The funeral obsequies of the late Archbishop Bayley in the Baltimore Cathedral were of the most imposing character. A large number of dignitaries of the Roman Catholic Church were present, and the assembly was immense. The Archbishop had made many friends beyond his own denomination, and the papers of every grade have had a kind word to say.

The news from Port Royal is most distressing. There are forty-eight vellow fever patients. Money, food, nurses are all needed. Think of it, there are not enough well nurses to take care of the sick. This statement should be powerful enough to open the hearts and the purse-strings. Will not Wilmington respond to the appeal? Let the Mayor take the matter in hand at once. Let Port Royal and Fernandina be helped.

The rebellion in El Paso county, Texas, is not yet quelled. United States cavalry have started for the scene of violence. One hundred of the Mexicans are said to be from the Mexican side of the Rio Grande, the dividing river between the two countries. We have had no tidings as to what our Government purposes, and the news thus far is of such an unsatisfactory character as to scarcely justify any opinion as to what will be the end of the disturbance. If the reports are not greatly exaggerated, however, the United States will have to take such decisive action as to prevent a recurrence of such invasion or insurrection or mob, or by whatever term it may be rightfully designated. A report from the City of Mexico is to the effect that Sonora is so pleased with its contraband trade that it threatens to secede if interfered with.

Latest By Mail. SECESSION IN MEXICO.

The State of Sonora Threatens Leave the Union. [By Cable to the News and Courier.] HAVANA, Oct. 9.

The City of Merida brings the following, dated City of Mexico, Sept. 30: Both Houses of Congress are in session. Congress is divided into two cliques, headed respectively by Zeamacona and Justo Bentez. Both claim to be friends of Diaz, but, nevertheless, are increasing in inconvenient opposition to each other. It is officially stated that the contraband business on the Rio Grande is increasing to a fearful extent. Gen. Mariscal has been recognized as Governor of Sonora. The Legislature of Sonora is discussing a law providing for the severance of that State from the Union whenever the General Covernment attempts to interfere with the - county of the State. Reidsville News: Federal Court s now in session at Greensboro. We learn that a gentleman who has figured conspicuously in the records of the criminal dockets of the Virginia courts is a principal witness against several of our citizens who stand harged with violations of the Internal

- Noah Rice, in his attempt to arrest the murderer, Davis, in Madison county, last week, was not mortally wounded as reported. His wound says the Hendersonville Courier, was a painful but not a mortal one. At last accounts he was con-valescing. Davis died Sunday night. This is the second man killed by Rice in attempts to capture them.

- Newbern Nut Shell: Sportsmen in Newbern now retire early in order to get up in time for the early bird and the industrious squirrel. A profitable business is being carried on in that line. We were informed a day or two since, by a young man of this city, that he went out one day last week and killed nine squirrels in a short time. A farmer, living near Croaton, has already killed three fine deer this season.

- Monroe Express: We have been informed by gentlemen living near White's store, in Anson county, that the crops of corn and cotton in that section will not turn out more than three quarters of an average crop. — There are 105 cases on the criminal docket and 94 cases on the civil docket for trial at this term of our court. The case of the State vs. G. J. Green, for perjury, is the most important on the criminal docket; the docket is composed principally of larceny cases.

The Wilmington Star increases in brightness as its age advances. It is now ten years old and out sparkles any luminary in the State except—the Sun. "Twinkle, twinkle little Star." — Peter Cruse, of Township No. 9, comes at the outside world with a stalk of sorghum cane twenty-three feet and seven inches high. Not only one, but several of that same height grew in the same row. From one stalk nineteen feet high he extracted one quart and two gills of pure juice !

- Elizabeth City Carolinian: On last Friday and night we had a severe wind and rain storm. It was the longest in duration experienced in this section for many years. While the damage from the gale was not so great as the storm of last September that from the water is much more. Most of the bridges in this and adjoining counties were removed, travel was interrupted, and until Tuesday morning we had no mail. — In the opening and widening of the Dismal Swamp canal the people of the entire Albemarle country are deeply interested. It would aid to a large extent in developing one of the finest regions of territory in the United States.

- Raleigh Observer: The people of Chapel Hill are earnestly interested in the proposed railroad from University Sta-tion to the Hill, and ask the aid of Presimance correspondent: I have learned with regret that John Tapscott, Esq., an old gentleman, far advanced in life, and a for-double tobacco barn filled with tobacco just approaching completion or the process of curing.

- Raleigh News: We ate an English walnut yesterday from a tree in the yard of Mr. William Myatt. — We learn from passengers who left Weldon on yesterday at 12 m. that Roanoke River is higher than it has been for several years and that there must be very great destruc-tion to crops. All the crops near Weldon in the low grounds are now totally submerged. — We learn that hereafter 12th October will be known in the University Calendar as "University day," and will be a College holiday by ordinance of the Frustees. On next Friday, being the 12th, addresses on the early History of the University will be delivered by President Battle, Rev. Dr. Phillips and others. Distinguished Alumni have been invited to be present and address the students and visi-tors. — Now that the waters have sub-sided the damages by the freshet on the various streams in the country are being fully ascertained, and we are glad to learn that these damages are not so great as at first apprehended. - Milton Chronicle: Hog cholera rages on the Person and Caswell line near this town. - An old-fashioned freshet sweeping corn, tobacco, stock, houses fences, pumpkins, mills, mill-dams, &c., is apprehended. It is very damaging to tobacco not housed. - We shall need mechanics of different trades-the boys that build up big towns. Put down your board; it has been much too high ever since the war, here and everywhere else. You can afford it. — Milton wants a few Jews to go into business here. We never saw a town worth a cent that didn't have Jews in it. That is in a business point of view. Several cases of this dreadful scourge. diphtheria, have occurred in our town with in the last week or ten days. So far our physicians have treated it successfully. -We regret to hear that tobacco is spotting rapidly and rotting in the hill. We hear of quantities being ruined. Col. John E. Woodsdale, in Person, informs us that the crop in that section has been ruined to a great extent.

- Lenoir Topic: John A. Cargyle, the noted advent minister, and family, of Alabama, are coming to North Carolina to reside. — Tobacco crops are generally fine, considering the dry weather in early spring. — "Jim Justice," of infamous Rutherford county memory, is dead. His end—like that of nearly all the bitter spirits who maligned and persecuted Southern people in their defeat—was tragic. ——County items: Last Saturday morning Mr. Jacob McCall met with quite a serious accident, while engaged in grinding sugarcane. By some means or other his hand was caught between the lever to which the horses were attached and the upper cap of the mill, tearing one ear almost off, and severely bruising his hand and breast. - The hog cholera and cattle distemper is doing fearful work among the hogs and cattle in our neighborhood. Several of our farmers have lost their killing hogs and many of their finest milch cows and other cattle. - Watauga county items: Allen Green, recently tried at Boone as an accomplice in the murder of Elisha Trivett, has fled the country. — Miss Emma, daughter of M. C. Harman, had the misfortune to fall and break her leg just above the ankle, a few days since.

- Raleigh Observer: A big fight took place in Durham yesterday, in which two negroes were the principals, which proved to be a very serious affair. Bryan Lunn and Dave Brooks had an altercation, in which knives were used Brooks was seriously stabbed in the abdomen, and at last accounts his physicians thought his case hopeless. Lunn, in at-tempting to escape, after finding that he had inflicted a mortal wound on his adversary, cut a man by the name of Steve Stew-art severely in the arm, and was in the act of getting off when Mr. Blacknall, the well-known druggist of the town, knocked him down with a paling, and thus secured his arrest. He was sent to Hillaboro jail yesterday evening. — Two weeks ago there were six vacant stores on Wilmington street and four on Fayetteville street. Now there are numbers of applications, and not a store is to be had on either street. W. W. Daughtry, Register of Deeds for Cumberland county, states in his abstract of taxables sent to the State Auditor that there is in that county $2,182,915 of taxable property, of which $3,200.24 is paid to the general State tax, $8,274.37 special State tax; $4,360.72 for county school purposes, and $27,977.38 for county purposes.

Colonel Hedrick. - There is a good deal of repairing going on in different sections of the city just now, many dwellings, stores, &c., being put in good order.

- We learn that Mr. W. H. Ger ken, of this city, has received the appointment of Vice Great Incohonee of the I. O of R. M. for the State of North Carolina.

- Warmer, clear or partly cloudy weather, variable winds, mostly from the southeast, and stationary or higher pressure, are the indications for this section to-day.

- The statement in reference to the peanut crop, referred to in yesterday's STAR, was crowded out of that issue, but will be found under our Commercial head this morning.

- We learn that the cry of fire had been heard for about fifteen minutes, yesterday morning, before some of the bells took up the alarm. It is important that the bells should be rung promptly.

- A trunk, belonging to Mr. Isaac Rhodes, who boarded with Mr. Howard, was robbed of a quantity of wearing apparel, &c., yesterday morning, after it had been removed from the burning building, corner of Seventh and Dock streets

- The fire-alarm bell in the steeple of the First Baptist Church will be repaired this forenoon, and will be rung for a short time to test it. So don't get excited if you hear the bell, but take things coolly for once. If it should be a genuine alarm oth er bells will be rung.

- Michael Priest, a deserter from the army, who was arrested here a few weeks since and sent to Fort Johnson, Smithville, passed through this city yesterday, in charge of a sergeant and two men en route for Pittsburg, Pa., where his regiment, the 18th Infantry, is now stationed.

- The Raleigh News throws a wet blanket upon the report that John G. Wil liams, Esq., President of the State National Bank of Raleigh, has had left to him and his brother's heirs a large estate in Wales. That paper is not sure, but thinks the statement probably premature. At all events Mr. Williams has not received that $1,800 to pay his expenses to Wales.

- The coot hunters are now on the war path and hundreds of these toothsome birds are daily brought to bag. One of a brace of Nimrods who succeeded in bagging forty-two yesterday, said they were mighty good to eat, but that shooting them "settin" was perfect butchery. An other hunter said he thought it was very coot sport.

Criminal Court.

The following cases were disposed of resterday in the Criminal Court, Judge Meares presiding:

State vs. Mary Eliza Nixon, charged with assault and battery upon the person of Margaret Ann Clarrity. Defendant found guilty and sentenced to twelve months in the County Work House.

State vs. James Everett, convicted of larceny. Defendant sentenced to six months in the County Work House.

State vs. Andrew McGary, convicted of breaking into a store-house. Defendant sentenced to twelve months in the County

State vs. Charles Johnson, convicted of a uisance. Defendant sentenced to confine. ment for six months in the County Work

State vs. Emanuel Jones, convicted of forcible trespass. Judgment suspended upon the defendant's giving security for he payment of the costs.

Several other trivial cases were disposed of, continued, &c.

Burr's Oceanicon. Those who were so unfortunate as to deprived of the privilege of witnessing the exhibition of these beautiful paintings by a native artist, which took place some months ago, will have an opportunity tomorrow (Thursday) night, at the Opera At some of the stopping points the only and their recollections revived as to many of the stirring scenes connected with the late war, especially on our immediate coast. These paintings have been pronounced by competent judges as very striking and lifelike, and the sight of them well worth the price of admission.

Thermometer Becord.

The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations mentioned, at 4.35 yesterday evening, Washington mean time, as ascertained from the dail; bulletin issued from the Signal Office in this city:

The alarm of fire, which is getting to be so frequent of late, was again sounded yesterday morning, about 4 o'clock, and was found to have its origin in the kitchen attached to the premises of what is known as the "Hyde House," corner of Seventh and Dock streets, the property of Miss Mary Jane Hyde, now residing with her uncle, Dr. W. J. Potter, at Smithville. The kitchen was entirely destroyed, and the dwelling badly damaged, the roof being almost completely burned off, and both the north and south sides of the building badly infured, besides which the interior of the house was deluged with water to such an extent that it is feared all the plastering will have to be replaced. Mr. Thos. M. Howard, who occupied the premises, lost about $200 in furniture, &c., upon which there was no insurance.

There was an insurance of $1,700 on the dwelling and $300 on the kitchen, in the Phonix, of Hartford, represented in this city by Mr. Norwood Giles.

We learn that there is no doubt that the fire was the work of an incendiary. The fire was first discovered on the south side of the kitchen, and Mr. Howard is certain that there had been no fire in the building later than 7 o'clock the previous evening. The fire department was promptly on hand, and no doubt but for their efforts the conflagration would have been much more
