OUTLINES.

There is a crisis in the French Cabinet and all but two have resigned; considera ble dismay felt in Paris. - American officers in Khedive's army refuse to fight against Russia. --- The Roumanians are strongly fortifying at Kalafat; they have guns bearing on Widden; they have twelve redoubts. - The Turks have made Rutschuck enormously strong; it has two hundred guns mounted besides gun-boats.

- The Russians have not advanced. -The Turks are fortifying the passes in the Balkan mountains. - The Circassian insurrection is spreading. - MacMahon's letter to M. Simon is regarded as very serious. - The President will appoint only true-blue, fire-tried Republicans to office in the South, but will try to secure good men. -- Stone contracts throughout the country will be disregarded after July 1. - Grant has sailed on steamer India; shipping gayly decorated. - A new French Cabinet will be formed at once : the Chamber of Deputies will have a month's holiday by being prorogued. - The Russians have advanced to Karakalesa in great force. - A resolution was adopted in the French Chamber of Deputies, by 355 to 154, declaring that it will only place confidence in a Cabinet free and resolved to govern according to Republican principles. -- The Turks

and Circassians have achieved a complete success at Soakgoone Kateh. — Russian ships have sailed from New York with Don Carlos to the Front.

LONDON, May 16. Don Carlos in his letter addressed to Marquis Walde Espina, with reference to the conscription, says "Those who think that failures im pair the national and monarchial unity of Spain are mistaken. As guardian of the rights of all Spaniards, I protest against the iniquitous decrees and against the fresh attacks upon, and revolution of venerable institutions. The Basque people know the legitimate monarchy has always been their rampart. They shall live under the standard of true Spain. I am the depository of it, and I am keeping it unsullied for the moment when God shall indicate the hour of justice."

Another Revolution. NEW YORK, May 16.

A special to the World from New Orleans says a revolution has broken out in the district of the Rio Grande, State of Cohahuila, Mexico, where General Valdes, with 600 troops of the Republic, has declared for President Lerdo. The revolutionists have taken possession of the whole district, except the town of Piedras Ne gras, which, though barricaded, can offer but feeble resistance, and will be attacked in two or three days.

The Carnival Flasco.

NEW YORK, May 16. The morning papers generally agree in this construction, that yesterday's carnival was a failure, and more of an advertising dodge and pecuniary speculation than a festival. The management of the affair is severely criticised, and the opinion is unanimous that we shall have no more carnivals unless they are established on a different principle and conducted by a competent person.

They are a natural curiosity, which, as the name indicates, consists of seven springs, of the clearest water, arising within a few feet of each other, and each impreg nated with mineral water peculiar to itself These, it is thought, consist of iron, sul-phur, alum, magnesia and the chlorides. Specimens have been sent to Prof. Kerr for analysis. These springs are surrounded by a range of small mountains or hills, which presents a most romantic appearance, and which renders the place a most lovely one.'

-- News: The readers of the News will remember that a few days ago mention was made that Attorney General Devens had sent the notorious J. G. Hester on a voyage of discovery through the Western District of the State, to nose into the charges and counter-charges of cor-ruption and party treason made by Re-publican office-holders and office-seekers against each other. Hester, it seems, has concluded his nosing tour, for a letter was received yesterday by a prominent Republican of this city, from Washington, stating that Hester's report was exceedingly damaging to Douglassa, nd leans somewhat strongly to Eaves, who is said to be very popular with all classes.

THE RED MEN.

Their Celebration Yesterday-The Procession on Horseback-The Oration-The Ball at Night, &c.

Wyoming Tribe, No. 4, Improved Order of Red Men, of this city, celebrated their anniversary yesterday afternoon by a grand parade on horseback through all the principal streets of the city.

The Tribe, arrayed in the handsome regalia of their order, assembled at their Wigwam on Princess street, between Front and Second, at 3 o'clock, shortly after which they formed into line, headed by the Cornet Concert Club, in full uniform. The band was seated in a wagon, handsomely decorated for the occasion, and drawn by four horses with red trappings. A carriage containing Mr. W. H. Gerken, Orator of the day, and Mr. W. S. Hewlett, Vice

Great Incohonee, brought up the rear. The ranks of the procession were full, there being fifty-five members of the Tribe in line, and as they took up the order of march with their beautiful banner, splendid regalia, and the various officers bearing the insignia of their rank in the Tribe, they made a very imposing appearance and attracted great attention throughout their line of march, by the crowds of " pale faces" that were gathered upon the various thoroughfares.

By the way, we are informed that this is the first procession that has ever extended its march into that part of the city north of the W. & W. railroad.

The procession was a grand success, and reflected great credit upon the committee of Arrangements and the Marshals of the day, Messrs, C. C. Redd, T. A. Watson and T. W. Howard.

At the Opera House at night P. L. Wm. H. Gerken, the orator for the occasion, delivered an extremely interesting oration on the Origin, History and Duties of the Red Men, which was replete with information and statistics relative to the order. Mr. Gerken's address was listened to with marked attention by his audience and frequently applauded.

The celebration concluded with a grand ball in the Opera House, which was largely attended and heartily enjoyed by a number of ladies and gentlemen, and which was kept up until a late hour.

In addition to the dancing, there were also refreshments provided for those in attendance upon the ball, which came in very appropriately after the fatigue incident to the "war path" and the "tripping of the light fantastic."

The Light Infantry Celebration-Invitations to Participate.

The Mexican Veterans of this city have been invited to be present and participate with the Wilmington Light Infantry Company in their anniversary celebration on Monday next, the 21st inst. The veterans will meet at the Court House at 9 o'clock Monday morning to make the necessary arrangements for joining in the celebration.

The members of the Produce Exchange have also been invited to attend in a body upon the ceremonies at the Opera House, where Judge Cantwell will deliver the anniversary address, and have signified their acceptance of the invitation.

The Dramatic Entertainment at the Opera House To-Night. At the Opera House this evening, the ladies and gentlemen who so ably and successfully catered for the good people of Smlthville, as amateurs in the dramatic field, will repeat their excellent entertainment for the gratification of the Wilmington public, the proceeds to be applied to the fund in sid of the families of the lost pilots. The programme is a very attractive one, and judging from the many very favorable comments by those who witnessed the two performances in Smithville, we feel assured that a rare treat is in store for those who may be present at the entertainment to-night. We hope to see a full house, not only because there is every reason to believe that the performance will be appreciated by all who witness it, but in consideration of the fact that the proceeds are to be so worthily applied.

The price of admission is 50 cents : reserved seats 75 cents; to be had at Heinsberger's book store.

Violating the Revenue.

N. B. Taylor, who was indicted during the late term of the United States District Court, for violating the Internal Revenue laws, and committed to jail in default of bond in the sum of $500, gave the necessary security yesterday and was released, whereupon he was re-arrested, upon an affidavit sworn out by Deputy United States Marshal Peterson, and taken before United States Commissioner VanAmringe on another charge of violating the revenue laws, by manufacturing tobacco without license. The case was continued until this morning at 10 o'clock, for the government.
