THE INDIAN WAR.

An Important Telegram—Crossing the Rio Grande—A Fight with the Indians—Horses Captured—Movements of the Savages in Other Directions, &c.

WASHINGTON, July 9. Gen. Osborne, Minister to Chili, sails tomorrow.

Gen. Comly, Minister to the Sandwich Islands, sails from San Francisco in the August steamer.

Dr. Godding accepts the Superintendency of the Insane Asylum vice Nicholls.

The following important telegram was received here yesterday, and copies furnished to the President and Secretary of State:

San Antonio, July 7th.—E. G. Townsend, Adjutant General, Washington, D. C.:

The following has just been received: "The following is a copy of the letter, telegraphed to headquarters yesterday, in which Shafter stated that there was no necessity of following the trail of the Indians to where they had already been punished by Bullis, but to look close for that made by the party that raided on the Nueces."

(Signed) Ord, Brigadier General.

Fort Clark, Texas, July 7th.—Gen. Ord, San Antonio:

Had and twenty-two captured yesterday. In support of Bullis and Hunt. This morning, at two o'clock, Bullis came alone, having ridden 140 miles in thirty-six hours. Bullis, in coming down from Davis, struck the trail of the Indians from Gillespie county half way between the Pecos and Rio Grande, just before night on the 29th of June, and only three or four hours behind them. He followed them to the Rio Grande and crossed the river, drowning two of his horses, and taking an Indian and twenty-two citizens were resting. He attacked them at once. The Indians retreated to a mountain, fighting, and after an engagement of one hour they managed to escape, none of them wounded. Bullis and twenty-two citizens followed them. He also found at the camp part of the harness taken from Johnson, on the Mercer, showing that part of the band had scattered after that officer, and got with the party raiding in Gillespie county, and probably into Texas and Mexico, as they went out about ten days first. Bullis reports the Indians as Lipans, and that he saw no sign to indicate that they were near their village. This is like a bear, some of the citizens. I have ordered the companies to stop as they have until your orders are received. The trail followed by Bullis is the only plain track that we know has lately been crossed, and as the Indians who made it have been caught I will go on without further orders, as Lieut. Bullis reports that it is impossible to follow the trail where he struck them, and scouting on the other side would have to be for the Indian camp or anything that might turn up.

(Signed) Shafter, Lieutenant Commanding.

PORTLAND, Oregon, July 9. A dispatch from Lewiston, dated the 7th, via Walla Walla to-day, says a courier just from Col. Perry, en route for Gen. Howard, with a pack train and an escort of thirty men, says that he was attacked on the 4th, and ten soldiers and two citizens were killed. Capt. Whipple, in command at Cottonwood, came to the rescue and repulsed the Indians. The Indians are in force around Col. Perry and Capt. Whipple, who have only force enough for defence. The route is from Cottonwood to the mouth of the Snake, where five men between Spokane, the lower bridge and Pelouse landing, have left their homes and fled to Walla Walla. The Indians have destroyed some fields and gardens.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

Surprise and Capture of a Turkish Camp—The Position of Roumania—Weakness of the Russian Navy—Turkish and Russian Army Movements—Defeat of a Bosnian Column—Austria and the Province of Bosnia—The Russian Retreat in Asia, &c., &c.

London, July 9. A Reuter telegram from St. Petersburg says the following is a dispatch from the Czar, dated yesterday:

"A body of cavalry, with one battery, surprised Tirnova on Saturday and captured a Turkish camp, with ammunition and baggage. The artillery are approaching Tirnova. The Russian army, under the command of the Czar, is observing that Russia's efforts to dislodge Roumania from taking an active part in the campaign are merely designed to ally Austria's apprehensions."

The correspondent thinks it probable that the advance guard of the Roumanians may cross at Simintza, and work up the southern bank of the Danube until they secure a crossing place where they can be joined by the main body.

The Bremen Weser Zeitung, which is not unfriendly to Russia, says "On the 6th of war it was discovered that only thirty per cent of the Russian navy was seaworthy. Reinforcements for the Caucasian army are much delayed, because only five out of ten steamers of the Caspian flotilla are in a serviceable condition."

KROONWATZ, July 9. The reply of Skupschina to Prince Milan's speech is guarded and pacific in tone.

ERZEROUR, July 9. Turkish official news says: "The Russians have forty battalions on the north side of Kars-Bulk. Their army and heavy artillery have withdrawn in the direction of Alexandropol."

The line between Mukhtar Pasha's headquarters and Kars was completely free from Russians on the 1st.

Mustapha Pasha, the Governor of Kars, has left Mukhtar Pasha with a reinforcement of 40,000 for the garrison of Kars.

A Russian column has been defeated in an attempt to enter Ardamelech, and from back on Ardaha, where a great concentration of Russian troops is proceeding.

Three battalions have been dispatched from Delibaba to reinforce Mukhtar Pasha. The London Times commenting on the reports of movements of the Austrians says: "The Austrians are delaying much longer the installation of a condition of Bosnia, and there is every reason to believe that the Turks will not from the province rather."

lable to the Caucasian rising, which is virtually suppressed, but to the fact that the Russians were too weak to overcome the Turkish forces, whose strength had been underrated."

Mme. Thietens' condition is again critical.

Paris, July 9. Republique Francaise intends to prosecute the editor of the official Bulletin des Communes for libelling the Republique Francaise, and M. Gambetta's Journal des Debats intends to bring an action against the government for violating the rights of the press.

TEHERAN, July 9. The Russian expedition against Turcomans is retreating from Kazilar towards Krasnovodsk.

CANADA.

The Coming Procession of Orangemen—Indications of a Hostile Meeting.

BOSTON, July 9. A Montreal dispatch to the Journal says there is every prospect of an exciting time there Thursday, when the Orangemen have their customary annual parade. Orangemen are to come down from Canada West in large numbers to take part in the procession, which the Montreal Orangemen have decided on having at all hazards.

Nightly drills are going on, and have been for weeks past in different parts of the city, and firearms are being put in order by the opposite party.

The indications are that a hostile meeting will occur between the two bodies, and there will be bloodshed, notwithstanding the admonitions and advice given both parties by the authorities and clergy.

—Durham Plant: The case of Crews vs. Reams is still progressing at Oxford, and is likely to continue several weeks longer. The meeting continues at the Methodist Church. Dr. Rosser is preaching some very fine sermons, and the church is crowded every night.

—A correspondent from Illinois writes to the Asheville Citizen: "We have spent several weeks in your vicinity, and hope to induce parties here to emigrate thither. We are deeply interested in the prosperity of your State, and believe its resources will make it one of the nearest to the States of the Union."

—Raleigh Observer: The residence of Mr. J. D. Whitaker destroyed by fire yesterday morning, was insured for $1,200. The clerk of the market reports that for the week ending yesterday at 10 o'clock p. m., there were sold 42,426 lbs, 169 hams, 24 hogs and 743 fish. Since the announcement that Windy Billy Henderson is to succeed Col. Winstead as Collector of the 5th District of North Carolina, there are only three Hayes men to be found in Raleigh. The colored woman Maria Harrison, the same who fell from the window of the colored Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institute, Thursday night, is improving.

—Raleigh News: During the six months ending June 30, 1877, the News steam job office and bindery printed and bound 1,000 volumes, of which nearly 3,000 were bound in half calf, 2,250 in half calf, and balance in cloth, besides printing and binding over 10,000 pamphlets. This is in addition to the blank books, ledgers, &c., manufactured, and the bill-heads, letter-heads, posters, and cards printed, and the printing of 100,000 copies of the "Star" of Wake Forest vs. "The Fleet-foot" of Louisville, played a match game on the grounds of the latter on the 5th inst., resulting in a score of 15 to 13, the "Star" being the winner. Yesterday commissions were issued by His Excellency, Gov. Vance, to the following gentlemen as State Directors in the North Carolina Railroad: Col. J. L. Morehead and Capt. A. Burwell, of Charlotte; Capt. Kerr Craig, of Salisbury; John A. Gray, Esq., of Greensboro; Major J. W. Graham, of Hillsboro; Gen. R. F. Hoke, of Raleigh; W. F. Kornegay, Esq., of Goldsboro; and Donald MacRae, Esq., of Wilmington. Major John A. Gilmer, of Greensboro, is appointed State's proxy to the stockholders meeting at Salisbury, next Thursday, the 12th inst.

Cases Requiring the System. With drastic cathartics and harmful stimulants, and use that rational and successful method, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the success of which in the eradication of disease and the building up of feeble constitutions has utterly confuted the preposterous medical theories who insisted on the rationality of depleting the frame in order to restore it to health. Appetite, easy digestion, regular evacuations, a natural flow of bile, are as sure a result of the finest of America's preparations as increased loss of power and irritation of the system were of the old exhausting method. The new era of medical treatment inaugurated by the Bitters is indeed a happy one for the sick and feeble, for it has not only placed health within their reach, but saved them from the hurtful consequences of an absurd fallacy.
