Latest By Mail. From Washington.

[Special to Richmond Dispatch,] WASHINGTON, May 30.

The statement that Marshal Smythe, of Georgia, is to be continued in office was a mistake. The President said to a party of Georgians who called to inquire about it that Smythe was merely filling the unexpired term of a former marshal, by appointment of the United States Dis trict-Judge. It is not the intention of the Administration to remove him without investigating the charges now pending, and he will probably be retained until his time expires. So the question as to who shall be his successor is still undetermined.

> Decoration Day. NEW YORK, May 30.

The touching and beautiful ceremonies of decorating the graves of the soldier dead were more fully carried out to day than ever before. The weather was beautiful. The first services of the day were the decoration of the monuments of Washington, Lincoln, Worth, Seward and Lafayette in this city, when appropriate addresses were made. The procession then marched down Broadway, and, crossing the ferries, proceeded to Cypress Hills and other cemeteries, where the ccremonies were continued.

WASHINGTON, May 30. The Southern Memorial Association are making extensive preparations for the decoration of the graves of the Confederate heroes near Wenington, the ceremonies to take pace on the 7th of June.

Decoration day was generally oberved here. The departments of the governments were all closed and business practically suspended.

NEW ORLEANS, May 30. The decoration of the graves of the Union dead at Chalmette Cemetery, passed off without any special incident. The oration was pronounced by Rev. Dr. McCarthy. The cereveterans of the war of 1812, and also by the Mexican veterans, the latter for the first time. The officers and crew of the United States steamer Canonicas were present, but the army did not participate as has been the custom heretofore, although Gen. Augur and his staff were present. The floral offerings were very pro-

Judge Dick Refuses to Remand the Revenue Officers to the State

[Special to the News.] GREENSBORO, May 30.

The case of Ray and others, revenue officers, indicted for murder in Ashe county, came up before Judge Dick to day. He denied the motion to remand them to the State courts for trial, and held them in bonds of $5,000 each for their appearance at the next term of the Federal Court at Greensboro.

- The Hillsboro Recorder tells of Final Meeting of the Old Board of Aldermen.

A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held yesterday afternoon.

The report of the Auditing Committee was presented, stating that they had counted and destroyed the city coupons, amounting to $3,690 29, which report was received and approved.

The Mayor then presented his report, embracing the four years of his administration, from the 12th of May, 1873, to the 12th of May, 1877, together with the reports of the Treasurer, Marshal, Chief of the Fire Department, and other reports of the vari- | val. prison. On the civil docket 40 cases, 22 ous departments, which were received, apof which were disposed of. Court lasted proved, and ordered to be printed in pamous departments, which were received, ap-phlet form. The several members of the Board then Honor, the Mayor, and to their fellow members for the kindness and courtesy which had uniformly characterized their relations as an official body, and expressed their regrets that the time had arrived when these relations were to be severed, the Mayor in return reciprocating their kind expressions and good wishes.

The meeting then adjourned.

The New City Government.

To-day is the time set apart for the induction of the new city government into office, in accordance with which fact Mayor Canaday yesterday addressed a note to each of the members of the newly elected Board of Aldermen as tollows:

"As one of the Aldermen recently elected, I address you to say that the newly elected Aldermen will please meet at the City Court Room to-morrow, June 1st, 1877, at 12 M., when I will be prepared, as soon as you effect an organization, to turn over the government of the city of Wilmington to you." ORDER OF PROCEEDINGS. The Board will meet at the City Court Room at 12 M. The present Clerk will call the roll of members, who will each come forward and be sworn and subscribe their names to the oath of office in the book of Record of the city. The Clerk will then take the vote until a presiding officer is elected. Until this is accomplished no other business will be in order. THE NEW MEMBERS. The following comprise the newly elect-

The Rifle Range.

We hear that the iron target for the new rifle range has been cast, at the foundry of Messrs. Hart, Bailey & Co., and that Mr. R. G. Ross will go to work at once to place it in position. So, our rollicking riflemen will soon have an opportunity of showing their skill at 500 yards. The range will be located across the river on the left of the causeway, going West, beginning at a point almost 100 yards from the ferry landing. The line of tire will be from North to South, except where John Rankin and our rifle editor level their pieces. when it will be from North to South-west or thereabouts.

Probable Loss of a Vessel. It is feared that the Schr. John S. Lee, Capt. Chase, from this port for Laguayra, is lost. She was cleared from this port on the 5th of April, by Messrs. J. H. Chadbourn & Co., and had a cargo of 200,146 feet of lumber. She went to sea on the 11th, two days before the great storm, which occurred on the 18th of April. A letter was received by Messrs. E. G. Barker & Co., on Wednesday last, from her owners in Norfolk, Va., making inquiries about her. The wife and daughter of Capt. Chase accompanied him on his voyage.

The Internal Revenue Laws. It is understood that the rulings of Judge Brooks, in the U.S. District Court in this city, have been adverse to the decision of Commissioner Douglass, as published in the miscellaneous department of our paper recently, in relation to the selling of tobacco without the proper license. It would therefore be imprudent, without further information on the subject, for persons in this section to act upon the decision of Commissioner Douglass.

Stealing Potatoes. A raid was made upon the Irish potato patch of Mr. John F. Garrell, at his Sans Souci plantation, on Tuesday night, and about five bushels of fine potatoes were grabbled up and carried off. The patch presented the appearance Wednesday morning of having been raided upon and rooted up by an army of hogs, but none but the two-legged species could have had anything to do with this transaction.
