Assault and Battery with a Deadly Weapon.

Raynard Lamb, colored, charged with having committed an assault with a deadly weapon, about two weeks ago, upon the person of one Warwick Perry, colored, had a preliminary hearing before Justice J. C. Hill yesterday morning, at the Court-house, resulting in the defendant being required to give bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court.

Cows Depredating Upon City Property.

It had been noticed for some time that every morning several of the trees recently set out in the centre of Market street would be half prostrated to the ground, as if vehicles in passing had run against them, which was generally thought to be the case.

One More Thief Housed.

Messrs. Gillican & Watson, who keep a variety establishment on North Water street, between Chesnut and Mulberry, have for some time past been missing articles from their establishment, such as tallow, furs, beeswax, lead, &c., the thief evidently having a key by which he could enter the place at his pleasure.

Wholesale Chicken Stealing.

Mr. Taylor, at the National Cemetery, had upwards of forty head of poultry stolen from him on Friday night, the fowls being of a superior brood. A party was suspected of being guilty of the theft, and has been probably arrested ere this.

RIVER AND MARINE ITEMS.

The Norwegian Bark Saron, Johnson, arrived at Stettin from this port on the 21st inst. The Schooner C. W. Lewis, Tupper, sailed from Salem for this port on the 22nd inst. The Schooner James O'Donohue, Warren, arrived at Vineyard Haven on the 23rd inst.

There were two cases for assault and battery before Justice Harris, yesterday.

The parties paid their fines and costs, and went on their way rejoicing.

Local Dets.

See fourth page for Church Directory. The weather yesterday was delightful. The magistrates were quite busy yesterday.

Edward Joyner, a colored member of the police force, was arrested yesterday morning on the charge of stealing a lot of fresh meat from the stall of Samuel Merrick, colored, a butcher in the market. It appears that Merrick left ten pieces of meat hanging up in his stall when he took his departure from the market house about 7 o'clock Friday evening, to attend to his butchering, and on returning about 10 o'clock that night, one of the pieces (a chuck rib, weighing twenty-five or thirty pounds) was missing.
