THE HORMING STAR.

VOL. XXI.-NO. 33 . WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1877.

$\qquad$
time. $\overline{\text { The French Miniastry have }}$ of Franee was the voice of thed peop . The will retire without a contest. Pre dent MacMahon has begun, understand the significancy

after.

come to Jersey a oliua upo

a woll in the fold." The mills are still at work, grinding, g griading. Let 'em grind. sent the city all alive wath hepe the ex pected visit of the Preaident. $\mathbf{E x}$. tensive preparations have been made spirit of the people we quote the fo lowing

Gen. Beeford Forrest is dead. H

death occarred on Monday, at $7 \frac{7}{2}$ p $\qquad$
$\qquad$
$\qquad$
ways. honor the great ceavalryman He was of North Carolina atoek, bi $\qquad$

whether Gen. Forrest wa fore or after the removal.

To-night the condpocition chumitues is the gossip of the There are many digguphlef onese an some eriticisn, of coarse, but the ge neral yridict Corong.
Walker Hunt, Monrison and Gilber Jelegation is iser and Hot altogether and and the vith the We is not altogether satisfied and Harris,

Char
The narrative of the Wilmington Prebbytery, omitted from the reports Preested on Tharsday, referted to read and

Theligion. port an "stical report, and the re-

on "systematic benovole the eamme Preebbyepry, was ref referred
The committee to whom was re Union The report of the firectoris of Uneogieal Seminary report Ingth, exproeasing report gratio-
many encouraging eea g several recommendarions. report, and.
nder the above report Revs. F.
Johnston and James M. Ander.

George Chadbourn, of (Wil-thewas elected in the plice of member of this olaso of

The Morning Star.

