OUTLINES.

Republicans will have a majority of probably from twelve to sixteen in New York Legislature on joint ballot. — Walter F. Bartlett, Receiver of Taxes at Trenton, N. J., is a defaulter to the amount of from $15,000 to $20,000. — The French Ministry desire a vote of confidence, but are afraid to meet the issue. — The Monarchists are resolved on desperate measures if their elections are declared invalid. — The Liverpool cup was won by Arbitrator. — The Montenegrins are bombarding Fort Nerar; they are also about to bombard Podgoritz and have twenty siege guns for the purpose. — A bill will be reported for American representation at the Paris Exposition. — Eight thousand Democratic majority in Pennsylvania. — Weeden, the prize fighter, who killed Walker in a set ring and sentenced to ten years in the State prison, is dead. — Rumors of a difference between Gambetta and M. Grevy. — Corydon Weed, of Bloomington, Ill., proposes to go into bankruptcy; liabilities $1,800,000. — Eight hundred striking cigar makers in New Orleans demand double wages. — Gen. Lagaroff gained a small but brilliant victory at Kars. — An animated debate in the House over the Army bill. — New York markets: Cotton 5 per cent; gold steady at 102 1/2; money 1 1/4 @ 1 1/2 cents; flour quiet; wheat 4 1/2 @ 4 1/4; corn 61 @ 61 1/2; spirits turpentine steady at 33 1/2 @ 34 cents; rosin quiet at $1 70 @ 1 77 1/2.

The striking cigar makers of New Orleans, to the number of eight hundred, demand double wages, and the strikers of New York are growing very threatening over a report that the manufacturers would employ Chinese workmen.

The discussion over the Army bill has begun in Congress. We may expect some of the old time talk of a disloyal South, by the advocates of an increase. It is evident the South will vote no increase. The point is voted down the army and cut down the expenses. The discussion yesterday was very animated.

The Charleston papers speak very highly of Milton Nobles' acting. We thought him exceedingly good, and were surprised that he was not more highly appreciated in Wilmington. The Journal of Commerce says:

The play he presents has comparatively little merit beyond its novelty, but Mr. Nobles' acting will be pronounced by good critics to be nearly to that of Joe Jefferson in Rip Van Winkle. It is hoped that the Phoenix will give Charleston another visit before the season is over.

Things are mixed in France. The Ministry were anxious to have the Senate give a vote of confidence in President MacMahon, and thus in themselves, but were afraid to bring the matter to an issue. Rumors of an alarming character are rife. The game of the Monarchists is for them to leave the Senate in a body, and thus give them a chance for a fresh dissolution, and a declaration of a state of siege. This is what it is believed will be done if the Chamber of Deputies, now engaged in verifying the elections, should declare the elections of Monarchists invalid. The end is not yet.

The Republicans have certainly a majority in the Senate of New York, we suppose, from the returns, and possibly a majority of one in the Assembly, but of this there is great doubt. The Herald gives the Republicans 6 majority in the Senate and 7 majority in the Assembly, not counting 1 Independent, John Morrissey, and 1 Greenback Democrat. The Tribune gives the Republicans 5 majority in the Senate, and but 1 majority in the Assembly, not counting Morrissey or the Greenbacker. So the Assembly is doubtful, and the Democrats may have a bare majority. Possibly by the time we go to press later news will have come.

They all do it. There is no doubt of it now. The unfortunate one this time is Mr. Walter F. Bartlett, hotel keeper and Receiver of Taxes at Trenton, New Jersey. The sum of his defalcation is modest—only some fifteen or twenty thousand dollars. If he keeps his hotel as well as he keeps the people's money he may be pronounced one of "them fellers" that "knows how to run a hotel." He now reposes in solitude, enjoying his otium in the quarters prepared by considerate people in those parts, known as the hotel de Smith. N. B.—W. F. B. does not "run" that "hotel." At present, instead of keeping, he is kept.

Baptist State Convention.

[Raleigh Observer Report Condensed.]
FIRST DAY—MORNING SESSION.

DURHAM, N. C., Nov. 7, 1877.
The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina assembled in its 47th annual session at the church at Durham this morning.

The Convention, in the absence of the President, was called to order by Rev. W. M. Kennedy, First Vice President.

Prayer, Rev. Theo. Whitfield leading. Singing, "I Love Thy Kingdom Lord."

Rev. W. M. Kennedy, President pro tem., then declared the Convention ready for business.

Whereupon the list of associations, churches, &c., being called, and a majority being represented, on motion, nominations for president were announced in order, and Rev. W. B. Harrell and A. D. Cohen were appointed tellers.

The tellers reported Judge John Kerr as receiving a majority of the votes cast, and he was declared elected.

Vice Presidents—Major W. A. Graham, Rev. R. R. Savage and W. B. Clement.

Treasurer—John G. Williams. Auditor—Major W. W. Vass. Recording Secretary—Rev. J. D. Hulham.

Assistant Recording Secretary—Capt. Wm. Biggs.

A committee on Finance was appointed as follows: Wm. A. Graham, E. Frost and Jacob S. Allen.

An invitation to visiting brethren was extended, and accepted by Revs. F. M. Jordan, S. M. Collis, John W. Mitchell, and Brother Charles E. Lee, from the Western Baptist Convention.

On motion, the President was authorized to appoint the usual committees.

The report of the Board of Missions was read and referred as follows: That part referring to State missions made special order for 10 o'clock tomorrow. Foreign missions made special order for Friday night.

The report on Sunday Schools was read and referred to a committee of five, to report Friday morning.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The President called the body to order at 2 o'clock.

On motion of Rev. C. Durham, a committee of nine was appointed on the following questions:

An Evangelist. What is he? and what is his work? If the work of an Evangelist scripturally exists, and there is a demand for such work in our State, who of our body are suitable and available men for such work? And what connection, if any, should they officially sustain to this Convention?

President appointed Revs. Theo. Whitfield, T. H. Pritchard, W. M. Wingate, F. H. Jones, John Mitchell, N. B. Cobb and R. H. Marsh, as said committee.

The President announced the following committees:

On Recommendation of the Sunday School Board Report—N. B. Broughton, E. Frost, J. B. Boone, J. B. Taylor and B. Olive.

On Time and Place of Next Session—J. B. Marsh, W. H. H. Lawson and J. A. Stradley.

To Nominate Preachers for Next Session—R. P. Thomas, H. A. Reams and John Armstrong.

On Periodicals—T. H. Pritchard, S. M. Collis and R. H. Moody.

To Nominate Sunday School Board—A. D. Cohen, T. Dixon and W. R. Gwaltney.

To Nominate Board of Missions—F. H. Ivey, P. A. Dunn and N. B. Cobb.

To Nominate Board of Education—L. R. Mills, A. L. Stough and F. H. Jones.

On Religious Exercises—Pastor and Deacons of Durham Church.

On Obituaries—W. M. Kennedy, John Mitchell and A. C. Dixon.

Judge McKoy and the Knight. [Oxford Orphan's Friend.]

Judge McKoy, while holding court in Oxford, visited the Orphan Asylum and related to the children an incident of his youth. He was a solitary Calhoun boy at school, while his nine little fellows were all Jackson boys.

A gentleman came along and announced his purpose to present a new knife to every "Jackson boy." He saw the boys receive their glittering presents, and a strong temptation was placed before him. But he determined not to sell his principles at any price, and he turned away, though the tears were in his eyes. The kind-hearted gentleman was moved by his manly integrity, and called him to receive a knife, not for his politics, but as a reward for his honesty.

"And to this day," added the Judge, "when tempted to do wrong for gain, I think of the knife and believe that there is a Providence guiding the affairs of earth and rightly rewarding all who resist the temptation to sell their principles."

"Do right under all circumstances and your reward will surely come."

Another Constit of Jurisdiction Case [Statesville Landmark.]

The infamous Ed. Ray, an ex-revenue official, better known as the outlaw who murdered old man Snider, a peaceful and law-abiding citizen of Ashe county, about a year ago, was arraigned at the late term of Wilkes Superior Court for an attempt to commit a rape on a girl twelve years old, in Watauga county. The defendant filed an affidavit and moved that the proceeding be suspended in the State Court, until he could make application for a writ of certiorari to remove the case to the Federal Court. Upon the ground that he was a revenue officer at the time the offense was committed, the motion was allowed by the Court. Solicitor Cowles immediately appealed to the Supreme Court.

How a Court was Broken up. According to the Southern Home there was a big time at Webster on Thursday of the Jackson Court. The excitement was first caused by the show of two monkeys, two parrots, one educated hog, and a balloon ascension. Two men tumbled from the top steps of the Court House, and were nearly killed by the fall; three or four got into a fight, and the excitement became so intense that the Court House was deserted by both jurymen and auditors. Judge Furches remained, however, with one or two members of the bar. It was no use to try and transact business until the show and the fights had ended.

Spirits Turpentine. —A Presbyterian Church is to be built at Hickory.

The venerable John Summerell, of Northampton, in his 94th year, is dead.

Mr. William Morrow, an esteemed and aged citizen of Alamance, died recently.

Mr. Samuel Turner was found dead near his home in Alamance. He died from natural causes.

An interesting religious meeting is progressing at Tryon Street Methodist Church, Charlotte.

Alamance Gleamer: Capt. Thad Troy becomes Railroad Agent, at Company Shops, instead of Dr. Galloway.

Wadesboro Herald: President Battle, of the University, delivered his exceedingly able and interesting address on education, at the University of North Carolina, at Lilesville on Monday night last.

Nowbern Nut Shell: On Sunday night, while the excursion train from this city was passing Clark's brick yard, a colored man named Sam Hardy attempted to jump off the train and was thrown violently upon the cross-ties, receiving severe wounds on the head and bad bruises on his body.

Washington State: We were shown a few days ago by Mr. Lon Hodges two different kinds of sweet potatoes growing upon the same root. Something we never heard of before. — Some unknown scoundrel fired Tranter's Creek bridge on Saturday night last, by piling up planks and then pouring kerosene on it.

Judge McKoy approved the bond given by Mr. Jones, county treasurer of Granville, and ordered that in the case of the sheriff, the injunction should be so modified as to allow Bullock to continue acting as sheriff, collecting taxes, &c., and that he is to have until the 10th of December to give another good bond. This we learn from the Free Lance.

Weldon News: We had the pleasure of meeting General Robert Ransom, formerly of this State, at the case of the Richmond fair, and are glad to be able to say to his many friends that he seemed to be in remarkably good health and spirits. — We learn with regret of the death of Capt. C. E. Thomas, of Northampton. He was a good man and one who will be missed.

Oxford Torchlight: Apples are selling in this market at 50 and 60 cents a bushel. — Our Register of Deeds issued twenty-four marriage licenses to parties in this county, during the month of October, twelve white and twelve colored couples.

Prof. Houser, of the hotel named Win, the misfortune to have his left arm broken, above the elbow, on Monday last week. He was driving a very spirited horse, belonging to Mr. Robert Lassiter, and when near the corner, by Dr. Owen's, the animal became frightened at a goat, and springing across the ditch, threw the professor against a tree, breaking his arm.

Salem Press: Sweet potatoes 40 cents per bushel. — Thermometer fell to 26 degrees Wednesday morning. — Oysters retail at 35 cents per quart; 25 cents a plate, fixed up. — The suspension of the tobacco factories throws a good many colored employes out of work for the winter season. — There are more young ladies at Salem Female Academy than there have been for years. — Last Saturday afternoon revenue officer McCormick, of Greensboro, with assistance, entered a house near the depot and found on the wall some twenty-six barrels of liquor without stamps, a lot of empty ones, and a barrel or two of vinegar.

Raleigh Register: Senator Merrimon who came home on Saturday last, says that Dr. W. H. Wheeler was confirmed as Collector of the Greensboro District on Friday last. — Hileman Morgan, who was languid at Lenoir on Friday last, confessed to the strike. — Crandup twice on the head with a stick; that he heard somebody coming and that he then ran away. — The case against Mr. Cozort, clerk of Granville, asking that he be removed for leaving his office on a certain Monday, was continued. A special term of the Superior Court for Granville has been called for the first Monday in December.

Oxford Free Lance: In answer to a question by the foreman of the grand jury, Judge McKoy stated on Monday that when a sheriff permitted his deputies to speculate in county orders they were all equally guilty and liable to be indicted. — His Honor, Judge McKoy, has given general satisfaction by the able, prompt and impartial manner in which he is discharging the duties of his high position. It is really a source of great gratification to the people of Granville to see such a judge presiding over the courts.

The family of T. B. Kingsbury, Esq., left for their future home in Wilmington on Tuesday last, carrying with them the best wishes of a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Statesville Landmark: A Washington correspondent says North Carolina is a good State to move to. It is also a good State to live in. — The Wilkesboro Academy, under the management of Capt. W. G. Woods, is prospering and preparing. Fifty scholars now attend regularly. — Aside from his numerous eccentricities Judge Cloud is reputed to have given general satisfaction at the late term of Wilkes court. During the progress of an exceedingly dirty case, his Honor took it upon himself to admonish the citizens of Wilkes county, in his original and abrupt way. He said, as a witness was testifying: "Thar, thar, thar now. Stop right thar! Wilkes county is going to the devil just as fast as it can!"

Charlotte Observer: A well informed farmer says that corn is turning out splendidly, and that owing to the mildness of the fall, cotton is making a much better yield than was expected. — We see it stated that Senator Merrimon has introduced a bill in the United States Senate to provide for the establishment of a post road in North Carolina from China Grove postoffice to Edinboro, in Cabarrus county. — There are two brothers in this county, one of whom lives in Charlotte, who have only two legs between them. Both were shot in the same battle, wounded in about the same spot in the thigh, and their legs taken off at the same time and in these distances from the knee, and the two are said to resemble each other very much in appearance.

Raleigh Observer: Messrs. Editors.—Postal service on the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line is about to commence and offices have been established at Keyser and Blue's Crossing. The Department has been waiting on railroad.—A. M. WADSWELL, Esq., shipped 235 bales of cotton last Saturday, brought to the State pen yesterday eight convicts, convicted at the recent term of the Superior Court for larceny. In the lot was an old gray-haired sinner, aged 73 years, sentenced to a five years' term. The sentence of all ranged from one to six years.

Before Justice Magin.—The case of Shaw vs. the Southern Underwriters' Association resumed. Armistead Jones, Esq., again placed on the stand. His examination, which was brief, elicited nothing more than what has already been reported in these columns. Mr. Eugene E. Gray, ex-Secretary of the Association, was next called to the stand, and pending his examination the court adjourned to 10 o'clock this morning.

Robesonian: The Good Templars Lodge at Laurinburg is one of the best in the district, and is composed of the best people in the town and vicinity. — Shoe Ice shipped 235 bales of cotton last Saturday.

A convention of the eighth district of the I. O. G. T., was held at Laurinburg last Friday and Saturday. — The first killing frost of the season made its appearance last Saturday night. — We are now seeing the like of new stores that are going up in our town. Besides the stores that are already completed, there are four or five under contract or in process of erection, and all will be occupied as soon as completed. — The Methodist Church at Laurinburg is quite creditable to the taste and enterprise of her citizens. It is just completed, and is a very handsome and imposing building. The Presbyterian Church, in the suburbs, is also an imposing edifice. — We learn from the Westville (Miss.) News that Dr. D. McCallum, formerly of this county, is the Democratic candidate for Representative in his county this year. Of course he will be elected, and he will make a good and capable Representative. — The South and West is full of North Carolinians and Robesonians who are now adorning stations of honor.

Church Benevolent Society. At a meeting of the ladies of the First Presbyterian Church, held in the session room Wednesday afternoon, for the purpose of forming a Church Benevolent Society, the following officers were elected: President—Mrs. J. O. Wilson. Vice Presidents—Mrs. G. W. Williams, Mrs. J. B. Dickson, Mrs. Alex. Johnson, Mrs. B. F. Hall, Mrs. Geo. Chadbourn, Mrs. L. A. Hart and Mrs. Jno. McLaurin. Secretary—Mrs. Chas. H. Robinson. Treasurer—Miss Fannie R. Williams.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned to meet at the Pastor's residence this afternoon for the purpose of perfecting the organization.

Thermometer Record. The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations mentioned, at 4:35 yesterday evening, Washington mean time, as ascertained from the daily bulletin issued from the Signal Office in this city: Augusta, 72; Mobile, 72; Charleston, 72; Montgomery, 70; Corsicans, 56; New Orleans, 63; Galveston, 63; Punta Rasa, 67; Indianola, 65; Savannah, 75; Jacksonville, 73; St. Marks, 75; Key West, 73; Wilmington, 71.

A Bad Day's Sport. The two Wilmington Nimrods who started up the road on a deer drive yesterday morning, probably came to the conclusion that it was a dear drive sure enough before they had advanced very far in their sport. It is always safer to consult the weather "indications" before starting on such an expedition.

RIVER AND MARINE ITEMS. —The Trigg, Olsen, sailed from Paulliac for this port on the 22nd ult.

The Robson, Falkenburg, sailed from Rockport for this port on the 23rd ult.

The schooner H. P. Ousting, Parker, sailed from Boston for this port on the 6th inst.

The Danish barque Marcelo, Albertsen, arrived at Hamburg from this port on the 6th inst.

If the rains of yesterday extended far into the interior we may look for another freshet in the Cape Fear.

The British barquentine Nancy Holt, Trint, arrived at Hull, England, yesterday, from this port, from whence she cleared on the 9th of October.

The Schr. Laura A. Wobb, Capt. Travers, which put in below in distress a few days ago, with her men all down with the Chagres fever, and subsequently came to anchor in the stream opposite Dock street, will be towed to Baltimore, her destination, by the steamship Raleigh, which cleared for that place yesterday. Capt. Travers laid in a supply of provisions here.

The Laura A. Wobb was from Porto Bello, and, in addition to the sickness among her crew, she had also lost her sails in a gale of wind and was leaking.

The Alleged Case of Infanticide. The case of Sarah Ann Denton, colored, charged with giving birth to an infant on the night of the 29th of October last, and concealing or making way with the same, was heard at the Court House yesterday, before Justice Hill, one of our colored Magistrates. At the hour appointed, 11 o'clock, the Court Room was thronged to its utmost capacity with colored spectators, including men, women and children, drawn thither from curiosity, stimulated in a large degree by the publicity attained by the absurd theories advanced by the defendant to account for the mysterious circumstances connected with her case, she persisting in the declaration that she had been enjured, &c.

A large number of witnesses were examined, including two of our prominent physicians, when, after argument by counsel, defendant was required to give a justified bond in the sum of $300 (which was subsequently reduced to $200) for her appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court. The bond was given and the prisoner released.

Ex-Judge D. L. Russell appeared for the defence and Mr. Solicitor Moore, of the Criminal Court, conducted the examination on the part of the State.

Just as we expected. In our last issue we mentioned the fact of the stealing of a number of fowls from the hen-coop of Mrs. J. H. Turner, and intimated that as a fresh start, had now been made in the business of chicken stealing, in which there had been a lull for a month or two, it behooved everybody owning chickens to be on their guard. As an evidence that we were right in our surmises, we are now informed that a raid was made upon the premises of Mr. F. Risen, on Fifth, between Nun and Church streets, on Wednesday night, and twenty-five head of fowls stolen and carried off. This is pretty good for a commencement, and we look forward to a nightly continuance of these depredations until "some of the thieves" come to grief, either through the vigilance of the police or by meeting with a warm reception from some of those whose premises may be raided upon.
