The news from Europe is more hopeful. There is a better feeling at St. Petersburg. The Czar has given the Porte assurances that the Russians would not advance beyond San Stefano, which has been occupied by the Grand Duke Nichelas with one regiment, a detachment of Cossacks, and a special escort. It was though that a formal peace would be signed on Monday. The war feeling is strong in London. The peace meeting wa a failure. The speaker, the some what notorious Mr. Bradlaugh, was driven from the platform, and the windows of Mr. Gladstone's dwelling were again broken.

The last grist sent to the "mills of the gode" that are said to grind slowly but awful fine, was in the shape of Thomas C. Anderson, of Returning Board infamy. Judge Whitaker was the miller this time, and he ground him for two years in the penitentiary and costs. This was the shortest possible term, and as mercy was prayed by the jury, the mill will be made to stop at the end of two years. By the way, the oft repeated quota tion is not correctly given above. In the oldest Greek passage known, it in "the mills of God"-singular, and not "gods," as ordinarily given. Mr Longfellow's well known version has popularized the plural form. know a gentleman in this State who has a copy of the Greek "Oracles," of not probably a later date than the second or third century, that has the singular form, "God." The copy old and was printed in Paris' about 1610, if we remember correctly,

The general impression is that it very doubtful, to put it mildly, whe-ther Colonel Polk will be permitted to continue in office. Senators Lama and Gordon were among the wil nesses to-day, and they testified that all they had to do with Payne's ap-pointment was to recommend him to Colonel Polk.

ment), passed through our State, en route to Charleston, to participate in the grand celebration of the 22nd inst., the anniversary of the birthday of Washington. It is required that before such passage through a State, military organizations shall obtain permission from the Governor thereof. In response to his request for such permission, Gen. B. T. Johnson, received the following dispatch from Gov. Vance:

"You have my permission to pass through the State. Be virtuous and you will be happy, but will not have so much fun."

To which Gen. Johnson replied: "Have taken your advice and been decorous, but dull, virtuous and happy. What message shall I take from the Governor of North Carolina to the Governor of South Carolina? It is a long time between, dr. BRADLEY T: JOENSON,
