MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

The strike continues and widens. The people of Columbus are preparing; 400 citizens have been enrolled as a special police. A turbulent meeting was held at Omaha, Nebraska. The St. Louis strikers are very determined.

Latest By Mail.

A Fight in the Black Hills. DEADWOOD, D. T., July 21. Deputy Sheriff Wiser, who has just come in from the Redwater, about twenty miles from here, reports that he met a sergeant in command of ten soldiers, who warned him to return to town with them.

What the Russian Objective Point is.

The Significance of Recent Movements. LONDON, July 22. Last week's dispatches do not give a very clear idea of the military situation. The Russian official news of any movement only comes when the movement is completed.

Russian Advancing by Forced Marches.

Bombardment of Tiflis and Ruzhank. The Russian forces are advancing by forced marches, and a fourth building. It has besides two large tobacco warehouses for the sale of leaf tobacco at auction.
