

THE CITY.

Local Notes. The cold snap still continues. Remember the poor. No interments in Bellevue Cemetery during the past week.

Only one interment in Oakdale Cemetery during the week just closed, and that was an adult brought here for burial.

There were four interments in Pine Forest (colored) Cemetery during the past week, of which two were for adults and two for colored couples.

John Brown's body will be marching on after delinquent poll taxpayers if they don't call at the Sheriff's office and settle right away.

Mr. W. R. Cochrane, of the Grand Central Hotel, at Charlotte, proposes to open a house there early in January on the European plan, to be superintended by Mr. R. J. Lewis, of this city.

The odor arising from the burnt corn and other debris, still smouldering among the ruins of the livery stables at the corner of Third and Princess streets, struck unpleasantly upon the olfactory organs of pedestrians on our streets last night.

The weather Friday night was intensely cold and ice was plentiful everywhere yesterday morning. Even milk in pails froze in some instances, the like of which has not been known in this particular latitude for the number of years.

Some twenty gentlemen or more, by invitation of Mr. George Chadbourne, partook of an elegant supper given at his residence on Friday evening in honor of Rev. Dr. Hepburn, who formerly had charge of the First Presbyterian Church in this city, and who is now his guest.

A Photograph of the Dead Murderer. We saw yesterday, in the possession of a gentleman of this city, a photograph of Jule Davidson, one of the murderers of Mr. W. G. Fowl, Jr., taken as he hung suspended by the neck from the limb of a tree about two miles above Mooreville, Iredell county, where he fell a victim to the vengeance of an indignant and outraged people, and where he remained from Saturday, the 21st instant, until the following Tuesday evening before he was cut down.

Figures are Catching. AT LEAST ADVERTISED "FIGURES" ARE not done in this locality about next Saturday. A Cook Stove, complete, for $25, and no charge for delivery! Oh, we can send it—great expedients—related to the hardware family—large cast-iron in England, you know! A Self-Feeder—none of your poor relation sort, but a heavy welcome heating stove—for $50.00. Feels like right off, but we must make room for more than the best stove. These advantages he offers to his customers, and wants everybody to take his money into serious consideration, and inquire if it is not to their interest to open their accounts for the year 1879 with him.

What I Say I Mean. I EXPECT TO KEEP A COMPLETE ASSORTMENT OF BOOKS AND STATIONERY. Parties desiring goods in my line will do well to examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere. C. W. YATES. My Photograph Rooms. Are now complete, and everything is ready for First Class work. Bring along the children! We guarantee good work at no pay. C. W. YATES, A. ORR, Jr., Photographer. Dec 29 1/2

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

1878. Christmas 1878. is over. NEW YEAR IS NEAR AT HAND! Boatwright & McKoy MAKES THEIR BOW To their Customers and the Public, AND BEG TO ASSURE THEM THAT, THE FUTURE AS IN THE PAST, THEY WILL FURNISH THE NECESSARIES! AS WELL AS THE LUXURIES OF LIFE! EVEN LOWER THAN FORMERLY. WITH THE NEW YEAR! WE START AFRESH! For the Best Goods, Most Liberal Bargains, and Lowest Prices. We will assure all, for the past year "We Have Taken the Palm," And we intend TO DO EVEN BETTER during the NEXT YEAR. SAVE YOUR MONEY BY BUYING WHAT YOU NEED IN THE GROCERY LINE, WHETHER WHOLESALE OR RETAIL, FROM Boatwright & McKoy, 5, 7 and 8 NORTH FRONT ST. A Card. JAMES C. STEVENSON RETURNS THANKS to his friends and patrons for the very liberal trade given him during the Christmas holidays, and for the year past, and in wishing them A HAPPY NEW YEAR, desires to say that he intends in the future, as in the past, to be the Pioneer of Low Prices giving to all the very lowest prices for first class goods—both cash and thirty days customers—treating the trade of the latter a matter of confidence which he will not abuse. By an honest endeavor to meet every customer fairly, strict attention to their wants, and giving at all times to those desiring such accommodations as desired, he has done a very successful and constantly increasing business. He has the smallest expense of any house in the city doing the same amount of business, pays no interest on capital, discounts his bills when advantageous, and consequently can buy goods as low as anybody, and has the advantage of long experience in knowing what and when to buy. These advantages he offers to his customers, and wants everybody to take his money into serious consideration, and inquire if it is not to their interest to open their accounts for the year 1879 with him.

Grand Uniform Ball. Germania Hall. NEW YEAR'S EVE. TUESDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 31ST, 1878. Under the auspices of GERMANIA LODGE No. 4 K. of P. Tickets $1.50, Supper included. To be had of the Committee. To spend in the purchase of our wares; And then, "tears, tears, idle tears." Will avail you naught, Because your goods you've already bought!

As New Year's Day will soon be here, Read our rhyme and gather good cheer. Kind friends, without wishing to run down Any Grocery Store in town, We must emphatically say Goods bought of us will certainly pay! In this lively and gay season Some price their goods out of all reason; But our stock was brought low, And, without attempting to crow, We earnestly invite all to come and see How cheap they'll find our goods to be. If you go elsewhere and buy, And then see our stock, a sigh Will surely creep out of your throat; Just because you haven't a good That in our stock you will find. Jellies, cranberries, and sugars refined, Together with spices, prunes, and sauces so nice; Also macaroni, preserves and rice. We have coffee and teas of every grade, Selected to suit the WILMINGTON trade. We can suit any taste in shell goods. From a princely to a laborer of the woods. We have group, flour, and mince meat. Coddish, mackerel, and muttons that can't be beat! We keep toothsome raisins, dates and jam, Buckwheat, dried tongue and deviled ham. Together with green and black teas in caddies, Which we will exchange for the DOLLARS OF OUR DADDIES!

If any one wishes to give a frolic, And does not care to drink alcoholic, We can furnish something EXTRA fine, In the shape of Champagne, or other wine. If decided to make guests feel frisky, We recommend our "CAFÉ RAU WHISKET." But if your blue-ribbon friends come to sup, Who look not upon wine when "it's red in the cup," Or if you are courting a person's daughter, We recommend highly our Apollinaris water, Which you'll find neither cheers nor inebriates, But beautifies, and at once your throat abates. Our business is on a cash basis planned, And no other trade we take on hand. Those who haven't got the cash Must seek elsewhere to purchase their hash! So we kindly beg and entreat The gay and festive dead-beat To pay our establishment by, For it is useless for him to try To get our goods in exchange for his check; For we can't allow his bill to run even a week. It would exhaust printer's ink to tell Of the great variety of goods we sell. Suffice it—all that man devoirs Is to be found in the well assorted stock of ours. Respectfully and truly, P. L. Bridgers & Co. Dec 29 1/2
