OUTLINES.

The Thessaly revolution is subsiding. Crete continues warlike. The English Government declares that it is not bent on war, but is resolved to be prepared for all possible events. Servians and Bash-Bazouks have had a fight near Pristina with heavy loss on both sides. It is believed at Berlin that England has been manoeuvring to gain time for Turkey and England to concentrate. Turkish commanders are defiant. Russia's situation in Turkey is regarded as critical. Turkish soldiers more favorable than ever to an alliance with England; the Turkish army is so strong that it regards but little Russian threats. It is not thought that Turkey will agree to the evacuation of Yarus, Shumla and Batoum even to get the Russians away from the neighborhood of Constantinople. The latest impression is that negotiations between Russia and England are more favorable. A revolution has broken out in Durango and Nuevo Leon, Mexico. Great excitement on the lower Rio Grande. The garrisons of Matamoros and Mier are on the eve of pronouncing against Diaz. The largest flouring mills in the Union were destroyed at Minneapolis by gas explosion; seventeen lives lost and a million and a half dollars of property destroyed. New York markets: Money easy at 3 1/2 per cent; gold 104; cotton lard at 10 1/2 cents; flour $10 cents better; Southern $5 1/2 @ 5 1/4; wheat $1 18 @ 1 35; corn 48 @ 57 cents; spirits turpentine firm at 29 1/2 @ 30 cents; rosin $1 50 @ 1 52 1/2.

Charles H. Foster, a well known Republican, who formerly lived at Marfreesboro, N. C., has an article in the Philadelphia Weekly Times on ex-Gov. Holden. He calls it: "A Far-Heel Unionist, once a maker of Governors, then a Governor himself, and now forever disqualified from holding office."

The foreign news does not throw much light on the Eastern question. The main points appear to be that Turkey is assuming a defiant tone towards Russia, and refuses to evacuate Varna, Shumla, and Batoum—that the Turkish army is strong and ready to form an alliance with England—that the progress of negotiations between Russia and England is more hopeful—that Russia's situation in Turkey is exceedingly critical, and that England is not bent on war, but is determined to be prepared for every emergency.

It appears that a wonderful change came over the opinions of the Senators in regard to the bankrupt bill. Only two weeks ago the repeal act passed by a tremendous majority. It was sent to the House and amended in two or three particulars. When it came back to the Senate, after a spirited debate, it was referred to the Judiciary Committee by a very large majority. How was the marvellous "about face" caused? The Washington Post says the change was brought about, to a large extent, by a flood of telegrams and letters that has poured in upon the Senate ever since it voted to repeal the law. It says: "These telegrams, coming from men who were earnestly striving against bankruptcy, but who declared that they would be forced into it by immediate repeal, worked a great change in the opinions of Senators, and those who, two weeks ago, voted for repeal, yesterday voted for the retention. Senator Ransom's able and timely appeal also had a great deal of influence in bringing about the change of sentiment. In fact, but for that speech it is doubtful if the motion to refer could have been carried."

As far as we have been able to gather, public opinion in North Carolina is overwhelmingly in favor of the repeal. We are quite sure that the press of the State is largely in its favor.

The General Conference. We were in hopes that we would be able to give something of the second day's proceedings of the Methodist General Conference, but our exchanges contained only a brief account of the first day, which we publish elsewhere. The Raleigh News contains a pretty full account of the first day. We copy a few paragraphs: A committee on Public Worship was appointed. Dr. Peterson, of Virginia, offered a resolution on the appointment of the Standing Committee, which created quite a spirited discussion and was finally adopted. A committee on Credentials was appointed, also a committee on Introductions. The Secretary stated that he had heard from the fraternal delegates from the Northern Church; that they would reach Atlanta about the 14th of May. A committee to prepare rules for the government of the conference was appointed, and they will most probably adopt the rules of the last General Conference. Dr. Redford, book agent, presented the publishing house exhibit, and Dr. McKerrin, the missionary secretary, presented the annual report, and a quadrilateral address of the Board of Missions. After announcements for public service at night, and various and sundry other announcements, the Conference adjourned. The Governor of Georgia is a delegate to this Conference. He is a Methodist local preacher, a deeply pious man. He was absent from the city to-day, but will be in to-morrow. I will say more of him hereafter. Dr. Lovick Pierce is here; he is in his 94th year, and has been preaching sixty or seventy years. His mind is vigorous and active yet. He sits on the rostrum and active yet. He is the oldest man with the bishops. He is the oldest man in the Conference. All the bishops are here now; they are seven in number. We miss Bishop Marvin's face.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Blair Resolution Before the Senate Judiciary Committee. [Special Dispatch to Baltimore Sun.] WASHINGTON, May 1. At the meeting of the Senate Judiciary Committee to-day the Blair resolution of the Maryland Legislature came up in the regular order of business. There are three standing presidential candidates who are members of the Judiciary Committee, and the subject-matter of to-day gave opportunity for the indulgence of some pleasantries in that connection. Enough serious consideration was, however, given to the resolution to draw forth the sentiment of the committee to the effect that it was proper that a report should be made to the Senate on the subject. Judge Edmunds, the chairman of the committee, and Judge Thurman, the leading member of the minority, were both members of the Electoral Commission, and although that was not decided upon to-day, it is extremely probable that they will between them prepare the report.

Railroads to be Investigated.

[N. Y. Correspondent Philadelphia Ledger, May 1.] Contrary to general expectation, the Legislature has resolved to investigate the railroads—in other words, they are determined to see if something cannot be done to compel the New York Central and Erie to pursue a less arbitrary policy towards the merchants and the public, which has been the occasion of so many grievances and complaints of late. The impression was that the railroad influence at Albany was so overpowering that the proposed investigation would be smothered, but the fact that a resolution ordering the investigation went through the Assembly this morning by the very decisive vote of 86 to 20, shows that the railroad kings, potent as they are, have not yet taken the place of the figure of Justice on the Capitol. The special committee of merchants who went up to Albany yesterday, to urge action on the subject, returned home this afternoon in great glee over the successful accomplishment of their mission.

The Florida Case.

[Special to Baltimore Sun, May 1.] A new feature to-day in the Florida business is the sending of a communication by Bisbee, the sitting member from the Second Florida district, to Finley, the Democratic contestant, saying that the recent affidavits change the case so materially that he thinks it would be fair to reopen it and take testimony again.

What North Carolina Needs.

[Greensboro Patriot.] Fewer men who seek office and more men whom the office seeks. Fewer dogs and more sheeps. Fewer truckling demagogues, who are anything or nothing, as interest dictates, and more brave men who dare to do their own thinking, and say what they think. Fewer great men made to order and of small material, and thrust in front of men who have a capacity for greatness. Fewer juvenile statesmen, who are eager to rush into the places their seniors and betters ought to occupy. Fewer impetuous young men, eager to rush into print and raise the devil generally. Fewer men to advocate the election of favorites on personal grounds, and more for the public good. Fewer wire-pullers in popular conventions, and more people. Fewer "leaders" to knuckle to popular prejudice, and more real leaders to combat such prejudices when wrong. Fewer bar rooms and more schools. Fewer fences and more pastures. Fewer scrub cattle and more good ones.

Spirits Turpentine.

The Baptists and Episcopalians of Beaufort have no minister. Judge Schenck was taken quite ill while holding Cherokee court. Col. J. A. Sloan is to be marshal at Greensboro on memorial day. Mr. J. A. Staples is the orator. M. V. Lanier's name is now frequently mentioned in the public prints in connection with the Supreme Court Bench. We have noticed our editorial on "Honor to the Dead" travelling around without any paternity. Give credit, brethren of the pencil. The Washington Chronicle says the Old North State never sent to Washington a fairer maiden, possessed of more winning manners, than Miss Mary Merrimon, daughter of Senator Merrimon.

Elizabeth City Economist.

Charles Elliott, Elizabeth City's boy, is a candidate for Mayor of Norfolk. The Baptist Association meets at Shiloh Church, Camden county, on Tuesday, the 14th of May.

Goldboro Messenger.

The strawberry festival under the auspices of the ladies of the Methodist Church Monday and Tuesday nights, was well attended and proved a most pleasant affair. Something over $100 was realized.

Newbern Nut Shell.

The revival meetings in New Street Methodist Church are still kept up with unabated interest. Already a large number of persons have professed faith in Jesus Christ, and many are still seeking religion.

Randolph Regulator.

On Friday last Mr. J. S. Ritter, of Franklinsville, killed an owl measuring four feet seven inches from tip to tip. The farmers report the wheat crop as looking excellent. Corn is planted in this section and is beginning to peep through the earth.

There are but two statues in North Carolina.

The Houdon monument at Raleigh, erected in memory of George Washington, and the Confederate Monument in Oakdale Cemetery, Wilmington. Can you masterpieces—his being destroyed by the fire when the old capital was burnt. There are many monuments erected in honor of our public men. In Warren county there is a shaft over the remains of Gen. Sumner, of the revolution. There are several at Raleigh, one at Tarboro, one at Chapel Hill in memory of Dr. Caldwell, and doubtless many others.

Richmond (Va.) correspondent of Raleigh Observer.

A lot of bright tobacco, raised in Granville county, N. C., was sold this city yesterday by C. W. H. Kerrville for $101 per cwt., which is the highest price of the season. The Richmond market is supplied with new potatoes and strawberries from North Carolina, being considerably in advance of the Norfolk products. Rowan county correspondent: The people of Rowan do not propose to give support to Judge Schenck for Supreme Court honors. They will be content to accept the good man who is Chief Justice. They would be delighted to have J. M. Clement, Esq., placed on the Supreme Bench, but they say they want him on the Superior Court.

Greensboro Patriot.

Superintendent Mills has been to various places in the east recently. We gather a few items from his travels as reported in the Oxford Orphan's Friend: Newbern is the head centre of the fish trade. Herrings at $1.50 a thousand. A yearling sturgeon 50 cents, and a very large one at $2.00. Alas, what vast quantities of roe are thrown away. Yes, we enrich our farms with fish eggs and then pluck young fish in our rivers. But here is Judge Brooks, coming with a vast crowd to Newbern. He is a popular man and draws a full house wherever he goes. He lectures at the Court House and his hearers are very attentive. Fine Level, W. H. Mills, Clayton and Selma are all prosperous and putting up new houses. La Grange is growing; Kingston is crowded with good schools; Goldsboro is spreading over the plain.

Salisbury Watchman.

A general complaint is rising from the oppressed people from all parts of the State, in regard to protection for sheep. The dogs are killing them out. It will be long before sheep raising will be a thing of the past. This is one of the things the weak-kneed men in our legislature failed to attend to. A nut for Mecklenburg to crack: a woman in this county has eight children at three births. The last three being born a few weeks since. Mr. Robert Knox, who lives near Rowan Mills, had twenty-five sheep killed by dogs last week. The people should have some protection against this great evil. We are glad to be able to correct the report published last week's issue that Van Burkhead had killed a negro. Mr. W. J. Smith, of Salem, Va., has had a call from the Lutheran congregation in Tarboro, Rocky Mount, and his trial sermon last Sunday, and we learn the congregation were well pleased with him.

Tarboro Southerner.

Colonel Keogh's Republican committee met, kissed, cried and parted. Too much Hayes. Chief Justice Smith has plucked the flower safety from the nettle danger. $5 reward for the man in Nash county who is not a candidate and does not want to be. Rev. D. C. Rankin, of Guilford county, will hereafter fill the pulpit of the Presbyterian church in Tarboro, Rocky Mount, and perhaps Rosemount, in Halifax county. It is estimated that fencing crops cost the State $10,000,000. The hogs and cattle foot up $2,000,000. $10,000,000 worth of fat, and about one $200,000 worth of stock. When? Who opposes it?—Washington correspondent: During this session of Congress Gerritt has secured appropriations for Currituck sound, North river, Rappahannock river and Roanoke river. Helped to get for Neuse river, besides several light houses, in all about $30,000—not including the additional $400,000 for the Dismal Swamp Canal, from the Committee on Railways and Canals. Plymouth correspondent: The "catch" of fish this season has never been equalled by any since the war. The Roanoke fisheries are catching now from forty to fifty thousand herrings at each haul, and the Sound fisheries only four hundred thousand at each haul. Herrings are selling for less than two dollars per thousand. A good many are rotting on account of not having the salt to preserve them. Hyde county correspondent: St. George's church was consecrated last Sunday by Bishop Lyman, Rev. Messrs. Eborn, Hilton and N. E. Price officiating in the ceremonies. The services of Communion, Baptism and Confirmation were solemn and impressive, and were attended by an overflowing audience. Capt. Southgate has been here with the contractor of the Middleton Canal and Dock Company. It is thought that the work will be resumed again soon.

We learn that Dr. W. G. Curtis, our Quarantine Physician, left a day or two since for Abundale, New Hampshire, to take unto himself a wife.

The Democratic County Convention, to appoint delegates to the State, Judicial and Congressional Conventions, will meet at the Court House in this city this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

Western, veering to cooler northwest winds, falling, followed by rising barometer, partly cloudy weather and possibly occasional light rains, are the indications for this section to-day.

Onslow Superior Court meets at Jacksonville next week. His Honor, Judge Eure, presiding. There will be several witnesses in attendance from this place, including Mr. Williams, Clerk of the Market.

We learn that a considerable amount of spoiled beef, mutton, sturgeon, other fish, &c., has been condemned recently, and sent out of the market by Health Officer Bender, who is in charge of that department.

The Democratic Executive Committee of the Third Congressional District will meet at the Purcell House this morning, at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of fixing the time and place for the meeting of the District Convention.

The express post, which was attacked Thursday evening by a young man with his fists, under the supposition that it was a policeman bent upon his arrest, suffered no material damage from the blows thus inflicted, and came out of the affray unscathed, unharmed and unhurt.

Fatal Accident. Yesterday afternoon, about 1 o'clock, a small colored boy by the name of John Merrick, a son of Henry Merrick, living on Davis, between Third and Fourth streets, aged about 9 or 10 years, was playing on a lot of barrels at Messrs. Blossom & Evans distillery, where his father works, when the heading to one of the barrels suddenly gave way under his weight and one of his legs was plunged into the barrel, which happened to contain hot rosin, just from the still. The boy had his pantaloons legs rolled up to the knee, and as a result of the accident the skin was burned to such an extent by the hot rosin that it was peeled almost entirely from his leg from the knee down. Fortunately he caught himself in time to prevent other portions of the body from being submerged in the fiery substance, otherwise his injuries may have proved fatal. As it is, his wounds are of a serious and exceedingly painful nature.

Commerce of the Port. By reference to the books in the Custom House in this city, we learn that the following business was transacted during the month of April: Value of imports, in coin, $1,917 14; tonnage dues, in currency, $1,179 90; receipts from other sources, in currency, $400.

Exports—55,432 bbls rosin, valued at $108,970; 7,151 bbls tar, $10,900; 347,902 gallons spirits turpentine, $97,586; 648,130 feet lumber, $9,931; 139,400 shingles, $283; bacon, flour and butter, $308. Total valuation, $238,443.

Almost a Fire. The roof of a large shed on Nutt, between Mulberry and Walnut streets, near the W. & W. Railroad depot, was discovered to be on fire yesterday about noon, but the flames were extinguished before any damage was done. If it had gotten well under way the destruction of property would no doubt have been very great, as there is a large amount of naval stores in the vicinity. There was no general alarm.

The Cape Fear Light Artillery. At a meeting of the Cape Fear Light Artillery, held last night, Mr. Eugene Maffitt, a member of the company, was elected Third Lieutenant by acclamation, to fill a vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Lieut. W. E. King. Lieut. Maffitt was in the privateer service during the war, being a son of Capt. J. N. Maffitt, and the experience thus attained will no doubt constitute him an excellent officer.

Foster County Meeting. We have been asked to state that the Executive Committee of the Democratic party of Foster County are requested to meet at Burzaw, at 12 o'clock, on Monday next, the 6th inst.

We are also requested to remind the magistrates of that county that they have been called to meet at the same time and place.

An Attempted Escape—The Chase and Capture, &c.

A colored man by the name of Robert Lewis had a hearing before Justice Hall, yesterday, on the charge of assaulting and beating a colored woman named Lizzie Davis, a denizen of the "Long House," on Berry street, yesterday morning, and was required to pay a fine of $3 and the costs. He was subsequently placed in the hands of the Sheriff, who allowed him to go out in charge of Special Deputy Jas. K. Davis, colored, for the purpose of getting the money. Davis went with him to the neighborhood of Messrs. Cassidy & Ross's railroad, and then to the vicinity of the shipyard, and while on Campbell street he suddenly broke and ran. Davis chased him down Front street until finally he took refuge in one of the alleys between Princess and Market and Front and Water streets, in which Davis overhauled him, when a desperate struggle ensued, Lewis getting the officer by the throat and trying to choke him. Finally, however, the officer got the better of his prisoner, and assistance having arrived in the meantime, Lewis was taken to the Sheriff's office, and from thence to the county jail, where he will have an opportunity to "cool off." He made such a good run, however, it is expected that when he gets out of jail he will want to run for some office.
