OUTLINES.

Gen. Todleben takes command of the entire general staff of the Russian army; the Hungarians are on the war-path; it is said that the Russians cannot winter in Bulgaria unless Rustchuk or some other force surrenders; a Turkish steamer has been destroyed in the Danube by torpedoes; any Russian soldier may be now promoted to a commissioned officer, for distinguished services, after standing the usual examination. - Hon. E. Pierrepont has resigned as Minister to England. - N. Y. Parker, ex-State Treasurer of South Carolina, has been arrested in New York upon a requisition from Gov. Hampton, and has been jailed. — Another case of yellow fever at quarantine, New York. - Public excitement rapidly increasing in Paris; Mac-Mahon's manifesto is commented on with severity. --- Proposition to shorten the Prayer Book was rejected. - New York markets: Money 4 per cent.; gold strong at 1991; cotton easier at 11 7-16@119-16 cents; flour dull and 5@10c lower, Southern $6 45 @8 75; wheat, spring 1@1c lower, winter grades better; corn a shade firmer; spirits turpentine steady at 35@351 cents; rosin $1 70@1 80.

RANDALL POR SPEAKER.

The Democratic caucus at Washington, last night, nominated the Hon. Samuel J. Randall for Speaker on the first ballot. He received 107 oat of 142 votes cast. As is known to its readers the STAR has favored the nomination of Mr. Randall, and it is needless, therefore, to say that we are gratified at the result. Mr. Randall has made a good Speaker, and was entitled to a renomination at the hands of the party he has so faithfully served. His nomination in caucus is, of course, equivalent to an election.

"THE SOUTH-ATLANTIC."

Late yesterday we received the first number of this new "Monthly Magazine of Literature, Science and Art," and edited by our gifted townswoman, Mrs. Cicero W. Harris. We have only had time to turn over its pages and glance here and there. The number contains eight papers and poems, besides editorials. Among the contributors are such well-known authors as Capt. J. N. Maffitt, Paul H. Hayne and John Esten Cooke. Kemp P. Battle, W. H. Babcock and Mrs. V. L. West are the other prose contributors. The poetry is by M. V. Lanier, J. H. Boner and Paul H. Hayne, the best living Southern poet. The bill of fare is inviting. We need not say that this candidate for public favor, and specially for North Carolina favor, has our heartiest wishes for its success. Let it be well sustained with many contributions in the way of subscription and advertising, and it will be admirably sustained in its literary contents. It will be for sale at the book stores on Monday. Price $3 a year or 30 cents a number.

"One more unfortunate" has been captured and jailed. This time it is ex-State Treasurer N. G. Parker, of South Carolina, who has been arrested in Jersey City and jailed, upon a requisition of Governor Hampton. He is one of the "rogues," according to his confession, which we published some weeks ago. He expresses himself as willing to turn State's evi-"He can a tale unfold" that will be highly interesting to South Carolinians and very distressing to his "pals," including that arch-villain, the mevitable ex-Gov. Chamberlam. One by one the precious scamps are coming to grief. The grinding of the mills of God goes on continnally. We trust the last one of the rascals will be ground to powder.

The Russian armies have not been well commanded. This is evidently felt by the Czar, and, hence, it is reported that the great Russian engineer, Gen. Todleben, will be placed at the head of the entire general staff. This may turn out to be a judicious change.

The Democratic caucus at Washington, last night, concluded its labors by the nomination of Mr. Adams for Clerk of the House, Mr. Thompson for Sergeant-at-Arms, Mr. Polk, of Missouri, for Doorkeeper, and Mr. Stewart for Postmaster.

Minister Pierrepont has resigned. What is up? He long ago disgusted decent Englishmen by his foolish speeches. There is a "true inwardness" of this resignation, but it is not known as yet.

A new Episcopal Diocese will be formed out of West Virginia. It has passed the General Convention, and

The State Pair-Preparations of the Opera House. Military to Attend-Full Hanks Destred, &c.

There is considerable of a stir in military circles just now. The boys are all on the qui vive in regard to the proposed trip to Raleigh to attend the State Fair. We do not know how many will go, but it is very important that each company should go with full ranks in order that Wilmington may be able to make as good a showing, at least, as other towns and cities in the State. From every indication, at present, there will be an immense gathering at Raleigh this week. Hampton and Vance will draw if nothing else will. The military will form an important feature of the occasion, and we should have sufficient pride to wish our companies to make a favorable impression upon the large numbers who will be present from every section of our patriotic, good old State. The strength of the different companies will be able to show will depend in a great measure upon the will of our merchants and other business our military are employed. In the language of the Charlotte Observer, in making an appeal in behalf of the young men of that city, we say, "many of them who are anxious to go have declined to ask permission to do so from their employers on account of the heavy business just at this season. We make an appeal in their behalf. This is the first time they have been called out, and it is important that there should be a good representation. If allowed to enjoy themselves for a few days they will return with lighter hearts, and better prepared for their work. Let the boys go by all means, and tell them they can do so, and we venture to say that you will not regret it."

The military companies have been ordered to appear at Raleigh on Tuesday of the Fair, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for an encampment of three days. The Cape Fear Light Artillery, under command of Capt. H. G. Flanner, with a section of their battery, will leave this city Monday morning | violating the Internal Revenue laws by selllet, and will arrive at Raleigh about 9 o'clock that night.

The Wilmington Light Infantry, under Capt. Walter Coney, and the Whiting Rifles, under Capt. J. W. Gordon, will leave Monday afternoon, on the 5.40 train, via Weldon, and will arrive at Raleigh on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock.

On Tuesday morning, the day upon which the Fair opens, all the military of the three different battalions, will escort Governors Hampton and Vance to the Fair Grounds.

Assault with a Beadly Weapon. John Minnis, colored, was arrested yesterday morning, about 11 o'clock, on the charge of committing an assault on Henry Wilkes, colored, by striking him over the head with an instrument used in shovelling ballast. The difficulty occurred on the West side of the river, about half past 10 o'clock. The wound, which is on the back of the head, was examined by the city physician, who is of the opinion that it is not likely to prove serious. Minnis says Wilkes had been persistently teasing and worrying him, making insulting references to his family, clucking at his horse, &c.: that he had warned him time and again to stop it, but without effect, and finally, in a moment of passion, he gave him the blow. Minnis, who was arrested by Officer Lewis Gordon, was lodged in the guard house to await a hearing before the Mayor's Court on Monday morning.

First Regiment N. C. S. G.

Lieut. Col. Taylor, of the Second Battalion N. C. S. G., has received a letter from Capt. W. A. Liles, of Wadesboro, stating that the Anson Veterans have organized. elected officers and sent forward certificates to the Adjutant General. The officers expected to receive their commissions immediately, and the company will have a proxy present at Raleigh this week. This makes the complement of ten companies necessary to constitute the Second Battalion a full regiment, entitling it to a Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel and Major, and making it the First Regiment of N. C. State Guard. The election of officers for the regiment is expected to take place at Raleigh this week, and we hope to see Lieut. Col. Taylor come home a full-fledged Colonel.

A Burning Bale. Considerable excitement was created the neighborhood of the W. & W. R. R. depot, yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, by a young man's trying the experiment of applying a lighted match to a hole in bale of cotton, which had been cut for sampling purposes. The cotton blazed up, and "the more he tried to put it out the more it burnt the faster." The bale was thrown upon the ground, which only served to give new impetus to the flames, but by this time a large crowd had gathered and the spiteful little conflagration was "nipped

On Thursday and Friday evenings of the present week, Mme. Ninon Duclos' famous troupe of Blondes and statuary artists will appear at the Opera House. The company numbers between twenty and thirty, and their performances, the Norfolk Virginian. says, have been greeted everywhere with large and enthusiastic audiences, it having been necessary frequently to open the doors from fifteen to thirty minutes before the advertised time to avoid the great rush on the ticket office. Of their performance in Washington the papers of that city say:

Standing room here this week is the exception. The performance is a bright and spicy one, and the "Dizzy Blondes" create a sensation.—Washington Resning Star. M'me Duclos' "Dizzy Blondes" are the leading attraction this week, and they draw unusually large crowds nightly.—Washington Republican.

Capital Case for the Superior Court. The case of the State vs. Robert Smith. arged with the murder of James Murphy, which occurred in Bladen county some months since, has been removed to this county for trial. The case will come up on Wednesday of the second week of the term of the Superior Court, which convenes in this city one week from to-morrow, Judge Moore presiding. It will be remembered that Mr. Smith had a preliminary examination before a magistrate shortly after the sad occurrence, and the case was dismissed. During the present term of Bladen Superior Court, however, the grand jury found an indictment against him, when, through his counsel, he succeeded in having the case removed, as before
