Avent, Jr., Jos. Specht, Gen. Lake and E. Wright. Maj. Wm. Willis, of the Citizens' Relief Committee, is prostrated, but he has not got the fever.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 11. There was another death from yellow fever at Gallipolis, yesterday—Joseph Porter, a watchman on the steamer Porter. Particulars of the Death of Mehemet All-Intense Excitement Among the Insurgents-Albanians Determined to Resist the Occupation of Their Territory-Great Depression in the English Cotton Trade-Proposed Amnesty to Catholic Priests-Frightful Colliery Explosion.

LONDON, Sept. 11.

Later advices from Constantinople give further details of the circumstances attending the death of Mehemet Ali Pashs. It seems that at Gusinge, Pluva and Kolasin, even before the arrival of Mehemet Ali complete anarchy had gained the upper hand, and upon his arrival in Jakova he found the greatest excitement prevailing among the inhabitants. He was violently upbraided with having come to Albania to hand over the land to the Servians.

The agitation went on increasing, finding The agitation went on increasing, finding vent especially in vehement abuse of Ab-dullah Pasha, Mehemet Ali's Adjutant. The house selected by Mehemet Ali for his lodging was set on fire by the Albanians of Jakova and Ipek. Then a fight ensued be-tween the incendiaries and Mehemet Ali's escort, in which twenty men of the latter fell. Towards evening, through the inter-vention of some Utemas, the conflict was appeased, the insurgents promising to observe a peaceful attitude.

About 6 o'clock in the evening, however, in Jakova, where Mehemet Ali still remained, the struggle broke out afresh, re-sulting in the death of Abdullah Pasha, with several officers of his escort, and the house in which they took refuge was fired. Mehemet Ali succeeded in essaping from the burning building, and concealing him-self in a shed close by, but his hiding place was soon discovered and he was mercilessly put to death.

An Albanian league, said to number 45,000 well armed and equipped men, are determined to resist the occupation of their territory by any Christian power. There is much talk of Servia and Montenegro co-operating with Austria. It is thought possible at Vienna that the anarchy in Albania may compel Austria to occupy that province also.

LONDON, Sept. 11.

The Times of this morning states that there is not a single encouraging feature in the cotton trade of North Lancashire. The condition of the markets is worse than ever, and the outlook is most gloomy. Goods are not only being piled up in the Manchester houses, but are fast accumuating in the mill store rooms. Small manufacturers with limited means are obliged to sell at almost any sacrifice, and before the crisis is passed there is no doubt that many of these firms will succumb.

LONDON, Sept. 11.

A Geneva dispatch says the Beernez Government has decided to propose to the Grand Council of Switzerland that amnesty be granted to ninety-three Catholic priests who were deprived of livings in 1873 for refusal to comply with the requirements of the State. A frightful colliery explosion occurred to-day at Abercarne, near Newport. There were 371 men in the pit, of which 80 have been rescued. It is feared no others have survived, as the pit is on fire.
