[Tarboro Southerner.] A MAN MURDERS AND BUTCHERS HIS WIFE.

Scott Partin Out-Partined During the late term of Edgecombe Superior Court, Dempsey Morgan, a colored man, was lodged in Tarboro jail on the charge of beating his wife. At the end of the term he was discharged, the Grand Jury, from some cause, having failed to find a bill against him. He lived in this county, near Penny Hill. After his discharge he returned home and charged his lent, he finally murdered her, cutting her throat from ear to ear, and the fiend incarnate, not content with this ghastly deed, then completely disemboweled her, ripping her open from deliberately doffed his bloody garments, leaving them on the spot, substituted others, and escaped. Turner Redmond, the efficient jailor, is our informant. There is great excitement
