We wrote Gov. Garcelon, not George, and Miss Litta, not Letta.

The latest political speculation is that the Radicals will nominate "two horseback"-Grant and Longstreet. We would as lief help beat that ticket as any that could be named. We are not for shoulder straps, but for honest and capable

The news from the East may be summed up as follows, Russia absolutely declines to interfere in behalf of the Ameer, whilst the Shere Ali persists in his purpose to go to St. Petersburg. This opens up a new dilemma, the end whereof cannot now be clearly discerned.

-Bogardus shot at 2,680 balls, hitting every one. His arm became swollen and he began to shoot badly. That is in 3,000 shots he missed 13 balls. Kiernan then commenced shooting, and missed 7 balls out of 400. This. with the six balls missed on Wednesday, makes the match a tie between himself and Bogardus.

is in very precarious health. Since the death of her husband, George H. Lewes, she has so declined as to cause serious fears among her friends that she will not long survive. Can it be possible the great brain that has charmed the world with "Silas Marner," "Mill on the Floss," "Adam Bede,""Romola" and "Daniel Deronda," is to become asphyxiated forever, and that no more exquisite works of fiction are to come from that pen which has no rival? We hope not.

The Funeral Services Over Hon. Julian Hartridge.

(Richmond State Special, 10th.) The heart-broken wife of the late Representative Hartridge, of Georgia, arrived in time to witness the imposing funeral ceremonies and great respect paid to her deceased husband. At the suggestion of Senator Hamlin, of Maine, the Senate accepted the invitation of the House, and attended in a body the funeral services in the Representative chamber. Vice-Presdent Wheeler occupied a seat to the left of Speaker Randall, and the President and Cabinet and members of the Supreme Court were present. The remains were brought to the Capitol, followed by a long train of carriages, and placed upon a bier in front of the Speaker's chair. Chaplain Harrison, of the House, assisted by the Chaplain of the Senate, officiated. The desk of the deceased was draped in mourning, and upon it a sympathetic hand had placed a handsome basket of sweet flowers-japonicas, and calla lilies, and pendant vines. The scene was deeply impres-

Mr. Richardson, of Columbus asked a suspension of the rules to take up House bill No. 1, in Telation to the privilege tax on merchants. The bill amends section 12, chapter 156, laws of 1876-77, by striking out the words "$5 and." Mr. Jones, of Caldwell moved that it be referred to the Finance Committee. Mr. Rich-That great novelist, George Eliot, ardson opposed this, and advocated its speedy passage. A very animated and lengthy discussion ensued, in which many members participated. Mr. Carter, of Buncombe, offered an amendment that the special tax shall not apply to merchants doing business upon a capital of less than $1000. Being put to a vote it was lost. Mr. Rich then called the previous question. The ayes and nays | mas. were then demanded upon the bill, by Mr. Ellison, and it passed its second reading by the following

A resolution was introduced by Mr. Turner, asking that a committee of three be appointed to confer with the Attorney General in relation to charges against the late Judge R. M. Henry, in relation to his conduct in the matter of the compromise with Swepson in the trial of the case in that the rules be suspended and the bill be put upon its passage. The motion for suspension of the rules was adopted. A general discussion followed. Mr. Vaughan moved that the preamble be stricken out. Mr. Turner objected, as it was a matter of judicial history. Mr. Clarke favored a reference to the committee and that preamble stand. A vote upon the motion to strike out the premable was had and prevailed. The resolution was then adopted, the Speaker appointing Messrs. Turner, Lockhart and Foard as the com-

Amanda Jackson was in the hands of the law yesterday on two charges. Betty Borden alleged that the bellicose Amanda -with something of the spirit of "Old Hickory"-had pounded her with the outside of a bottle which, in strength, seemed to be something like that of the magicians in its yield of spirits: inexhaustible. Not only so, but after the aforesaid infliction, the belligerent threatened to kill the battered Betty on sight. ENJOY LIFE.—What a truly beautiful world we live in ! We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving up disheartened, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them as free from disease as when born. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect.

NOT MEDICINE BUT FOOD.—The fall and early winter season is the harvest time of hacking coughs and debilitating forms of Catarin, just as the later spring is the seed time of malarial fevers. To know a certain cure of the one, and a preventive of the other, is to have within our reach the most inestimable blessing of the period. We do know of them, for these marvellous properties are combined in SCOTT'S EMULSION OF PURE COD LIVER OIL with the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA. There is no form of physical waste and prestrated vitality that a bountiful use of the Emulsion will not change to glowing health and full life and vigor, and then it is not a disagreeable medicine, but the most delightful kind of food.
