Gen. Grant's Last speech in England. Gen. Grant, in the course of his re ply to the address of the Mayor and Corporation of Folkstone, England, just before his departure yesterday for the continent, said: "I thank you for what has been said in honor of my own great country. It has been a feeling of mine for many years' standing that the United States and Great Britain should be the very best of friends. You have kindly alluded to my efforts as Executive of the United States to settle the questions that were existing between the two countries, and which were liable at my time to create disturbance. Forunately, however, these difficulties were settled in a manner creditable to both nations. There was no desire on my part, and I am sure there was none on the part of the thinking people of the United States, that Engand should be humiliated in any sense, and there was certainly a determination on our part that we should not be humiliated, but we wanted a settlement that should be honorable to both nations. That was my desire, at all events.

ests, to terminate the connection of the State with the existing Established Church, and to give facilities for a beneficial adjustment of ecclesiastical matters in Scotland," was adopted by the overwhelming vote of 460 to 78.

The Wilmington STAB, now very much improved has the largest circulation of any paper in the State -Enfield Times.

The STAR stands among the first of North Carolina papers in point of enterprise and literary merit.—

Chester (S. C.) Reporter. Unquestionably the best daily journal in North Carolina, and has no superior in any other Southern State.—Mariboro (S. C.) Times.

For editorial ability, general news, correct market reports and fine literary selections the STAR has no superior.—Rocky Mount Mail. Is well corducted and has as much and great a vanety of good reading matter as any Daily in the

This paper, though not many years old, is one of the best dailies in the State, and well merits the support it receives.—Louisburg Courier.

One of the best daily journals on our exchange list. Belongs to no ring save that which encircles the good of the people.—Savannah Mirror. The Wilmington Morning Star is among the best newspapers in the South. Rich, rare, racy, always fresh and "on time,"—Asheville Expositor.

A staunch and independent advocate of the peo-ple's rights. Deservedly ranks among the first jour-nals of the Southern country.-Rockingham Observer. The STAR is undoubtedly an enterprising sheet, beautifully printed and conducted with marked ability. Mr. Bernard deserves great credit for his efforts in journalism.—Raleigh Sentinel. Those of our readers desiring to take a daily or weekly paper from North Carolina cannot do better than take the Wilmington STAR.—Cheraw (S. C.)

The STAR is one of our most highly valued exchanges, and it affords us pleasure to recommend it as one of the most racy and reliable dailies in North Carolina.—Kinston Gazette. A live newspaper, and the best Daily n the State. The circulation is larger than that of any other Daily in the State, which proves it.—Millon Chron-

No paper ever started in North Carolina has grown so rapidly as has the STAR. Though only five years old, it is now a fixed institution, enjoying an influence and a prosperity second to none in the State.—
galisbury Watchman.

The Wilmington STAR is in the front rank of our Southern dallies, well edited, full of news and select reading matter, telegraphic reports, and in every respect a first rate journal. If we had many such papers our State would be the gainer by it.—Greens. Patriot.
