We have never been called upon to report a sadder occurrence than the accidental killing of Edward Conigland, Esq., of Halifax, N. C., on Tuesday afternoon, by a railroad train. He was returning from his plantation to his home, on the outskirts of the town, and was walking upon the railroad track. Being extremely deaf, he neither heard the cars nor the repeated signals of alarm, and was hurried into eternity without any sense of im pending danger and death. We knew him well. A noble man has fallen with his mental pow ers in unabated vigor. We write the simple truth when we say that brave, chivalrous, honest, just, true man has thus perished under the most saddening circumstances. He was a gentleman of fine abilities, was well read in certain departments, and was a capital lawyer. He was widower, but leaves several children to mourn over their melancholy be reavement. He was thrice married was a native of Ireland, and was about sixty-two years of age. No man in Halifax county was held in higher esteem, and no man more deserved the confidence of the people He was a member of the Roman Catholic Church.

So mixed in him, that Nature might stand up And say to all the world, This was a man.

Judge Humphreys has delivered an opinion favorable to John J. Patterson, and he has been discharged. Gov. Hampten, of South Carolina had made a requisition for the varlet but the Judge held that South Caro ling had no power to vacate the Sen ator's commission. He was no fugi tive from justice, but was in Wash ington in the discharge of his official duties. The Senate will have to judge for itself. How long would such a fellow be allowed to remain in that body if it were composed of men of a high sense of dignity and honor?

We are pleased to see it stated that Senator Butler, of South Carolina will soon make a statement, in the U. S. Senate, of the Hamburg massacre, and demand an investigation. He has been the object of unmitigated abuse and slander, but now that his voice can be heard he will demand scrutinging investigation into the whole matter. Heretofore the in vestigations have been ex parte, with out his knowledge, and in the interests purely of the Radical bulldozers. Day is breaking, and honest men and slandered men can be heard once more. The rumors from Paris continue abundant and unsatisfactory. All is still in a state of uncertainty-a veri table muddle. Great irritation is felt over the President's refusal to receive the delegation of merchants and mechanics. It is said the government will prorogue the Chamber of Deputies if it fails to vote the budget to morrow. What will be the issue of all this complexity no one can tell.

THE MEMORIAL SERMON. By resolution of the Conference, passed at Salisbury, Bishop Doggett was requested to preach a funeral sermon of the late Bishop Marvin, on Sunday morning, at the Methodist Church. By 9 o'clock Sunday morning the congregation began to assemble, and long before the commencement of the services the large and handsome eron of Wisconsin) will submit a church was filled to its utmost ca-minority report against Eustis. The pacity. The text was taken from Revelations, twenty-second chapter and four teenth verse: "Blessed are they which do His commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life and may enter in through the gates into the city."

The theme was "Evangelical obedience, or the majesty of the law it the plan of human salvation."

We have not the space to follow the line of argument adopted by the Bishop. Suffice it to say that his exposition was clear and logical, and there were frequent passages in his discourse full of thrilling eloquence which produced a profound feeling in the congregation.

At the close of his exposition of the text, the Bishop read a brief biographical sketch of Bishop Marvin, together with an interesting and truthful analysis of the character o that distinguished divine, and paid a high tribute to his exalted piety, talents and usefulness.

Struck in the Eye by a Brick-A Cau-

We have heretofore had occasion to cau tion the boys in reference to the dangerous habit too many of them indulge in of throw ing rocks, brickbats or other missiles at each other in the streets. A case in point occurred yesterday afternoon, in which is small white boy about eight years of age, by the name of Quinn, was struck in the right eye by a piece of brick thrown by one of his schoolmates, in the southern part of the city, and it is now feared that the wound, which is a very severe one, may result in the loss of the injured member. The little fellow was taken to the residence of Capt. J. M. McGowan, where his eye was washed and dressed and he was then placed on one of the street cars and carried

We hope this unfortunate accident may prove a warning to the boys, and cause them to abstain from a habit which is so liable to result in just such a calamity as the one referred to.

State vs. Ellen Martin, Rachael Powers and Rose Edwards, charged with keeping of the elegant pipe so kindly presented by disorderly house. The defendants were found guilty and sentenced by His Honor Judge Meares to twelve months each in the County Work House.

State vs. Richard Hooper, charged with assault and battery. This is the case in which it was alleged that Mr. William Richardson, a white stevedore, was passing through an alley just beyond the railroad bridge, on the evening of the 19th of October last, between 6 and 7 o'clock, on his way home, when he was assaulted by some person, who struck him two blows over the head with a heavy stick and left him for dead; that he recovered sufficiently in few moments afterwards to shout "mur. der" and "thieves," and about the same time he saw a man jumping the fence, s short distance from him, whom he recognized by the aid of the moon, which was shining full in his face, to be the prisoner at the bar, Richard Hooper, and that he afterwards heard a rumbling noise as he rolled down the steep railroad embankment beyond to the track below. Mr. Richardson swore positively as to the identity of his assailant while on the stand, and the stick was exhibited in Court, which he testified was the one used by Hooper in making the

Mr. C. M. Yopp testified as to the fact of his being on the railroad track at the time Hooper made the descent of the em bankment, of his hearing the blows and the outery made by Mr. Richardson, and his subsequent chase and final capture of the accused.

Disorderly Seamon-Two of Them in the Lock Up. Two seamen, named respectively Carl Gustave Andersen and Joseph Carlsen, have been arrested and lodged in the guard house on the charge of acting very disorderly, resisting a police officer, &c., about 11 o'clock on Tuesday night. It appears that a number of seamen, all more or less intoxicated, went to a saloon on South Water street and called for drinks. Seeing that they had enough "already the proprietor refused to let them have any more whereupon they got wrathy. One of the party went outside and was in the act of taking down the sign, when policeman Woebse, who was on that beat, asked him what he was about. He replied that he was taking down the man's sign, as the proprietor of the saloon thus advertised that he kept a bar-room, while he could get nothing to drink in it but water. The officer ordered him to desist, threatening to take him to the guard house if he did not, whereupon the proceedings were stopped and the officer moved on. In a few minutes afterwards he returned and found that the same man had gone into the saloon and made an assault upon the proprietor. He started to arrest the offender, when the latter made tracks for his vessel. which was lying at the wharf in front of the saloon. The officer followed and caught him just as he was in the act of climbing up the rope ladder to the deck-of the vessel; but as he got his arms around the waist of Andersen, Joseph Carlsen ran up and seized the officer, saying with an oath that he should not arrest his comrade. Other seamen in the meantime had gathered around, and Andersen escaped up the ladder and got on board of his vessel. Officer Woebse drew his pistol to defend himself if necessary, and, with the assistance of one or two other policemen, Carlsen was taken to the guard house. Yesterthis morning. MR. EDITOR: I see by the report of the proceedings of the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen that the majority of the Democratic members voted against placing claims of delinquent tax-payers in the hands of the City Attorney for collection. and he was also arrested and locked up.

Both cases will probably be investigated

the city government.

As some property holders have been made to pay their assessments, and as the city needs money to meet its daily expenses and to pay its past due bonds and the interest due upon its funded debt, it would appear to any one interested in its financial honor and integrity to be a suicidal act to vote against a measure so manifestly proper, lawful and necessary.

If delinquents are not to be made to pay up, as a matter of justice the city should refund the amounts collected. If not they will soon be favored with suits—indeed, it is said suits have already been commenced by some for the recovery of assessments paid by them.

The property holders and tax-payers of Wilmington are entitled to an explanation

Wilmington are entitled to an explanation of the financial views of their representatives, and call upon them to arise and explain—for their present attitude looks as if they desire to utterly annihilate the credit of the city.
