Virginia Appointments.

[Special to Baltimore Sun.]

WASHINGTON, May 20.

On Friday night last, Col. Mosby had an interview at the White House with the President on the subject of some of the Federal appointments for the State of Virginia. Col. Mosby had another interview with the President of the same subject yesterday morning, and urged the appointment of Col. W. W. Forbes as postmaster at Richmond, and of James D. Brady as collector of internal revenue at Petersburg. The President then promised Col. Mosby that he would direct commissions to be made out for both of the gentlemen named. Subsequently to his interview with the President Col. Mosby stated in conversation with the correspondent of the Star, that in the case of the internal revenue collector at Petersburg he had made it a test case as between native Southern applicants and carpet baggers. Richards, the present collector, is a Maine carpet-bagger. His reappointment was pressed very strongly by Mr. Blaine, and also by Mr. Jorgenson, the Republican member of the House from the Petersburg district, and the only Republican elected to the House of Representatives from Virginia.

Chamberlain's Opinion of Hampton.

The New York Herald's man has interviewed Chamberlain. Here is a part of what the great disappointed said:

It is a fact, however, that now there is peace and good order throughout the State, although I do not think that this should be to any extent regarded as a justification of the illegal or violent measures that were resorted to for the purpose of obtaining control. Still, it may be recognized as a fact that so far in the State at large there have been no outrages of power or abuse of the colored people or Republicans generally.

There was a large majority of the people of South Carolina entitled to vote who desired a continuance of the Republican administration, and I do not think that General Hampton represents this element. Still I believe he will endeavor to make a good and honest government so far as its financial and practical departments are concerned.

Fast Trotting in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.

At Chico to-day Goldsmith Maid and Rarus trotted, best three in five, for a purse of $2,000 and an extra thousand if the best time in the State was beaten. The track was excellent and the day favorable. The first heat: At the start Rarus had the lead nearly a length; the Maid closed the gap on the first quarter, and took and maintained the lead, winning the heat by half a neck in 2:14. The second heat: Rarus a length behind at the start, which relative position was maintained until turning into the home stretch, when the Maid skipped, but caught her feet almost instantly; Rarus closed nearly neck and neck in the meantime, but the Maid crossed the score half a neck ahead in 2:14. The third heat was similar to the second, and won by the Maid in 2:17.

Blaine's Advice to Republicans.

WASHINGTON, May 21.

There has been much said about the growing opposition to the policy of the Administration. It is also true that letters have been written here by gentlemen high in official position, which had much to say in the way of doubts as to the success of the same. Senator Blaine, who has often been quoted in this conversation, said to your correspondent, while at the State Department to-day, after he had a pleasant interview with Secretary Evans, that the best advice he could give to all Republicans was to behave themselves.

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XX.—NO. 53.

WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MAY 23, 1877.

WHOLE NO. 3,056

THE MECKLENBURG DECLARATION.

The 102nd Anniversary—Gov. Vance speaks.

The day was grandly celebrated at Charlotte on Monday by firing of cannon, military parade, and a speech of the Governor. We give the following synopsis that appears in the Richmond Dispatch:

The Governor said it was a good sign to see a people meet annually to celebrate the wisest and best deeds of their ancestors. The love of freedom will never perish so long as we continue to commemorate the day on which that freedom was born. The last twelve years have seen the severest strains since their erection upon the bulwarks of our liberties, which on yesterday one hundred and two years ago were begun to be established, and declared should be ours by our forefathers of Mecklenburg county. During that time they have been assailed by all the chaotic disorders following rampant in the wake of civil war—sectional hatred, political disagreements, embittered by generations of accumulated dislike, and tempered by but few honest differences; while unscrupulous ambition, insatiate venality, and corruption wide-spread and indescribable, pervaded all ranks. The hearts of all patriots in the land were hushed with fear, and there was grave reason to believe that we were drifting into that chaotic anarchy from which there is no escape save through the gates of despotism. It was only the recollection of the people from whom we derive our blood which enabled us to preserve any hope; thoughts of their persevering, liberty-loving character—the pertinacity with which they resisted tyranny and attacked fraud and corruption, gaining victory in the end. These thoughts made our faith grow brighter in the capacity of our people to follow their example.

A glimpse of fruition is even now gladdening our eyes, and we may reasonably hope and believe that the worst is passed, and ere long we will be permitted to live on in peace, prosperity and happiness.

The Virginia Episcopal Council. [Special Dispatch to Baltimore Sun.]

STANTON, Va., May 20.

The Episcopal Council closed its session yesterday after the transaction of a variety of routine business. An interesting discussion was had on a resolution by Col. J. M. Patton, "that the diocese of Virginia prizes episcopacy as a venerable, historic form of church government or ecclesiastical polity, but does not maintain and does not find in the prayer book the exclusive validity of episcopal orders." The whole matter was eventually laid on the table. The Council nonconcurrent in the amendment to the constitution proposed by the General Convention of 1874 regarding missionary jurisdiction.

Interesting to Rice Growers.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.

Telegrams to leading merchants here say the first rice crop in China is a complete failure, owing to the overflow at Canton and other places. The price has advanced from 25 to 30 cents by the "picul," (one hundred and thirty-three pounds.)

Swapping the Devil for a Witch.

WASHINGTON, May 21.

Thomas C. Dunn, formerly State Comptroller-General, was to-day appointed Collector of Internal Revenue of South Carolina, vice L. C. Carpenter, resigned.

The Baltimore Corn Market.

The business in Western corn on Saturday showed a decline in the price of 1 1/2 cents per bushel, which was nearly if not quite all the advance of the day previous. The absence of exciting rumors from the other side is the cause assigned for the decline.

Spirits Turpentine.

—A poor fruit crop for the Stokes section.

—The Goldsboro Minstrels made $45 at Wilson.

—Halifax sends three colored convicts to the big pen.

—Burglars and thieves are depre-dating at Reidsville.

—Raleigh has one swell-head. It takes an $8 hat to fit it.

—Some ten houses were destroyed by the late Durham fire.

—Gov. Vance attended the 20th May celebration at Charlotte.

—Mrs. Kate Ward, aged 97, died in Stokes county on 18th inst.

—The Danburyians amuse themselves with "wheelbarrow tournaments."

—The Reidsville Times tells of a Caswell calf with a long, solid hoof like a mule's.

—The Goldsboro Presbyterian ladies held two dime parties last week with satisfactory results.

—The Medical Convention this year promises to be well attended. It met at Salem yesterday.

—Pionies are just now as abundant as mosquitoes. They all bite—some the pocket and others the skin.

—Mr. Jas. W. Barden, of Wayne, was seriously hurt by being thrown from his buggy by a runaway horse.

—Mr. Einstein, of Boston, Mass., whilst on a visit to Goldsboro with his family, lost two of his children by death.

—Mr. Joseph Utley, one of Fayetteville's best citizens, died on the 19th of disease of the heart.

—Capt. John McKellar, an excellent gentleman, highly esteemed in Cambridge, died on Saturday last.

—Newbern District Conference, M. E. Church, met at Newbern on the 18th. A good attendance. It sat for four days.

—Albert Sunwell stabbed Wiley Barrett six times at Henderson. Wounds severe, the cutter has fled, and a wench was the cause.

—Lincoln Progress: We learn that the dwelling house of the widow Henry, Gaston county, was entirely destroyed by fire last Tuesday.

—The town of Creswell, in Washington county, that was reported burned, is a little place named after the late Postmaster General, J. A. J. Creswell.

—Raleigh News: The contract for plastering the United States courthouse and postoffice here has been awarded to C. W. Dozier, of Norfolk, Va., for $5,525, he being the lowest bidder.

—Danbury Reporter: Instead of two bar-rooms, Danbury now boasts of two prosperous Sunday schools. The colored people organized a school last Sunday for the religious training of their children.

—Raleigh Observer: We learn that Mr. W. A. Price, of this city, has been tendered a position as boss machinist by the Russian government, and that he intends leaving for that warlike country in a few days.

—Not a Wilmington Star received here till yesterday. Start that paper this way, and never let it miss fire. The pot won't boil without it.—Reidsville Times. Wherever the fault, it must be corrected. The Star must shine at Reidsville.

—Danbury Recorder: On Wednesday last week Mr. J. D. Smith, of our village, sustained severe injuries while in the woods felling timber, a tree striking him, breaking one bone in his right arm, and inflicting other painful injuries.

—Raleigh Observer: About six hundred excursionists from Weldon and along the line of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, arrived in the city yesterday at 11 o'clock. A more orderly and well behaved set never came to Raleigh on a like occasion.

—Goldsboro Messenger: The smoke house of Mr. Hilory Hastings, in Fork township, was robbed on Sunday night of last week of a considerable quantity of bacon. A pig that some of these smoke house thieves are not left dead in their tracks.

—Reidsville Times: Gov. Reid was the youngest looking man at Wentworth Court. He appeared in every case. Mr. French, of this county, a distinguished member of the Canby Convention, has engaged Gov. Reid as counsel in a fornication and adultery suit.

—Congressman-elect Brogden has written one of his most glowing letters to the managers of the International Exhibition.

My pen is bad, my ink is pale, But when call'd on I never fail.

[Patented.]

—Goldsboro Messenger: We learn that Gov. Brogden will soon be called upon by Hon. E. Vance, to account for about $10,000 worth of improved guns that disappeared from the State armory during his administration, and for which his devoted Adjutant General has so far failed to give an account.

—Goldsboro Messenger: Our farmers give us cheering reports as to the fruit crop. The wheat prospect, too, is said to be very good, and we are glad to know that a larger acreage has been planted throughout this section than at any period heretofore. This is right. Let the crop be increased with every season.

—Reidsville Times: A negro boy, big enough to fight, was before Judge Cox for a witness, at Whitworth, Tuesday. The Judge asked who made him. Didn't know. Ever been to church? No. Ever hear tell of a Bible? No. Ever hear tell of God? No. The Judge stood him aside. Here is richness for missionaries.

—One of a party of colored emigrants, forty in number, who went from North Carolina to Liberia in 1869, writes back to some friends: "We have planted down potatoes, eddoes, cassadas, and various garden seeds. I hope you will send out the emigrants from the colony of Martin, and let them come to Broverville. All of the members say 'Thanks be to God of Heaven,' and every one is satisfied."

—News: F. H. Wilkins, S. S. Mebane and N. F. Roberts, graduates of the Theological Department of Shaw University, were colored, were ordained last Sabbath evening at the College Church, on the corner of Blount and Cabarrus streets. The Rev. H. M. Tupper officiated, assisted by the Revs. Augustus Shepperd, J. J. Winder, M. C. Ransom and Samuel F. Winder, all of whom save one are graduates of the same department.

—Danbury Reporter: The People's Press asks where are the martins, their boxes being unoccupied this Spring. We here can ask the same question, and go further by asking where are the red birds, catbirds, bluebirds, robins, turtle-doves, the wild screams of the blue jay, and the hoarse croaking of the raven? They are nearly all gone, and a death-like silence prevails in our wild forests. An epidemic is now prevailing among the feathered order of life, and none can know whence it came or whither it goeth.

Magistrate's Court.

Before Justice W. W. Harris, yesterday morning, one John Davis, colored, was arraigned on the charge of committing an assault upon Ella Holmes, colored. Defendant was ordered to pay a fine of $1 and the costs.

Taylor Woodward, colored, was arraigned before Justice Gardner, on the affidavit of his wife, for assault and battery, for which he was ordered to pay a fine of $10 and the costs. The same defendant was next arraigned on a peace warrant, sworn out by his wife, and was ordered to give bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was committed to jail.

Horse Stolen.

Mr. Charles Craig, of Federal Point, who was in this city yesterday, reports that he had a valuable horse stolen from him on Sunday night last. The animal had been turned out on the marsh to feed, and failed to come up as usual, when a diligent search was made for him, but without avail. Mr. Craig has no clue to the perpetrator of the theft or as to the whereabouts of his horse.

Local Notes.

—The thermometer indicated 85 degrees in our office yesterday at noon.

—When shall we have a sailing or rowing regatta upon the bosom of the old Cape Fear, in front of the city?

—This section was visited by two good showers of rain Monday night, accompanied by thunder and lightning.

—A steamship is reported to be on the way from Italy to this port with a cargo of sulphur for the Navyassa Guano Works.

—Capt. G. L. Dudley, Chief Clerk in the Secretary of State's office, is here on a short visit to his old home and friends, and is looking remarkably well.

—Drs. Thomas F. Wood and W. W. Lane, of this city, are in attendance upon the session of the State Medical Convention, which met in Salem yesterday.

—The Front Street Methodist Church is undergoing repairs, but it does not interfere with the worship of the congregation, the work at present being on the building.

—Nearly stationary or rising barometer, stationary or lower temperature, northwest to southwest winds and clear or partly cloudy weather, are the indications for this section to-day.

—There seems to be considerable difference in temperature between this city and Norfolk. On Monday the Signal Office reported the thermometer at Norfolk at 93 and in Wilmington at only 80 degrees. Our breezes during the summer months are unsurpassed.

—All the furniture and effects of the office recently fitted up by W. H. Harrison, the lottery man, where he was to make several fortunes under the charter of the N. C. Beneficial Association, were sold under an attachment yesterday by Sheriff Manning, and bid off by Mr. F. A. Shutte at $151.

—The old Veteran Light Infantry Corps looked so well on Monday, in their fatigue caps and badges, and reminded so many of our citizens of former and better days, when they saw BUDDY SAVAGE, as he was once familiarly called, in command, that the wish was expressed that they would form a company among themselves, to be styled the Veteran Corps.

Keep the Streets Clean.

The sickly season of the year approaches, and great care should be taken to place the city in good sanitary condition. We regret, however, to learn from many of our citizens that, notwithstanding the health regulations, those whose duty it is to look after the matter are not setting a very good example in regard to cleansing the streets, as one gentleman says no dirt or rubbish has been removed from the street in the square where he resides for several weeks, and that a dead rooster was allowed to remain unburied upon the street for several days, until a lad came and voluntarily carried it away to some other locality. There should be no neglect in such an important matter as preserving the public health.

Colored Lyceum.

"Acorn Grove Lyceum" is the name of a debating club of young colored men, who hold semi-monthly meetings in the colored Presbyterian Church, corner of Eighth and Chestnut streets, where they discuss various questions, read compositions, essays, &c., with the view of improving their minds and making themselves useful as well as ornamental in their day and generation. We are glad to be able to record such evidences of a desire on the part of our colored population to improve their intellectual as well as moral condition. The last subject for discussion was, in substance, "Which has the most influence on the public mind, the hope of reward or the fear of punishment."

A Timely Suggestion.

The incidents connected with the organization of the Wilmington Light Infantry should not be allowed to pass into oblivion, and hence a friend suggests that the speech of Col. Edward Cantwell, delivered on the 21st inst.—or, better still—the speech, together with a life sketch of every decorated member of the corps, from its organization up to the present time, be printed in pamphlet form, and the proceeds of its sale devoted to assisting the maimed, crippled and blind Confederate soldiers in or near our city, and the widows and orphans of Confederate soldiers in our midst. What say the company in regard to it? Every true Wilmingtonian would naturally wish a copy of the book.

Sale of a Sound Residence.

At the administrator's sale of the estate of the late Eli Murray, deceased, situated on Greenville Sound, which took place yesterday, the summer residence, with the grounds attached, was started at $1,800, and finally knocked down to Mr. W. H. McRary at $2,000. It is the general impression, however, that the sale will not be confirmed. A small portion of the personal property was sold, when the sale was adjourned to take place at Wilmington, the time to be hereafter announced. There were quite a number of gentlemen present from this city.

The Camp Meeting—An Incident.

The Camp Meeting which has been in progress at Gander Hall, about seventeen miles below this city, near what is known as the "Sugar Loaf," since Thursday last, broke up yesterday. The steamer Underhill arrived at the wharf, foot of Chestnut street, about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with a flat in tow, and both steamer and flat were literally crammed with colored passengers, some estimating the number at over one thousand.

By the way, a crowd that went down to the meeting on Sunday, on the steamer Underhill, met with quite a serious disappointment. The boat, when some considerable distance from the shore, unfortunately got aground, and it was found impossible to convey the passengers to the land even in flats. The boat remained there, within hailing distance of the place where the meeting was in progress, until about 3 o'clock Monday morning, when she got off and came up to this city. A portion of the passengers had been taken off and brought up by a small schooner that passed about 1 o'clock that night. A good number of our white citizens were on the boat, and they say they didn't enjoy the trip "worth a cent."

On a Breeze.

A ripstaving, uproarious, rantankerous colored dame, who answers to the name of Amelia Bradley, was arrested in "Paddy's Hollow" Monday night, by Officer McMillan, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. She had conscientious scruples against being locked up in the guard-house and literally "fit" her way to that institution, being, when she arrived there, a veritable "Flora McPlimsey," in that she had nearly torn her clothes from her person. In other words, not being exactly satisfied with the bad habits she had inherited from mother Eve, she managed very successfully to form another one. And still she was not happy until she had contrived to tear the officer's clothing until they were nearly in as bad a condition as her own. She will probably have a hearing this morning.

A Phenomenon.

A rather singular phenomenon was witnessed last night, about 11 o'clock. A black cloud, spanning the entire firmament from east to west, having all the appearance of a column of black smoke, passed over this city, moving in a southerly direction; and as it gradually moved southwardly the lower edge of the cloud assumed a fiery, reddish hue. The rising of the cloud, which was apparently only about twenty-five yards in width, was accompanied by a stiff breeze, lasting, however, only a minute or two. We should not be surprised to hear of a tornado somewhere near Wilmington.

Thermometer Record.

The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations mentioned, at 4:35 yesterday evening, Washington mean time, as ascertained from the daily bulletin issued from the Signal Office in this city:

Chicken Stealing.

Wash Green, colored, living in the vicinity of Market and Thirteenth streets, had his premises invaded by thieves on Monday night, who succeeded in stealing and carrying off his entire stock of poultry. No clue at last accounts to the perpetrators of the theft. Chicken thieves are once more getting on the rampage.

Excursion.

There will be an excursion to Smithville and the forts below, on Wednesday, May 30th, on the steamer J. S. Underhill, under the auspices of the members of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Tickets, $1 for the round trip, and children half price, will be for sale at Heinsberger's, Howey's, and H. Burkholder's stores.

Arrested on Suspicion.

A colored boy, who was selling chickens in the suburbs of the city, yesterday morning, was arrested on suspicion, owing to the fact that a great many chickens have been stolen from different parties lately. The boy was very identified, however, and the boy was released.

The N. C. B. A.

The franchise of the North Carolina Beneficial Association was sold at public auction, in this city, yesterday, to satisfy an execution. It was bid off by Capt. C. D. Myers. And now the question arises, "What will he do with it?"

The comfort of its possession is very frequently offset by the annoyance occasioned by the continual crying of the Baby. Crying, however, is the child's only method of suggesting that it suffers with discomfort and pain, and at once ceases when the cause is (as it should be) promptly removed by using Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Sold everywhere. 25 cents per bottle.

CITY ITEMS.

GOULD'S OLYMPIAN CREAM commands itself to young and old as the most natural, effective and harmless emollient and preservative of the skin, and is sold at One Dollar. For sale by J. C. Munroe.

IT IS OFFERED RATHER TO SAVE FIVE CENTS than to earn it. People can save this and more, by using KILGORE'S BAKING POWDER. Try it.

Purity, strength and reliability stamp the character of Dr. J. C. Munroe's Baby Syrup as being the best of all preparations used to perfect and facilitate the process of nursing. Less than two-thirds ordinary quantity suffices. So strong and pure is this admirable article the most skillful housekeepers have learned to regard all others.

BOOK BINDER.—THE MORNING STAR BOOK BINDER does all kinds of Binding and Ruling in a workmanlike manner, and at reasonable prices. Merchandise and other binding Receipts, Books, or other work, may rely on promptness in the execution of their orders.

TRANSFERS PRINTING-INKS.—Invaluable to railroad companies, steamship companies, banks, merchants, manufacturers and others. They are enduring and changeless, and will copy sharp and clear for an indefinite period of time. Having just received a fresh supply of these inks, we are prepared to execute orders promptly and at moderate prices.

All persons, exhausting and painful diseases especially yield to the curative influence of Pulverizer's Electric Bells and Bands. They are safe, simple, and effective, and are easily applied by the patient himself. Book, with full particulars, mailed free. Address: PULVERIZER'S GALVANIC CO., Cincinnati, Ohio.

OVER 2,400,000 SAMPLE BOTTLES OF ROSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP have been distributed free of charge in this country to the afflicted with Consumption, Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, and other Lung diseases, as a proof of its wonderful quality in curing these dreaded diseases. The demand for this medicine is immense. Regular size 25 cents. Three doses will relieve any case.

THE DUTY OF WOMAN.—To be attractive is a duty which every lady owes to herself, to her domestic circle, and to society. Not only should she endeavor to please in address and in apparel, but, whenever possible, in complexion and in feature as well. Face embellishment is to a lady as proper, and oftentimes as necessary, as are the adornments of her hair, the artificial graces of her conversation, upon which depend so much of her dominion and influence over man. The woman who permits herself to become unattractive, who resigns herself hopelessly to the ravages of time, and the opinion of her charms, wastes upon her friends and admires a sorrowful regret that it becomes her to avert the latest day. Of this social duty it may truly be said that she can best acquire it by the use of Gould's Olympian Cream. No other preparation approaches this in excellence, in its beneficial and healthy effects, and in the number of spontaneous testimonials that its virtues have elicited. Its advertisement has been here for its merit, its recommendation by all that have used it, and by not sounding and pretentious advertising the loudest of the day. Trial bottles 25 cents. For sale by J. C. Munroe.

BOATWRIGHT.—At 10 o'clock, on the morning of the 24th inst., JOHN LORD, son of John L. and Annie T. Boatwright, aged one year and one day. Funeral will take place from St. James' Church, this afternoon, at 3 1/2 o'clock.
