Cotton and corn a little grassy but good. Concord Sun: It is rumored around rather recklessly that Capt. Tom Bremer, our fancy looking brother of the Waxhams, will "soak" on single blessedness, at Statesville, ere the pale moon wanes and waxes a dozen times.

Raleigh News: Gov. Vance yesterday pardoned W. S. Poston, of Rowan, who was sentenced at the last term of the Rowan Superior Court to imprisonment in the county jail for six months for an assault upon his wife. A $300 fine was also imposed, but the pardon only extends to the imprisonment.

Dangerous Illness of a Young Man, Caused by Taking an Overdose of Medicine.

Considerable excitement was created on the lower part of Market street, yesterday afternoon, by the fact that a well known young man of this city, by the name of Jones Walker, had been rendered seriously ill by taking an overdose of medicine. It appears that he had procured a two ounce phial of diarrhea medicine, containing a mixture of laudanum, rhubarb, camphor, &c., all of which he had taken within the space of about five minutes. This was about 2 o'clock. Immediately afterwards he went to Mr. H. Burkholder's store and called for a piece of tobacco, which was given to him, when he sat down in a chair and commenced smoking, but in a very few minutes became drowsy and finally fell out of the chair. An attempt was made by Mr. Burkholder and others to arouse him, but without avail, and finally a physician and members of the family were sent for. By the time the physician arrived he had all appearances almost ceased to breathe. The usual remedies in such cases were applied, and a vigorous system of rubbing, &c., was kept up, but with little apparent success, until about half-past 8 o'clock last evening, when he was taken to the residence of the family on a stretcher. He had shown some faint signs of life previous to his removal, and the hope is indulged that he may possibly recover.

Franks of a Lunatic.

A crazy colored woman was cutting up some strange antics in Oakdale Cemetery Sunday afternoon. She had a basket of wilted flowers, with which she paraded around the Confederate monument and chanted a requiem to the departed spirit of Primus Moore, the colored man who died at the station-house on Saturday morning from the effects of drink. She seemed to imagine that Moore was buried there, and was going to exonerate her from her grave, but one of the attendants at the Cemetery, happening to observe her actions, conducted her to the gate and put her out. She was subsequently seen on the streets with her clothing nearly torn from her person. We did not learn her name.

Arrest of a Colored Man, Charged with Larceny.

David Jackson, for whom a capias had been issued by the Clerk of the Criminal Court, on the charge of larceny, was arrested on Saturday night last by Special Deputy C. H. Strode, at a house in the neighborhood of Ninth and Harnett streets. He was discovered squeezed into a very small compass between the ceiling and roof of the house, from which, after an hour's exertion, and the employment of sundry devices, it was found impossible to dislodge him. As a last resort the officer drew his pistol, asked the fellow if he was coming out, and upon his replying in the negative, said "Well I'll kill you," firing his pistol at the same time into a fue which passed out through the roof near which he was concealed, scattering dust and fragments of brick about pretty lively. This had the desired effect. Jackson became frightened, thinking Strode would finish him the next time, and crawled out and surrendered himself whereupon he was lodged in the county jail.

Colored Boy Drowned.

Three colored boys started from the neighborhood of the Messrs. Kidders' Mills, in the extreme southwestern section of the city, yesterday afternoon, about half-past 5 o'clock, with the intention of crossing the river to indulge in fishing. They had paddled the boat about half across, when it was suddenly capsized and one of the boys was drowned. The other two clung to the boat until assistance reached them and were, therefore, rescued. We could not ascertain the name of the unfortunate youth.

The Good Samaritans.

The anniversary celebration of Fidelity Lodge No. 76, I. O. of G. S. and D. of S., colored, took place yesterday afternoon. The turn out was a very good one and the members made quite an imposing appearance in the handsome regalia of the order. After marching through the principal streets they had two addresses from members of the order. At night there was a festival, &c., at the City Hall, concluding with the installation of officers.

Admitted to Practice.

Yesterday, in the Superior Court, on motion of E. H. Darby, Esq., Mr. J. I. Meeks, who was recently licensed by the Supreme Court, was admitted to practice law in the Superior and Criminal Courts of New Hanover county.

A Norwegian Barque, name unknown, was reported in below yesterday afternoon.

Appointment of Magistrates.

We print, by request, the following letter from Maj. J. A. Engelhard to Capt. C. D. Myers: RALEIGH, June 20, 1877. MY DEAR SIR:—The report comes to me so frequently and so well authenticated, that in many portions of the lower Cape Fear section I am blamed, either directly or indirectly, for most of the grievances of which our friends complain in regard to the appointment of Radical and negro magistrates. I have repeatedly consented to a notice to be sent against me for such they really are, may be summed up under three heads, viz: 1st. That I favored the appointment of Radical magistrates in certain counties. 2d. That I was responsible for the selection of the Radicals, white and black, who were appointed magistrates in the city of Wilmington. 3d. That I substituted the names of certain Democrats for those recommended for magistrates in ward meetings in the city of Wilmington.

Program and Obscene Language on the Streets.

It is to be hoped that stringent measures will be adopted towards breaking up the use of obscene and profane language on our streets, so that ladies and others, while walking the same, or quietly sitting in their piazzas or porches at home, may not be so constantly liable to have their ears assailed with expressions both shocking and offensive, or children be constrained, to acquire, by the frequent use of such language within their hearing, the habit which is so deleterious to refinement and good taste. An instance in point occurred in front of the Court House a few days ago, where two men, one white and the other colored, in the course of some difficulty between them, indulged in the most filthy and obscene language, and that almost in the presence of a lady, who happened accidentally to be passing at the time. We hope our police will be instructed to take cognizance of all such cases as this, as one of the necessary protections to the community.

A Successful Excursion.

We learn that the late excursion under the auspices of the teachers of the Lutheran Sunday school cleared $108.54. Too much credit cannot be bestowed upon the efforts of the ladies, on this occasion, and we are glad to know their success pecuniary was so great. We believe this is the largest amount cleared by any excursion so far this season. We learn that it will probably be repeated.

Thermometer Record.

The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations mentioned, at 4:35 yesterday evening, Washington mean time, as ascertained from the daily bulletin issued from the Signal Office in this city: Augusta, 95; Montgomery, 95; Charleston, 95; New Orleans, 91; Corsicana, 95; Norfolk, 79; Galveston, 99; Punta Rasa, 79; Indianola, 88; Savannah, 94; Jacksonville, 95; St. Marks, 92; Key West, 98; Wilmington, 86; Mobile, 98.

Insurance upon houses and property is demanded by every consideration of economy.

But health is the best insurance. It is a waste, unpardonable in all matters, the substitution of impoverished blood. Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture, by its wonderful restorative influence, purifies and enriches the blood, and induces good health.
