Going Behind the Returns. MANCHESTER, N. H., April 24.

The Judges of the Supreme Court of New Hampshire have decided that the Governor and Council have no right to go behind the returns to count out Jones, the Congressman elected from the First District.

> England's Guarantee. CONSTANTINOPLE, April 24.

Mr. Layard is stated to have informed the Porte that England had guaranteed integrity and independence of the Ottoman Empire only under the conditions laid down by the treaties stipulating for the exercise of control by the Powers. The Porte having contested this right it | inst. has forfeited the benefits guaranteed by those treaties, and England could not intervene with arms in its behalf. The Wade Letter and the Malcontents

|Special to Baltimore Sun.1 WASHINGTON, April 23.

The savage letter of ex-Senator Wade on the President's Southern policy has been a good deal talked about to-day. The administration Republicaus say they do not think it will have very much effect in influencing other Republicans to join with the dissatisfied crowd in making war upon the administration. The friends of the President seem to believe that there will be an open attack upon his Southern policy as soon as Congress convenes. There was a disinclination to believe that any avowed Republicans would carry their hostility into the halls of Congress, but this is now over, and the fact is recognized that the Republicans will not stand as a unit in the coming Congress in support of the President.

The Excited Grain Markets ..

CHICAGO, April 24. The grain market was on a rampage to-day, owing to the European war news. Wheat advanced about thirteen cents per bushel; No. 2 spring closed at $1 68@1 681 for May, and $1 70@$1 701 for June. Corn, 521@523c. for May, and 531@ 53%c. for June.

BALTIMORE, April 24. The war news from Europe caused great excitement on change here today; the market opened with an advance of 21@31 cents for corn and closed excited and firm at an advance. Flour is quoted fifty cents per barrel higher for all grades. Sales of corn 270,000 bushels.

Sad Breach of Trust.

Rev. Dr. E. T. Baird, the Secretary and Business Manager of the Southern Presbyterian Committee of Pablication, has misapplied the funds to the amount of some $22,000. The Richmond State says:

"Although his accounts had been examined regularly every year by a finance committee of the church, nothing wrong had been detected, he having kept his books in such a way as to throw the most expert accountants off the track. And it was not until Dr. Baird confessed his crime about a month ago to the committee that auything was known of it. The confession came like a thunder clap upon his friends. It is thought that the church will lose about $22,000 by Northern border. the complications.

Dr. Baird was involved in a good many different concerns, among them a patent washing machine.

Immediately after the confession the affairs of the Publication House were placed in the hands of a finance committee.

Dr. Baird is a Pennsylvanian by birth, and is about fifty-seven or fiftyeight years old.

Old Graduates.

[Raleigh Observer.] You mentioned in the Observer recently that three graduates of the University of North Carolina, of the class of 1820, had met in church in Raleigh, viz: Hon. Wm. H. Battle, W. H. Hardin, Esq., and Hon. B. F. Moore. I spent last evening with one of the class of 1818, of whom

Revenue Decision. [Raleigh News.]

The State Treasurer has been applied to for his opinion as to the extent of the powers of County Commissioners in granting licenses to retail liquors under section 11, schedule B, of the revenue act. His opinion is as follows, in answer to a correspondent:

"I do not think the law requires retailers of liquors to take out license for twelve months. The county commissioner, in issuing orders to the sheriff to grant the license, have the option of designating the number of months which the license shall operate, provided they are not more than twelve por less than three. The licenses issued under this section are subject to the proviso contained in the last three lines of the section."

He has also large strawberry fields and a fine vineyard. His success in fruit-raising in the old North State has aroused the interests of the people there in that culture.

- A correspondent writes the Raleigh Observer from Castalia, Nash county: "The rich Eldorado Gold Mines, well known as the Mann Mines, are about six miles from here, owned by Messrs. Coke & Co. They are Northern gentlemen, and are working it with indomitable energy and skill and with abundant success. I am proud to state that the farming class in this section are turning their attention to the interest of stock raising more and more every year, and candidly believe there are hogs and sheep than have ever been known since the war. Most of the farmers killed enough meat for their home consump tion, and have on hand hogs for the next crop. There will be a great deal more guano used on cotton this season than was once anticipated, and nearly all of it will have to be paid for by the first of November in lint cotton."

Probable Identification. It will be remembered that in our report of the Coroner's inquest in the case of the white sailor found drowned at Middle Sound a few days ago, which appeared in our paper yesterday morning, the fact was mentioned that the left arm of deceased was marked (in indellible ink) with the name of C. H. Thompson. Upon a subsequent reference to our files we find that the name of Charles H. Thompson appears in the list of the crew of the ill fated Schr. Charles E. Elmer, as published in the STAR | party is held to await developments. of Sunday morning last. There can be but little doubt, therefore, that the body upon which the inquest was held, and which must have floated in through the Inlet near the point where it was recovered, was that of Charles H. Thompson, one of the crew of the wrecked schooner referred to.

Preliminary Hearing in the Case o W. M. Taylor alfas R. M. Walker for Forgery.

A preliminary hearing in the case of the bove individual, who was arrested on Tuesday afternoon on the charge of forgan order on Col. Roger Moore for $50, an account of which appeared in the STAR of vesterday morning, was had before Justice Gardner in the city court room yesterday afternoon. Considerable interest had been excited in the case from the respectable appearance of the accused and the boldness tection and discomfiture, and quite a crowd filled the court room at the appointed hour to listen to the investigation.

as reported in our paper yesterday morn- pression that it was genuine. ing, differing in only a few immaterial points. The only additional fact of any importance was that the accused told Col. Moore and Mr. Kerchner, in answer to for his appearance at the next term of the questions, that the cotton alluded to was at Brinkley's Depot. The prisoner, who appeared very calm and collected throughout the investigation, had no counsel and offered no defence.

Justice Gardner ordered defendant give a justified bond for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, which meets on the first Monday in June, in default of which he was lodged in jail.

We learn that the prisoner says he will give bond or deposit the amount of the same in the course of a few days.

Arrested on Suspicion.

A white man and a stranger, who gave his name as A. V. McDonald, was arrested Tuesday night on suspicion, having been found under a shed on the wharf at a late hour, with his boots off and reclining on a bundle of hay. He was taken to the station house and locked up for a hearing. He claims to have been formerly employed in the carding room of the manufacturing establishment of Hiram P. Jellison, at Nashua, N. Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary diseases.

The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs; nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a alight cough will throw it off, the patient has restand the lungs begin to heal.

To enable the Pulmenic Syrup to do this Schenck's Mandrake Pills and Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver. Schenck's Mandrake Pills act en the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved.

Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative; the alkall of which it is composed mixes with the food and prevents souring. It assists the digestion by toning up the stomach to a healthy condition, so that the food and relationary will make good blood; then the lungs healt, and the patient will surely get well if care is taken to prevent fresh cold.

All who wish to consult Dr. Schenck, either personally or by Itwee, can do so at his principal office, corner Sixth and arch Streets, Philadelphia, every Monday.

Schenck's medicines are sold by all druggists throughout the country.
