8,000, Salisbury 2,500, Wilmington 20,000, Raleigh 9,000, Fayetteville 4,000, Hillaboro 800 and Statesville 1,200.

- Raleigh Observer: Yesterday the Governor received a batch of letters equal almost to the capacity of one man to carry. There was one from a citizen of Rockingham county, (which was a fair sample of the majority,) asking a pardon for his son-in-law, now confined in the penitentiary. Said the old man: "he married my daughter and has five children, which throws a family of seven head on me, and I am not able or willing to bear it. I think betwixt you and Hayes he might be sot free, so do it at once and get me let off from supporting his family. - Norfolk Virginian: The Legislature of North Carolina, having passed a law imposing a tax of $500 a year upon non-resident manufacturers of fertilizers, or their agents; also a tax of fifty cents a ton on all fertilizers manufactured elsewhere and sold in that State, the Baltimore manufacturers and dealers in fertilizers held a meeting on Tuesday for discussion of the matter. It was proposed to advance the price of fertilizers $1 s ton to North Carolina purchasers, and thus meet the li-cense and the tax per ton. The shipment
