Ohio State Convention.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 1. The Republican State Convention was called to order at 11 o'clock. The usual committees were appointed, and an adjournment ordered at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Upon reassembling Gen. James A. Garfield was appointed permanent chairman. The following are two of the planks in the platform adopted:

Resolved, That the Republicans of Ohio reaffirm their unfaltering confidence in Rutherford B. Hayes as a statesman, patriot and Republican, and cordially approve and support his efforts for the pacification of the country, and the establishment of its civil service upon a basis of purity and efficiency. Resolved, That we view with alarm the present disturbed condition of the country as evidenced by the extensive strikes of the workingmen, and followed by the destruction of life and property in different parts of the country, and, while we deprecate each and every resort to violence and disorder, and cordially approve the action of ofir national and State authorities in their efforts to support the supremacy of the law, yet we do most heartily sympathize with the condition of honest and industrious laborers, who are willing to work but remain unemployed or are employed at wages inadequate to comfort and | this city. independence, and as an earnest of our desire to find a remedy for their condition we recommend-first, that Congress establish a national bureau of industry; second, that Congress exert its authority over all national highways of trade by prescribing and enforcing such reasonable regulations as will tend to promote the safety of travel, secure fair returns for capital invested and fair wages to employes, preventing mismanagement, improper discrimination, and the aggrandizement of officials at the expense of stockholders and shippers and employes; third, that provision be made for statutory arbitrations between employers and employes to adjust controversies, reconcile interests and establish justice and equity between [Special Dispatch to the Gazette.] WASHINGTON, Aug 1.

Commissioner Raum has been placed in possession of charges, embraced in twelve specifications, against Collector Freeland, of Brooklyn. They are preferred by responble parties in that city, representing the foremost business men of the place, and it is claimed they can be substantiated by no less than one thousand witnesses, if the government is ready to guarantee that the witnesses shall be protected afterward from persecution and annoyance of the officials. Among the charges referred to are blackmailing, extortion, vexatious and unnecessary seizures, non-accounting for sales, paying various private debts with government stamps, failure to collect dues, collusion with distillers, &c. One of the most serious charges is that, when the special agents of the Treasury came around to investigate, account of stock was taken by avoirdupois. Mr. Freeland, as has been

The War with the Indians and the Mobs. [Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.]

WASHINGTON, August 1. Only those who have seen the telegrams sent to the department commanders have any idea of the firmness with which the orders of the President were worded, in directing troops to be sent to the different cities doring the strike. The telegram to General Sherman that his services might be required was so worded as not to interfere with his trip through Montana, and he will continue on his way. He telegraphed yesterday that he thought his services there were far more important to the country than they would be in Washington, showing that the General has a just appreciation of the magnitude of the Indian troubles, and the hope that by his strategical tactics he may be able to guide General Howard out of his trouble. The line of warfare is now in the path marked out by General Sherman for his overland trip, and he was en route for Missouri when Competing for Places in the American Team-The Wylle and the Burton Medals.

The largest average scores on record were made on the Creedmoor Range Wednesday. It was the last but one of the series of competitions for entrance into the American team. In the 800 and 900 yards range Gen. T. S. Dakin made the remarkable scores of 75 and 74 respectively out f a possible 75 in each. It is thought by well informed members of the National Rifle Association that Messrs. Dakin, Jewell, Allen, and Hyde are pretty sure to be the first of the eight to compose the team. Below

The Election in Pender County. After one of the most exciting and hotly contested campaigns that we have known in this section for a long time, the long mooted question of the permanent location of the county site of Pender has at last been settled and victory perches upon the 293. banner of Burgaw. The places voted for at the election on Thursday were Lillington, Rocky Point, Burgaw and South Washington, the latter the county seat as at present located. In order to move it from that place it was necessary that some other point should receive a majority of all the votes cast, including those polled for each of the other places. We have been kindly furnished with the vote by majorities for the two most prominent points, as

Now that the great contest has been happily ended, we hope that the bad blood which was engendered during the campaign may speedily sink into the sea of forgetfulness; that Pender may build up a flourishing little town at Burgaw, and that peace, prosperity and good will may hereafter reign in all her borders.

A Husband and Wife Arrested for Fighting.

An old colored man by the name of David Lucas, and his wife, Bridget Lucas, living on Front, between Queen and Castle streets, were arrested yesterday afternoon, by officer Lewis Bryant, charged with fighting, or attempting to do so. It seems that they had a matrimonial squabble, growing out of the fact that the old man returned home and found his wife gone and the house locked up, necessitating his crawling in at the window. When his wife returned home a quarrel arose between them, upon which they adjourned to the yard, one seized an axe and the other a stick of wood, and were just in the act of going for each other's scalps in fine style, when the officer very quietly and unceremoniously appeared upon the scene, seized the offending couple and marched them off to the guard house. They will probably have a hearing before the Mayor this morn-

Particular attention is called to the large difference in the matter of the direct trade of the two ports, as shown by the above statement, in favor of Wilmington. In the matter of exports, Wilmington could no doubt make a much better showing by including her indirect shipments in the statement: by which we mean the arti-

It will be seen that the increase in th value of imports over the last fiscal year has been $4,526, and that of exports $840,-

Not having the necessary statistics at hand, no comparative statement of the business of Wilmington and Norfolk for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1877, could be made.

The evidence before the coroner's jury in the case of Capt. I. S. Harding, of the wrecking schooner Wave, mention of which was made in the last issue of our paper. was to the following effect: Some slight repairs were needed by the vessel, and it was at first intended to haul her upon the marine railway of Messrs. Cassidey & Ross and have the work done before leaving here. Capt. Harding, however, was in a hurry to accomplish some work he had in view and finally concluded to await a more favorable opportunity to have the repairs made. After the arrival of the schooner off Masonboro', where some wrecking was being done, it was suggested that the first spare time they had the vessel should be placed in a favorable position on the beach inside of the inlet and her bottom scraped and painted, and this suggestion was being carried out when the sad calamity occurred. Capt. Harding was subject to attacks of heart disease, which always troubled him a good deal, whenever he became unduly excited, and on Wednesday after unduly excited, and on Wednesday afternoon he had been considerably worried with one of his men and had talked pretty harshly to him. There were five men connected with the vessel besides himself, little while those who adopt this advice frequently three white and two colored. The Thing at Last.

BEHOLD THE "PEARL OF GREAT PRICE" is now offered to you at ONE DOLLAR.

THE PEARL SHIRT is an unfinished Shirt, just being introduced in this market by me. It is guaranteed to be superior to all others, because—

1st. They are made of the very best muslin.

2d. The bosoms are three-ply, and made of the best linen, each ply being guaranted all linen.

3d. They are made only by capable and experienced hands, are carefully inspected, and are unsurpassed by any other in workmanship.

4th. They are guaranteed to fit, and to give entire satisfaction in every particular.

I lead the Clothing Trade, and am determined to lead the Shirt Trade. Call and see the PKARL.
