among the cattle in the county of York. England. - Favorable reports are received as to the condition of the British army in the East. --- The Russian army in the Balkan peninsula is suffering much from spotted typhus. - The majority report of the House Naval Committee censures ex-Secretary Robeson and his official associates, and says that they should receive punishment. - A five-year old child died of starvation in New York. -The Fall River American Print Works are embarrassed and ask for an extension of its notes; it owes $1,300,000. -- The Western Union Telegraph Company disclaims all responsibility for the loss of cipher telegrams. - New York markets: Money 21 per cent; cotton quiet at 94@94 cents; flour quiet and without change; wheat 1@1c better; coro, new 1 cent better, old quiet and unchanged; spirits turpentine firm at 30c; rosin steady at $1 40@1 421.

The Democrats in Congress are said not to harmonize, whilst the Radicals eling together with due fraternity of feeling. When the Democrats get control fully they will do better, for great is "the cohesive power of public plunder."

The bonded debt of New York city is only $114,102,291.37. There is no danger of repudiation. North Carolina-a great State-owes but $27,000,000--less than one-fourth, and yet our Legislators are afraid to even attempt to pay the interest or any part thereof.

The prospect is that all pensioners of the war of 1812 and the Mexican war, who were dropped on account of disloyalty, will have their names restored to the pension list. It is said that twenty per cent. of the number of pensions now paid by the government are improperly obtained by false swearing or personation, or other frauds.

The outlook for Wilmington is improving. The Senate has passed by a large majority a bill granting aid to the Railroad from Greensboro to Ore Knob. The House has passed the bill favoring the road known as the Cape Fear & Yadkin Railroad. If the House now passes the former and the Senate the latter bill, one important act of legislation will have been perfected.

That greatest of living Southern authors, Dr. James C. Southall, of Virginia, has recently had a paper prepared by him read before the Philosophical Society of Great Britain. The Richmond Dispatch says:

"The subject of the paper was, 'The Lapse of Time Since the Glacial Epoch, Determined by the Date of the Polished-Stone Age.' The view presented is original with Dr. Southall and very striking, and it is argued with great learning and ability. The paper was well received by the Philosophical Society, and excited much favorable comment. A full report will appear in the published proceedings."

Those papers that are fighting "retrenchment and reform" will be in a strong position for the fight in 1880, when the Democratic party is reminded of its pledges in the past. The idea of some papers appears to be that because a man seeks office and gets it, he must at once be paid three or four times as much as he would be for the same amount of work and responsibility in every day life. Why the servant should get more than the master we cannot exactly see.

Bayard Taylor was twice married, a fact only known to a few of his friends. His first wife died of consumption six weeks after they were married. She was a Miss Agnew and was quite pretty. They were long engaged. The New York Times

"When it became evident that she could not live it was decided that they should be married, and she arose from her bed by an effort of will, and, buoyed up by excitement, went through the ceremony. She then returned to her bed, and never left it again, dying six weeks afterwards in her husband's arms. She was buried at Longwood, the name of a meeting house and graveyard of the Progressive Friends, in Chester county, twenty-five miles from Philadelphia. There Bayard Taylor's remains will be laid, along with those of other members of his family."

- The Madison (Wis.) Democrat of a recent date, says: "Among the recent Northern settlers in and around Charlotte. N. C., who have testified to their kind reception in the South, and to the quietness prevailing among all classes in that region, is W. J. F. Liddell, now an iron manufacturer at Charlotte. He will be remembered by many of the citizens of Madison county as a resident here ten years ago, and was formerly of Erie, Pa. He removed from Madison to Depere, as a supposed better manufacturing point. The single assertion of such a man is worth more than the brawling of a whole regiment of interested

At the meeting of the Democrats of the Third Ward the resolution petitioning the continuance of the present Board in office was unanimously adopted, and the part concerning the conditional resignations of the present Aldermen laid on the table. A resolution requesting that the city Executive Committee petition the Legislature to continue the present Board of Audit and Finance in office for another term was also adopted. Judge Meares on the Bench-His Charge to the Jury-Cases Disposed of Resterday. This tribunal convened yesterday, at 10 o'clock, Judge Meares presiding. We append the list of Grand Jurors for the February term: C. G. Southerland, Foreman; George M.

Crapon, John Maunder, Alonzo Hewlett, John W. Perdue, J. W. Johnson, Nicholas Morris, Iredell Johnson, Moses D. Motte. George Leonard, John R. Latta, Louis Davis, Alex. Moore, Henry Shepard, Jesse Lowe, Wm. Kellogg, Jas. P. Walton and Thomas Ennett. After they had been sworn in, the Judge

delivered his charge. It was incisive against crime, but a clear, dispassionate, forceful statement of law andifacts-a handbook or guide, with the lines of duty so distinctly developed that it will be difficult for either the interests of the State or of individuals to suffer from the action of a jury with such a chart before them.

After recessing the Court reassembled, the following petit jury is service: Benj. White, Ro. White, W. H. Clark, Washington Burkhemer, D. J. Gilbert, R. F. Eyden, John Casteen, B. F. Turlington, Ellis Patrick, G. W. Wiggs, C. B. Futch, Edmund Jones, W. A. Jordan, C. L. Burkhemer.

Pistolical Excitement. Considerable excitement was created yesterday afternoon by a report that Capt. Wm. J. Penton had been shot and dangerously wounded. We are glad to correct that rumor. It is stated to us that Capt. Penton was engaged by Capt. Buchan, of the British bark North Carolina, to finish up his crew for him, and that while Capt. Penton was on his way to the bark with two seamen, who vowed they would not ship on any other vessel, he was accosted by Capt. C. F. Gilbert, in a very excited tone, with these words, "What have you taken my men for?" It was alleged in Justice J. C. Hill's office that Capt. G. immediately thereafter drew a revolver and fired at Capt. P., at a distance of about four feet, and that the blaze from the pistol burnt the latter's face. After recovering his self-possession and discovering that the sailors with him had stopped Capt. G in an attempt to assault him with the weapon a second time, and without any hostile demonstration on Capt. P.'s part, the latter applied for and obtained a warrant against Capt. Gilbert, who was required to give and gave, a bond of $200 for his appearance at the present term of the Criminal Court.

This is the affair, and the facts, as we are informed; elicited by the investigation before Justice Hill. We are really glad that it is not half so bad as busy rumor made it appear, and that nobody is really Revenue Case. United States Commissioner Edward Cantwell yesterday made the following ruling in case No. 8, United States vs. Britt & Luther, from Robeson county:

The revenue laws require every person engaged in the business of retailing liquors to have a license so to do, but it is not necessary that the license shall contain the names of every person or any person engaged under such license, provided the names of all acting under it are known to the Collector and registered with him, and any person so registered may retail liquor at one place under the same liceuse. Democratic Meeting at Rocky Point A Democratic meeting was held in this Township, Pender county, on Saturday last, Jeseph H. Westbrook presiding, and Jas. F. Moore acting as Secretary, with a view of recommending a successor to F. Gemburg, Esq., as Magistrate. Thomas H. McLenden, Esq., was the unanimous choice of the meeting for the successorship. Dinbeliem-Coroner's Inquest. Special Coroner A. H. Leslie was called upon to hold an inquest, last Sunday, over the body of a colored girl about eight years eld-an orphan-who had been, for some time previous to her death, living with Sarah Allen, a colored woman who was residing on the corner of Eleventh and Wooster streets. The facts elicited were of the most heinous nature. It appeared in evidence that the little girl, Julia Ann Williams, had not only been beaten in a most outrageous and brutal manner, but also subjected to exposure which, of itself, duced death. The accomplice in these transactions was Virginia Ann Hines, and it is not overdrawing the mangled condition of the child's body to say that it was exceptional to find any part of it without marks of savage treatment. The post mortem examination indicated that death was produced jointly by the beating and exposure, and Coroner Leslie sent the two fiendish females to jail. The facts are of a character to make it certain that they will be tried for mnrder, and it is difficult to see how they can escape gibbeting.

Lewis Spencer, charged with perjuiy, was required by the same Justice to give $50 bond to answer before the same tribunal, which he did, having waived an examination of the case.

In the case of State vs. Mary Stewart, charged with assault and battery on Laura Haggett, she was found sufficiently guilty to make a bond of $100 necessary to certify her appearance at the present term of Judge Meares' Court, in default of which she went to jail.

Attempted Incendiarism.

A young gentleman, returning home last evening about 9 o'clock, discovered a blaze under a small unoccupied house on the south side of Chesnut, between Third and Fourth streets. The flames were extinguished and Capt. Fitzgerald, of the police force, notified of the occurrence. He repaired to the spot and found that several boards had been wrenched from the piazza, broken into small pieces, piled together and then fired as if with the systematic purpose of having a conflagration. It was fortunate, indeed, that the purpose of the villains was checkmated at such an opportune period of the game.

Mayor's Court. Thomas Hines was before this Court, yesterday, with the appendage of d. c. to his name, and the Mayor agreed to strike it off if he would pay $5, otherwise he would have to extinguish the city claim by ten days in the C. P.

Chas. Dewitt, d. c., was fined $2.50 or five days in the C. P., and he paid up. Jane Fulford and Mary Anderson, colored, were arrested on the charge of "wooding up" from the vicinity of the gas house. However, as no prosecutor appeared and the wood was not identified. they were released on bond for their apear ance when wanted.

- Raleigh Friend of Temperance: Mr. Lamb, the faithful and efficient Representative from Duplin, has introduced bill in the House asking for convict labor to drain Angola Bay, which lies in Duplin and Pender counties, and which covers 70,000 acres of the public lands. No money is asked for, but simply a few of the convicts with which to do the work. If drained these lands would be worth tens of thousands of dollars to the school fund of North Carolina, as they would at once

Davis, of the Presbyterian Church, who left his home in Salisbury in September, 1874, to enter upon the missionary work in China, was married about six weeks ago in the city of Soo Chow, to a daughter of another missionary, sent out by the Northern Presbyterian Church. — The Royal Arch Masons of Charlotte had a very enjoyable banquet in Masonic Temple last night, and were addressed according to appointment. Just before the supper, at the suggestion of one of the members, a collection was taken up for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, and the sum of $13 was contributed by those present. — The Richmond & Danville Railroad has changed the method of paying its engineers. Instead of receiving salaries they are now paid according to the mileage made per month,
