Annual Banquet of Chamber of Commerce-Speech of President Hayes-Sentiments Loudly Applauded-Ex-Gov. Tilden, Gov. Robinson, and Other State Dignitaries Decline to Attend-Destructive Fire, &c.

NEW YORK, May 16. At the annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce, President Hayes said, "Mr. President: It is a gratification to have the opportunity to meet such an assemblage of the business men of the city of New York. I wish to make my acknowledgments to them for their invitation to enjoy with them their annual social meeting. I wish to assure them that this hearty greeting is very welcome to me. (Cheers.) At peace with all the nations of the world, with an honest purpose on the part of our people, and the part of the government, (loud cheers) to strive for the restoration of the ancient concord within our own limits (hurrahs and great applause), I believe that notwithstanding the unfortunate array of figures which has been disentombed, that we may confidently look for early, decided and encouraging evidences of the revival of business prosperity throughout our country."

It has been ascertained beyond question that invitations to attend the Chamber of Commerce were sent to ex Gov. Tilden, Gov. Robinson, and all of the leading officials of the State, but they all declined, lest their presence should seem an endorsement of the declaration of Mr. Hayes' elec-

England and the Suez Canal-Servia will Observe Neutrality-Position of Roumania-Russians Preparing to Cross the Danube-Capture of a Turkish Gunboat-Strength of the Russian Army, &c., &c.

LONDON, May 15. A Paris dispatch says L. Lesseps has had a long interview with the Duc de Cazes relative to measures to be taken to secure the neutralization of the Suez Canal during the present war. The French shareholders of the Canal seem to suspect the intentions of the British fleet.

The Standard's Rome special telegraphs:
"I hear that all naval officers on leave have been recalled, and that all army officers have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to join their commands."

The Times Belgrade dispatch says the Russian Consul has declared, in special audience with Prince Milan, that Russia has notified Austria and England that Servia will observe a neutrality, and that Russian troops will not enter Servia, she being excluded from the plan of operations.

The Grand Duke Nicholas and Prince

Charles of Roumania have had a meeting. The latter's position in the army was satis factorily arranged. Nicholas arrives at Bucharest to-day. The Czar, by isolated action, has seceded from the alliance of the three Emperors, but is still bound to abstain from any action injurious to Germany or Austria. Roumania has been notified if she commences hostilities or declares independence she forfeits the protection given her by the Treaty of Paris.

The Daily Telegraph's dispatch, dated Machin, Monday, says the Russians are apparently making an attempt to cross the Danube. Heavy artillery firing has been going on up to the moment of my sending this dispatch. The Turks have been successful in repelling the attack. The Russians are believed to be in great force. The Telegraph's Bucharest dispatch confirms the capture of the Turkish gunboat which tried to pass Kalafat.

The Russian front will be covered by ten regiments of Cossacks. The inundations are now decreased in the Binla Valley, and 6,000 troops are

It is thought that Gray, home ruler, has been elected to Parliament from Tipperary, Ireland, in place of O'Callaghan. In the town of Tipperary a mob pelted Gray, and their attitude became so menacing that the police were obliged to fix bayonets and the police were obliged to fix bayonets and the riot act was read. The rain, however, for-tunately dispersed the crowd.

MANCHESTER, May 15. The Guardian's Vienna dispatch says the Eighth and Twelfth Russian corps will probably cross the Danube near Turna Magurel, thereby turning the Bulgarian quadrilateral. The 7th and 11th corps will invade the Dobmdscha.

LONDON, May 15. The Times, in a leading article, says: "Nothing has been so remarkable during the debate in Parliament as the declarations in favor of peace, from Conservatives as well as Liberals. The war party finds itself a small minority. We do not say that all danger is past, for every Russian suc-cess may be expected to provoke unrea-sonable panic, but for the present the country and government are in the way of safety. Both sides of the House will doubtless claim some advantage, but the real gain lies with the party which is on the side of peace. If both parties claim that honorable distinction so much the better for the country."

A Times dispatch from Pera, May 12, says there are being rumors circulated in Tutteha that in the event of that place Tutteha that in the event of that place having to be abandoned, orders have been given that it should be destroyed by the retreating garrison. The consuls of Austria, Greece and other States applied to the governors, who acknowledged that such were his orders, but that before things came to such extremities he would give the consuls and all aliens timely warning so as to provide for the safety of their persons and as much property as they could remove. Such orders, the governors added, had been sent to all persons commanding in Bulgaria. The consuls communicated with their respective envoys here and remonstrances were made by them to the Porte. The government gave reassuring answers as to the safety of the persons of foreign subjects, but evinced some disposition to persevere in the destructive system of de-fensive warfare.

Advices About Cholera-The Mormons Still Preparing to Defend their Chief-The Gentiles Alarmed -Calls for Troops, &c.

WASHINGTON, May 15. Richard Smith, of the Cincinnati Gazette, is bidder for furnishing postal cards. The State Department has information from the Consul General at Calcutta, that Capt. Small, his sister, chief officer Dyer, and three seamen, of the American barque Edmund Phinney, died of cholera at Aky-abo on the 25th of March. Cholera prevails dreadfully at Chittagong, and along the coast and islands inundated by the great storm wave of October, 1867.

A Salt Lake dispatch says the arming and drilling of the Mormons continue throughout Utah. Gentiles, and especially those in the northern and southern settlements, are alarmed at the few United States troops in Utah. Gov. Emery has written a letter to the Secretary of War, requesting that Camp Douglass be provided with five companies of infantry and two of cavalry, and that Camp Cameron shall have two full companies.

Mardigras Festival - An Immense Procession, &c.

NEW YORK, April 15. Rex landed at the Custom House peer amid the cheer of a vast multitude. The carriage, drawn by six bay horses, was in waiting for his majesty and his companions, grand Turks and Khedive of Egypt. In front of the Custom House wharf the King and his companions entered their carriage, the procession started on the way up Battery place. The van was led by mounted policemen, followed by the band, who in turn and were followed by the marshals on horseback. Then came the King. The industrial chariots fell into the line from the side streets and from Whitehall street. Nearly all the trades were represented, from the makers of clothing to the makers of axle grease. The brewers were out in force, with tableaux cars. A printing house sent out a little printing office on wheels. The soap manufacturers vied with each other grandly. Fire-workmen sent burning cauldrons through the streets. One of the weekly journals had a car which carried characters in popular stories along the line of march. Tailors, butchers, wine merchants, shirt maker furniture shops, ice cream makers, and many other trades and industries were represented.

The Great Fire at St. Stephen's—Some of the Particulars.

Boston, May 15.

A special to the Herald states the losses by the fire at St. Stephen's, N. B., last night, to be nearly five hundred thousand dollars. About sixty-three tenements, eleven wharves and two schooners were burned. Among the heaviest losers are the New Brunswick & Canada Railroad Company, the depot, machine shops, wharves and a number of engines and cars being destroyed. The Watson House, a number of valuable buildings, and the ship S. E. Shipman were burned.

LOUISIANA.

Loss of a Steamer-The Passengers and all but Three of the Crew Saved. NEW ORLEANS, April 24. The Baton Rouge steamer, Sandy No. 2, coming down, struck a log five miles above this city, about midnight, and soon com-menced sinking. Some saved themselves on cotton bales. The women and children were placed in a yawl boat and landed safely, bouyed up with cotton bales. The boat floated by the city with two feet of water in the cabin, where skiffs took off the rest of the passengers and craw. It is the rest of the passengers and crew. It is supposed that three of the crew are lost. The boat lies bottom up five miles below. Books, money and everything else in the cabin were lost.

At Baltimore both Methodist conventions are waiting reports from their respective committees on the basis of union.

Striking Coal Miners Polson New Men Employed in the Works-Sixty Victims in the Throes of Agony.

CHICAGO, May 15. A special dispatch from Streater, Ill., says the coal miners at that place who struck some time ago, and whose places were filled by new men, but also were sub-sequently taken back for the most part, so that only one hundred new men were retained, have for a long time been kept separate from the "Black Legs," as the novices are called, to avoid trouble from the jealousy of the old miners. Of late, however, the two gangs have been allowed to mingle, and yesterday the rankling hate of the old miners found expression by some of their number putting poison in the dinner buckets of the new men. Last night some sixty of the victims were in the throes of agony, and many of them will undoubtedly die from the effects of the poison, while the lives of all of them hang upon threads.

ELECTRIC SPARKS.

The Rochester Paper Company's factories, located at the Lower Falls, in Rochester, N. Y., were destoyred by fire Monday night. Loss $100,000; insurance $80,000. Miss Cornelia Chisolm, who was wounded in the Kemper (Mississippi) affray, died yesterday of gangrene of the arm, result-ing from lack of prompt surgical attention.

A dispatch from Richmond reports that a lioness, supposed to have escaped from some menagerie, is depredating in Hanover county, Virginia. There is much consternation among the people, and an active search is being made for her.

Mike Dubbles, foreman of an Illinois distillery, has been arrested for tampering with barrels after they were stamped. The whole stock of 3,500 barrels, worth $300,000, has been seized. The proprietors claim Dubbles acted from zeal for their interest, not from orders from them.

Annual Statistical Statement of Rosin and Spirits of Turpentine for Two Years ending March 31, 1877. From Commercial Circular of Messrs.

Charter & King, New York. | In presenting this our first annual statement to our friends, we beg to state we have made up the returns from April 1st, to March 31st, instead of from January to December, which has previously been the cus tom, as the former months undoubtedly em- Hakon Jarl (Nor.), 490 tons, Mosfjeld, brace the turpentine season just as the cotton year commences September 1st, and ends October 31st. There is but little occasion for us to review at length the business of the past year, our shippers are unfortu-nately only too well aware of the extremely low prices that have ruled. Spirits turpentine sold as low as 284 cents, and as high as 50 cents. The lowest point common rosin touched was $1 55 and the highest $2 65. The average price of the former was 364 cents and on the latter $1 924, the lowest prices those articles have sold at for many many years. There is no question that there is less spirits of turpentine consumed here than formerly, our figures show that the domestic consumption in New York last year was 2,114 bbls. less than the year previous. This is attributable to the fact that benzine has to some extent been taking its place in the manufacture of paints and varnishes, although these articles so manu-factured are inferior to those prepared with spirits of turpentine, they are cheaper and Geo W Jewett, 281 tons, Blair, consequently more in favor with painters. With reference to the present season we would venture to predict that better prices would rule later on, for the prolonged cold weather in the Southern States has so far interfered considerably with the dipping, and will necessarily lessen the production, but the European war will militate against an advance, for Russia consumes large quantities of rosin. Should the war not become general and meet with an early termination, then we expect to see higher prices this year. In gathering the statistics we have been unable to obtain the accurate returns of receipts, &c., at New Orleans and Mobile; however, estimating the receipts at those ports at 100,000 barrels rosin and 20,000 barrels spirits of turpentine, we make the crop of rosin last year 1,134,072 barrels, against 1,213,879 barrels the year previous, and 231,080 barrels of spirits of turpentine against 531,627 barrels manufactured during the previous year. SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE. Ports. Receipts. 1875 6 1876-7|| FOREIGN. || COASTWISE 1875-6 1876-7 1875-6 1876-7 | Bbls. | Bbls Ports. Receipts. Exports,
