OUTLINES.

England will interfere and demand of Russia the objects she has in view. The fight at Batum has been resumed. Queen Victoria will issue a proclamation of neutrality. The Sultan has issued a proclamation; it is thoroughly warlike. Turkey insists that Serbia must help. Russia threatens to blockade Alexandria. Persia will help Russia. The U. S. will take no official notice of the war. It is proposed to raise a regiment of Indians. The Louisville Common Council recognize the Derby Day (races) as a legal holiday. Thursday was observed throughout Minnesota as a day of fasting and thanksgiving for deliverance from the plague. Kellogg will contest Spofford's seat from Louisiana in the Senate. France has not been asked by England and Austria to join in questioning Russia's objects. In London it is not thought improbable that England may yet declare war against Russia. The question is regarded at Berlin as more urgent than England thinks. New York markets: Money easy at 2 per cent; gold dull at 106 1/4; cotton firm at 10 15-16 @ 1 1/4-1 1/2 cents; spirits turpentine 32 1/2 cents; rosin quiet at $1.95 @ 2.05 for strained.

Von Moltke likes to explain. In the Reichstag, yesterday, Von Moltke explained his speech of Tuesday. When he spoke of compensatory measures which must sooner or later be taken by Germany for the massing of French troops near the frontier, he meant measures having an offensive aggressive character. He added: "Our policy is necessarily pacific, without on that account renouncing our freedom of action." This was received by the house with cheers. The budget was finally adopted.

A Sketch of the New Senator.

[By Telegraph to the N. Y. Tribune.] WASHINGTON, April 24. Judge Spofford, who has been elected United States Senator for the long term by the Louisiana Legislature, is a native of Connecticut, and a brother of A. R. Spofford, the very efficient Librarian of Congress. He went to Louisiana thirty or forty years ago to engage in school-teaching. He afterwards studied law, was admitted to the bar, and has served as judge in one of the higher courts of the State. He is at present law partner of Judge Campbell, formerly an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, and is a man of fortune, high social standing and recognized legal ability.

Secretary Key on the New Party.

[From New York Herald.] "For reasons which I will explain more fully it would be easier to form a new party in the South than it would be to build up the Republican party in that section. Now, as I see the tendency of the political current it is to flow into another channel, and in my opinion that tendency is in the direction of the formation of a new party, more conservative than either the Democratic party South or the Republican party North can admit. The reason why I think it would be easier to form a new party that will unite the North and South is because of the deep-seated prejudice existing throughout the South against the Republican party generally. That party in our part of the country is something quite different from the party as it is known in the Northern States.

RESULTS OF THE NEW DEPARTURE.

In reply to the question whether he did not think it would tend toward the dissolution of the Republican party, he continued: "It is too early to tell what shape the disintegration will take. Of this, however, I am confident, the Administration enters upon its broad work with abundant support from a very considerable element of the Democratic party South, and for some time that element will be likely to call itself Democratic. It would be a hard matter for one to attempt to define what Democracy means at the present time, but with us in the South it means plainly unqualified opposition to the Republican party.

Spirits Turpentine.

The wheat crop of Iredell is fine. Wilson has had another mad dog. Fishing frolics are the rage at Salisbury. Col. R. O. Bennett, of Alexander, is dead. Polkton has two churches—Baptist and Methodist. An enthusiastic railroad meeting was held at Mt. Airy on 17th. A revival is progressing in the Methodist Church at Rocky Mount. The Salisbury Methodist ladies are to have a banquet on the 9th prox. Mr. James M. Young, formerly of Granville, died in Philadelphia on April 26th. Mr. Jas. Neighbors, of Randolph, had his house burnt and $300 in money. The Concord Sun's description of the Press Association—"Mutual Administration Society"—"Chicken stealing in the Salisbury epidemic. It is worse than the measles or whooping cough."

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XX.--NO. 32. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 1877. WHOLE NO. 3,035

W. A. Batts, of Wilson, has fallen into the hands of the law for selling unstamped tobacco.

Tarboro Southern: It takes the best work of first-class men to get up a paper like the STAR.

Miss Manly and Mr. Haywood were quite successful at Newbern, as they deserve to have been.

Two men, Jas. Clark and Jas. Shepherd, were arrested at Salisbury for retailing liquor not stamped.

Deputy Collector Martin made a fearful raid on a tobacco factory in Stokes. The inventory footed up $77 cents.

"The tandem of pronounced adjectives," is the Winston Sentinel's way of describing vigorous "cuss-words."

And now Polkton is making other people's mouths water by its talk of Irish potatoes of this year's growth.

F. S. Bell, of Wilkes, has had seized 200 gallons of whiskey by the revenue men, because not properly stamped.

Col. Wm. Johnston has been unanimously nominated for Mayor of Charlotte by a large meeting of the citizens.

Rev. J. F. Batts, of Charlotte, has organized at Salisbury a Young Men's Christian Association, numbering forty.

Henderson is to have an Echo. Any other name is better. We have an Echo in the State. Two is more than enough. Change it.

Captain Walker, of Carrick Court House, lost his steam grist mill by fire. No insurance. His second fire in a short time.

The late Auditor Reilly gave the bulk of his $40,000 to his sister's children in Philadelphia, but a part to relatives in Ireland.

Greensboro Patriot: There was a railroad meeting at Franklinsville yesterday, and considerable interest manifested in the enterprise.

Mr. Jas. W. Reid, of Wentworth, is to deliver the Memorial address at Greensboro. He is a son of the late gifted Rev. Dr. N. F. Reid.

Charlotte Observer: One of the officers here reports that twenty-eight barrels of whiskey were seized at one haul in Wilkes county a few days ago.

Statesville Landmark: A widow by the name of Meadows, living near Taylorsville, Alexander county, committed suicide, last Sunday, by hanging.

That story about the lady who collapsed did not originate as the Watchman supposes. We published it in the STAR and clipped it from a Northern paper.

Wilson Express: There have been 400 mortgages registered in this county up to date. Four hundred of our farmers have made themselves slaves for one year.

The Ansonian says at the last meeting of the Polkton Literary and Social Club a moot court was held, and a young lady was put on trial. What she was tried for is not revealed.

Ness: A convocation of the Episcopal ministers of Raleigh, Hillsboro, Pilot Mountain, and other points in this section of the State, is being held this week at Lenoir.

Frank Grice, colored, shot his wife in the head, at Charlotte, through jealousy of his brother. His wife is not expected to live. He is in jail.

Salisbury Watchman: The Building and Loan Association had a meeting last Monday night and decided to divide the mortgages among the stockholders, and "hold up" for a while.

Greensboro Patriot: Judge Dick has appointed Mr. John N. Staples to take charge of the Bank of Cape Fear, in pursuance of the decree of court, and wind up its business.

The agent has been here and he stuck up on the trees and painted on the fences, "Take Simmon's Liver Regulator." We shan't do any such thing. We are not taking anything now but subscriptions to the Watchlight.

Ansonian: "The gentleman from Ireland," Mr. Pat Grady, informs us that he killed on Lane's Creek, last Saturday, a moccasin snake measuring sixteen inches in circumference and eight feet long. Trot out your snakes.

Greensboro Patriot: A mole as white as ermine, was caught by Mr. A. L. Stanley at the Guilford battle grounds last week. It has been stuffed and sent by Mr. T. J. Sloan to Hon. Kemp P. Battle, to be placed in the museum at the University.

Winston Sentinel: The remains of a tory, who was hung during the revolutionary war at old Richmond Court House, at that time the county seat of Surry county, were routed up by the hogs last week. The skull and several of the bones were in a state of good preservation.

The Anson Guards have adopted a uniform that is a blending of the blue and the gray. The Ansonian says: "The cap a black beaver with Pompoona. The pants to be of Confederate grey, with black stripe. The coat of navy blue, with bright buff trimmings, and brass buttons, bearing the coat of arms of the State."

Winston Sentinel: Dr. W. A. Lash returned from South Carolina on last Sunday, where he had been to prosecute some revenue officers and others for conspiracy. When he left Kingstree two of them had given bond, and the others were in the hands of the Sheriff, with a fine prospect of going to jail.

Torchlight: The weather is as fraudulent as returning board. Yet several days during the past week we have had genuine spring, and it gladdened all animated nature. A few more days of such sweet-wooding sunshine will rob the blackest and baldest of the hill sides in all the rich vestments of a bride.

Statesville Landmark: On Friday last Monroe Rector, a young man from Morganton, jumped from the train bound West, two miles below Morganton, and was thrown under the hind wheels of the first-class coach. The wheels passed over both legs just below the knees. He was carried home where he died in a few hours.

News: Attorney General Kennan has given notice of his purpose to appeal to the Supreme Court from the decision of Judge Buxton, in the case of J. J. Nowell, Sheriff of Wake, against Joseph P. Gully, involving the validity of the merchants' license tax. It will be remembered that Judge Buxton held the tax to be unconstitutional.

Raleigh Observer: Edenton was the birthplace of the late Gov. James Iredell, who reflected credit upon his State in every position he called upon him to fill. His remains repose in her soil. It is also the home of two of the ablest and most respected judges of the State, Augustus Moore and Robert R. Heath.

According to the Charlotte Observer the two races in that town are about equal. Since May 1, 1876, among the whites, 44 children, 11 females and males each have died, making a total of 55. Among the negroes, 13 males, 13 males and 25 females have died—total 187. So the mortality among the colored is nearly twice as great as it is among the whites.

The Charlotte Observer says a serious fight occurred at Morganton yesterday, between John Ramsay, mail agent on the W. N. C. Railroad, and John H. Pearson, express agent at Morganton. Ramsay left his mail car to attack Pearson, when the latter struck him a severe blow on the head with a stone, knocking him down and inflicting a painful and dangerous wound.

News: It is learned by telegraph that a small fire occurred in Charlotte yesterday morning between 5 and 6 o'clock. The ticket office of the Richmond and Danville and Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroads, which are in the same building, were burned, and about 50 feet of platform likewise. Two box cars belonging to the Richmond & Danville Railroad were burned slightly.

News: As will be seen by notice in another column, the funeral of the beloved and lamented Rev. Dr. Smedes, which was postponed from yesterday, will take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Seven Episcopal ministers, who had been in attendance upon the convocation at Lenoir, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon, to pay the last adieu to the memory of this venerable servant of God.

Fayetteville Gazette: Last Sunday night Mr. W. D. Smith had seven ewes and a lamb destroyed by dogs. The scene of slaughter the next morning was sickening. All the flock but one lay dead and mangled, while one fine ewe was still living, with nearly all the flesh eaten away from one haunch. This depredation was committed by the worthless curs of the neighborhood, and within a few yards of the dwelling-house.

Tarboro Southern: On the 21st of March last Miss Caroline Wilson, of Martin county, was found lying in a ditch, five inches deep in water, dead. Deceased had left the house of Mr. J. H. Johnston a few hours prior to the time she was found, saying "she would soon be home again." She was of a most respectable family. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that "deceased came to her death by drowning at her own hands."

Fayetteville Gazette: Mr. Stephen Worth, of this town, has been appointed to a position of Department for the culture and propagation of fish. We advise the authorities to hold on to Mr. Worth, now that they have secured his services. He is a young man of high mind and good attainments, with plenty of energy and vigor, both of mind and body. He will especially be an acquisition to Professor Kerr as State Geologist.

Monroe Enquirer: A double funeral occurred at the Baptist graveyard last Thursday, which seemed somewhat singular. Both corpses were females—one 16, the other 66. Both named Baker, but no relation, not even acquainted; both were members of the church, and both had joined at 14 years of age. Both funerals were preached by the same minister, Rev. J. S. Brasington, at the same time, while the two coffins lay in the altar to the right of the altar, and trimmed with exactly alike, so we are credibly informed.

Shelby Sunny Side: The Judge who presided over Cleveland Court last week so far forgot his duties, especially his judicial dignity, as to go staggering into the dining room where he boarded, and become the butt and laughing stock of children and servants. And during one or two of the last days of his confinement he was so befogged and reeling, by reason of being steeped in mountain whiskey, as to make the business of the court a mere farce. The lawyers saw the incapacity of the Judge and simply passed their cases over. [Out with his name.]

The Statesville correspondent of the Raleigh Observer writes of Judge Dick: "Before seeing Judge Dick on the bench your voracious and impartial reporter was profoundly impressed that caution was an essential element in the character of a great Judge. It is not only not essential, but in Judge Dick's case it is a positive disqualification. Judge Dick takes sides in every case tried before him, and so cannot be that he can have any impartiality. Even the jury can see it. Judge Dick indulges the undignified habit of eating apples whilst on the bench. He treats the bar with courtesy."

Raleigh News: A final settlement of the debts outstanding against the State Agricultural Society, under a cap of about $10,500, was effected yesterday by the following named gentlemen, members of the Executive committee, paying their pro rata share: Messrs. T. M. Holt, John C. Blake, W. G. Upchurch, J. G. Williams, D. G. Fowlie, Jos. J. Davis, Rufus H. Jones, Walter Clark, G. W. Blackall, A. Crech, Thos. H. Briggs, Julius Lewis, W. J. Hicks, N. S. Harp, C. B. Denison, R. F. Hoke, John Nichols and G. B. Glavin. Dr. Eugene Grissom also extended pecuniary assistance in this emergency.

Raleigh Observer: The large grist and saw mill and cotton gin of Major G. A. Harris at Henderson, was burned to the ground yesterday. The fire originated in the hot room, and ran on madly by a spark from the smoke-stack of the engine. Though the fire occurred at 12 o'clock M., and all the hands were present, but very little of anything was saved, as the flames spread with such fearful rapidity, enveloping the entire building in a few minutes. The buildings and machinery, comparatively new, were a total loss, the insurance policy having expired only a few weeks ago. Loss between $5,000 and $6,000.

The Elizabeth City Economist tells of the following "big hauls" among the Dare fishermen: On Saturday, Joe Eberidge made the largest haul of herring, at Hog Island, that has been made for years. The statement that reaches us is that it was 300,000. It took nearly an hour to land them. He had to send off for a steamer and barge to get them to market. If there was a railroad from Elizabeth City to Berkley, they would have been in market strikingly. No use in talking, we can have by rail. On the same day Davis' fishery struck the head of the "run" and landed, at one haul, 75,000 herring. A few more such "runs" and the fishermen will come home all right.

Fish Commissioner Oliver, on April 24, reports to the Col. Polk, Commissioner of Agriculture, through the Newbern Weekly Star some time since, will probably be resumed as a monthly magazine at an early day by Mr. Wm. H. Bernard. It will contain 32 pages of reading matter, and will be gotten up in the same handsome typographical style that made it so popular as a monthly before. State exchanges will confer a favor by calling attention to this announcement.

Another Case of Forgery, &c., for the Criminal Court.

Charles M. Epps, the colored school teacher, was again arraigned before Justice VanAmringe, yesterday morning, on the affidavit of J. G. Wagner, Esq., Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, on the charge that he did, on or about the 30th day of March, 1877, willfully and feloniously change, alter and forge a school order on the Treasurer of the county of New Hanover, for the payment of school money, to the amount of forty dollars, which order had originally been signed by Stephen Keyes and Henry G. Davis, Jr., for the amount of thirty-five dollars; and, further, that Epps did willfully and feloniously sign the name of Jacob Horne, as school committee-man, to the order in question, without his knowledge or consent.

After hearing all the evidence in the case, Justice VanAmringe ordered the defendant to give a justified bond in the sum of $300 for his appearance before the next term of the Criminal Court, which is in addition to the bond of $500 in the case previously heard. He was remanded to jail.

DR. SCHECK'S STANDARD REMEDIES.—The standard remedies for all diseases of the lungs are Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic, and Schenck's Mucous Pills, and if taken before the lungs are destroyed a speedy cure is effected.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary diseases.

The Pulmonic Syrup relieves the morbid matter in the lungs; nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, but when the phlegm or matter is ripe it is coughed up, and the patient is cured. The Mucous Pills act on the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon stimulated.

Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic is a gentle stimulant to mix with the food and of which it is composed of the finest ingredients. It acts on the stomach to a healthy condition, so that the food and Pulmonic Syrup will make good blood; then the lungs heal, the very best blood will surely get well if care is taken to prevent fresh cold.

All who wish to consult Dr. Schenck, either personally or by letter, can do so at his principal office, corner Sixth and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, every Monday.

Schenck's medicines are sold by all druggists throughout the country.
