Hall Storm on July 5th. [Special to the Richmond Dispatch.] CHARLOTTESVILLE, July 5.

A terrible hail storm, amazing even the ddest inhabitants, prevailed here with pupils and visitors. One of the this evening about 6 o'clock. Many | college professors, the President and window lights and gas lamps were shattered, and the flower and vegetable gardens considerably damaged. The storm seems to have been confined to a small area, and it is hoped that the loss of tobacco plants is comparatively slight.

Preparations by the Orangemen.

MONTREAL, July 6. The Orangemen had a meeting today to decide as to the parade on the 12th of July. The Mayor's letter, informing them that they would only receive the protection of private individuals, was severely criticised. There will be six hundred participants in the parade-one hundred from Morrisburg, three hundred from the eastern towns, and large numbers from other points.

Russia will Give no Promist-What May Come of It.

NEW YORK, July 5. A cable special from London says the progress of the Russians in the direction of Constantinople, and the refusal of the Czar to give any promise not to occupy the Turkish Capital, is tending to unite the British Ministry, and Earl of Derby has distinctly informed Count Schouvaloff that Great Britain will not sanction Russian occupation. The St. Petersburg Gclos says no attempt will be made upon Egypt by the Russian Government so long as England remains nentral, but should the time arrive when England can no longer remain neutral the occupation of Egypt would be one of the first acts of Russia. The next most probable movement would be the English occupation of Constantinople. The position of Austria is becoming one of vital interest to both Russia and England. Both Powers are striving for Austria's support. Russia is endeavoring to secure Austria's neutrality, and thus leave England isolated should she determine to engage actively in the struggle. But it is understood that Austria decides in certain eventualities to act with England.

At this critical moment, when the dog seemed bent on devouring the girl, a gentleman on the opposite side of the street hastened to the rescue and succeeded with some little difficulty in breaking loose the grasp of the animal upon the child.

Pursuant to directions from Chief of Police Brock the dog was subsequently taken to the city pound and shot, the owner of the animal, who sincerely regretted the unfortunate occurrence, voluntarily leading him to the doom which awaited him. Four shots were fired at the animal with a revolver before he consented to "shuffle off this mortal coil."

A correspondent at Little Sugar Loaf, Bladen county, gives us the particulars somewhat in detail of the late murder that occurred about three-quarters of a mile from the White Lake, near that place. On the night of the 28th of June Mr. David T. P. Murphy (white), 32 years of age, and a very respectable young man, was murdered by some unknown assassin while on his way from Mr. Robert J. Smith's to his own home, about one hundred yards from Mr. Smith's house. Upon examination by a Coroner's jury it was found that deceased came to his death from a gun loaded with squirrel and duck shot, the contents entering his lungs and heart, over one hundred shot holes having been counted in his body. From the appearance of the ground in the immediate vicinity of the murdered man broken bushes, trampled grass, &c., together with other indications, it would ap- period amounted to $431,404. pear that Murphy was only a distance of about seven yards from the assassin when he was shot. Only one track besides that of Murphy could be distinguished, which Mr. Smith says he made when he went to the scene of the murder upon hearing the report of the gun, said track having the appearance of being made by a person going hurriedly from Smith's back door and in range with the road, that of Murphy leading from the front door to where he was found dead. From these and other circumstances connected with the matter, suspicion fell upon Mr. R. J. Smith, and, upon examination of his gun, it was discovered that one barrel had been newly discharged, while the other barrel bore the appearance of having been loaded for some time, the shot and wad comparing exactly with those

BAR AND RIVER IMPROVEMENT. WILMINGTON, N. C., June 30, 1877. A. H. Van Bokkelen, Esq., President of the Chamber of Commerce:

SIR:-On the 27th and 28th inst., a visit of inspection of the public works at New Inlet and vicinity for improving the Harbor, was made by your committee in company of the Supervising Engineer, (Col. Craighill) and Capt. C. B. Phillips, U. S. Engineer, also the Assistant Engineer, Henry Bacon, Esq., and ask to report that since our visit of the 18th of April last, as gate, which was opened by a servant girl, reported on the 20th, about 13,000 cubic who came to receive the package, when as yards of stones have been delivered, agbeen delivered and placed in position, contracting the width of the Inlet about 3,000 lineal feet, or two-fifths of its original width up to the line of low water and upwards.

The remaining three-fifths are considerably advanced with filling and will not probably require an average filling of over five or six feet to bring it up to the same level of low water.

Federal Point is in a thrifty condition; also Zeke's Point shoals are making out from them in a very satisfactory manner. The old Breakwater is all right again and the beach in front is growing hand-

The long line of narrow beach extending south to the Cape, which was levelled by the April storm, is slowly rising above the water level and grass is beginning to grow. All the swashes left by the storm have closed up above the high water lines, except two, and they are gradually closing, although one of them has a formidable appearance at high tide and may require some help to hasten its closure. We apprehend no danger from it.

Bald Head channel has not improved since our last report, and we have reason to believe it is not quite as good, although we report about the same, say 15 or 151 feet at Snow's Marsh channel continues to depreciate, and will continue to do so in the absence of dredging, as long as there is an outflow of water at the Inlet to produce a cross current. Eight feet at low tides is all that can now be quoted; consequently it is only used by the smaller class of vessels. The section dredge, Emma Dunn, remains where and as she was placed on Big Island by the April storm. We hear of no material change in the channel above Big During the last fiscal year ending this day there has been almost a suspension of work; no dredging has been done or anything else except the deposit of about 20,— 000 cubic yards of stone upon the apron for closing the inlet, all owing to the inad equate appropriation of the last Congress, (being $132,500, was cut down to $100,000 by the last administration, and restored by the present) which is barely sufficient to we are not very sure that it will be sufficient for that, notwithstanding the contract for stone was effected at a very low figure. When it is considered what a damaging influence delay exercises upon unfinished work of this character, inviting a concentration of currents and cross currents upon them, it is wonderful that serious damage by very boisterous weather throughout the winter, winding up in April with the most terrific storm and highest tides known to our coast, it is still more wonderful that the works were not entirely destroyed; that they were not, nor were materially damaged, goes far towards estab-lishing the belief that our supervising engineer has developed or approximated nature. We therefore congratulate the Chamber upon the success of the work provided. We respectfully call your attention to a suggestion made in our report of February last relative to the procurement of an ap-

ber to see to it that the necessary funds are

GOURAUD'S OLYMPIAN CREAM.—This standard preparation has from the time of its general introduction received the unqualified commendation of the beauty and fashion of the land. Its intrinsic excellence and peculiar adaptation to the toilet has secured it an instant preference over every article with which it has competed, a preeminence due to no extravagant laudation of its merits. No lady has ever given it a trial without becoming its lasting patron, or has failed to confirm every virtue the proprietors claim in its behalf. To the sallow, tattered, red or simply complexion, it renders a delicacy and charm the very counterpart of nature, and, unlike other preparations, contains no suggestion of artificial appliance. Reduced in price to one dollar, this really excellent article will command a wider and more extended patronage than that hitherto accorded it. Warranted to contain no lead, zinc, bismuth or chalk. For sale by J. C. Munds. close the inlet to the low water line, and SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC.-In the at mosphere experienced here during the summer away the desire for wholesome food, and frequent erspirations reduce bodily energy, particularly these suffering from the effects of debilitating diseases. In order to keep a natural healthful activity of the system we must resort to artificial means For this purpose Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic is very effectual. 'A few doses will create an appetite and give fresh vigor to the enervated body. For dyspepsis it is invaluable. Many eminent physicians have doubted whether dyspepsia can be permanent ly cared by the drugs which are generally employed for that purpose. The Sea Weed Tonic in its nature is totally different from such drugs. It contains no corrosive minerals or acids; in fact it assists the regular operations of nature, and supplies her defi-ciencies. The tonic in its nature se much resembles the gastric juice that it is almost identical with that daid. The gastric juice is the natural solvent which, in a healthy condition of the body causes the food to be digested and when this juice is not excreted in sufficient quantities, indigestion, with all its distressing symptoms follow. The Bea Weed Tonic performs the duty of the gastric juice when the latter is deficient. Schenck a Sea Weed Tonic acid by all Druggists.
