From Washington. (Special to the State.)

WASHINGTON, April 2.

There is absolutely nothing in the report published in the Republic that Gov. Hampton would meddle in the selection of the Speaker of the next House. He has been attending strictly to affairs of his own State and has not even talked upon national politics.

The Democratic ranks will be unshaken, and upon such a vital point as securing the next House they will be a unit to preserve its politics, as assurance of fair play in both South Carolina and Louisiana.

The Next House.

Col. A. B. McClure telegraphs the Philadelphia Times as follows: The roll of the House, as likely to be made up by Chief Clerk Adams, who will closely follow McPherson's ruling in like cases, will contain about 150 Democrats and 138 Republicans, and it is expected that the Democrats will increase their majority to 21 on contests in Florida, Louisiana, California, Massachusetts and Missouri. The hesitating policy of the President on the Southern question has settled the next House as Democratic.

What Hayes Told Chamberlains.

WASHINGTON, April 2.

The President observed that his views upon the right of the Federal Government to interfere in the local affairs of the States were clear and positive, and were not of recent growth; that he intended, as far as lay in his power, to restore the equilibrium of the relations between the State and General Government.

The Villain Captured.

(Special to the Washington Capital.)

ALEXANDRIA, Va., March 31.

The party of the first part in the recent outrage perpetrated on the person of a young lady from Baltimore in a Washington hotel, was arrested at a late hour in this city this evening. He was recognized from the description sent from police headquarters, and wore a false arm, evidently recently appended in order to escape identification. He is very taciturn in respect to the crime charged. He hails from Cleveland, Ohio, and had among his papers a letter of recommendation to Senator Dorsey, and a card, on which was written, as if for memoranda, "Mrs. Duddington has several fine looking daughters." He is held in custody.

Hayes and the South.

LETTER FROM GOVERNOR VANCE.

Raleigh, March 27, 1877.

Editors Chronicle and Constitutionalist:

DEAR SIRS—Your letter has been received, asking my views as to the position the Southern Democracy should occupy towards Mr. Hayes, and whether they should apply for or hold office under his administration, etc.

Briefly and simply, then: In everything, except the mere forms of law, I regard Mr. Hayes as a usurper. By maintaining armed intervention in States recently declared by the commission, under which he claims to be so sovereign, that no act of theirs could be impeached or even inquired into, though tainted by a fraud that would have voided any other human transaction in any court in christendom, he is flagrantly defying the Constitution of his country. Every day that United States troops are kept in and about the State Houses of South Carolina and Louisiana by Mr. Hayes' order, he is guilty of organizing the Constitution afresh and putting it to open shame. And all men who hold office under him of political significance, are holding his garments whilst Liberty is bayoneted to death.

The population of Shelby is steadily increasing, and house building continues. Daniel Cox, from Concord, died suddenly, in Nashville, Tenn., from an overdose of morphine.

Mr. Robert Lowe, aged 75, fell in the fire and was burned to death. He lived in Surry county. The Newbern Nut Shell complains of persons desecrating the graves at Cedar Grove cemetery.

Two old men have died recently in Catawba—Mr. John Shell, aged 70, and Mr. John Cobb, aged 77.

Hickory Press: There are now about 375 convicts at work on the Western North Carolina Railroad above Old Fort.

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XX.—NO. 11.

WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 4, 1877.

WHOLE NO. 3,014

—Capt. Octavius Coke, of Edenton, has been selected by the Raleigh ladies to make the next memorial address at Raleigh. —Certain persons are talking of grading the road from Sparkling Catawba Springs to Statesville, and placing a road engine upon it. —J. H. Dickson and Wm. Paett were arrested at Morganton on Monday in the sum of $500 each, for dealing in unstamped tobacco. —Morganton Blade: Our town presented a lively appearance last week, caused by the crowd of hangers-on, looking after positions on the railroad. —Salisbury Examiner, 29th: The rain storm was fearful up the Western road last Sunday night. A trestle was washed away, and the cars detained some time. The colored people of Charlotte have requested Gov. Vance to act as their delegate in the proposed meeting in Raleigh to consider the location of the colored Normal School. —Danbury Reporter: There was considerable excitement in the vicinity of Piedmont Springs last Thursday, caused by a fire raging in third number, and distant only about a half mile. —Charlotte Observer: Of the first twenty men of the Charlotte Greys who had their measures taken for the uniform, only four fell under six feet. The physique of the company is very fine. —Our exchanges take seriously our joke about the 27 persons dying last year in North Carolina over one hundred years old. We must write heretofore, "this is intended for irony," as the boy did when he drew his mule. —Charlotte Observer: E. Clayton, Esq., a member of the Board of Directors of the Western North Carolina Railroad, tendered his resignation to the Governor yesterday. The resignation was accepted, but his successor is not yet named. —Charlotte is now agitated over the question of gas. The two companies have consolidated and raised the price. A large number of the leading citizens have entered into a written agreement that they will not use gas at the price fixed upon. —The Warrenton Gazette reports that the Grangers of Six Point saved $5,000 this spring on one article of guano. Instead of paying their money for the fertilizer as already prepared, most of them bought the chemicals, and made their own manure. —Mr. Tiddy, proprietor of the Paper Mills in Lincoln, will hereafter wagon his freight to Dallas instead of shipping by the C. & N. Railroad. The Progress says: Mr. Tiddy informs us that the present rates are too high, and that he can save at least one thousand dollars per annum by shipping over the other lines. —Lincoln Progress: Col. Richard Rankin, of Gaston county, felled a water oak on his place, on Stanley Creek, from which he cut 6,500 shingles, 150 rails, 50 loads of wood, and there still remains about twenty cords of the huge tree, lying where it fell. The stump measured four feet nine inches in diameter, and the rings marked about 160 years growth. —Shelby Sunny Side: North Carolina needs to have about ten companies to manufacture fertilizers to meet the demands of her own farmers. If the farmers will buy them they should be compelled to enrich their States and impoverish their own, by sending off millions of dollars into the States of Maryland, Virginia and South Carolina. —Raleigh Observer: Ex-Governor Brogden, of North Carolina, called upon the President at the White House in Washington on Friday last, but just in time to be too late to have an interview. If Hayes thinks he can shake off the old man he will find himself sadly mistaken. Curtis is equal to a Louisiana Returning Board in his determination to carry his point. —Raleigh News: The residence of Mr. J. F. Billington, situated about a mile above Cary, in this county, was totally consumed last Sunday, with all its contents. The family were absent at the time, having gone visiting or to church, and upon returning found their home in ashes. Some money which had been saved and put away was burned in the house. Mr. Billington, who is an honest and industrious man, lost his little all. —The Charlotte Observer says of the meetings of the Young Men's Christian Association, now being held in that place: "After the usual opening services delegates from Chapel Hill, the North Carolina College, at Mount Pleasant, and Duke West College, made interesting reports of the work of their various Associations, the difficulties which they encountered, &c. After this Mr. Cree made a short address on the importance of the work and success which had attended the efforts of the organization for good."

Local Notes. —To-day is the anniversary of the death of Ex-President Harrison, in 1841. —The alarm of fire last evening, about dark, was caused by the burning of a foul chimney on Market street. —Howe's circus is to be here on the 16th. The agent was in the city yesterday making the necessary contracts. —Some repairs are being made upon the exterior of the City Hall. Those broken glass in the windows should not be forgotten. —Warmer east to south winds, stationary or slowly falling barometer, and areas of rain, are the weather indications for to-day. —There was an alarm of fire last night, about 8 o'clock, and all the engines went out, but no fire could be discovered, except in Brunswick county. —The Charlotte Observer says: "Mr. Walter Maffitt and family have returned from a visit to Wilmington. Like everybody else who visits 'the city by the sea,' he was charmed with the hospitality and kindness of its people." —Tuesday's Observer says: The Adjutant General on yesterday shipped fifty stands of breach-loading rifles to Captain John W. Gordon's company of Light Infantry at Wilmington. Cartridge boxes and all necessary accoutrements were included in the shipment. —The first twelve of the regular series of jurors drawn by the Board of County Commissioners Monday night, and published in our last, are to serve the first week and the remaining twelve the second week of the April term of the Superior Court. —We examined, yesterday, at the store of Mr. J. W. Lippitt, a monster egg, laid by one of Capt. F. M. Wooten's Cochise China hens, which measures 6 1/2 by 7 1/2 inches and weighs four ounces. The hen died in less than two days after laying the egg, which is certainly a huge affair. —At a meeting of Company B, Wilmington Rifle Guards, colored, held for the purpose of organizing under the new military law, the following officers were elected: David Cooper, Captain; I. C. Smith, 1st Lieutenant; Sol. H. Nixon, 2nd Lieutenant; Richmond James, Ensign.

Mayor's Court. The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor yesterday morning: Molly Harris, charged with disorderly conduct, was ordered to pay a fine of $10 and costs. John Scott, charged with disorderly conduct, was ordered to pay a fine of $25 and costs or work for thirty days on the streets. Eva Harris and Susan Mary Frank, charged with keeping a disorderly house, were ordered to pay a fine of $25 each and costs or work for thirty days on the streets. The same, charged with being disorderly, were ordered to pay a fine of $30 each and the costs or work for thirty days on the streets. John Scott, convicted of keeping a house of ill-fame, was ordered to pay a fine of $30 and costs or work for thirty days on the streets. Petrified Lobster and Oyster, or Muscles. Mr. Armstrong Hall, engineer of the steamer Royal Arch, has tendered for our inspection a petrified lobster and a petrified oyster, or muscle, which were recently unearthed in the vicinity of the location on the Cape Fear River known as the "Magnolia Tree," where parties are engaged in quarrying rock for the government works at New Inlet. The lobster and oyster were taken at a depth of eighteen feet below the surface of the earth, and are almost perfect in shape. Accompanying these is a tiny sea shell, in which, when held to the eye, a watery substance can be plainly distinguished. These specimens would probably add interest to the collection of curiosities in the cabinet of the Historical and Scientific Society.

Magistrate's Court. John Davis, colored, was arraigned before Justice Gardner, yesterday, on the charge of stealing an ox from George Watson, colored, of Wrightsville Sound. Defendant proved an alibi and was thereupon discharged. Peter Anderson, one of the crew of the British barquentine Elizabeth Taylor, was arraigned for larceny in three cases. Defendant ordered to give a bond in the sum of $100 in each case for his appearance before the present term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was lodged in jail. County Commissioners. At the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners, held on Monday evening, it was ordered that H. E. Scott, keeper of the Poor House, be authorized to turn over to Commissioner Holmes Matthew Ashe, who was at one time pronounced insane, that Mary Cross be sent from the Poor House to Richmond, Va., her former place of residence, and where the request is to be sent; and that the Chairman be authorized to repair the bridge over Prince George's Creek at a cost not exceeding $50. The report of the Poor Committee was received. Hogs Wanted. The hogs of the Cape Fear steam fire engine appear to be in very bad order, and from the way it leaked on Monday afternoon, during their engine trial, we should think it advisable for the authorities to provide them with new hogs. We learn that during the fire Monday afternoon there was as much water wasted from the hogs as was thrown on the fire."

ST. GEORGE AND ST. ANDREW. Seventh Anniversary Dinner of the Society. The members of the St. George and St. Andrew's Society, with a few invited guests, assembled at the Grand Central Saloon, last evening, to celebrate their seventh anniversary by a dinner. President Alexander Sprunt presided, and certainly it was an appropriate celebration of the anniversary of a society which has, by its charitable action in innumerable instances, afforded relief and gladdened the hearts of many an unfortunate Scotch and Englishman. Mr. Jones was the caterer, and his table did credit to even one of his established reputation. After doing ample justice to the tables, the President called the assembly to order, and read his annual address, which was listened to with marked attention by all present. Upon concluding, Mr. Sprunt announced the following regular toasts: 1st. The day, and all who honor it. Responded to by the President. 2nd. The Queen of Great Britain. Verse of God Save the Queen. 3rd. The President of the United States. Song by Mr. J. Hopkins. 4th. England. Responded to by Mr. Berry Gleaves. Song by Mr. John Colville. 5th. Scotland. Responded to by Mr. John Colville. 6th. Our sister societies. Responded to by Capt. I. B. Grainger, of the Hibernian Association. 7th. Our Adopted State. Responded to by Mr. J. Alexander. A verse of Carolina. 8th. The City of Wilmington. Responded to by Mr. W. Roddick. 9th. The Press. Responded to by J. M. Cronly of the Star. Song by John Colville. 10th. The Ladies. Responded to by Mr. W. E. Hill. Song by Mr. Hopkins. The following impromptu toasts were then given: 1st. The President. Responded to by Mr. Alexander Sprunt. 2d. The Vice President. Responded to by Mr. Berry Gleaves. 3d. The Secretary. Responded to by Mr. H. G. Smallbones. Messrs. Thos. H. Smith and W. Roddick each sang a song, and each received, as did the gentlemen above mentioned, the plaudits of their hearers. And here we were compelled, reluctantly we must say, to take leave of the festive scene, of which we shall ever cherish many pleasant memories. More Reprobations Upon Owners of Stock. Mr. William Holloway, of Farmer's Turnout, on the W. C. & A. R. R., about twelve miles from this city, missed a fine ox from his premises on Monday morning last, and spent a good portion of the day in a vain search for the animal. Finally he encountered a person who informed him that he had discovered the tracks of the ox coming in the direction of Wilmington. Mr. Holloway thereupon came to this city and upon going into the market, yesterday morning, found the hide of the animal he had lost, the butcher who had it in his possession stating that he had purchased the ox from a white man for $38. He did not know the man, but says he would recognize him if he were to see him again. An Alligator Gets Himself in Trouble. A gentleman of this city set a net about fifty feet long in Greenfield mill pond a few days since, and upon going to examine it the next day, to see if there were any fish in it, he found an alligator entangled in the meshes, with the net completely wrapped around him. When discovered he was dead, having evidently been drowned in his struggles to free himself from his perilous position. The alligator was upwards of six feet in length. Our Western Friends to Visit us Again. The Shelby Sunny-Side says: "Messrs. L. H. Harrill and J. B. Bostic will run an excursion from Shelby to Wilmington on Monday, the 30th of April. The train will leave Shelby with the regular passenger train at 12 1/2 o'clock on Monday. Leave Charlotte on Tuesday morning, and arrive in Wilmington on Tuesday evening. Leave Wilmington on Friday and arrive at Shelby on Saturday morning."
