Effect of War on the Grain Market. LIVERPOOL, April 27.

A leading grain circular says the declaration of war by Russia has caused much excitement in the wheat trade, and prices have daily advanced at all the markets of the kingdom, the average improvement from the beginning of the week to yesterday being 4@5s. per quarter. The leading European markets have advanced quite as much. This market to-day was well attended, and a large business was done in wheat at an advance of 1s. per cwt. on the currencies of Tuesday. Flour was 1s. per sack and 2s. 6d.@3s. per barrel dearer. Maize was in active demand, and an advance was quoted at 3s. per quar-

The end was as follows: The roll was then called (omitting the names of those excused and excluded as above) and the judgment was unanimous for the deposition of Dr. Baird from the Gospel ministry, and his suspension from the privileges of the church, and the judgment of the court was so announced by the Moderator.

The Chiefs of the Two Armies. The leaders and commanders of the two formidable armies about to come in conflict on the banks of the Danube are very unlike each other. Abdul-Kerim Pasha is an unassuming man, over seventy years of age, with no pretentions to a brilliant pedigree, but with a solid reputation as an excellent soldier. The Grand Duke Nicholas is fine looking, tall, fortysix years old, a brother of the Czar, as haughty a prince as the house of Romanoff has ever produced, and a soldier as devoid of a military history as any review and parade guardsman. Abdul-Kerim Pasha is the actual commander-in-chief of his army. The Grand Duke Nicholas is a mere figurehead, guided and commanded by his chieff of staff, General Nepokoyt-chizky, the Moltke of Russia.

Wrecked Schooner Chas. E. Elmer. Mr. A. M. Loudenslager, W. M. of Neptune Lodge A. F. & A. M., No. 75, of Mauricetown, New Jersey, under date of the 26th inst., writes to Mr. C. M. VanOrsdell, W. M. of St. John's Lodge No. 1, in this city, as follows: "Our worthy brother, Capt. Wm. Corsen, has been wrecked off your sea coast, and we fear he is forever lost. It is a very sad affair. He leaves a widow with four little children. He was much respected by all who knew him. He was an upright man and Mason. We ask as a great favor, if you will interest yourself in our behalf and ascertain all the particulars. He sailed the schooner Chas. E. Elmer, and if his body should be found please place it in safe deposit and communicate with me immediate-

A photograph of the lamented Captain Corsen accompanies this letter, by which it is probable the body can be identified if found. The deceased wore a lung protector, quilted in diamonds, which may also lead to his identification. There seems to be no doubt that all on board of the illfated vessel perished, as the body of a drowned sailor has already been found on the beach which was doubtless that of C. H. Thompson, one of the crew of the C. E.

Not Sustained. Mr. M. W. Hilburn, of Brunswick, had a hearing before United States Commissioner Cassidey, yesterday, on the charge of retailing spirituous liquors without having the necessary license. There was no evidence produced by the prosecution to sustain the charge, and the case against Mr. Hilburn was therefore dismissed.

Even the witnesses introduced by the prosecution testified to Mr. Hilburn's uniform good character, and to the fact that they had never heard of his seliing liquor under any circumstances. Mr. Hilburn thinks the prosecution was based on mal ice, and intimates that the originator may find himself a defendent in a case that may give him a good deal of trouble. .

Contributions for the destitute families of the lost pilots come in rather slowly, but we are satisfied that a good start is all that is needed to secure a handsome sum in the aggregate. We hope the good people of Wilmington will respond liberally to this pressing call. We are assured that the necessities of some of the families are very great, and this fact ought to be sufficient to arouse the sympathies and secure the material aid of all who are able to contribute. Messrs. E. Kidder & Sons made a handsome subscription yesterday, and we trust many others will do likewise.

Walker, on the charge of stealing a horse and buggy from Messrs. Hunter & Farrow, of that place, some mention of which has already been made in this paper. In a letter accompanying the warrant Messrs. Hunter & Farrow say Taylor bired a horse and buggy from them some time in February or March. He sold the buggy in that county and left with the horse, but they subsequently recovered the animal in Chester, S. C. If he gives bail on the charge of forgery against him here the Sheriff is instructed to hold him on the wrrrant, telegraph them, and they will send for him immediately. He was raised in Mecklenburg county, but has been in Arkansas for some years, and the description Messrs. Woman Charged with Making Way with her Children.

A colored woman by the name of Lena Shaw, living on Sixth, between Nixon and Swann streets, who is reported to have given birth to triplets on Thursday night last, is charged with making way with her children and secretly burying them. Washington Shaw, the husband of the woman, has been arrested on a warrant issued by Justice VanAmringe, in accordance with information lodged with him, and is now in jail, in default of a bond in the sum of $300 for his appearance to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. When the information was first received by Justice VanAmringe, and he had taken steps to investigate the matter, Washington Shaw, who was first approached on the subject, acknowledged the fact of the birth of the children. The officer then went to see the woman, and upon questioning her she denied that any children had been born to her, and subsequently Washington Shaw contradicted his previous statement and stoutly contended that his wife had not given birth to the children. It is claimed that the contrary can be proven, but up to yesterday afternoon no new developments had been made and the spot of burial had not been discovered. Those who have charge of the case are confident that foul play has been exercised.
