The Southard army bill cuts down the staff impartially twenty per cent., and organizes the army into thirty-two regiments-twenty infantry, eight cavalry and four artillery. All officers over sixty-two are to be retired, but the time may be extended to sixty-five at the option of the President. The President, as the constitution intended, remains Commander-in-Chief. These are the main features of the bill that will probably pass the House.

When W. H. Vanderbilt, the railroad king, was called on for his taxes, his reply was that he owned no taxable personal property in excess of his debts. State Assessor Briggs says Mr. Vanderbilt told the truth. The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger gives the reasons:

"In this State the railroads are taxed by law as corporations, and stocks held in them cannot be assessed to individuals. Neither can the stocks of any corporation created under the laws of any other State be personally assessed or taxed to individ-uals in this State. Further, the law allows a person to change taxable into non-taxa-ble securities, and in this way he may es-

GOV. VANCE NOMINATED.

The nomination of Gov. Vance by acclamation in caucus is equivalent to his election. We trust the bitter waters of strife may be allayed henceforth, and that the Democratic party in North Carolina will be as one-united and solidified-until civil liberty and honest rule and local self-government are guaranteed against all forms of conspiracy and combinations and assaults. The strain has been terrible; the contest has been heated and angry. Let the dead past bury its dead. Now for victory in 1880. We congratulate the people upon the settlement of the difficulties. We congratulate the press that so stale, and yet so exciting a theme, has been thus lifted out of the way of legitimate discussion. Gov. Vance has the ability and experience to render North Carolina faithful and eminent service in the high arena to which he has been raised by the voice of party.

Frank Mordaunt, the actor, has disappeared from his home in New York, and his friends are alarmed.

- The steamship Raleigh, which cleared from Baltimore, for this port, Tuesday morning, had to put back on account of the ice. She will be detained until there is at least a partial thaw in the Patapsco river.

-- Wilmington failed to send delegates to the Convention of Northern men, which assembled in Charlotte yesterday. We are glad to know, however, that there were a goodly number of delegates from other parts of the State.

- We mentioned, a short time since, that there was a strong probability that the Carolina Central Railway and the citizens of Hickory would effect arrangements to build a branch road from Lincolnton to the former point. The Charlotte Observer says it has become a fixed fact.

- The seaman, Chas. W. Tower, whose bouts with Capt. Getchell, of the schooner Ralph House, we noticed yesterday, adjusted the judgments against him, quit the ship by consent of his captain, and, as he is a good mechanic, has resolved himself into a landsman. He is now certainly Tower-ing above the sea.

- We learn that our German friends intend having another of their pleasant balls at Germania Hall on Wednesday evening next. The affair has been placed in the hands of a committee that will insure a splendid time to all who may attend. A new feature will be introduced, due notice of which will be given in advertisement Sunday.

Mayor's Court. The Mayor's amiable face was more than usually benevolent-looking yesterday morning, on entering the municipal sanctum sanctorum, and but for the fact that he has a natural aversion to injustice, we should have argued hopefully for three disorderly sailors who were in the dock. But the inflexible magistrate heard the testimony and disposed of them thusly: Fred Crouse, fined $5 or ten days in the city prison; Sam Campbell, innocent and discharged; Charles Anderson, $5 or ten days in the basement. Sailors are so much afloat that we dislike to see them curtailed in their liberty ashere, but we had no money except a Chinese counterfeit piece, and had to see the boys basemented. John Watson, a West India cableist, and an old offender, was not so lucky. He was nappy by nature and in practice, being found asleep in a railroad car, and, on being aroused, became disorderly. He was quartered in the city prison for thirty days, without condi-

Removal of the Carolina Central

Railway Shops. The question of the removal of the Carolina Central Road shops from Laurinburg to Charlotte is being again agitated. We observe that Captain V. Q. Johnson, Superintendent of that improvement, was in the latter place and before the City Council, last Monday, when he stated that the company would make the change upon condition that Charlotte, in its corporate capacity, would give the company the sum of $20,000 and the land upon which to erect them. He read a letter from Mr. Edward Matthews, the owner of the majority of the bonds of the company, saying that if the city would contribute the amount already specified, the receivers had his consent to the removal; otherwise, the question of removal was left to their dis-

The Secretary of the Treasury has written a letter in regard to the lights carried by steam tugs, which will be of general interest to the owners of that class of vessels. He says each tug boat shall carrys a light on the stem of the vessel, instead of on the pilot house, as is now the custom; that such light must be screened so as to show from forward to two points abaft the beam on either side. The after light must show all around the horizon. When towing the law will be complied with by hang ing an additional light aft, two or three feet below the proper light, also showing all around the horizon, and from a flag staff of sufficient height put any where abaft the pilot house, and Jon one vend man, acid

Arrest of an Audacious Thief.

A colored boy who rejoices in the cognoman of George W. Johnson, was surprised and captured yesterday by Officer Henry Teitjen, of the police force, and committed to the city prison so that he may make his bow to Mayor Fishblate this morning. He was sought and found at the instance of Mr. Richard Cartiohn, a grocery keeper, cepted and ordered to be spread on the doing business on the corner of Front and Brunswick streets, beyond the shops of the W. & W. R. R. George visited Mr. Cartjohn, and, with something of the air of a prince (of darkness) gave lavish orders for sugar, cheese, crackers, etc., finishing the list of his wants with a call for brandy. Before the polite dealer could supply the latter demand, however, the ebony customer departed with the packages which had been wrapped up without depositing the usual pecuniary consideration. Johnson proved himself a fleet horse and as a reward will doubtless be well stabled before sundown.

Leonard Grover's famous comedy, "Our Boarding House," will hold the stage at the Opera House on the evening of the 23d, and the promise is that our theatregoers will have a most entertaining treat. The St. Louis Times, speaking of the play (where it. was produced last week; says: "Mr. Leonard Grover's very successful comedy, which was so well received here last season, was greeted with at least equal approbation at the Olympic Theatre last night. One or more of the types described in our 'Boarding House' may be visible in all large cities, and it is easy enough to pick up in various parts of the country an Elevator, a Shouter a Gillypod, or an Eligible, but the mass could hardly be agglomerated outside of the great city of extensiae enterprises. 'Our Boarding House' must be ranked as a first-class comedy; for its life is in its character-por-

Magistrate's Court.

Justice T. M. Gardner was somewhat busy yesterday in attending to a series of cases. James A. and J. M. Hewlett, indicted Lewis Spencer, colored, for trespass, and the defendant was required to pay a fine of $1 and costs in each case. A peace warrant had been also taken out against Spencer by J. A. Hewlett, and in this instance the Magistrate fixed the bond against the former, for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, at $100, when an assault and battery case, Hewlett vs. Spencer, was called but postponed until 8 o'clock this afternoon, when it will be heard, as also that of Jerry Hewlett against Isaac Spencer, the latter being charged with perjury.

The Spencers were sent to Sheriff Manning, but we understand they found bondsmen and did not, of course, go to jail.

The Case of Lewis Dorsey. Lewis H. Dorsey, the colored barber, an account of whose arrest was given in yesterday's STAR, and who was to appear before the Deputy Sheriff of Robeson, yesterday morning, gave the necessary bond of $100, to appear at the next term of the Superior Court of Robeson. In justice to Dorsey, it may be said he has always borne a good character in this city, and claims he can establish his innocence of the crime with which he is charged when brought to
