OUTLINES.

Prince Gortschakoff is better, and hopes to attend the Congress, which is certain to meet. It is thought at St. Petersburg that Count Schouvaloff takes to London instructions containing the elements of a decisive and friendly solution of the question at issue; there will be nothing certain known of the Count's mission until next week.

Gen. Korsakoff has been appointed Governor General of Bulgaria by the Czar, and will at once prepare for the election of a Prince. Secretary Sherman overrules the opinion of Solicitor Rayner in regard to the Virginia suits. Butler's bill to do away with newspaper advertising and to publish an official advertiser weekly, passed the House.

A pleasure boat, the Empress, went over the dam on Grand River, and eighteen persons perished. Democratic State Convention of Pennsylvania permanently organized; the resolutions arraign the Republican party for the evils which afflict the country.

A very destructive fire at Clarksville, Texas; loss $150,000. Terrible storm in Colorado attended with great destruction of property. Andrew H. Dill nominated by the Pennsylvania Democrats for Governor on third ballot.

Immense flood at Denver; one person lost; great damage to railroads; four bridges known to be washed away; a trail of cars broke bridge over Kiowa river; three persons are known to be lost.

The terms of the Czar's proposal authoritatively stated. A destructive fire occurred within the precincts of the Sublime Porte at Constantinople, destroying the greater portion of the buildings.

Count Schouvaloff had an interview with Lord Salisbury. New markets: Money easy at 3 per cent; gold firm at 100@100 1/2; cotton dull at 11-16@11-16 1/2 cents; flour quiet and without decided change; wheat @ 20c better; corn dull and a shade lower; spirits turpentine lower at 20@20 1/2c; rosin firm at $1.45@1.50.

Even the Northern papers do not take very kindly to Gil Haven's heliograph he concocted last Sunday in Washington. They think it is unnecessarily sulphurous.

O. B. Bradford, United States Consul General at Shanghai, China, is to be impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors. Minister Seward has been ordered home to answer some very grave charges against his official conduct.

The last news about Kouklung is that he has postponed until a more convenient season "the greatest effort of his life." Grant's friends urged him to withhold his big gun until later in the season, and Roscoe was agreeable. Ah, hem!

THE MORNING STAR.

thing definite will be known before next week. The Congress will meet, and Prince Gortschakoff hopes to be able to attend.

When Harrison (Democrat), of Illinois, moved to investigate Oregon and South Carolina, the Republicans were taken by surprise, the vote standing ayes 71, noes 50. Only two voted aye, Cox, of Ohio, and Kelley, of Pennsylvania.

Not desiring to obstruct business, and the Republicans having failed to vote, I withdraw my resolution.

This was a heavy blow, as the Republicans had been complaining about the limitations fixed by the Potter resolutions. Our readers already know of the passage of the Wilson resolution immediately after.

Ben Hill got in a heavy blow upon Jim Blaine's right eye in the discussion of the proposition to place Grant on the retired list as a General. Hill told the Maine bellow, according to the Washington correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch, that the American people honor the brave men who fought during the war and stopped fighting when it ended, but that they have no respect for those who only commenced to fight when the war was over.

Hill made another good point in the discussion. He said he would gladly vote for the bill if it "would really retire Grant for life, but the trouble was he would not stay retired." Here is yet another "stay-darter" for Blaine. He said he would be willing to help Grant if the time should ever come when he would need it.

Methodist General Conference. ATLANTA, GA., May 22. To-day the General Conference adopted a report on the Nashville Publishing House, looking to the payment of all its debts and its continuation. At noon the Conference received most cordially Rev. Wesley Gaines and Rev. W. D. Johnson, fraternal messengers from the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

It is thought the National Democratic Committee will endorse the action of the House relative to investigation, and declare that the Democratic party has no purpose of attempting to oust Mr. Hayes. This will spike another Radical gun.

It is stated that Mr. Peter Cooper has abandoned his project of founding a woman's college at Limestone Springs, S. C. He received information as to the feelings of the people concerning the scheme, and gave it over as a bad job. We have not seen any explicit statement of the matter as yet.

And now it is said that Bennett will not return to the United States because of the breaking out afresh of gossip over the celebrated duel in which he played such a notorious part. Dr. Charles Phelps, of New York, is the author of the account as published by George Wilkes in the New York Times.

John Sherman is whistling loud to keep his courage up. There is something of bravado in his letter to Mr. Potter, the Chairman of the Investigating Committee. John is dying to be investigated. Do hurry up the court, and let his beautiful record be unfolded. That is a lovely life of his, and the world should have one gaze at least.

Just think of it—fifty thousand children "all in a row," or the same thing, in a procession. It was expected that on Wednesday somewhere about that number of Sunday School children would parade in Brooklyn on the occasion of the anniversary of the Sunday School Union. It was a grand sight to behold. God bless the children, say we, all over the land.

The news continues pacific. It is generally understood that Count Schouvaloff's mission has resulted favorably, and that there is a good prospect of a satisfactory and peaceable adjustment of the matters in dispute. It is not believed that any thing definite will be known before next week. The Congress will meet, and Prince Gortschakoff hopes to be able to attend.

The Baptist church at Polkton, to cost $1,500, is nearing completion. Only about $200 more is needed to complete the pews and plastering. The building is 66x36 feet, and will be, when completed, one of the best houses of worship in Anson county.

Rev. N. B. Cobb, since his return from Atlanta, has been lecturing his congregations on "What he saw and heard at the International Sunday School Convention." He has also introduced Bible readings in his congregations at Lilesville and Polkton.

Tarboro celebrated the 20th of May in a lively and appropriate way. The Washington Light Infantry and Edgcombe Guards paraded. They visited the grave of that illustrious old soldier, Gen. W. D. Pender. By the way, what about that monument?

Raleigh Observer: On the 21st Peyton Price, a white man, convicted in Nash county of robbery and sentenced to the penitentiary October 19, 1865, was released. He is 33 years of age, 5 feet 11 inches high, has grey eyes and auburn hair, and weighed, when admitted, 157 pounds.

Among the Doctors who passed satisfactory examinations before the Medical Board of Examiners recently in session, we find the following: W. H. H. Cobb, Goldsboro; Alex. C. Clinton, R. H. Hernandez, William Green, John A. Clark, Kingston; Peter McLean, Shoe Heel; R. J. Noble, Selma.

The closing exercises of Cedar Creek Academy will take place at Lilesville to-day. Major William A. Graham, of Lincoln, will deliver the literary address, and Rev. T. Harrison, of Clinton, will preach the sermon. At night the students will give an entertainment, consisting of choruses, comedies and short tragedies, interspersed with vocal music.

Wadesboro Herald: The fruit crop promises to be good. Died, in this place, yesterday evening, Mrs. Elizabeth Marshall, aged 69 years. There was quite a turnout at the general parade and inspection of the Anson Veterans last Monday. The target shooting was creditable.

In 1876 Vance received 132,203, Settle 110,178. Vance's majority 13,025. Raleigh Observer: We have the vote for President as it appears in the Albany Argus Almanac: Tilden 135,870, Hayes 108,926. Tilden's majority 16,444. If these figures are correct they are all wrong. It is said April 18th that Tilden received more votes than Vance.

Shelby Aurora: Capt. L. J. Hoyle will deliver the address, and Rev. B. F. Dixon will preach the sermon, at the Commencement exercises of the Shelby Male and Female Academy, on the 11th, 12th and 13th of June. The Commencement exercises of Kings Mountain High School will take place on Thursday, the 27th of June. The address will be delivered by John W. North, D. D.

Mr. J. L. Sullivan, of this place, has a duck that lays black eggs. This we believe is something new in the way of eggs. Caldwell correspondent of the Raleigh News: I have just heard of a terrible case of mariticide occurring in an adjoining county. Mrs. Watson, an elderly lady, was beaten to death by her daughter, Mary Hamby, a woman of disreputable character. The murdered woman had been restraining with a stick, the latter, which resulted in death in a few days. The prisoner was placed in the Wilkes county jail on Saturday, the 10th. The parties lived near Etikville, on the Yadkin river.

Alamance Gleaner: David White, son of S. A. White, of Mebaneville, was very badly hurt a few days since by being thrown from his horse. It was a bad accident, and his horse took flight at a passing train, and threw him on his head, cutting it severely. He was insensible for a time, but is now up. Mr. J. M. Elder, who lives a few miles from town, was at Company Shop on the train passing west last Wednesday evening, and stepped upon the cars when the train was standing to speak with some one on board, and in attempting to get off, just as the cars were in motion, he, by some mistake, fell into a trap and fell between two cars, and would have been killed but for the brake rod, which knocked his body from the track, but his right arm and hand were caught under the wheel and crushed so that amputation will be necessary.

Chatham holds its County Convention on June 3d. Lenoir Democrats endorse Hon. M. E. Manly for the Supreme Court. The Raleigh News is out squarely for Gov. Vance for the Senate. Capt. M. E. Carter and Capt. Nat. Atkinson have been nominated for the House in Bancroft.

J. C. L. Gudgeon has been nominated for Judge of the Superior Court, and S. B. Ferguson, Solicitor of the same. Pamlico county goes for Hon. Jesse J. Yates for Congress, and for Smith for Chief Justice and M. E. Manly for Associate. The Chatham correspondent of the Raleigh News says the people of that county are for Smith for Chief Justice and for Vance for the Senate.

Anson county Democratic Convention meets at Wadesboro on June 1st, when delegates to the State and District Conventions will be appointed. John Kerr, Swift, Galloway, Hugh Murray, and John F. Wood are the Democratic candidates for the nomination of Solicitor in the Goldsboro District.

Local Notes. No Raleigh News received at this office last night. There was a fine rain last night, and it was not unwelcome. There were no cases for trial before the Mayor's Court yesterday morning.

There is an unmailable letter in the city postoffice for W. H. Blackford 687, Baltimore, Md. John H. Smyth, colored, formerly of this city, was confirmed by the U. S. Senate yesterday as Minister to Liberia.

A meeting of the Carolina Yacht Club will take place in the Murchison building, Front street, this evening, at 8 1/2 o'clock. Swiss postal orders can be had at the Post Office in this city, payable in France, Belgium, Austria, Hungary and The Netherlands.

Generally lower pressure, easterly winds, veering to southerly or westerly, warmer, partly cloudy weather and possibly occasional rains, are the indications for this section to-day. The Republican meetings in the various wards, on Wednesday night, passed off more quietly than many had suspected. There were a few "knock-downs" in the First Ward, but they didn't amount to much.

Don't forget the excursion to Smithville to-day, under the management of Capt. J. W. Lippitt. The steamer J. S. Underhill will leave her wharf foot of Orange street at 9 o'clock. A fine time is expected.

The party who went to the Blackfish grounds yesterday morning, on the steamer Pusspot, returned yesterday afternoon after the luckiest day's sport of the season. One of the party informed us that he estimated the number caught at from twenty-five hundred to three thousand, including blackfish, pig-fish, "red-mouths," &c.

A private letter from a prominent citizen of Sampson states that in the Clinton Township meeting to appoint delegates to the county convention, the Wadell ticket received 17 votes and the anti-Wadell ticket 63 votes. In Turkey township the two tickets ran in about the same proportion. These were the only Townships heard from when the letter was written.

The most affecting thing during the present campaign among the Republicans has been the sudden and mysterious disappearance of Jimmy Heaton, who came up missing just as the big fight in which he had taken a prominent part was about to come to an issue. What in the world has become of "Jeems," and who can account for his sudden "taking off"?

The First Ward Republicans, at the meeting Wednesday night, after a long siege, elected W. H. Howe, Sr., Lewis Nixon and Duncan Holmes as delegates to the County Convention. The Fifth Ward elected Hiram Hankins, John Moore and James Winfield as delegates. The First Ward delegates are Holmes men and those from the Fifth Ward Manning men.

Yesterday afternoon the delegates from the various wards met at the Court House and elected three delegates from the city at large, consisting of John H. Brown, Geo. W. Price, Jr., and Henry Green, all said to be Manning men. The County Convention meets at the Court House to-morrow, at 10 A. M.

Arrested at Last. Daniel Hayes, colored, who committed an assault upon Harvey Elghsmith, colored, on the night of the 25th of January last, cutting his throat with a razor while at a frolic somewhere in the neighborhood of Burgaw, Pender county, and who has since been at large, was apprehended at Kingston, tied and brought down to Burgaw yesterday, where he was surrendered to the proper authorities. So we are informed by a gentleman who came down on the train last evening. Elghsmith did not die from the injuries inflicted, but made a very narrow escape.

On a Tour of Inspection. Supervising Surgeon General J. M. Woodworth will arrive here from Charleston this morning, the object of his visit being in connection with the Marine Hospital service and quarantine. He will interview Mayor Fishplate and other city officials to-day in respect to matters pertaining to the quarantine regulations of the port. From Wilmington he goes to Norfolk for the same purpose, being on a tour of the various Southern ports.

The Battle of the Crater—Who Saved the Day. Under this head the Petersburg Index-Appel contains the following extract from a paper recently contributed to the Southern Historical Society by Major Henry G. Flanner of this city, late Captain of Flanner's North Carolina Battery, touching the Battle of the Crater, which will be read with interest by many: "After reading Captain Gordon McCabe's article in the Southern Historical Society Papers, on the defence of Petersburg, I think I have the right to find fault, not with what is written, but what was omitted in the article referred to."

"I claim that the battery commanded by me and composed entirely of North Carolinians, is entitled to the credit of preventing the Federal army from entering Petersburg on the morning of the springing of the mine. The facts are these: The night of the 29th of July, and was immediately followed by the capture and occupation of our line of breast-works by the enemy. They remained in the works until 8 o'clock before making preparations for their advance. About that time they reformed line and battle and began advancing toward the city. Flanner's battery was posted in the main road near the Gee House, about two hundred yards in the rear of the Confederate breast-works, immediately in rear of the mine, forming what might be considered a second line, but entirely without infantry support. Immediately upon the advance of the enemy we opened on them with shell and canister, and they soon sought shelter in their trenches. In a few minutes they again formed and commenced advancing. Again we opened on them with our six guns. The enemy pressed steadily forward, when our guns were double charged with canister, and a deadly fire poured into their ranks. Their lines were then broken, and they fled to the works and there remained until our infantry composed of the brigades of Mahone, Girard and Sanders, all under the command of Mahone, arrived, and were placed in position preparatory to making the final charge, which resulted in the recapture of the works about 2 o'clock in the day."

"The fire of the enemy, from nearly one hundred guns, was concentrated upon my company for two hours; but amid this terrible rain of deadly missiles these brave North Carolinians stood to their guns and repulsed every advance made by the enemy, holding them in check, and without infantry support, until the arrival of General Beauregard with the troops commanded by him before mentioned."

"We claim the honor of saving the day, and preventing what might have been a very serious disaster and probable loss of Petersburg. "To those brave men who went through the fiery ordeal to form the slightest conception of the fury of this attack. No less than fifty shells a minute were hurled at the company; and but for the protection afforded by the sides of the road, they would have been swept off the face of the earth. There are those now living who can confirm my statement; and if this should meet the eyes of the gentlemen cognizant of these details, they will doubtless do us this justice. The history of a battle cannot be truthfully written from the same stand-point of any one man, although present in the engagement. It is due, therefore, to the brave men who composed my company, that they should be properly placed upon the record."

Written by a Battle-scarred. Mr. Robert R. Hewitt, of Lockwood's Folly Township, Brunswick county, was bitten on Friday, the 17th inst., by what is known as an Oakleaved rattlesnake. It seems that he was engaged in carrying out a lot of shingles from the Royal Oak shingle swamp, and was in the act of lifting up a bundle of the shingles, when the snake, which was underneath, inserted its fangs into one of his fingers. As soon as he found that he was bitten by the venomous reptile he made haste to the house of the nearest neighbor, who happened to be a colored man by the name of Cato Wilson, to whom he applied for assistance, and was coolly informed by the industrious darkey that he was too busy at plowing just then to stop for that purpose. Mr. H. then hurried to the next house, upon reaching which he was in such a feverish and exhausted condition that he could have gone but very little further. Here he met with the kindest attention, and remedies were applied to the wounded hand, which had become very much swollen. A physician was also sent for and arrived early on Saturday morning. After two days of intense suffering, during which he was in an unconscious state, he commenced gradually improving, and at last accounts was apparently out of danger, though the wounded hand is represented to be perfectly black, and some fears are entertained that mortification may set in.

Excursion to-day. The family excursion, under the auspices of the Dorcas Society of St. Paul's Evangelical Church, to a point ten miles up the river, takes place on the steamer North East to-day, the boat to leave the wharf foot of Market street at 9 o'clock this morning. The place of destination is a plantation, where there is a large and comfortable residence, a grove of trees and a good well of water, a fine place for a picnic. Dinner and refreshments can be had on board.

The Old Third. The Memorial Association of the Third N. C. Regiment meet in the City Court Room, at the City Hall, this (Friday) evening, at 8 o'clock, to organize and elect officers. The officers of the old regiment are cordially invited to be present.

Sudden Death. The infant child of one Ducaun Dickson, colored, died somewhat suddenly yesterday morning, and Coroner Hewlett was notified, but after consultation with the physician in attendance, deemed it unnecessary to hold an inquest.

Festival. The Festival of the young ladies of the First Presbyterian Church, postponed from last Tuesday evening, will take place at the Little Giant Engine Hall to-night, Prof. Agostini having consented to put off his lecture until Monday evening next.

The Norwegian barque Reaktor Steen, from this port for Rotterdam, fired a salute as she went down the river yesterday morning. The steamer Wase is now at Fayetteville, where she is to be thoroughly overhauled. She will be supplied with new engines from the works of Pusey, Jones & Co., Wilmington, Delaware, and her cabins are to be enlarged for the accommodation of passengers. It is claimed that with her new engines the Wase will be the fastest boat on the river.
