Easterly to southerly winds, partly cloudy weather, with local rains and slight changes in temperature and barometer, are the weather indications for to-day.

Important to Justices of the Peace. The following from the Raleigh News is of interest to Justices of the Peace: Justices of the Peace and Clerks of Courts are reminded that, by an act of the late General Assembly, all writings required by law to be registered can be acknowledged or proven before a Judge, a Justice of the Peace, or the Clerk of any Court of Record having a seal, except the Register of Deeds. These courts or officers, except the Register, can also take the preliminary examination of married women.

When acknowledgment, proof or privy examination is taken by a magistrate or clerk of the county in which the instrument is to be registered, the Clerk of a Court of Record, as above, shall adjudge that the same is correct, and shall, under a seal, order the deed to be registered; and when taken by a magistrate and to be registered in any county other than that in which taken, such clerk shall, under a seal, adjudge that the acknowledgment, proof or privy examination is correct, and that the magistrate was a Justice of the Peace at the time of taking by the Clerk of Record, or before a Judge, the seal of such court shall be affixed to all writings.

The Clerk of any Court of Record can order an instrument to be registered; but all writings must ultimately pass through the office of the Superior Court Clerk, as that officer is charged with the duty of collecting the registration, and, in some cases, a tax.

Justices can now take acknowledgment, proof or privy examination, without commissions being issued on them, and an instrument of writing required to be registered may be acknowledged before a Justice of the Peace, or before a Judge.

The Tax Question in the Criminal Court.

In compliance with an order of the Judge of the Criminal Court, a messenger was sent yesterday to the residence of A. R. Black, Esq., late Tax Collector of the County, on Middle Sound, about nine miles from this city, for the tax books of 1875, with the view of ascertaining if J. C. Smith and W. McNeill, two of the Grand Jury, had settled their taxes for that year, the two jurymen being excused from further service until this question could be determined. The tax books arrived yesterday afternoon and the matter will be settled this morning. This action was taken in connection with the Heaton cases, his counsel having raised the question of the legality of the Grand Jury on the ground that some of the members had not paid their taxes, as required by law. Only fourteen of the Grand Jury were on duty yesterday, two of the members having been relieved by His Honor from further service during the term, it being understood that they could produce no evidence that they had paid their taxes for the year 1875.

DR. SCHENCK'S STANDARD REMEDIES.—The standard remedies for all diseases of the lungs are Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and if taken before the lungs are destroyed a speedy cure is effected.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary diseases. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs; nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm is loosened a slight cough will throw it off, the patient has rest, and the lungs begin to heal.

To enable the Pulmonic Syrup to do its Schenck's Mandrake Pills and Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver. Schenck's Mandrake Pills act on the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved. Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative; the alkali of which it is composed mixes with the food and prevents souring. It assists the digestion by toning up the stomach to a healthy condition, so that the food and Pulmonic Syrup will make good blood; then the lungs heal, and the patient will surely get well if care is taken to prevent a relapse.

All who wish to consult Dr. Schenck, either personally or by letter, can do so at his principal office, corner Sixth and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, every Monday. Schenck's medicines are sold by all druggists throughout the country.
