

sians. Turkish prisoners declare that Osman Pasha has supplies for many weeks. He will fight in the last ditch and will never surronder.

Kellogg will no doubt be seated. Both Patterson and Conover will vote for it. On the other hand, it is more than probable that the Demo cruts will gain both Butler and Eustis. This will give the Republicans a majority of two, counting Senator Sharon. The Senate will stand 38 Republicans to 36 Democrats. It will be sufficiently close to insure more scrupulosity of action on both sides. The above is based upon the idea that Conover and Patterson will continue to vote with the Republicans.

Patterson's second speech in the Senate attracted marked attention He declared he would vote for the admission of Butler and Kellogg. He took occasion to criticize very sharply President Hayes' policy towards the South, and charged that he had handed over his party friends to their enemies. He gave Edmunds and Conkling a rasping-a Roland for their Oliver. He defended Gen. M. C. Butler against the charges implicating him in the Hamburg massacre. He ridiculed the idea of reviving the old Whig party.

The condition in France has not very materially changed. The Pre sident has expressed a willingness to appoint a Cabinet that will represent the division of parties in Parliament provided the Republicans will vote the budget. If, on the other hand, this is not done, then he has no alternative but to throw himself upon the Senate, and let it decide between accepting his resignation or declaring another dissolution. Two prominent representatives of the Left (Republicans) were to meet him, but hopes of a satisfactory settlement do not appear to have been strong.

The Late Bishop Marvin.

Rev. Dr. Enoch M. Marvin, Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, who died at St. Louis Monday morning, was born in Warren county, Missouri, June 12, 1823. In 1841 he entered the itinerant ministry in the Missouri Conference. He filled important stations in the Missouri and St. Louis Conferences, and during the war in Marshall, Texas. He was ordained deacon in 1843 and elder in 1845, and was elected in the Episcopate by the General Conference in New Orleans in 1866. Bishop Marvin was a very zealous and successful preacher. He published several religious books, the chief of them being a treatise entitled "The Work of

- The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday amounted to 1,865 bales, the sales, as reported, to 125 bales, and the exports to 3,876 bales, of which 1,059 bales were foreign.

- The flood at Weldon, which carried away the bridges a few days since, is said by the old residents, as we learn from a gentleman just from there, to have been seven feet higher than ever known before.

Lost Their Way.

A couple of young gentlemen who were on their way to the Sound on Wednesday evening, intending to participate in the coon hunt, having been detained in the city to such an hour that they were compelled to travel a portion of the distance after the night-which was dark and stormy -had set in, found it difficult to navigate After passing a certain point which they recognized as being very near their destination, and going some distance beyond without distinguishing any further evidences of their proximity to the Sound, they finally became confused. In the midst of their perplexity a cart or vehicle of some kind was heard passing in a different direction, upon which the young men hailed the occupant, who proved to be an old resident of the Sound, when the following collo quy ensued:

Old Resident-Where are you going ? Young Men-Going to the Sound.

O. R .- No you are not; you're going Wilmington; I'm going to the Sound. And sure enough, upon investigation, transpired that the 'young men, after get ting nearly to the end of their journey, had retraced their steps two-thirds of the way in the direction of Wilmington ; and how they got turned around is a problem that they have been vainly attempting to solve ever since. Some of their friends have freely intimated that they had been taking on a little too much "stimulants" to keep out the cold, but this is doubtless a slander, for we happen to know that one of the young gentlemen wouldn't touch a drop of "red-eye" with a forty-foot pole.

Attempted Theft.

On Thursday morning a colored fellow went into the store of Mr. T. H. Howey, Jr. and asked to be shown some shoes, which request was complied with, and he pretend ed to be examining them with the view of choosing a pair to sult him, when, seeing a favorable opportunity, he suddebly scized a pair, hid them under his coat and darted through the door. Mr. Howey ran to the door and called to the thief to stop, when he dropped the shoes and continued running up the street, turning the first corner and darting into some secure retreat.

Committed for Larcony.

Nathan Hankins and John Jarman, both colored, had a hearing before Justice A. A Moseley, of Harnett Township, at the office of Justice Harriss, in this city, on Wednesday evening last, on the charge of stealing turkeys from certain parties in Harnett and bringing them to this city to sell. The evidence was deemed sufficient to convict and the two men were ordered to give bond in the sum of $100 each, justified, for their appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which they were committed to jail. This makes only four now in confinement awaiting their trial.

Heads the List.

These remedies are a certain cure for Consump-tion, as the Pulmonic Syrup ripens the matter and purifies the blood. The Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, create a healthy bile, and remove all diseases of the liver, often a cause of Consumption. The Sea Weed Tonic gives tone and strength to the sto-mach, makes a good digestion, and enables the or-gans to form good blood, and thus creates a healthy circulation of healthy blood. The combined action of these medicines, as thus explained, will cure ev-ery case of Consumption, if taken in time, and the use of the medicines persevered in. D.
