PITTSBURG, July 21. The strike on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad stops all shipping over the Pittsburg & Erie and Cleveland & Pittsburg railroads, as these roads use the Fort Wayne track for some distance below Pittsburg.

The freight trains on the Connellsville branch of the Baltimore & Ohio road were stopped last night, it is said, by strikers from other roads, and the trains were sent out over this road to-day.

It is not definitely known whether the Pittsburg, Cincinnati & St. Louis Pan Handle route men are out or not, but the situation here is such that the road has no outlet for freight. It was reported early this morning that the Alleghany Valley road men would join the strike before noon to-day. Men interviewed decline to express themselves clearly, but do not deny the correctness of the Passenger travel and express matter are running as usual on all the routes. TRENTON, July 21.

Gov. Bedle has issued orders, holding the militia in readiness.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21. In consequence of the strike on the Pennsylvania and other main lines, and the gravity of the emergency which has been forced upon all companies, a call has been issued for a general meeting of railroad men connected with the Trunk lines and connections, to be held in New York next week, for the purpose of combining against the Engineer's Brotherhood and Train Men's Union, each road to determine, after a certain date, to employ no one belonging to a trade organization hereafter. To this call favorable responses have been received from Illinois, Missouri, Nebraska. New York, Maryland, Virginia, Pennsylvania and California.

Detectives have been employed and are now engaged in discovering the ringleaders of the present strikes, and it is the intention of the Pennsylvania road to prosecute them under the new law which makes it a felony to impede the transportation of freight over railways. ALTOONA, July 21.

The men on the Pittsburg division of the Pennsylvania Railroad at this place struck at 11 A. M. All quiet, MARTINSBURG, July 21-3:30 P. M. Gen. French, U. S. A., has sent two companies to Cumberland. Trouble is apprehended at Piedmont.

NEWARK, O., July 21. The shopmen have joined the strikers. It is reported that the troops fraternize with the strikers.

PITTSBURG, July 21-5 P. M. During a collision seven persons were killed, including one soldier.

The military were ordered to clear the crossing on Twenty-eighth street. The crowd attacked them with stones. The military fired a volley, when the crowd returned the fire from revolvers. Four were killed outright and a number wounded. The first sergeant of the Weccacoe Legion, of Philadelphia, was dangerously wounded. PITTSBURG, July 21-5:40 P. M.

A dreadful affair occurred at the outer depot of the Pennsylvania Railroad an hour ago. A number of men and several women and children were killed and wounded. Seven of the dead have been taken from the scene and it is not known how many will yet be gathered up. The firing was done by the Philadelphia militia. One of their own men and one of the Pittsburg soldiers were killed. The bystanders all say the fire was upprovoked. The excitement is tremendous. A large body of men left for the Alleghany arsenal a few moments ago with the avowed purpose of seizing the arms stored there to be used in repelling the militia.

FORT MONROE, VA., July 21. Battery I of the 4th artillery, and battery K of the 2d artillery, will leave here at 7 o'clock this evening for Baltimore, Battery A of the 3d artillery, and battery C of the 5th artillery, will leave at 5 o'clock this evening for Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 21. The Secretary of War directs Gen. Hancock to send two strong batteries to both

Washington and Fort McHenry. The Secretary of War, after consultation with the President, directed Gen. French to send a portion of his troops to Cumberland, Md. This is in response to a requisition from Gov. Carroll, of Maryland. The Secretary of the Navy has ordered the vessel of the North Atlantic Squadron to assist in transporting troops.

The President has issued a proclamation similar to that in regard to West Virginia. covering the entire United States, and orders the obstructionists to disperse on or before 12 o'clock to-morrow, July 22d. Note.—This proclamation ignores State lines. The preliminary proclamation, however, alludes to Maryland and Cumberland, and to the call of Gov. Carroll.

The Secretary of War has ordered Gen. Hancock to Baltimore.

PITTSBURG, July 21. At 3:40 o'clock the Philadelphia troops left the Union Depot for the scene of the disturbance at the Twenty-eighth street kers, the sheriff would endeavor to ke the arrests and call upon the military the required assistance. This was un ood to be the plan of action determinpon, and a conflict was expected. arrived at Twenty-eighth street

Columbus, July 21.
Complications have arisen at Newark.
The County Commissioners refuse to vote noney for the sustenance of the military. The strikers came forward and guaranteed to furnish food to the troops. It is reported that citizens have guaranteed the strikers that they shall not want for eatables to sustain life. The troops appear friendly to the strikers, laughing and joking with them. A rumor prevails that the troops will shorty be withdrawn.
