> Brigham Preparing for War. [By telegraph to N. Y. Herald.] SALT LAKE, May 4.

The indignant feeling aroused throughout the United States by the testimony at John D. Lee's trial, relative to the Mountain Meadow massacre, has led the Latter Day Saints to apprehend the arrest of Brigham Young and other heads of the Church who are accused of sanctioning the commission of that horrible crime. The Saints have determined to resist any movement against Brigham Young by the Federal authority, and to this end they are secretly arming and drilling throughout the Territory of Utab. Orders have been privately issued by the military commanders of the famous Nauvoo Legion requiring that dilapidated organization to be in readiness for active service on the 21st of the present month. Preparations for hostilities are partreparations for hostilities are par-ticularly active among the Southern rush of work outside and the alleged insettlements, to which four boxes of sufficiency of pay. breech loading rifles were shipped last week from the co-operative store a colored man, and to appoint a white man in his place. Several gentlemen of that city are now here as candidates for the position. They say that such a change is in the line of pacification. One of them has seen the President in his own behalf-as a candidate, but he makes no report of a favorable consideration of his case.

A Great Preacher Passing Away.

NEW YORK, May 7. There was no change to-day in the condition of Dr. Stephen Tyng, Sr. He is suffering from typhoid fever and erysipelas, and is very low. Dr. Tyng has been unwell since Monday last, and has had a serious relapse. His physicians think that at his advanced age but slight hopes can be held out for his recovery.

[Concord Register.]

There is no money in the country; people's pockets are dry and dusty. We will learn wisdom after awhile; but, much we fear, it will not be until we have been starved into it. Farmers, plant something that you can eat, and plenty of it. Plant corn and potatoes, sow wheat and oats next fall, the fuss may last two or three years in Europe. Get on hand a supply of provisions and let cotton get a little scarce, and then you will begin to learn something about prosperity. One thing is certain, it is a losing business to pay five dollars a sack for wheat, a dollar a bushel for corn, twenty cents for bacon, and raise and sell cotton for nine cents a Pegram, was appointed to prepare rules and by-laws, and to attend to other details incident to perfecting the organization. We gather this from the Observer.

- We published recently an account of the killing of Nehemiah Permenter by George Carpenter in Anson county. The Monroe Hapress says it grew out of a difficulty about a colt. Carpenter had bought land of Permenter giving him a colt in part payment. The land was mortgaged and Carptenter took the colt and passed by a field in which Permenter was at work. The latter attempted to take the colt when Carpenter shot him through the heart.

- Newbern Nutshell: Rev. James B. White, Catholic Priest of this city, will leave here on Friday morning next for his new home in Raleigh, and will commence at once to pull down the old church and prepare to build a handsome Catholic Church one hundred feet long, sixty feet high and fifty-five feet wide, having a basement twelve feet high. The basement will be of quarried stone, and most probably the whole edifice, otherwise, of brick.

- Reidsville Times: There was a terrific hail storm in certain sections of this county last Sunday evening. In the Northern part of Guilford, about Brown's Summit, it commenced at 4 P. M., and old Mr. Rudd, who is 60 years old, says he never saw such a hail storm in all his life. The stones were nearly the size of sparrow eggs and were of a uniformity rarely known. It was an inch deep on level ground. In the neighborhood of the Hannahs the storms was quite destructive. One man of glass.

> Fraudulent Recommendations. We again caution housekeepers to be careful that they are not imposed upon by false certificates of character from servants out of employment. Our attention has been called to the fact that a family in this city recently found it necessary to get rid of a servant for inattention to duty, and subsequently the woman called upon the lady of the house for a recommendation which was refused. The ex-servant then got one of her friends to write a recommendation and forge the lady's name to it, armed with which she went out to seek employment; but it happened that the certificate was so badly written and the spelling so outrageous and ridiculous that suspicions as to its genuineness were at once aroused, and a note was written to the lady by one of the parties upon whom the servant had tried to impose the forged paper, calling her attention to the matter. The lady informed her husband of the circumstaance, who immediately hunted up the woman and succeeded in getting posses sion of the fraudulent recommendation, which reads as follows:

"WILMINGTON, N. C., April 28, 1877. "E-B-have bin liveing with mee 1 year and 6 months, and is of a good as far as is cook and scour, wash and iron and do any little thing that comes.'

This had no signature, but another cer ificate was written on the same piece of paper, to which the name was appended,

Left for Parts Unknown. Joseph Binlan, a seaman, who was pu in the chain-gang for forty-five days, commencing with the 26th ult., for non-payment of fines and costs against him in the Mayor's Court for disorderly conduct, fighting, &c., was released yesterday morn ing on the payment of costs in the two cases. A shipping master furnished the money and then shipped the seaman on one of the vessels in port, but before he could be gotten on board he seized a favorable opportunity, slipped his anchor and winged his flight to parts unknown. The police were looking for him yesterday afternoon, but up to last accounts he had not been recaptured.

Dr. Wood's Lecture.

We had intended giving this morning synopsis of, or some extracts from, the admirable paper on the "Insectivorous Plants of the Wilmington Region," read before the Historical and Scientific Society by Dr. Thos. F. Wood Monday evening. We and 6 months and is of a good caractor as | find, however, on examination of the manuscript copy, that neither a synopsis nor extracts would do the author justice. We regret that we cannot give the paper in extenso, as we feel sure that it would be read with great pleasure and profit by a large circle of our readers. It is unquestionably one of the most valuable contributions made to the records of the Historical and Scientific Society.

Uniform of the Whiting Rifles. A sample suit of the uniform which the Whiting Rifles have decided upon purchas ing was on exhibition in Mr. P. Heinsberger's show window yesterday. The cloth is of gray, trimmed with black and with gold facings, the coat being of the doublebreasted pattern and cut in the style of dress coat, with epaulettes of white, the whole make up being decidedly neat, stylish and handsome. THE DUTY OF WOMAN. -To be attractive is THE DUTY OF WOMAN.—To be attractive is a duty which every lady owes to herself, to her domestic circle, and to society. Not only should she endeavor to please in address and in apparel, but, whenever possible, in complexion and in feature as well. Facial embellishment is to a lady as proper, and oftentimes as necessary, as are the adornments of her raiment, the artificial graces of her conversation, of her demeanor, or other meretricious attractions upon which depend so much of her dominion and influence ever man. The woman who permits herself to become unlovely, who resigns herself hopelessly to the ravages of time, and the spoliation of her charms, visits upon her friends and admirers a sorrowful regret, that it becomes her to avert to the latest day. Of this social duty it may truthfully be said that she can best acquit herself by the use of Gouraud's Olympian Cream. No other preparation approaches this in excellence, in harmlessness and purity, or compares with it in the number of spontaneous testimonials that its virtues have elicited. Its advertisement has hitherto been its merit, its recommendation by all that have used it, and not by sounding and pretentious advertising in the journals of the day. Trial bottles 25 cents.
