OUTLINES.

Compromise has been made with strikers at East Syracuse and Hornellsville. -The strike is spreading. - Four rioters wounded at Shamokin. - Two killed and fifty wounded in the recent riot at Reading. - Rioters reported overawed at Louisville. - Only ten days food at Pittsburg. - Great excitement Wednesday at Chicago, one killed, others fatally hurt and several more or less wounded. -- Incendiarism at San Francisco: several killed and a large number wounded:

the Chinese houses were smashed; vigilants and police masters of the situation. -St. Louis is peaceful under a strong force of police and citizens; all work stopped. - Democrats of Ohio indorse President Hayes. -- Russians will be compelled to abandon Ardahan; reports of battles untrue. - Postmaster General Key is gratified that peace reigns in the South; he is not astonished however. -- Chief Joseph made a raid on friendly Indians and carried off 400 ponies. - President and Cabinet think the outlook has improved.

- The mob in St. Louis compelling employes to stop work; the negroes were the leaders; at Chicago a squad of mounted veterans charged on 16th street mob: 150 wounded and ten killed; six policemen wounded; mob dispersed; artillery opened on the mob. - Gov. McCrary, of Kentucky, has issued a proclamation. Many business houses in St. Louis have closed. - Governor of Illinois has made formal application to the President for troops, - Gov. Williams, of Indiana, issued a proclamation. - New York markets: Money easy at 11@2 per cent; gold firmer at 105#; cotton steady at 121@ 124 cents; flour firm and unchanged; wheat lower and firm at $1 65@1 674; corn 1@2c better, ungraded 62@67c; spirits turpentine firm at 321@321c; rosin quiet at $1 80@1 85 for strained.

The Democrats are bringing the thieves and bummers in South Carolina to trial. Ex-Governor Moses tried to abscond, but he was overhauled, and brought before Justice Marshall at Columbia. He could not give bail for $10,000, and is now in jail with a man named Lee. A. O. Jones, former clerk of the Radical House, and ex-Senator Montgomery, President pro tem of the Radical Senate, have been arrested. R. H. Gleaves, colored, ex-Lieutenant Governor, has given leg bail. Fraud, fraud are the charges.

Fears of a Bread Riot-Militia to be Courtmartialed.

[Special to the Norfolk Virginian.] PITTSBURG, July 25-11 A. M. Serious trouble is anticipated from the growing scarcity of flour, bread and provisions, and it is feared that bread riots may next be inaugurated. The city newspapers have been requested to suppress anything relative to this matter, but the facts are that women and children are now on the streets begging for bread. The supply of flour cannot last but a few days, and as there is to be no freight communication the situation is considered very grave. The strikers say that they are more determined than ever to get in their point. A large number of United States and State troops are concentrating at Blairsville, forty miles from the city. If this force is thrown into the city it will have the effect of quieting the citizens and quelling the mob. It is understood that the Pittsburg militia, the 14th and 19th regiments, who ran away when the Philadelphia troops were under fire, will be mustered out of the State service and courtmartialed for cowardice. From Norfolk, NORFOLK, VA., July 25. Orders to-day were received at the navy-yard to get the iron-clads Saugus, Lehigh, Manhattan, Mahassac, Catskill, and Ajax, ready to proceed to Washington as quickly as possible. The Lehigh leaves to-morrow.

The Preparation in Louisville. [Special Dispatch to Journal of Commerce.] LOUISVILLE, KY., July 25.

The mob here organized at 8 A. M., in a procession numbering 1,000, and proceeded through various streets, compelling the men at work on new buildings to join them. Several thousand citizens responded to a call of the Mayor for volunteers.

There will be three full regiments of infantry and one of cavalry, and a battalion of artillery, to protect the city. The troops will be commanded by old Federal and Confederate officers, General Basil Duke being among the latter. Several large factories and machine shops have closed in consequence of the strikes. So far there has been no disturbance, the strikers marching quietly through the streets, insisting on all working men to stop, and calling upon employes to cease work.

throughout the city.

The strikers seem to have the support of the working class. At this time the number of citizens under arms is roughly estimated at 8,500, including the police, all thoroughly armed and equipped. There is strict police surveilance adopted

The Tompkins Square Meeting Failure.

[Special to the Norfolk Virginian.]

NEW YORK, July 25. The meeting of the International Society up to 9 o'clock p. m. was a complete failure, both as to attendance and enthusiasm. Tompkins Square is lecated in one of the most densely crowded quarters of the city, and is faced on all sides by rows of tenement houses, which contain many thousand working classes. The square is capable of holding fully 50,-000 persons, and the meeting there to-night was well advertised, but, notwithstanding these facts, there were not more than 3,000 present; of this number only about 500 at the most were internationalists or Communists, the rest of the assemblage having been drawn there from curiosity, and not through any sympathy for the movement.

Quiet at Baltimore-Business Buil. [Special to the Virginian.]

BALTIMORE, July 25-10:30 A. M. At this hour everything is quiet here. The military are still guarding Camden Station. No freight trains are running on the Baltimore & Ohio road yet. There is no strike yet on the Northern Central or Baltimore and Potomac roads. No freights are being received from New York by rail. Business interests are suffering; everything is dull. No freights are going forward over the Northern Central, owing to the strike on the Pennsylvania road. It is not known when the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad will attempt to move freights. It is considered probable that when they do trouble will break out afresh.

New York Communists. [Special to Petersburg Post.]

BALTIMORE, July 26. The New York Communists held a large meeting in Franklin Square tonight, at which incendiary resolutions were passed and speeches made. After this the Communists gathered in crowds on the street, when they were ordered to disperse by the police, but responded with a shower of brickbats. The police then charged, and after a brisk fight the Communists were put to flight. All quiet there

A Demand for Tom Scott to Resign-Governor Hartranft Pavors his Re-

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 25. The committee on Public Safety are holding meetings now in the signation of Tom Scott. The resolution has the conditional endorsement of Gov. Hartranft, who left the city this morning.

Immense Meeting of the Citizens. [Special to Norfolk Virginian.]

CHICAGO, July 25-9 P. M. An immense meeting of the citizens is now being held in the Moody and Sankey tabernacle for the general defence of the city. The Common Conneil is also in session. The latter body will probably provide for the beginning of work on the new city hall, so as to give work to all men.

Affairs at Fort Wayne.

[Special to Richmond State.] FORT WAYNE, IND., July 25. Pittsburg trains are not running, except the passenger trains, which may be taken off at any hour. The Wabash road is expected to strike tomorrow. Old's spoke factory was compelled to close. No riots. The Light Guards are no good.

No More Trouble Apprehended. [Special to Norfolk Virginian.]

COLUMBUS, O., July 25-8 P. M. There is no danger of any more trouble in this place at present, and the Governor thinks that in case of any outbreak there is enough military on hand to suppress it. The city is very quiet.

The Ohio Governorship. [Special to the Petersburg Post.] CINCINNATI, July 25.

The Ohio Democratic Convention at Columbus to-day nominated R. M. Bishop, of Cincinnati, for Governor, and G. W. Fitch, of Cuyhoga, for Lt. Governor.

Resolutions were adopted demanding the resumption act, and against further contraction of the greenback currency.

The Perils of the Rail.

(Special Dispatch to Charleston Journal of Commerce.] PHILADELPHIA, July 25.

A serious accident occurred on the Philadelphia and Atlantic City Railroad this morning. An excursion train, with a number of prominent gentlemen, among them members of robbed of his watch while he was asleep, the City Council, etc., when near Waterford, N. J., twenty-six miles south of this city, was wrecked, twelve persons being killed and a large number wounded. Particulars not yet received.

Reported Decision of Railroad Presidents, [Special to the Baltimore American.]

CUMBERLAND, July 24. Advices received here to-night represent that President Garrett, of the Baltimore & Ohio; President Scott, of the Pennsylvania Central; Vanderbilt, of the New York Central; and Jewett, of the Eric Company, have determined to make no compromise with the rioters nor submit to any arbitration.

a considerable quantity of the Buffalo water, when we were all poor(!) our people visited Buffalo. Since the war we have got too grand for that and have the water brought to our doors. Oht the luxuries that wealth brings. — There are two wings of the Radical party in Granville. In speaking of each other, their curses are loud and deep. — A terrific hail storm visited the northern portion of Granville on the 15th. It is said the crops wards the close. Advices received here to-night reparbitration.

- Tramps are about Raleigh. - The health of Oxford has much

- Asheville will soon have a telegraph office. - Oxford is beaten. Winston has an eighteen ounce tomate. Next.

- The Warrenton Gazette has begun its sixth year. Health, prosperity and happiness, brother Foote. - Mr. W. D. Ball, of Rockingham, sold his tobacco crop for $1,140, raised by him and one boy. - Jesse F. Stroud cut W. W. Tumage, at Kinston, on 23d. An old feud. It is thought the latter will die.

- Mrs. Harriet E. Duskin died at the residence of her brother-in-law, Judge Settle, in Greensboro, on Saturday, the 21st. - The Mason and Slidell reminiscence, copied into the Washington Press, first appeared in the STAR. It has lost its paternity. - Weldon News: The health of our town is excellent. — A half witted darkey, Levi by name, laid down on the track of the Petersburg Railroad a few days since, it is supposed, with the intention of being killed. The engineer saw him in time and stopped his engine.

- More Granville tobacco sold at Durham on the 18th. Here are some of the prices: Jos. Cash, $50; Cash & Beasley, $50; R. T. Rycroft, $45, $75; Bryant Cash, $50; E. C. Coley, $52, $60, $70; Wm. Moss, $40; T. B. Coley, $34, $57; W. W. Bragg, $35, $78. This is by the hundred pounds.

- Newbern Nut Shell: The schooner Patron, Willis, master, left this city yesterday afternoon for Ocracoke, where an extensive camp meeting is in progress, taking as passengers a large number of Newbern young ladies and gentlemen, who will spend a few days at Ocracoke and Portsmouth

- A chapter of orphans, under the care of Superintendent Mills, will soon begin their travels, giving entertainments in many places. They begin at Oxford on July 30th and will fill appointments now published until October 9th. Help the orphans. Go to see the entertainment and pay double. Take another, and let all families aftend.

- Statesville Landmark: There will be a rousing pic-nic at Conger's, six miles below Statesville, on the Western North Carolina Road, in a few weeks. -A certain young editor, not more than a hundred miles from Salisbury, is soon going to pluck one of the fairest flowers from Statesville's bouquet of beautiful girls. -A young lady of North Statesville went riding Saturday evening; the horse shied she sighed; went up! then down! and knocked a hole in the ground! Thar now.

- The Statesville Landmark has entered upon its fourth volume. We are pleased to learn that Messrs. Brooks and Ramsay have been so well sustained in are holding meetings now in the streets. At 10 o'clock this morning Dr. E. Donnelly submitted a resolution that the stockholders of the Pennsylvania Railroad request the resolution of Tom Scott. The resolution of Tom Scott. when it shall cease to be a good Landmark in the land we all love.

> - Greensboro Patriot: The continued rains of the past week have had bad effect on the peaches, great quantities of which are retting on the trees. There is such an abundance that we can spare what rot. — A. M. Hardin, of Randolph county, confined in jail for violation of U. 8. revenue laws, died Saturday evening from what very much resembled cholera. — A gang of tramps, southward bound, passed through here last Saturday. One of 'em wore a cue a la John Chinaman.

- Washington Press: William Burnes, a young man about twenty years of age, who has been living at the poor house for some time past, while on his way to church, on Sunday evening last, was taken with an epileptic fit, to which he was subject, fell in Cool Spring branch, and was drowned. — A bar room, owned by John Robbins, at Pantego, was burned on Wednesday night last. It is supposed to have caught from a lamp. This is the second bar room burned at Pantego within the last six or eight months.

- Winston Sentinel: Mr. F. G. Schaum had his pocket book, containing $264, stolen from his coat pocket on last Monday. The coat was hanging up in his prize room at the time. — The Supreme Court has confirmed the decision in the case of the State against Thaddeus Davis, convicted of burglary at the last term of Forsyth Superior Court and sentenced to be hanged. — There are six times as many at Piedmont Springs now as there were at the same time last season, and still they come, and a large number heard from.

- Raleigh Observer: We learn by a private letter that an outrageous affair has taken place in the upper edge of Craven county. A white man named Bill Oglesby, and who has been living in that section for some time past, induced his stepdaughter, a girl of sixteen or seventeen years of age, to elope with him, and on Sunday night last the couple took their flight. — We learn that another messenger is on his way with 100,000 shad destined for the waters of the Tar. These shad come from the United States Hatchery, a Holyoke, Massachusetts. -- Consider able sickness prevails among our colored

- Charlotte Observer : The only gold mine in Mecklenburg county where nuggets of gold are found in the brown ore, is the Wilkey Morris mine, lying about twelve miles southeast of Charlotte. This mine was discovered some years ago by William Shaffer, who found pieces of gold weighing as much as 130 pennyweights. — A colored man who accompanied the excursion which arrived here day before yesterday evening from Wilmington, and by a negro named Sylvester Otis, who had been hanging around the depot. - A return was received yesterday from a quantity of ore sent from the Rudisill mine to be reduced by the Swanzy process, which is, we believe, accounted among miners as the most reliabla. The parties to whom it was sent report a yield of $180 to the ton, which is highly gratifying, and inspires high hopes in the hearts of the owners of the property.

- Oxford Torchlight: Tobacco worms are in great numbers in certain parts of the county. —— Our citizens are using a considerable quantity of the Buffalo were very much damaged. —— The fruit trees in Granville are almost overburdened.

A leading citizen favors the idea of running more streets through our town, and also wishes the merchants and others to buy vacant lots and give them away to deserving mechanics, on condition that they take up their abode here. — Mr. Benj. I. Ellington, sold some tobacco a few days ago at Durham for $60 per hundred. By the way, that which he sold at $60 was not his best grade. — We greet the arrival of the STAR with unabated interest, and gather from it many beautiful and gather from it many beautiful ideas and much valuable information.

— We look forward with pleasure to the time when Mr. Kingsbury will publish his speech—delivered in this city July 4, 1876—in book form. It is a valuable history of Granville country. Granville county, and every family should have a copy.

A Bush that Bears Bad Fruit.

John Bush, colored, had a preliminary examination before Justice Hill, yesterday morning, on the charge of larceny. The evidence was to the effect that defendant went to the house of one Diana Queen, colored, on Mulberry street, while she was absent from home, and stole a pair of blankets worth $5, which he subsequently sold to another colored woman, by the pame of Sallie Walker for seventy five delications and the public demand it incessantly. We speak of Dooler's Year Powder, long since determined to the best of its kind. All bread, biscuit, rolls, cake, etc., made from it are nutritious, healthy and name of Sallie Walker, for seventy-five delicate, Another thing to be remarked is that the cents each. Defendant was ordered to give strong, that less of it is required for its purpose. a justified bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was lodged in jail. The blankets were recovered by Officer Bryant.

A colored individual by the name of Edward Henry had a hearing before Justice Harriss, yesterday afternoon, on the charge of larceny. It seems that Henry has been employed as a porter, for some time past, in the store of Mr. Jas. C. Stevenson, on Market street. Until recently he had borne himself in such a manner as to elicit the confidence of his employer, and he was consequently allowed the liberty of the money drawer in making change. Latterly, however, a suspicion became aroused that Henry was addicted to the habit of replenishing his own exchequer from the funds, and a watch was placed upon his movements, resulting, yesterday morning, in the detection of the young man in the very act. He was thereupon arrested and brought up for preliminary examination.

Defendant was ordered to give a justified bond, in the sum of $100, for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was lodged in jail

A Mad Dog Killed.

Considerable excitement was created on South Water street, between Princess and Chesnut, yesterday morning, by the appearance on the street in that vicinity of a dog thought to be suffering from an attack of hydrophobia. The animal was foaming at the mouth, and at one time made a rush to the river and plunged in, but was hauled out by some sympathising Good Samaritan, who was not aware that there was anything unusual in his case. The merchants and clerks kept out of his way, and finally one of them called to Officer G. W. W. Davis, who happened to be passing, and directed his attention to the condition of the beast, whereupon the officer seized a favorable opportunity and knocked the animal lifeless with one blow of his club.

Beautiful Corn. A gentleman of this city, who has just returned from a visit to Bladen county, mentions the fact of a visit he paid to the plantation of Mr. K. K. Council, at Council's Station, on the Carolina Central Railvay, where he saw some of the finest that ever greeted his vision in these parts Mr. Council has about forty-five acres planted in this corn, the stalks of which average fully thirteen feet in height, all in silk and tassel, and presenting a clean and beautiful appearance.

PMr. J. C. Blocker, of Cumberland, seems to have settled the question as to the possibility of raising fine peaches in this section. He informs us that he has shipped 146 crates to Wilmington so far, and out of that quantity he has seen but two peaches that were troubled by worms. "This," says Mr. Blocker, "is because I cultivate my trees." We shall call on Mr. B. to give us an article on peach culture for the Carolina Furmer, the first number of which will

day to hold an inquest over the body of a little colored child, named Clarissa Ann Howard, daughter of Lizzy Howard, living on the east side of Fourth, between Princess and Chesnut streets, who was found dead in bed yesterday morning. The jury returned a verdict that the child, who was only one month and one week old, came to its death from strangulation while nursing, the mother being asleep. Thermometer Record. The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations mentioned, at 4.35 yesterday evening, Washington mean
