We prepared some yellow fever notes but they were crowded out.

Vesuvius is quieting down some The cruptions thus far did no damage.

Senator Thurman has the bilious fever, of which he is slowly recovering.

The horse-cars in New York have fallen off in receipts from twelve to fifteen per cent., caused by the elevated railways.

Wilhelmj don't fiddle after all. He only thumps the pecana-forty. We somehow thought the violin was his instrument, and if he could beat Ole Bull we wanted to be there. But if "grabbling music" out of a piano is all he can do we shall not go to New York.

O'Leary, the "walkist," completed his 403 miles on Saturday night, making it in six days, and beating his competitor, Hughes, 97 miles. The victory was easy, and he gets threeeighths of the receipts, that were over $15,000. Hughes gets $2,000 to salve his injured legs.

There is always trouble with the Indians. Our government has had a big job on its hands for a long time, and all because of the injustice perpetrated by rascally agents. It is reported now that the Spotted Tail and Red Cloud Sioux Indians have abandoned their reservations in Dakota, and are removing to the Black Hills, designing to join the runaway Cheyennes. The latter, however, have probably been dispersed by the troops that have been pursuing them. A report to that effect is current at St. Louis.

The British troops are moving against the Ameer of Afghanistan. An attack was expected to be made on Monday. In the meantime it is reported that there are dissensions among the Afghan chiefs. The tribes that have agreed to assist are said to have 150,000 fighting men. Those that stand off so far are said to number 53,000 warriors. What is the strength of the British forces moving against Afghanistan from various points, we have not seen estimated, but it is doubtless large.

We regret to learn that General James G. Martin, of Asheville, died on last Friday. He was born in Elizabeth City, we believe, in 1819. He was graduated at West Point, served in the Mexican war, losing an arm, and was a Brigadier General in the war of the States. He read law after peace was declared and settled at Asheville, where he pursued his profession with success. He was a gentleman of excellent spirit, fair abilities and high character, was a member of the Episcopal Church, and was highly esteemed by all who had the pleasure of knowing him. He was a brother of Col. William F. Martin, of Elizabeth City. A good, true man has fallen-one who performed his duty faithfully, whether military, civic or religious. He was a thorough North Carolinian, and a true gentleman.

of North Carolina, died in Memphis on the 26th ult. of yellow fever. - The Contentnea Association of Carolina, will soon visit Charlotte and other places in the State. - A young man named Thomas Thompson, supposed to be from Lancaster county, S. C., was recently shot through the bowels in Mitchell county and is expected to die. - Reidsville Times: The people are not paying taxes much in Person county. The sheriff advertised tax-day at Woodsdale, and at the appointed time he appeared on the grounds with his books under his arm. But not a soul was there. It looked like Sunday.

- The Biblical Recorder reports revivals in various places; at Hamlet, with 24 accessions to the Baptist Church; at Antioch (county not given), 22 baptisms; at Graham, 23 professions; at Flat River Union Church, Granville, 5 baptisms; at Mount Gilead, Chatham, 46 baptisms, eleven heads of families.

- Greensboro Patriot: Senator Merrimon spent yesterday in town, the guest of Gen. Scales. He was on his reurn from Caswell and Rockingham, where he addressed large meetings. — We learn that Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, who has been very ill for some time, is recovering and is now considered out of danger.

- Our old friend, C. B. Riddick. now Dr. Riddick, is in Southern California, and has a flourishing school, "The Los Nietos Institute," and is assisted by his wife and others. He is held in very high esteem in that country.—Richmond Christian Advocate. Dr. R. is a North Carolinian, and a preacher of extraordinary gifts and real eloquence. - Newbern Nut Shell: One of our citizens has informed us that he counted no less than five drunken men on our streets yesterday, and yet there is a State law and a city ordinance against the sale of liquor on Sunday. Where did these men get their liquor? Has the law been violated? If so, our city authorities should bring the guilty parties to justice.

- Dr. Christopher Happoldt, who went from Morganton to attend yellow fever cases, writes a long letter to the Blade, relating the difficulties he had in reaching, first Memphis, then Jackson, afterwards New Orleans, and finally Vicksburg. He says that physicians are not needed as badly as has been reported. He writes under date of September 28th that he has the fever.

- Oxford Free Lance: The most distressing accounts reach us of the terrible ravages of the diphtheria in Person county. In some sections it has become almost an epidemic and baffles all the skill of the physicians. In the short space of one week a Mr. Lee lost seven and all his children, and at one time three of the dead were in the house unburied. Other families have suffered greatly, though not to such a degree. —-Mr. R. O. Gregory, of this county, has sent to the Agricultura Museum at Kaleigh a jointed snake. When received by Col. Polk half the reptile was alive and half dead. — The United States Commissioner's Court will be held in Oxford to-morrow to hear several cases of illicit distilling heretofore adjourned to

- Weldon News: The daily mail route between Halifax and Scotland Neck was opened on Tuesday. — The ladies of Weldon gave a dime party Thursday night for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers. The tables groaned beneath all the delicacies of the season. Fair woman lent her presence to charm the occasion, and cleaned out the boys to the tune of $31. - We learn that a Mr. J. W. Whitehead, of Scotland Neck, committed suicide by taking strychnine, during the week. Unrequited love was the cause of the rash act. - We received yesterday the sad intelligence of the death, in Baltimore, of Mr. J. A. Turpin, of this place. Mr. Turpin was clerk in the Southern Express Company's office here.

- Charlotte Observer: Last week was a big week for cotton in Charlotte, the season considered. The total receipts reached about 3,340 bales. - Yesterday morning a well educated woman, a native of this State and of respectable parentage, arrived n this city from Raleigh, and sent for Rev. Father O'Connell, of the Catholic Church. She informed the priest that she had come nere for information concerning a house of refuge for fallen women. Father O'Connell explained to ber that there were such houses in several of the Northern cities, and vesterday afternoon she left for Baltimore o enter the Magdalen's Home there. -Sergeant O'Donoghue, in charge of the newly established U. S. Signal Office in this city, has so far perfected the arrangement of his apparatus that he will be able to send out observations this morning. -It is a pleasure to state that the next time the doors of the Opera House are thrown open, it will be to receive one of Charlotte's greatest favorites, Katie Putnam. She is to appear on the 1st and 2d of November. On the 8th of the the same month Huntley's company will be here, and on the 11th Miss Louise Pomeroy will make her second appearance in Charlotte.

- Goldsboro Messenger: We learn from Pitt county that Mr. Elisha McKeel's gin house, situated half a mile from Greenville, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday night. There was in the house at the time of the fire about twenty-five bales of cotton, all of which were destroyed. —— The conference of the Disciples' Church will be held at Robbinsville, Martin county, next Thursday, Oct. 11th. — The Rifles were out on dress parade Thursday evening. The company makes a splendid appearance, and Goldsboro will have cause to feel proud of the boys at the State Fair next week. - Duplin county correspondent: The farmers are very busy in gathering their crops, the weather, in the main, being quite favorable. The prices for cotton are so low and the crops so short that there is considerable despondency. No one has made any money, and it will require the strictest economy to carry them through to another season. Now is the time to begin. Let all sow wheat, rye and oats liberally, and they will be surprised at how little corn will be required. The chufa crop has largely increased, and will save a great deal of corn for fattening hogs. The chufa is a most profitable crop, being decidedly preferable to sweet potatoes or

Resolved, That persons who have failed to list their poll tax for the year 1878 be permitted to list and pay the same to the Sheriff, and that the double tax be remitted, provided payments are made by the first day of November, 1878.

Severe Accident. A little son of Rev. E. A. Yates, pastor of the Front Street M. E. Church, was severely injured on Monday afternoon by falling from a brick wall in the rear of the Church to the pavement below, a distance of eight or nine feet. It was thought at first that his skull had been fractured, but we are glad to learn that such is not the case, though he received a severe contusion on the forehead, from which he has suffered intensely. The intelligence of the accident was the occasion of much regret throughout the community.

The Fire Yesterday. A frame building, on the corner of Ninth and Orange streets, owned by Messrs. Northrop & Cumming, and occupied by Mr. J. T. Northrop, was destroyed by fire yesterday, about 12 o'clock. The fire is supposed to have originated from a spark from the chimney, the roof being in a light blaze when it was discovered and the alarm given. The Fire Department was promptly on hand, but only one engine-the "Adrian"-could get a stream on the fire on account of its distance from the cisterns. The "Adrian" was stationed at the corner of Seventh and Market streets.

Annual Parade of the Fire Department.

The usual annual parade of the white fire department of this city will take place this afternoon, commencing at 3 o'clock. Col. Roger Moore, Chief of the Fire Department, will act as Marshal of the Day, with the following Assistants: H. Ohlandt, R. T. Bowden, J. W. Gordon.

The order of march will be as follows: 1. Howard Relief Fire Engine Company No. 1, with engine and horses. 3. Little Giant Steam Fire Engine Com-

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Abstract of Proceedings in Regular Session.

The Board of Aldermen met in regular session yesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Present, His Honor, Mayor Fishblate, and Aldermen Myers, Flanner, Bowden, Von-Glahn, Vollers, Foster, King, Hill and Lowrey.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The Committee on Police, in the matter of the petition of J. J. Rhodes, recommend ed that the petition be laid on the table. Adopted.

The Committee on Market and Fees, in the matter of changing the location of the market carts, made a report that the matter be left as it now is. Adopted. Alderman Foster offered the following tion may seem most necessary in regard to the debt of the city of, Wilmington. The Committee on Market and Fees reported on the resolution of Alderman Hill. n reference to taxing wood, asking for further time, which was granted. Alderman Flanner offered the following resolution: Resolved. That in the future, when coupons are offered in payment of taxes, that dermen Bowden, Flanner, Myers, Vollers and VonGlahn voted aye. Aldermen Foster, King, Hill and Lowery

On motion the unfinished business was deferred until the next meeting, and the Board adjourned. Store Broken Into and Robbed.

The store of Mr. J. C. Borneman, in the Carr block, Second street, was entered on Monday night and robbed of a considerable amount of goods. Entrance was effected through a window in the rear of the building, which, is partially protected by iron bars, something like those used in prisons, but the spaces between them being so wide that a boy or a man of small statute can force his way through them. Upon getting inside the thief put the light out which is usually kept burning in the store, and then removed the fastenings to the back door, so as to afford himself speedy egress in case of detection, after which he helped himself to as many of the goods as he could conveniently carry off, including two bolts of calico, one dozen shirts, six pairs of drawers, two baskets, one bag of flour, a lot of smoking and chewing tobacco, $10 in silver and copper cein, and three pocket books, altogether amounting to a little upwards of $30, as near as can be estimated. The above list comprises what is known to have been taken. Other articles may have been carried off which could not well be missed.

All the money left in the drawer was taken The policeman on the beat reports that he noticed the absence of the light in Mr. Borneman's store, and mentioned the fact to a party who does business in the same block, who appeared to be so confident that no one could break into the store on accoun of the iron bars alluded to, and that all was right, that he (the policeman) par no more attention to the matter.

The Orphans.

The entertainment of the chapter of orphans, ten in number, from the Oxford Asylum, under direction of Mr. J. H. Mills, Superintendent, took place at the Front Street Methodist Church, last evening, the exercises being opened with religious services by Rev. E. A. Yates, and an address by Mr. Mills, who clearly demonstrated the importance and necessity of the orphan work, and the good accomplished by it. The exercises, consisting of songs and recitations, were well rendered, and those who did not attend are advised to do so on Thursday evening, when another free enOPERA HOUSE.

" Miss Multon, the Governors." The Star Alliance presented "Miss Multon," a new version or adaptation of "East Lynne," to a large audience last evening, achieving a complete success. The almost universal verdict of the audience was unqualifiedly favorable, and we unhesitatingly endorse it as eminently just and merited.

Several of the members of the company appeared to much better advantage than on Monday night, notably Mr. Burton as Mons. Berlin, the Tutor, who performed his part capitally.

Miss Alice Vane is indeed an artiste of high rank, gifted with beauty and undoubted genius. As Fernande de la Tour she depicted with rare power, realistic art and deep feeling the grief, heart-ache, suffering and despair of the lost wife. The audience were deeply affected with the rendition, and were extremely demonstrative in expressing their appreciations. Miss Fay Templeton was very sweet and winning as Jennie De La Tour, and Miss Nellie Haywood was pretty, piquant and interesting as Louise, a domestic.

The acting of the entire troupe was creditable, and we can honestly commend the troupe as above the average.

The afterpiece was irresistibly droll and amusing, and was a pleasing mixture of musical comedy and burlesque. Miss Fay Templeton imitated Aimee, the distinguished opera bouffe actress, very cleverly singing "Pretty as Picture" charmingly, and in response to an encore "The Cuekoo Song" in fine style.

The company close their engagement in this city with the performance to-night, when will be given an operatic extravaganga, entitled "Puck, a Day Dream," which is spoken of as amusing and highly enjoy-

Help the Orphans.

A chapter of orphans from the Oxford Orphan Asylum will give another entertainment in the First Baptist Church, on Thursday night. We hope the good people of Wilmington will manifest a liberal spirit in their behalf. Money is very much needed and unless the people generally maintain the noble work now being carried on under the supervision of Mr. J. H. Mills, a great charity must stop, and a great injury be visited upon the poor children of the State. The orphans go to Smithville to-day, where they will give one of their pleasing entertainments.

Had the Fever. Mr. Henry T. Bauman, of this city, has eccived a letter from his brother, Mr. J. C. Bauman, dated at Memphis on the 5th inst., in which he states that he has had a severe attack of the yellow fever, from which he is just recovering, having been up for two days at the date of his letter, but would not be assigned for duty under four or five days. No letter or postal card had been received from Mr. Bauman for about two weeks, and as he had been writing very regularly before his relatives and friends had become quite auxious about him. He states that Mr. Brooks is well, but says nothing about other Wilmingtonians in Memphis.

Kicked by a Horse.

Charles Mallett, Jr., commonly known as "Big Charley," was standing on the curbstone in front of Mr. Daniel O'Connor's office, yesterday, about 12 o'clock, when he suddenly lost his balance and fell to the ground in immediate proximity to the hind legs of a horse that was tied at Sun will be a that point, when the animal commenced NORTH CAROLINA NEWSPAPER. kicking him violently in thelbreast, and came near killing him before he could be rescued from his perilous position.
