formed in most every ward to-day, and preparations for a lively campaign to-night are complete.

It is reported that a gang from the stock-yard is coming, declaring that they will clean out every policeman on Halstead street. They are armed with butcher-knives, gambrels, sticks and every conceivable weapon.

Fearful Indian Atrocities.

DEADWOOD, July 26. There is intense excitement throughout the city. At short intervals horsemen are arriving from different towns and hay fields in this vicinity, bringing details of fresh murders and outrages by savages who seem to have broken away from the agencies, and are infesting the country in all directions. Up to this hour, 7 P. M., at least twenty murders have been reported. Some of the killed are well known citizens of Deadwood, who went to the relief of Lieut. Legley's surveying party. Nearly every ranch along the Red Water and the Spear Fish valley has been devastated.

BALTIMORE, July 26. At Mt. Airy, on the main stem of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, forty-two miles from this city, this morning, three men employed in guarding the company's property at that point, were fired into by unknown parties—whether strikers or tramps is not known. One (James Colburn) was fatally, and the two others (James Bower and James Shotleberg) seriously injured.

Strike of Miners—Valuable Mines Flooded. [Special to Richmond Dispatch.]

SCRANTON, July 27—2 A. M. This morning a committee of fifteen, representing the miners, engineers, pump-hands, carpenters, blacksmiths, and outside laborers, in the employ of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Company, waited on the coal superintendent, W. R. Storrs, and demanded an advance of twenty-five per cent. in their wages. He telegraphed at once to President Sloan, and received an answer to the effect that the Company could not at present grant their demand. At 6 o'clock to-night everything stopped, and the Diamond mine is rapidly flooding. This will entail a vast loss, as some of the mines could not be got ready for work again inside of two years. An experienced coalman told me a few moments ago that the Diamond mine could not be prepared for work again in five years if once flooded. It is a valuable mine, and has been in operation over twenty years. The company have been removing their cars and mules from the mines all day in anticipation of the flooding, and it is expected that in a short time Scranton will be a deserted village.

The Chicago Riot.

CHICAGO, July 26. Some cutting of telegraph wires occurred this evening on the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad, and the mob attempted to prevent the telegraph from replacing them. The officials are awaiting developments. The Audubon Gun Club has called a meeting of sportsmen to aid in preserving order. All the cigar makers in the city have struck. The police have dispersed the crowd on Halstead street, where the fights occurred this morning, and everything is quiet there. Mounted police are patrolling that section, and allowing gatherings of any kind. The truth about the cannon firing seems to be that the artillery did fire two shots, but that the guns were loaded with nothing but powder. The number of casualties reported is large. The mob seems pretty well broken up, but will probably gather again before midnight. A Times reporter was attacked by the crowd on Halstead street a few moments ago, and he responded by shooting one man. One of the police has just been dangerously wounded. The foreman of the Illinois Packing Company, just in from the stockyards, says the men attempted to work this morning, but were driven off by the mob. He says $125,000 worth of meat will be spoiled to-day in the establishment. The entire force of United States troops expected are now here. They are six companies of the Ninth regiment infantry. Societies for protection have been

A lady of Winston prides herself upon three tomatoes weighing four pounds. One alone topped eighteen ounces.

Salem Press. That was the smallest. The other two must have averaged twenty-three ounces. Pretty large.

Newbern Nut Shell: Mr. Robt. Hancock, Jr., U. S. Deputy Marshal, yesterday exposed for sale at public auction, to the highest bidder, the schooner Mary W. Hupper, Mr. George W. Rawley being the purchaser for the sum of $1,211.

Dossey Battle tells of a big thunder storm. Twenty-four telegraph poles struck by lightning, thirteen trees close together blasted, and some of the trees, larger than a man's body, twisted off like reeds. It was not a good place to be.

Fayetteville Gazette: The rainy weather of last Thursday evening prevented the gathering of a large crowd to hear Col. Waddell's lecture. "Two Great Americans, Morse and Maury," but the crowd which did assemble were rewarded by a most beautiful and scholarly oration.

The orphans need help at once. Superintendent Mills, in the Orphan's Friend of 25th, says: "While we write this article one hundred and eighteen orphans are on their way to the table. They go there three times a day. They must also be clothed and taught, and then there are various incidental expenses. Now, read our report of receipts and see if the most rigid economy will enable us to carry on the work. We have unshaken faith in the good people of our State."

Raleigh Observer: Our neighbors of the Register are putting up in their office a Campbell cylinder newspaper press.

At Bell's Island, near the head of Bald Hill Bay, may be seen the quarters of Captain Reuben F. Willis, of Harkers' Island, who has charge of the whalery at that place, which is not so profitable, however, as the sealing fishery.

The whale is a source of considerable revenue to the inhabitants, and there are engaged at this whalery six boats, with five men each, making sixty shares; each boat has its fixtures of harpoons, tow lines, drags, &c.

Salisbury Watchman: A gentleman of our town has brought out a washing machine which promises to press something. The heavy crop of fruit is breaking down thousands of trees. A severe wind, just now, would be fearfully disastrous to many orchards. — Apples, peaches, pears, plums, melons, &c., are in great abundance. — Subsequent developments have shown that Howerton did not confine himself to money packages alone, but seized small packages of goods as well. In default of bail he stands committed to await his trial in the U. S. Circuit Court at Greensboro or Statesville.

Salem Press: Salem, for her size, can boast of as many worthless canines as any town in the State. Sheep, of course, are scarce in the immediate vicinity of town. We think peach leather would pay. If we had an orchard we would try the experiment. — There are two ponies in town over a quarter of a century old. — Fruit drying is carried on extensively. Peaches, apples, plums, and pears flood the market; peaches 40 cents a bushel. — One of our citizens realized, this season, from two bee-hives, old box patterns, five boxes of honey, averaging twelve pounds apiece. The boxes were replaced, and from present indications the chances are good for eighteen or twenty pounds more.

Our Northern friends now seem in a fair way of "suppressing the rebellion." We believe that the way they used to express it during the war between the States.

The heat is so intense during the middle of the day that Chief of Police Brock gave directions to the street brigade, yesterday, to quit work at 12 o'clock and resume again at 2 P. M., working later in the evening to make up for lost time.

In Norfolk there was a difference of five degrees in favor of our port.

A white woman, drunk and disorderly, but "supporting the practically beautiful" and novel name of Louisa Montebell, as the Advance says, was arrested in Wilson a day or two since and placed in the lock-up. It is understood that about sixty persons will embark at Fayetteville for the proposed trip, and there is no doubt that a sufficient number will join them here to make the excursion a grand success.

A seaman on board of the German Barquentine Ana, now in port, died suddenly on Thursday night from heart disease. THE AMERICAN PEOPLE—No people in the world suffer as much with Dyspepsia as Americans. Although years of experience in medicine had failed to accomplish a certain and sure remedy for this distressing and painful disease, we have discovered a new and powerful remedy, which is a case of Dyspepsia that cannot be immediately relieved. Two doses will relieve you. Regular size 75 cents.

SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC—In the atmosphere experienced here during the summer months, the lethargy produced by the heat takes away the desire for wholesome food, and frequent revivations reduce bodily energy, particularly those suffering from the effects of debilitating diseases. In order to keep a natural healthful activity of the system we must resort to artificial means. For this purpose Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic is very effective. A few doses will create an appetite and give fresh vigor to the enervated body. For dyspepsia it is invaluable. Many eminent physicians have doubted whether dyspepsia can be permanently cured by the drugs which are generally employed for that purpose. The Sea Weed Tonic in its nature is totally different from such drugs. It contains no corrosive minerals or acids; in fact it assists the regular operations of nature, and supplies her deficiencies. The tonic in its nature so much resembles the gastric juice that it is not identical with that fluid. The gastric juice is the natural solvent which, in a healthy condition of the body causes the food to be digested, and when this juice is not excreted in sufficient quantities, indigestion, with all its distressing symptoms follow. The Sea Weed Tonic performs the duty of the gastric juice when the latter is deficient. Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic sold by all Druggists.

Latest from the War in Pender. The latest "strike" was at Leesburg, Pender county, on Thursday, where, during an exciting discussion between James Heaton and Geo. W. Price, Jr., of this city, two of the champions of the rival factions for the county site, they struck each other over the head with billets of wood, resulting in a free fight, in which both parties were considered, a physician having to be called upon the ground to dress the wounds of the principals in the melee and some of their respective friends. To-day there will be an exciting head-splitting discussion at Long Creek, and in our next to be able to publish a list of the killed, wounded and crippled.

The Canvases in Pender. We learn that the contest for the county site in Pender has narrowed down between South Washington and Burgaw, it being the general opinion that Rocky Point and other places previously mentioned in that connection will only get a few scattering votes.

Some of the Democrats who favor Burgaw will hold a meeting at Rocky Point on Monday, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and at Lillington on Tuesday, at 10 A. M., at which time several speeches will be made.
