OUTLINES.

John Cole, at Deadwood, Dakota, gave himself up for killing, in self-defence, George Henston. — Telegraph line from Deadwood to Fort Keogh, Montana, has been completed. — Cabinet makers in New York held a large meeting with a view to striking for an increase of twenty per cent. on present wages. — Stewart's remains were found in Weehawken cemetery; the human hyenas have been arrested. — Governor McClellan, of New Jersey, recommends in his thanksgiving proclamation that every one make an offering for the relief of the Southern sufferers. — A fire occurred in a railroad sleeper in Maryland, and the passengers made a narrow escape; the car was destroyed. — An attempt was made to assassinate King Humbert of Italy; Signor Carzoli, in seizing the assassin, was wounded in the thigh; the King drew his sword and struck the assassin, who was arrested; there is great excitement and the cry is loud for the execution of the scoundrel. — The city of Norwich, England, has been inundated; one or two deaths from drowning; four or five miles of streets under water; vast pecuniary damage done. — English press speak in high praise of the Governor General of Canada. — The decline of silver in London is having disastrous effects in Mexico. — Supreme Court decides that a stockholder has a right to have his stolen share replaced and a certificate issued to him therefor, and that he has a right to all dividends accruing thereon. — The new officials in New Orleans have been inducted into office. — George W. Williams & Co., of Charleston, shipped $25,000 by express to Athens, Ga.; money lost, and W. S. Lynch has been arrested and jailed. — New York markets: Money 3@3 1/2 per cent; gold 100; cotton quiet and steady at 97-100; 11-16 cents; flour dull and easy and in buyers' favor; wheat 1@1 1/2 better; spirits turpentine firm at 30@30 1/2 cents; rosin quiet at $1 37@1 40.

The New York dry goods market is very quiet and operations light. Hamilton and Knickerbocker fancy prints have fallen to 5 1/2 cents. — Mr. Doree, of Missouri, weighs 376 pounds. — Exchange. — North Carolina beats that so far that there is no contest. There is a citizen of Wayne county who weighs over 600 pounds. — Four men are under arrest for stealing the body of Stewart. The old merchant creates more noise in the world after death than he ever did while living. Though dead he yet makes a racket. Some of the New York papers devoted more space to writing up the robbery than they gave to the election in thirty-one States. — The card of Hon. A. M. Waddell, printed in this issue of the STAR, is sensible and manly. That Judge Russell has been fairly elected is as plain as daylight; and to contest his right to a seat in Congress, under the circumstances, would be worse than folly. The Democrats of the Third District have only themselves to blame for the defeat of Col. Waddell. The talk of fraud and corruption is the simplest nonsense. — The Washington Star classifies the members of the 46th Congress as follows: Democrats 142, Radicals 134, Greenbackers 12, Independents 5. This classification will not avail. The Democrats will have a clear working majority. Of the present members, 84 Democrats and 69 Radicals have been re-elected—total 153. The change after all is not so great as was anticipated. Of the new members more than a dozen have served in the Congress before. — The action of the Clearing House meeting in New York last week is meeting with decided opposition in the West. The Chicago Tribune denounces it very vigorously. The bankers and papers are dissatisfied with the action in regard to the silver dollar, and now many of the New York bankers are regretting that they were so hasty. Congress will not sympathize with the New York action, and we may expect fresh discussions on the silver question. — It is thought there will not be more than a half dozen contested seats in Congress. Two of these will be from this State. Major Yeates will contest Martin's seat in the First, and O'Hara will contest Capt. Kitchin's seat in the Second District. It is said that Hull, Democrat, will receive the certificate in one of the Florida Districts, but Bisbee, reported elected, and a Radical, will contest the seat. Klotz, Democrat, from Pennsylvania, has the certificate of three out of five judges of election. His seat will be contested by a hungry Radical named Albright. If all right, we hope the Democrat will keep his seat.

THE MORNING STAR.

Senator Voorhees has announced that as soon as Congress assembles he will introduce a bill to make the trade dollar a legal tender. He says: "That will add at once something over $20,000,000 to the circulation. It is a swindle as it now is—a low, mean swindle. Here they have been paying these things out at a dollar till they got them in the people's hands; then they shut down suddenly and cut the holders ten per cent."

This appears to be a proper thing for Congress to do. There is no good reason why the bill should not pass, but that will hardly be the case, as the President would probably veto it. It is understood that a strong fight will be made to pass a law for the free and unrestrained coinage of silver.

The gifted Senator, when asked if his bill would provide that a greenback dollar should be retired when a new silver-dollar was issued, said emphatically: "By no means. Rather than a new one shall be issued. There never was a truer thing than Governor William Allen said about specie payment. It is a barren ideal, indeed. We never had it, and won't have it after January. There will be a juggle between the banks and the government, and the most of those who want gold won't get it, or if they do, and insist upon it, specie payments will stop again very suddenly."

Senator McDonald says there is not the slightest doubt of Senator Voorhees being his own successor.

FROM WASHINGTON. The Republican National Campaign Prospects of the Three Leading Presidential Candidates. [Special dispatch to Baltimore Sun.] WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Already movements have been put in progress to secure the Southern delegations to the next National Republican Convention, and within the last week there have been important conferences on this subject of a number of leading Republicans, friends of the three men between whom the contest will really lie, General Grant, Senator Conkling and Mr. Blaine. All of these three are "Stalwarts," and while they and their supporters have a great horror of the "solid South," as applied to Democratic representation in Congress, either one of them will consider the "solid South" an entirely proper thing if it means a solid vote for him in a National Convention. Owing to the peculiar condition of affairs as affects the Republican party in the South, the delegations for the National Convention can be easily "worked up" by a few shrewd men in each State with the addition of a certain amount of that very useful and effective appliance, cash. In the last Convention of the Republican party Mr. Blaine had some very warm friends among the Southern delegations, as had also Mr. Conkling. Many of these friends of Mr. Blaine have grown very lukewarm toward him. They say that after the fight was over he forgot them; that when they came to Washington he would slap them on the back in his familiar way, and ask them if it was well with them, and all that kind of thing, that he would sign their applications for office, but that he would never personally make application at the White House for them. To the contrary of this it is said that after the adjournment of the Cincinnati Convention, and before the end of President Grant's term, Mr. Conkling went in person to the White House and procured places for a number of the Southern Republicans who had advocated his nomination at Cincinnati. The feeling among the Southern Republicans is therefore understood to be more in favor of Mr. Conkling than of any one else.

Spirits Turpentine. — Mooresville, Iredell county, is improving. — Raleigh handled 2,691 bales of cotton last week. — A Methodist church is to be built at Chapel Hill. — Revenue collections in Fourth District last week $32,548 62. — Judge Strong's law school at Raleigh has twenty-two students. — Some handsome residences at Raleigh are approaching completion. — The Masons will be entertained by the Raleigh hotels at reduced rates. — Seventy-eight pupils are attending the Fayetteville Colored Normal School. — The Sampson Fair will be held at Clinton on the 4th, 5th and 6th of December. — Tennessee hogs sell in Madison county at four and four and a half cents on the hoof. — Raleigh News: A handsome organ has been ordered for St. Augustine church, colored. — The Annual Conference of the Christian Church met last week at Damascus Church, not far from Chapel Hill. — Rev. J. B. Bobbitt was presented with a gold watch by his former employer, of the Advocate printing office. — Miss Annie V. Duffy, of Newbern, has published a volume of verse. It is called "Gleams and other Poems." — Danbury Reporter: A colored woman of this county was blessed with triplets a week or two ago. — An interesting religious meeting is now going on in the Methodist Church. — We have received a copy of the Semi-Weekly Journal, just started at Asheville. It has no editor's name at the masthead, and is independent. It promises well. It is printed, we suppose, in the office of the Pioneer. — If you select good and healthy food for your family, you should also look to the welfare of your baby. For all troubles of early childhood nothing is better than Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. 25 cents a bottle. †

Newbern Nut Shell: Messrs. Charles and J. H. Mills, of Pitt, killed a large bear on Tuesday last. The two gentlemen were riding along the road when the bear attacked the horse, inflicting severe wounds on the animal. — The Cumberland Fair was well attended on two days. The racing was said to be poor but the shooting good and the ball brilliant. The display is represented as good in the Farmers' Hall and Mechanical Department. The display in Floral Hall was attractive and highly creditable. — S. A. Ashe, Chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, has published a card stating that Sheriff's cannot count the votes for members of Congress, but the returns should be made to the Secretary of State, and the result should be ascertained by the State Board of Censors.

Raleigh News: Governor Vance received a letter yesterday from Hon. J. J. Yeates, Democratic candidate from the First District for Congress, stating that Mr. Martin's majority had been reduced to 39 votes, and that he would be able to show fraud practiced on the part of Martin and his friends, sufficient to overcome Martin's alleged majority. — Fayetteville Gazette: On last Saturday morning, while Mr. W. D. Shaw was out riding with a young lady the horse he was driving became suddenly frightened, ran for some distance, and finally overturned the buggy, throwing both Mr. Shaw and the lady out. Fortunately the latter was unhurt, but Mr. Shaw had his arm broken and was slightly bruised otherwise.

Reidsville Times: Bishop Pierce will dedicate the new Methodist Church at Reidsville the 24th of this month. — Caswell Court met on Tuesday. A large crowd was on the ground. There were ninety cases on the State docket. A full bar was present. — The farmers are killing their hogs already. The hogs are eating up all the corn, and as there is a short crop, the farmers kill them thus early to save it.

Greensboro North State: On Sunday night last the store and contents belonging to Mr. Joseph A. Hoskins & Son, at Bruce's Cross Roads, were entirely destroyed by fire. — Three or four of our citizens left here on Monday night last for Kansas. In a year or two they will probably be glad to return. — The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, gave a supper on Friday night last for the benefit of their church.

Robbery at Masonboro. W. H. Moore, colored, formerly Senator from this county, but who is now running a farm at Masonboro Sound, was robbed on Sunday night last, by two young colored men who had been in his employ. Edward Hussey, aged about 18 years, who said he formerly lived at Burgaw, roomed with his employer, and was treated in all respects as one of the family. He carried off two shirts, one pair of pants, a revolver, a knife, a lot of handkerchiefs and a number of articles of small value, all belonging to Moore. Thomas Jones alias Jim Thomas, who said he formerly belonged to a brother of the late Andrew Jackson Jones, in Bladen county, occupied a separate house, and he took with him an axe, a lot of wedges, a bag of peas, a blanket and quilt, a lot of sweet potatoes, &c. He was apparently pretty well posted in reference to matters and things connected with the penitentiary; in fact, he seemed to be so familiar with the institution that Moore was about to get rid of him, when he "took time by the forelock" and left on his own accord, carrying off, besides the plunder mentioned, a rather dark-complected colored damsel, of about nineteen summers, who resided in the neighborhood. They were missed about 10 o'clock Sunday night, and yesterday morning Moore tracked them to this place, whence, it is supposed, they pushed on up the road.

Howe's Great London Show's Donations to the Yellow Fever Sufferers. As the Great London Show is to open here for one day only, on to-morrow (Wednesday), November 20th, the following from a Milwaukee correspondent to the Chicago Times, of August 31st, will not be uninteresting: "Manager Parks telegraphed the 26th instant that he would be willing to give an entertainment here for the benefit of the Great London Show, under the auspices of the city of Milwaukee. Mayor Black has authorized me to say, that the thanks of the people of Milwaukee are publicly tendered to Manager Parks for his liberality. As a proper recognition of the Great London Show's services as an interest of the afflicted thousands in the South, all licenses were at once refunded. It must be very gratifying to the management of Howe's Great London Show to know that they initiated the movement that yielded so handsomely, and that has since been imitated by nearly every travelling entertainment on the road."

Thermometer Notes. The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations mentioned, at 4.31 yesterday evening, Washington mean time, as ascertained from the daily bulletin issued from the Signal Office in this city: Atlanta, 64; Key West, 81; Augusta, 65; Mobile, 63; Charleston, 62; Montgomery, 63; Charlotte, 69; New Orleans, 61; Corsicana, 67; Punta Rasa, 60; Galveston, 58; Savannah, 64; Havana, 58; St. Marks, 65; Jacksonville, 65; Wilmington, 60.

To be Released. The two colored boys, Jake Paden and Thomas Titt, mentioned in our last as having been arrested on suspicion of being concerned in recent school robberies, will, we understand, be released this morning, there being no positive evidence against them. — RIVER AND MARINE ITEMS. — The brig Caroline Cathrine arrived at Falmouth from this port yesterday. — The Norwegian barque Oluf, Lynness, arrived at Rotterdam from this port on the 13th inst. — The barquentine Mary Frost, Captain Husband, was reported in below yesterday afternoon. — The Norwegian barque Soster, Gut-tormsen, arrived at Antwerp from this port on the 14th inst. — The schooner Hattie Paige, Godfrey, arrived at Baltimore from this port on the 15th inst., and cleared the same day. — The little steamer Ogechee, Capt. Pete, which arrived here from New York on Saturday evening, left for Savannah yesterday morning.

The Fire this Morning. The alarm of fire this morning, shortly before 2 o'clock, was caused by the burning of a brick building on Front, between Mulberry and Walnut streets, occupied by Messrs. McDougald & Son as a blacksmith and wheelwright shop. The building, which was the property of Col. Roger Moore, was insured for $1,000. The loss of the Messrs. McDougald is not known. A dwelling adjoining, occupied by Mr. DeLeon Fillaway, caught fire and was considerably damaged, but the flames were soon extinguished when the engines got to work. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Complimentary Serenade to Mayor Fishblate. Mayor S. H. Fishblate was serenaded in his elegant new home on Front street, last evening, by the Cornet Concert Club. After the Band had played several delightful pieces they were invited in by Mr. Fishblate and hospitably entertained for a pleasant hour, during which time many toasts were drunk and speeches made. The occasion was an exceedingly pleasant one, and will long be memorable in the minds of those present for the splendid hospitality of the host and the good humor and pleasant intercourse which prevailed.

En Route. A private telegram was received by Gen. M. P. Taylor, yesterday, announcing that Col. D. K. McKee and family were to leave Chicago for this city on that day, and expected to reach here on Thursday, when he would take rooms for the present at the boarding house of Mrs. L. Boudin, corner of Front and Mulberry streets.

To the Voters of the Third Congressional District. The suggestion has been frequently, almost daily, made to me since the election, that I can successfully contest Judge Russell's right to a seat in Congress, and it is insisted that duty to the Democratic party, who are in the majority in the District, demands that a contest should be made. Various objections to the votes of certain counties, townships and city wards have been made, and it is confidently asserted that these votes could be, and ought to be, thrown out. I, therefore, deem it proper and respectful to my constituents to express myself, promptly, on this subject. Evidence should be satisfactory evidence of fraud, violence or intimidation whereby the result of the election was unfairly and falsely secured, it would be a very plain duty to my constituents and myself to contest it. No such evidence, however, has yet been made, and, in my opinion, cannot be truthfully made, against any portion of the people of this District. I believe the election was free from corruption, as every previous one in the District has been; and so believe that a majority of the same technical defects, honor, fair dealing and respect for what must be taken to be the will of the people, forbid any attempt on my part to defeat that will, by a resort to legal quibbles, and a reliance upon the courts to a majority of the same. I decide the contest as my political associates. We see it constantly predicted that the Democrats having learned a lesson from the Republican's success in the contest of the same year, will not be so easily deceived, and will be denounced the crimes committed by the Republican party in connection with that birthright of the people, the elective franchise, and it would be a pitiable conclusion, if I should contest, and result in an imitation of such offences. Judge Russell received a majority of the votes polled, although only a little more than half the voters of the District went to the polling places, and if I should contest, I would be doing just what I have condemned Mr. Hayes for doing, viz: holding an office to which I was not elected, and drawing a salary which rightfully belongs to another man.

For any representation that may follow a change in the representation of this District I will not be responsible. If the people so will, they can have good government. Their will is ascertained at the ballot-box, and only there. They can abdicate their rights by refusing or neglecting to vote, and if they do so, who shall complain? In such a case, if evil ensue (and it is not too late) they can remedy it at the next election—but the proper time for a contest is while the polls are open, not after they are closed and the result declared. Holding these views, I shall not contest Judge Russell's right to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress. Very respectfully, A. M. WADDELL.
