OUTLINES.

Edwin Adams, the actor, is dead. A panic occurred at Niblo's Garden, N. Y., on cry of fire; several ladies fainting; no one was injured.

Edwin Adams, the actor, is dead. He has passed from the mimetic stage into the eternal silence.

The Mayor of Fernandina appeals to the Mayor of New York for help. Hear ye the cry of the distressed and afflicted.

The two men-on-horseback have at last met, Grant, the American bull-dog, and MacMahon, the friend of Imperialism.

The Mayor of Fernandina calls strongly for help. His appeal so far has only secured partial help.

It is thought that the extra session will not adjourn before the middle of November. The Democrats are determined to vote no moneys unless they know where all the money has gone.

The Russians have gained another victory that may be more important than appears from the magnitude of the achievement itself.

The President was snubbed the other day by the Radical Senate. His private secretary was at the door with a bundle of Presidential nominations to communicate.

President Hayes visits Richmond, Va., the former capital of the Southern Confederacy, when his own fortunes are threatened with an ebbing. He will be met with a sincere cordiality by the Virginians.

Raleigh News: The students of Davidson College are organizing a military company. Sixty students have become members.

SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA.

[Charlotte Observer Report Condensed.]

FIRST DAY. The Sixty-fourth Annual Session of the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of North Carolina, began in the Second Presbyterian Church, of this city, Wednesday evening at 7:30.

After the usual preliminary services, Rev. M. McQueen, Moderator of the last Synod, proceeded to preach the opening sermon.

After prayer and benediction, the Moderator called the Synod to order, and the stated clerk, Rev. Jacob Doll, proceeded to call the roll.

At the conclusion of the roll call, Rev. E. H. Harding nominated Rev. John Douglass of Steel Creek church, for Moderator of the Synod, and he was unanimously elected.

Second Day, 25th Oct. Synod met in the Second Presbyterian Church at 9.15.

On Bills and Overtures—Revs. M. McQueen and T. N. Paxton, and Elder R. W. Allison.

On the Records of Presbyteries: Orange—Revs. R. B. Anderson and James McQueen, and Elder J. H. Greenlee; Concord—Revs. Walter W. Pharr and A. McMillan, and Elder C. L. Hunter; Fayetteville—Revs. G. D. Peaks and J. N. Wharey, and Elder R. Sterling; Wilmington—Revs. F. H. Johnston and W. E. McIlwaine, and Elder Milton McIntosh; Mecklenburg—Revs. Roger Martin and S. M. Smith, and Elder E. B. Stimson.

On the Minutes of the General Assembly—Revs. L. C. Vass and W. H. Davis, and Elder T. H. Robinson.

On the Report of the Trustees of Synod—Revs. D. E. Jordan and P. F. Winn, and Elder J. W. Reid.

On Leave of Absence—Revs. R. Z. Johnston and J. P. McPherson, and Elder H. A. Gray.

On Statistical Reports—Revs. P. H. Dalton and S. C. Alexander, and Elder John Wolfe.

The statistical reports from each Presbytery were then read by the Secretary. The reports generally indicated a healthy state of religion in the Synod.

The committee on Union Theological Seminary made a full report of its condition financially and otherwise, mentioning among other things that there were sixty-two students there last year.

From Rev. J. Rumples' report, it being from the committee on the aggressiveness of the Presbyterian Church in North Carolina, we take the following statistics:

read and referred to the committee on the Treasurer's Account.

Rev. L. C. Vass, Synodical Agent of Sunday schools, made a statistical report of the Sunday school work in the Synod, showing an improvement in the same, and recommending the adoption of the four resolutions passed by the General Assembly on the subject of Sunday schools.

The report was approved and adopted, and ordered to be placed in the hands of the editor of the North Carolina Presbyterian for publication.

The next Synod will meet in Wilmington. Rev. H. G. Hill's report on Sustentation was adopted.

What North Carolina is Worth. [Raleigh News.] Mr. A. J. Partin, the excellent and courteous clerk in the Auditor's office, has just finished up his recapitulation of tax returns for the fiscal year ending September 30th, 1876, from which we get the following values of real and personal property in the State for that year:

Table with 2 columns: Description of property and Value. Includes land, town property, horses, mules, cattle, etc.

The aggregate of the value of real and personal property of the State for 1877, has not yet been completed.

Spirits Turpentine.

Ice at Old Fort and Danbury a few days ago.

The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday footed up 970 bales, and the sales some 325 bales.

The rainy weather and the Superior Court again interfered with business on the wharf yesterday.

President Hayes has issued his proclamation naming Thursday, the 29th of November, as a day of National Thanksgiving.

Increasing cloudiness southerly winds, rain areas, stationary temperature and stationary or lower pressure, are the indications for this section to-day.

There were three trifling cases for trial before Mayor Dawson yesterday morning, the parties being sentenced to pay a fine of $3 each or be confined in a cell.

Superior Court. The case of the Bank of New Hanover against Williams, Black & Co. was closed last evening, and at the present writing the jury is still out.

Reidsville News: The frost last Tuesday morning was very large and destructive in its effects.

Newbern Vest Shell: The District Court finished its labors for the October term 1877, yesterday afternoon, and adjourned.

Dr. Bernheim's Lectures. St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church was crowded to its utmost capacity on Sunday evening to hear the lecture of Rev. Dr. Bernheim, which was announced through the papers.

The Newbernian, referring to Mrs. Mary Bayard Clarke, of that place, quotes the following from Current Thought, a Chicago periodical: "The Honorable Miss Murray, Lady-in-Waiting to Queen Victoria, said she was the only woman she had met in America who, without a blue-stocking, was yet thoroughly educated."

Piedmont Press: The negro boy, Gus Powell, who killed Rich Wittenburg in this place last week, was caught last Saturday by the sheriff of Buncombe county about ten miles beyond Asheville.

Asheville Citizens: In the western portion of the county, Friday night, a serious if not fatal affair occurred between a man by the name of Muse, and Mr. George Sharpe.

The music in the accompanying services, was very fine, and added largely to the interest of the occasion.

In compliance with the earnest and special request of a large number of our citizens, the Rev. Dr. Bernheim will repeat the lecture on "The Localities of the Reformation" above alluded to on to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, at 7 o'clock, in the Lutheran church.
