

Table with 2 columns: Rates of Subscription in Advance, and Amount. Includes rates for one year, six months, three months, and one month.

MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

The Norfolk Custom House is to be investigated. Long Branch hotels have been plundered by thieves and the goods found in Washington. Sam Bard interviewed the Secretary of the Navy relative to the Pensacola Navy Yard; both the President and Secretary expressed themselves as much pleased with the results of the Southern policy.

The Charlotte Observer says the STAR "apparently chuckled" over a silly puff from "a correspondent." It was only because he had a correspondent who could say as foolish things as some other correspondents "we wot of."

Raleigh News: There are fifty-four miles of streets in Raleigh. The Street Commissioner has nine hands to keep them in order. There are at this time twenty prisoners in Wake county jail; eighteen males and two females; nineteen colored and one white.

Mr. B. L. Biting, of Forsyth, has patented a prop for hoops. The Winston Sentinel says: With this attachment it is impossible for the hoops to crop off and the staves fall down in case of shrinkage, and the cost is so small and its advantages so great that it will probably come into general use.

Randolph Regulator: The County Examiner last week examined eighteen applicants, and granted as many certificates. The certificates ranged from first to third grade. Lewis R. Tompkins was injured seriously on election day last while running a horse race. He lived till Sunday last. He never spoke from the time he was stricken.

The Charlotte Observer tells a story of the usefulness of a tramp, who was instrumental in enabling Mr. John Hays, an Englishman living near that place, to ascertain the whereabouts of a brother of whom he had not heard in eighteen years. The two are now living together near Charlotte. The lost brother was in Canada.

Superintendent Mills, referring to the "Normalists," says, "The Normal School closing, and the dearth of the most affectionate students we ever saw. Such delicious promenades and tender adieux. They have enjoyed a Chapel Hill Commencement six weeks along. It was grand, peculiar. Everybody was as happy as an old woman at a camp-meeting."

Charlotte Observer: Four thousand one hundred and thirty-nine sheep, and two thousand seven hundred and three dogs "listed" in Anson. About ninety per cent of the darkies call it "Libella." Sweet potatoes have made an appearance in the market. The number of assays made at the Mint during the month of July was greater than the corresponding month of any year since coinage operations ceased.

Fayetteville Gazette: We have seen a sample of carrots, from the farm of Mr. James M. Smith, Jr., a few miles west of town, which were sent to Col. Polk at Raleigh, and are as luxuriant in growth as the best ever seen in the State. Mr. Smith expects to gather 200 bushels from a half acre. Mr. Ed. Hall has shown us a cotton boll picked from his farm east of the Cape Fear on the 11th inst.

Winston Sentinel: The Rt. Rev. Emil A. DeSchweinitz, of the Moravian Church, Raleigh, has introduced Rev. H. P. Lineback to his new congregation, at Bethania. The teachers of the Salem boys' school intend adding a gymnasium to the exercises. The Salem Cornet Band will purchase new instruments soon. Revenue collections in this district, during the month of July, amounted to $69,025 35.

Goldsboro Messenger: We learn that Mr. John Pool, in Johnston county, on the 10th inst., took from his fish trap, near Smithfield, four monster sturgeons; the aggregate weight being over 600 pounds. The largest weighed 216 pounds. We regret to hear that a young man, named James Price, aged 23 years, met a sad death near Pine Level, on the 11th inst., in falling from a wagon, the fall having broken his neck. A coroner's inquest was held on the 12th inst.

Fayetteville Gazette: In Chatham county, on the 7th inst., J. S. Finney, son went to the threshing machine of Emsley Scott, and hitched his horse near by. A storm came up and the lightning struck the tree, killing the horse instantly. The machine was torn all to pieces, but, though there were several persons in the vicinity, no one was hurt. On the same day the house of Zeke Davis, in Moore county, was burned—supposed to have been done accidentally by his children.

Duplin Record: Mr. A. S. Colwell, of Rockingham, a few days ago, though confined to his house with rheumatism, was suddenly seized with a desire to have a hunt. His friends conveyed him to the woods, in a cart, and placed him in position, at a stand. Finally the dog arrested the bird which, which sped for the place at which our friend was leisurely reclining in his rocking chair, and though unable to rise from his seat, yet he fired with unerring aim and brought his game to the ground.

Greensboro Patriot: The child of W. Causey, of this county, has been adopted from the asylum by a wealthy gentleman and lady, near Wilson, and also Rufus McLean, son of J. R. McLean, of Greensboro, having received four years in Oxford training, has, through Mr. Mills, found a splendid home with a merchant of Granville county. Here he begins the crop out in our own midst the benefits of such an institution, supported by the voluntary contributions of the people of North Carolina; 125 orphans there now to be fed three times a day, and the land is burdened with plenty.

THE MORNING STAR.

THE AUGUST REGATTA.

Preliminary Comments and Incidents.—Our "Special" Looks Out for No. 1.—Unpleasant Experience with a Sand Crab.—The Race.—The Yacht Race.—Victorious—What Our "Special" Saw after He had Satisfied His Appetite.—A Suggestion, &c.

WRIGHTSVILLE, Aug. 17, 1877. The race has been run, and every boat owner is more satisfied than ever that his is the fastest. All one fellow wants is a little more breeze; another more water or a better crew; or a longer centre board, and the Champion Flag is his.

Magnolia Record: A most sad bereavement has befallen our friend and townsman, H. Hollingsworth Esq., in the death, on last Saturday morning, of his amiable and most excellent and exemplary wife. Mr. D. W. Alderman has sent us two good bolts of cotton which opened on his plantation on the 14th inst. Mr. A. B. Page, of Rockfish township, had the very great misfortune to lose, by fire, last Sunday, his dwelling house, kitchen and smoke house, with all they contained.

Salem Press: The condition of I. G. Lash is very precarious. Rev. Edward Rothler, of Philadelphia, will succeed Rev. A. L. Oertler, as pastor of the Moravian Church at this place, sometime this fall. Mr. Wm. Peterson of this place, from one stand of bees, hived four swarms, and from those and the parent hive gathered 160 pounds of honey.

Raleigh Observer: From all we can learn the oat crop has yielded beyond the average, which is much better than anticipated early in the season. Mr. P. H. Mangum, of Wake Forest township, realized three stacks to the acre, averaging 75 bushels of cleaned oats to the stack. Mr. Wm. Holloman, of the same township, made 125 stacks on 100 acres.

Salisbury Watchman: There is a largely increased interest, in this part of the State, in the production of sorghum. Almost every farmer has his cane patch this year, and will produce syrup sufficient for his own use, and many of them will have a surplus. They are introducing improved machinery and evaporators and aiming to manufacture a superior article.

Charlotte Observer: Four thousand one hundred and thirty-nine sheep, and two thousand seven hundred and three dogs "listed" in Anson. About ninety per cent of the darkies call it "Libella." Sweet potatoes have made an appearance in the market. The number of assays made at the Mint during the month of July was greater than the corresponding month of any year since coinage operations ceased.

Fayetteville Gazette: We have seen a sample of carrots, from the farm of Mr. James M. Smith, Jr., a few miles west of town, which were sent to Col. Polk at Raleigh, and are as luxuriant in growth as the best ever seen in the State. Mr. Smith expects to gather 200 bushels from a half acre. Mr. Ed. Hall has shown us a cotton boll picked from his farm east of the Cape Fear on the 11th inst.

Winston Sentinel: The Rt. Rev. Emil A. DeSchweinitz, of the Moravian Church, Raleigh, has introduced Rev. H. P. Lineback to his new congregation, at Bethania. The teachers of the Salem boys' school intend adding a gymnasium to the exercises. The Salem Cornet Band will purchase new instruments soon. Revenue collections in this district, during the month of July, amounted to $69,025 35.

Goldsboro Messenger: We learn that Mr. John Pool, in Johnston county, on the 10th inst., took from his fish trap, near Smithfield, four monster sturgeons; the aggregate weight being over 600 pounds. The largest weighed 216 pounds. We regret to hear that a young man, named James Price, aged 23 years, met a sad death near Pine Level, on the 11th inst., in falling from a wagon, the fall having broken his neck. A coroner's inquest was held on the 12th inst.

Fayetteville Gazette: In Chatham county, on the 7th inst., J. S. Finney, son went to the threshing machine of Emsley Scott, and hitched his horse near by. A storm came up and the lightning struck the tree, killing the horse instantly. The machine was torn all to pieces, but, though there were several persons in the vicinity, no one was hurt. On the same day the house of Zeke Davis, in Moore county, was burned—supposed to have been done accidentally by his children.

Duplin Record: Mr. A. S. Colwell, of Rockingham, a few days ago, though confined to his house with rheumatism, was suddenly seized with a desire to have a hunt. His friends conveyed him to the woods, in a cart, and placed him in position, at a stand. Finally the dog arrested the bird which, which sped for the place at which our friend was leisurely reclining in his rocking chair, and though unable to rise from his seat, yet he fired with unerring aim and brought his game to the ground.

Greensboro Patriot: The child of W. Causey, of this county, has been adopted from the asylum by a wealthy gentleman and lady, near Wilson, and also Rufus McLean, son of J. R. McLean, of Greensboro, having received four years in Oxford training, has, through Mr. Mills, found a splendid home with a merchant of Granville county. Here he begins the crop out in our own midst the benefits of such an institution, supported by the voluntary contributions of the people of North Carolina; 125 orphans there now to be fed three times a day, and the land is burdened with plenty.

Charlotte Observer: Four thousand one hundred and thirty-nine sheep, and two thousand seven hundred and three dogs "listed" in Anson. About ninety per cent of the darkies call it "Libella." Sweet potatoes have made an appearance in the market. The number of assays made at the Mint during the month of July was greater than the corresponding month of any year since coinage operations ceased.

Fayetteville Gazette: We have seen a sample of carrots, from the farm of Mr. James M. Smith, Jr., a few miles west of town, which were sent to Col. Polk at Raleigh, and are as luxuriant in growth as the best ever seen in the State. Mr. Smith expects to gather 200 bushels from a half acre. Mr. Ed. Hall has shown us a cotton boll picked from his farm east of the Cape Fear on the 11th inst.

Winston Sentinel: The Rt. Rev. Emil A. DeSchweinitz, of the Moravian Church, Raleigh, has introduced Rev. H. P. Lineback to his new congregation, at Bethania. The teachers of the Salem boys' school intend adding a gymnasium to the exercises. The Salem Cornet Band will purchase new instruments soon. Revenue collections in this district, during the month of July, amounted to $69,025 35.

Goldsboro Messenger: We learn that Mr. John Pool, in Johnston county, on the 10th inst., took from his fish trap, near Smithfield, four monster sturgeons; the aggregate weight being over 600 pounds. The largest weighed 216 pounds. We regret to hear that a young man, named James Price, aged 23 years, met a sad death near Pine Level, on the 11th inst., in falling from a wagon, the fall having broken his neck. A coroner's inquest was held on the 12th inst.

Fayetteville Gazette: In Chatham county, on the 7th inst., J. S. Finney, son went to the threshing machine of Emsley Scott, and hitched his horse near by. A storm came up and the lightning struck the tree, killing the horse instantly. The machine was torn all to pieces, but, though there were several persons in the vicinity, no one was hurt. On the same day the house of Zeke Davis, in Moore county, was burned—supposed to have been done accidentally by his children.

Duplin Record: Mr. A. S. Colwell, of Rockingham, a few days ago, though confined to his house with rheumatism, was suddenly seized with a desire to have a hunt. His friends conveyed him to the woods, in a cart, and placed him in position, at a stand. Finally the dog arrested the bird which, which sped for the place at which our friend was leisurely reclining in his rocking chair, and though unable to rise from his seat, yet he fired with unerring aim and brought his game to the ground.

Greensboro Patriot: The child of W. Causey, of this county, has been adopted from the asylum by a wealthy gentleman and lady, near Wilson, and also Rufus McLean, son of J. R. McLean, of Greensboro, having received four years in Oxford training, has, through Mr. Mills, found a splendid home with a merchant of Granville county. Here he begins the crop out in our own midst the benefits of such an institution, supported by the voluntary contributions of the people of North Carolina; 125 orphans there now to be fed three times a day, and the land is burdened with plenty.

THE AUGUST REGATTA.

Preliminary Comments and Incidents.—Our "Special" Looks Out for No. 1.—Unpleasant Experience with a Sand Crab.—The Race.—The Yacht Race.—Victorious—What Our "Special" Saw after He had Satisfied His Appetite.—A Suggestion, &c.

WRIGHTSVILLE, Aug. 17, 1877. The race has been run, and every boat owner is more satisfied than ever that his is the fastest. All one fellow wants is a little more breeze; another more water or a better crew; or a longer centre board, and the Champion Flag is his.

Magnolia Record: A most sad bereavement has befallen our friend and townsman, H. Hollingsworth Esq., in the death, on last Saturday morning, of his amiable and most excellent and exemplary wife. Mr. D. W. Alderman has sent us two good bolts of cotton which opened on his plantation on the 14th inst. Mr. A. B. Page, of Rockfish township, had the very great misfortune to lose, by fire, last Sunday, his dwelling house, kitchen and smoke house, with all they contained.

Salem Press: The condition of I. G. Lash is very precarious. Rev. Edward Rothler, of Philadelphia, will succeed Rev. A. L. Oertler, as pastor of the Moravian Church at this place, sometime this fall. Mr. Wm. Peterson of this place, from one stand of bees, hived four swarms, and from those and the parent hive gathered 160 pounds of honey.

Raleigh Observer: From all we can learn the oat crop has yielded beyond the average, which is much better than anticipated early in the season. Mr. P. H. Mangum, of Wake Forest township, realized three stacks to the acre, averaging 75 bushels of cleaned oats to the stack. Mr. Wm. Holloman, of the same township, made 125 stacks on 100 acres.

Salisbury Watchman: There is a largely increased interest, in this part of the State, in the production of sorghum. Almost every farmer has his cane patch this year, and will produce syrup sufficient for his own use, and many of them will have a surplus. They are introducing improved machinery and evaporators and aiming to manufacture a superior article.

Charlotte Observer: Four thousand one hundred and thirty-nine sheep, and two thousand seven hundred and three dogs "listed" in Anson. About ninety per cent of the darkies call it "Libella." Sweet potatoes have made an appearance in the market. The number of assays made at the Mint during the month of July was greater than the corresponding month of any year since coinage operations ceased.

Fayetteville Gazette: We have seen a sample of carrots, from the farm of Mr. James M. Smith, Jr., a few miles west of town, which were sent to Col. Polk at Raleigh, and are as luxuriant in growth as the best ever seen in the State. Mr. Smith expects to gather 200 bushels from a half acre. Mr. Ed. Hall has shown us a cotton boll picked from his farm east of the Cape Fear on the 11th inst.

Winston Sentinel: The Rt. Rev. Emil A. DeSchweinitz, of the Moravian Church, Raleigh, has introduced Rev. H. P. Lineback to his new congregation, at Bethania. The teachers of the Salem boys' school intend adding a gymnasium to the exercises. The Salem Cornet Band will purchase new instruments soon. Revenue collections in this district, during the month of July, amounted to $69,025 35.

Goldsboro Messenger: We learn that Mr. John Pool, in Johnston county, on the 10th inst., took from his fish trap, near Smithfield, four monster sturgeons; the aggregate weight being over 600 pounds. The largest weighed 216 pounds. We regret to hear that a young man, named James Price, aged 23 years, met a sad death near Pine Level, on the 11th inst., in falling from a wagon, the fall having broken his neck. A coroner's inquest was held on the 12th inst.

Fayetteville Gazette: In Chatham county, on the 7th inst., J. S. Finney, son went to the threshing machine of Emsley Scott, and hitched his horse near by. A storm came up and the lightning struck the tree, killing the horse instantly. The machine was torn all to pieces, but, though there were several persons in the vicinity, no one was hurt. On the same day the house of Zeke Davis, in Moore county, was burned—supposed to have been done accidentally by his children.

Duplin Record: Mr. A. S. Colwell, of Rockingham, a few days ago, though confined to his house with rheumatism, was suddenly seized with a desire to have a hunt. His friends conveyed him to the woods, in a cart, and placed him in position, at a stand. Finally the dog arrested the bird which, which sped for the place at which our friend was leisurely reclining in his rocking chair, and though unable to rise from his seat, yet he fired with unerring aim and brought his game to the ground.

Greensboro Patriot: The child of W. Causey, of this county, has been adopted from the asylum by a wealthy gentleman and lady, near Wilson, and also Rufus McLean, son of J. R. McLean, of Greensboro, having received four years in Oxford training, has, through Mr. Mills, found a splendid home with a merchant of Granville county. Here he begins the crop out in our own midst the benefits of such an institution, supported by the voluntary contributions of the people of North Carolina; 125 orphans there now to be fed three times a day, and the land is burdened with plenty.

Charlotte Observer: Four thousand one hundred and thirty-nine sheep, and two thousand seven hundred and three dogs "listed" in Anson. About ninety per cent of the darkies call it "Libella." Sweet potatoes have made an appearance in the market. The number of assays made at the Mint during the month of July was greater than the corresponding month of any year since coinage operations ceased.

Fayetteville Gazette: We have seen a sample of carrots, from the farm of Mr. James M. Smith, Jr., a few miles west of town, which were sent to Col. Polk at Raleigh, and are as luxuriant in growth as the best ever seen in the State. Mr. Smith expects to gather 200 bushels from a half acre. Mr. Ed. Hall has shown us a cotton boll picked from his farm east of the Cape Fear on the 11th inst.

Winston Sentinel: The Rt. Rev. Emil A. DeSchweinitz, of the Moravian Church, Raleigh, has introduced Rev. H. P. Lineback to his new congregation, at Bethania. The teachers of the Salem boys' school intend adding a gymnasium to the exercises. The Salem Cornet Band will purchase new instruments soon. Revenue collections in this district, during the month of July, amounted to $69,025 35.

Goldsboro Messenger: We learn that Mr. John Pool, in Johnston county, on the 10th inst., took from his fish trap, near Smithfield, four monster sturgeons; the aggregate weight being over 600 pounds. The largest weighed 216 pounds. We regret to hear that a young man, named James Price, aged 23 years, met a sad death near Pine Level, on the 11th inst., in falling from a wagon, the fall having broken his neck. A coroner's inquest was held on the 12th inst.

Fayetteville Gazette: In Chatham county, on the 7th inst., J. S. Finney, son went to the threshing machine of Emsley Scott, and hitched his horse near by. A storm came up and the lightning struck the tree, killing the horse instantly. The machine was torn all to pieces, but, though there were several persons in the vicinity, no one was hurt. On the same day the house of Zeke Davis, in Moore county, was burned—supposed to have been done accidentally by his children.

Duplin Record: Mr. A. S. Colwell, of Rockingham, a few days ago, though confined to his house with rheumatism, was suddenly seized with a desire to have a hunt. His friends conveyed him to the woods, in a cart, and placed him in position, at a stand. Finally the dog arrested the bird which, which sped for the place at which our friend was leisurely reclining in his rocking chair, and though unable to rise from his seat, yet he fired with unerring aim and brought his game to the ground.

Greensboro Patriot: The child of W. Causey, of this county, has been adopted from the asylum by a wealthy gentleman and lady, near Wilson, and also Rufus McLean, son of J. R. McLean, of Greensboro, having received four years in Oxford training, has, through Mr. Mills, found a splendid home with a merchant of Granville county. Here he begins the crop out in our own midst the benefits of such an institution, supported by the voluntary contributions of the people of North Carolina; 125 orphans there now to be fed three times a day, and the land is burdened with plenty.

THE AUGUST REGATTA.

Preliminary Comments and Incidents.—Our "Special" Looks Out for No. 1.—Unpleasant Experience with a Sand Crab.—The Race.—The Yacht Race.—Victorious—What Our "Special" Saw after He had Satisfied His Appetite.—A Suggestion, &c.

WRIGHTSVILLE, Aug. 17, 1877. The race has been run, and every boat owner is more satisfied than ever that his is the fastest. All one fellow wants is a little more breeze; another more water or a better crew; or a longer centre board, and the Champion Flag is his.

Magnolia Record: A most sad bereavement has befallen our friend and townsman, H. Hollingsworth Esq., in the death, on last Saturday morning, of his amiable and most excellent and exemplary wife. Mr. D. W. Alderman has sent us two good bolts of cotton which opened on his plantation on the 14th inst. Mr. A. B. Page, of Rockfish township, had the very great misfortune to lose, by fire, last Sunday, his dwelling house, kitchen and smoke house, with all they contained.

Salem Press: The condition of I. G. Lash is very precarious. Rev. Edward Rothler, of Philadelphia, will succeed Rev. A. L. Oertler, as pastor of the Moravian Church at this place, sometime this fall. Mr. Wm. Peterson of this place, from one stand of bees, hived four swarms, and from those and the parent hive gathered 160 pounds of honey.

Raleigh Observer: From all we can learn the oat crop has yielded beyond the average, which is much better than anticipated early in the season. Mr. P. H. Mangum, of Wake Forest township, realized three stacks to the acre, averaging 75 bushels of cleaned oats to the stack. Mr. Wm. Holloman, of the same township, made 125 stacks on 100 acres.

Salisbury Watchman: There is a largely increased interest, in this part of the State, in the production of sorghum. Almost every farmer has his cane patch this year, and will produce syrup sufficient for his own use, and many of them will have a surplus. They are introducing improved machinery and evaporators and aiming to manufacture a superior article.

Charlotte Observer: Four thousand one hundred and thirty-nine sheep, and two thousand seven hundred and three dogs "listed" in Anson. About ninety per cent of the darkies call it "Libella." Sweet potatoes have made an appearance in the market. The number of assays made at the Mint during the month of July was greater than the corresponding month of any year since coinage operations ceased.

Fayetteville Gazette: We have seen a sample of carrots, from the farm of Mr. James M. Smith, Jr., a few miles west of town, which were sent to Col. Polk at Raleigh, and are as luxuriant in growth as the best ever seen in the State. Mr. Smith expects to gather 200 bushels from a half acre. Mr. Ed. Hall has shown us a cotton boll picked from his farm east of the Cape Fear on the 11th inst.

Winston Sentinel: The Rt. Rev. Emil A. DeSchweinitz, of the Moravian Church, Raleigh, has introduced Rev. H. P. Lineback to his new congregation, at Bethania. The teachers of the Salem boys' school intend adding a gymnasium to the exercises. The Salem Cornet Band will purchase new instruments soon. Revenue collections in this district, during the month of July, amounted to $69,025 35.

Goldsboro Messenger: We learn that Mr. John Pool, in Johnston county, on the 10th inst., took from his fish trap, near Smithfield, four monster sturgeons; the aggregate weight being over 600 pounds. The largest weighed 216 pounds. We regret to hear that a young man, named James Price, aged 23 years, met a sad death near Pine Level, on the 11th inst., in falling from a wagon, the fall having broken his neck. A coroner's inquest was held on the 12th inst.

Fayetteville Gazette: In Chatham county, on the 7th inst., J. S. Finney, son went to the threshing machine of Emsley Scott, and hitched his horse near by. A storm came up and the lightning struck the tree, killing the horse instantly. The machine was torn all to pieces, but, though there were several persons in the vicinity, no one was hurt. On the same day the house of Zeke Davis, in Moore county, was burned—supposed to have been done accidentally by his children.

Duplin Record: Mr. A. S. Colwell, of Rockingham, a few days ago, though confined to his house with rheumatism, was suddenly seized with a desire to have a hunt. His friends conveyed him to the woods, in a cart, and placed him in position, at a stand. Finally the dog arrested the bird which, which sped for the place at which our friend was leisurely reclining in his rocking chair, and though unable to rise from his seat, yet he fired with unerring aim and brought his game to the ground.

Greensboro Patriot: The child of W. Causey, of this county, has been adopted from the asylum by a wealthy gentleman and lady, near Wilson, and also Rufus McLean, son of J. R. McLean, of Greensboro, having received four years in Oxford training, has, through Mr. Mills, found a splendid home with a merchant of Granville county. Here he begins the crop out in our own midst the benefits of such an institution, supported by the voluntary contributions of the people of North Carolina; 125 orphans there now to be fed three times a day, and the land is burdened with plenty.

Charlotte Observer: Four thousand one hundred and thirty-nine sheep, and two thousand seven hundred and three dogs "listed" in Anson. About ninety per cent of the darkies call it "Libella." Sweet potatoes have made an appearance in the market. The number of assays made at the Mint during the month of July was greater than the corresponding month of any year since coinage operations ceased.

Fayetteville Gazette: We have seen a sample of carrots, from the farm of Mr. James M. Smith, Jr., a few miles west of town, which were sent to Col. Polk at Raleigh, and are as luxuriant in growth as the best ever seen in the State. Mr. Smith expects to gather 200 bushels from a half acre. Mr. Ed. Hall has shown us a cotton boll picked from his farm east of the Cape Fear on the 11th inst.

Winston Sentinel: The Rt. Rev. Emil A. DeSchweinitz, of the Moravian Church, Raleigh, has introduced Rev. H. P. Lineback to his new congregation, at Bethania. The teachers of the Salem boys' school intend adding a gymnasium to the exercises. The Salem Cornet Band will purchase new instruments soon. Revenue collections in this district, during the month of July, amounted to $69,025 35.

Goldsboro Messenger: We learn that Mr. John Pool, in Johnston county, on the 10th inst., took from his fish trap, near Smithfield, four monster sturgeons; the aggregate weight being over 600 pounds. The largest weighed 216 pounds. We regret to hear that a young man, named James Price, aged 23 years, met a sad death near Pine Level, on the 11th inst., in falling from a wagon, the fall having broken his neck. A coroner's inquest was held on the 12th inst.

Fayetteville Gazette: In Chatham county, on the 7th inst., J. S. Finney, son went to the threshing machine of Emsley Scott, and hitched his horse near by. A storm came up and the lightning struck the tree, killing the horse instantly. The machine was torn all to pieces, but, though there were several persons in the vicinity, no one was hurt. On the same day the house of Zeke Davis, in Moore county, was burned—supposed to have been done accidentally by his children.

Duplin Record: Mr. A. S. Colwell, of Rockingham, a few days ago, though confined to his house with rheumatism, was suddenly seized with a desire to have a hunt. His friends conveyed him to the woods, in a cart, and placed him in position, at a stand. Finally the dog arrested the bird which, which sped for the place at which our friend was leisurely reclining in his rocking chair, and though unable to rise from his seat, yet he fired with unerring aim and brought his game to the ground.

Greensboro Patriot: The child of W. Causey, of this county, has been adopted from the asylum by a wealthy gentleman and lady, near Wilson, and also Rufus McLean, son of J. R. McLean, of Greensboro, having received four years in Oxford training, has, through Mr. Mills, found a splendid home with a merchant of Granville county. Here he begins the crop out in our own midst the benefits of such an institution, supported by the voluntary contributions of the people of North Carolina; 125 orphans there now to be fed three times a day, and the land is burdened with plenty.

THE AUGUST REGATTA.

Preliminary Comments and Incidents.—Our "Special" Looks Out for No. 1.—Unpleasant Experience with a Sand Crab.—The Race.—The Yacht Race.—Victorious—What Our "Special" Saw after He had Satisfied His Appetite.—A Suggestion, &c.

WRIGHTSVILLE, Aug. 17, 1877. The race has been run, and every boat owner is more satisfied than ever that his is the fastest. All one fellow wants is a little more breeze; another more water or a better crew; or a longer centre board, and the Champion Flag is his.

Magnolia Record: A most sad bereavement has befallen our friend and townsman, H. Hollingsworth Esq., in the death, on last Saturday morning, of his amiable and most excellent and exemplary wife. Mr. D. W. Alderman has sent us two good bolts of cotton which opened on his plantation on the 14th inst. Mr. A. B. Page, of Rockfish township, had the very great misfortune to lose, by fire, last Sunday, his dwelling house, kitchen and smoke house, with all they contained.

Salem Press: The condition of I. G. Lash is very precarious. Rev. Edward Rothler, of Philadelphia, will succeed Rev. A. L. Oertler, as pastor of the Moravian Church at this place, sometime this fall. Mr. Wm. Peterson of this place, from one stand of bees, hived four swarms, and from those and the parent hive gathered 160 pounds of honey.

Raleigh Observer: From all we can learn the oat crop has yielded beyond the average, which is much better than anticipated early in the season. Mr. P. H. Mangum, of Wake Forest township, realized three stacks to the acre, averaging 75 bushels of cleaned oats to the stack. Mr. Wm. Holloman, of the same township, made 125 stacks on 100 acres.

Salisbury Watchman: There is a largely increased interest, in this part of the State, in the production of sorghum. Almost every farmer has his cane patch this year, and will produce syrup sufficient for his own use, and many of them will have a surplus. They are introducing improved machinery and evaporators and aiming to manufacture a superior article.

Charlotte Observer: Four thousand one hundred and thirty-nine sheep, and two thousand seven hundred and three dogs "listed" in Anson. About ninety per cent of the darkies call it "Libella." Sweet potatoes have made an appearance in the market. The number of assays made at the Mint during the month of July was greater than the corresponding month of any year since coinage operations ceased.

Fayetteville Gazette: We have seen a sample of carrots, from the farm of Mr. James M. Smith, Jr., a few miles west of town, which were sent to Col. Polk at Raleigh, and are as luxuriant in growth as the best ever seen in the State. Mr. Smith expects to gather 200 bushels from a half acre. Mr. Ed. Hall has shown us a cotton boll picked from his farm east of the Cape Fear on the 11th inst.

Winston Sentinel: The Rt. Rev. Emil A. DeSchweinitz, of the Moravian Church, Raleigh, has introduced Rev. H. P. Lineback to his new congregation, at Bethania. The teachers of the Salem boys' school intend adding a gymnasium to the exercises. The Salem Cornet Band will purchase new instruments soon. Revenue collections in this district, during the month of July, amounted to $69,025 35.

Goldsboro Messenger: We learn that Mr. John Pool, in Johnston county, on the 10th inst., took from his fish trap, near Smithfield, four monster sturgeons; the aggregate weight being over 600 pounds. The largest weighed 216 pounds. We regret to hear that a young man, named James Price, aged 23 years, met a sad death near Pine Level, on the 11th inst., in falling from a wagon, the fall having broken his neck. A coroner's inquest was held on the 12th inst.

Fayetteville Gazette: In Chatham county, on the 7th inst., J. S. Finney, son went to the threshing machine of Emsley Scott, and hitched his horse near by. A storm came up and the lightning struck the tree, killing the horse instantly. The machine was torn all to pieces, but, though there were several persons in the vicinity, no one was hurt. On the same day the house of Zeke Davis, in Moore county, was burned—supposed to have been done accidentally by his children.

Duplin Record: Mr. A. S. Colwell, of Rockingham, a few days ago, though confined to his house with rheumatism, was suddenly seized with a desire to have a hunt. His friends conveyed him to the woods, in a cart, and placed him in position, at a stand. Finally the dog arrested the bird which, which sped for the place at which our friend was leisurely reclining in his rocking chair, and though unable to rise from his seat, yet he fired with unerring aim and brought his game to the ground.

Greensboro Patriot: The child of W. Causey, of this county, has been adopted from the asylum by a wealthy gentleman and lady, near Wilson, and also Rufus McLean, son of J. R. McLean, of Greensboro, having received four years in Oxford training, has, through Mr. Mills, found a splendid home with a merchant of Granville county. Here he begins the crop out in our own midst the benefits of such an institution, supported by the voluntary contributions of the people of North Carolina; 125 orphans there now to be fed three times a day, and the land is burdened with plenty.

Charlotte Observer: Four thousand one hundred and thirty-nine sheep, and two thousand seven hundred and three dogs "listed" in Anson. About ninety per cent of the darkies call it "Libella." Sweet potatoes have made an appearance in the market. The number of assays made at the Mint during the month of July was greater than the corresponding month of any year since coinage operations ceased.

Fayetteville Gazette: We have seen a sample of carrots, from the farm of Mr. James M. Smith, Jr., a few miles west of town, which were sent to Col. Polk at Raleigh, and are as luxuriant in growth as the best ever seen in the State. Mr. Smith expects to gather 200 bushels from a half acre. Mr. Ed. Hall has shown us a cotton boll picked from his farm east of the Cape Fear on the 11th inst.

Winston Sentinel: The Rt. Rev. Emil A. DeSchweinitz, of the Moravian Church, Raleigh, has introduced Rev. H. P. Lineback to his new congregation, at Bethania. The teachers of the Salem boys' school intend adding a gymnasium to the exercises. The Salem Cornet Band will purchase new instruments soon. Revenue collections in this district, during the month of July, amounted to $69,025 35.